DRAG NIGHT '70

Luella Parkons

If it hadn't been my night for plunging hat pins into my Heda doll, I'd have happily attended the opening of the MAGIC GARDEN, courageously located on HAIGHT STREET, at number 1840 off Stanyon.

I was most charmed into accepting an informal luncheon-interview with co-owner Barry Ulrich later, however. From the time I was greeted at the door by Maitre'd/co-owner Herb Schmidt, and his beautiful blue eyes, through a sumptuous lunch of tea-sandwiches (prepared by the sensual hands of chef John) and beer, I couldn't have been more delighted with the impressingly refreshing garden mood, and handsome waiter Jerry.

Facinating craftsmanship and decorating achieve a splendid romantic atmosphere in the spring green and white dinner and brunch parlours. Third co-owner Bill Lowenthal compliments the cocktail bar with admirable masculine charm.

Perfect host Barry attributed the accomplishment to the dedicated staff and numerous loyal artisan friends, who donated many laborious hours. The club is fortunate in having booked JOSE for an indefinite engagement with appearances friday and saturday nights at 10:30 and during brunch on weekends (when he is not serving tables...on ROLLER-SKATES!) His sunday shows are at 5 and 9p.m., and brilliantly introduce Jose and a marvelous new image (face-lift? No, just heavier pancake!). The Garden serves dinner week nights from 6 until 11, brunch saturday and sunday from 11 until 4 and a special sunday buffet for an unbelievable $1.00.

THERE IS MAGIC IN THE GARDEN!

Speaking of that clever-naughty lady, Jose, she had the crass to solicite the police chief for her motor escort on transvest-night. The only Empress to redeem her respectibility, she will tour the clubs, with badged entourage, in what is whispered as a preliminary introduction to running for public office.... which seat of authority, she is not divulging to tight-mouthed Luella. Aim high this time, Jose honey!

All fanciers of Mexican food will delight at the new menu of spicy delights at GRECO'S, 1335 Grant Avenue. Chef DON HART prepares his authentic plates from 6p.m. until 2a.m., monday thru saturday. A decidedly fine addition to the clubs policy of cocktail-dancing, under black-light (get those white sweat shirts and tennies in a bleach-wash kids).

The LION, Sacramento & Divisadero, believes in putting on a fresh new face often and didn't stop with just one face, but a multitude of beautiful wall-HUNG male personalities. Lion management has shown exceptional endorcement of ADZ-GAYZETTE and have introduced more club patrons to the publication this week than any other club. The friendliest cocktail stop (at 65¢ with warm smile) from 5-9, is the LION. LISTEN TO LUELLA!

This girl is dying to survey what has been announced via the soup line as the largest, most complete dinner menu in town. The place is the EARLY BIRD, 1723 Polk, and chef of aclaim, ADRIAN.

GOLD STREET, 56 Gold Street, in addition to participation in Witch's night, offers shelter to night owls and goblins 'til 5 a.m. sunday and will cater a special breakfast for weary merri-makers and glamorously costumed die-hards.

A once very busy gay nite spot has recently reopened, and offers an exciting and different buffet menu nightly, monday thru saturday. $1.50 buys all your waistline can stand at the 199 Valencia Street home of the SATURNALIA.

The PARADOX, 3041 Geary, the center of dance and frolic among the GAY-JETS last year, will re-open Oct. 30 with hostess "Perry" fluttering over the festivities, including dancing.& (sur)prizes.

This is Luella saying goodbye for now from the city that made AA what it is today and, tends an annual flower garden of EMPRESSES.

dear john:

DEAR JOHN,
My lover & myself are very different in domestic attitudes. I like a house to be clean & neat at all times. He says it should look like it's been lived in. Sometimes I feel we're the ODD COUPLE on TV. What can I do??
Mr. KLEEN

DEAR MR. KLEEN,
Next time you go to bed, wear old odorous pajamas and tell him it's because you like the feeling that they're "LIVED IN". He'll get the hint.
JOHN

DEAR JOHN,
I have no trouble relating to people socially but my lover is usually withdrawn. As soon as we leave a party, he begins telling me all the wrongs I committed conversation wise. There is little basis for this argument, since I am extremely considerate and a likable guy. So what's bugging him
DIVORCE BOUND

DEAR DIVORCE BOUND,
Borrow a portable tape recorder & after the next party, tape all he says about your conversations. At the next party, replay the tape for all to hear. He will no longer bug you after parties! Of course chances are he won't talk to you at all so you'll have to write me again for further advice.
JOHN

DEAR JOHN,
My lover & I get along very well in all ways but one. He likes to do household chores in the nude. I don't think he should. What do you think??
NOTANUDER

DEAR NOTANUDER,
I think it's fine as long as he wears an apron when he cooks bacon..
JOHN

If you care to write JOHN, Send your letter to ADZ P.O. BOX 27306 S.F. CA. 94127 Attn JOHN.

A THOUGHT

GAY COMMUNITY HOUSE

What Gay Community house is at this very moment is preperation.. The idea started with Gay Rap, which was merely to talk with Gay males & females about problems. It was to let people come to us and not have to admit defeat thereby going to a shrink. This was being done by BETTY KAPLOWITZ & CHARLES THORPE. A house that would meet the basic needs of the community such as food, shelter, clothing and medical help was offered and since it has been a dream of mine for some time, I took up the challenge.

Now Gay Rap exists, but the future of GAY COMMUNITY HOUSE is in hands of people like yourselves

We need people who can fix an electric typewriter or donate one. We need people to help us with our answering sevice and plan a benefit at california hall. We need Gay people and their ideas. This is an all GAY activity that needs your support.

If you can help, call 931-3939 or write:
CHARLES P THORPE
