Endorsements

The editorial staff of the B.A.R., in conjunction with publisher Bob Ross, met October 8 to recommend the superior candidates for Supervisor in the November 8 election.

The criteria were several: How does the candidate respond to Human Rights and, in particular, Gay Rights and Gay Issues (i.e. the Gay Center; anti-discrimination ordinances to include sexual orientation in hiring, housing and public accommodations; appointment of Gays to City commissions and panels; funding for Gay services and the Gay Day Parade). For incumbents, what has been their record vis a vis Gay Rights (not words, but action and accomplishments). For Gay candidates, what has been their record of responsibility and accountability. In addition, what candidate would best represent the interests of their particular district.

We did not select from either a "throw the bums out" attitude or stick with the old guard. We found some incumbents superior to challengers and some newcomers preferable to incumbents - and we followed no party line.

We were aware that we did not know enough about all 137 candidates, that certain districts (i.e. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6) concerned us more than others, and that some choices were simple (i.e. District 6) and a few most difficult - if not painful (i.e. District 3).

Finally, we have always believed that competent and responsible Gay persons should be sitting on the Board of Supervisors.

Civil Service.

PROP. L: YES
Chief administrative officer's executive assistant: Similar to Prop. K.

PROP. M: YES
Fire department promotional exam: Sponsored by Fire Commission and Civil Service Commission in efforts to counter effects of racial discrimination in the exams.

PROP. N: YES
Public works contract: Raises limits of construction/repair/improvement work city employees can perform to $10,000; previously outside contractors were hired beyond $5,000.

PROP. O: YES
Progressive payments: Would permit city to use more flexible method of paying contractors as they complete partial amounts of their projects.

PROP. P: YES
Official advertising: Would permit the city to place official advertising in newspapers publishing at least three times a week. Effectively a private relief bill for the SF PROGRESS, but this is a step in the right direction.

PROP. Q: NO
Electricians' salary demands: Results from an anti-labor Prop. O passed last November which requires that voters accept or reject the final contract demands made by any city employee union if the city and unions don't reach an agreement before a mid-March deadline. The result is the political position, from voters having to decide on an issue involving negotiations in which they have played no part - and having to vote on demands which, were negotiations to continue, the unions would probably be willing to lower in collective bargaining.

PROP. R: NO
Plumbers' salary demands: Similar to Prop. Q.

PROP. S: NO
Sheet metal workers' salary demands: Similar to Prop. Q.

PROP. U: NO
International Hotel: Would make the city purchase the I-Hotel, bring the building up to code and transfer it to the Housing Authority for use as low-rent housing. The symbolic point has been made. Better housing for the elderly is a must, but foisting a particular building on the city, planners, and elderly is not the solution.

PROP. V: YES
Fleishacker Pool: Would establish a city policy of restoring and renovating the huge pool near the SF Zoo. The alternative plan is for the Recreation and Park Department to turn the site into a parking lot, which would be an outrage.

PROP. W: YES
Billboards: Would make it city policy to phase out billboards, allowing time for the billboard owners to recover their investment, with full amortization of costs over seven to ten years. Visual pollution is not a constitutional

District 6 Forgery Charged

The signatures of some of the ballot sponsors for a candidate for supervisor in District 6 may have been forged, the San Francisco's district attorney's office said yesterday.

District Attorney Joseph Freitas said his office will go into Superior Court this morning to get a restraining order to stop the registrar of voters from counting votes cast for candidate Robert Vidaurri, a student.

"A preliminary investigation by my office has determined that ten of the 20 names appearing on Mr. Vidaurri's (ballot) sponsor's certificates are forged and fraudulent," Freitas said.

The problem came to light when a woman listed in the voter's handbook as one of Vidaurri's sponsors called the registrar to complain that she had not authorized use of her name.

Vidaurri said in a prepared statement that "out of respect for all other candidates for supervisor in San Francisco and particularly those candidates within District 6, I hereby withdraw my name from the list of candidates for supervisor."

Vidaurri's withdrawal reduces the number of candidates in District 6 to 13. The leading contenders in the district are Carol Ruth Silver and Larry Del Carlo. Vidaurri's stepping aside is not expected to affect the outcome of the race.

Senator Briggs anti-gay initiative sinks.

Withdrawal Of Briggs Initiative

In an attempt to save face, homophobe Sen. John Briggs (R - Fullerton) announced Wednesday that a State Attorney General's administrative foul-up forced him to delay his drive to place an initiative on next year's ballot. Briggs plan would ban admitted homosexuals from teaching in public schools.

"The reasons go deeper," said Paul Hardman, Chairman of Pride Foundation. Pending before the State Supreme Court is a Pride Foundation suit which claims the wording on circulating petitions differed substantially from the body of the initiative. Rather than risk a court ruling that the initiative was unconstitutional (a denial of freedom of speech), Briggs is suspending his campaign.

So too, two-thirds of the required signatures had yet to be gathered with only 30 days remaining. In other words, the drive had stalled.

United Press filed the following story from a Briggs press conference:

"Briggs said his supporters failed to print on 800,000 circulated petitions the required words 'provides for filing charges, hearings (and) judicial review.'

"Briggs said he will be forced to start collecting signatures again.

"Briggs previously had hoped to get enough valid signatures to place the measure on the June 6 ballot, but now says he is shooting for next November's ballot.

"The senator blamed state Attorney General Evelle Younger's office for the foul-up. He claimed that the seven words were omitted from a news release when the declaration of title for the act was announced by Younger's office.

"A spokesman for the attorney general said it was true that the words were left out of the press release, but added that they were included in all official correspondence regarding the initiative drive, including the title and summary, when sent to Secretary of State March Fong Eu.

"Briggs said rather than fighting to retain the legal language of the initiative, he would re-submit the title's legal language.

"He said he collected slightly less than one-third of the 312,000 signatures he would have needed by Dec. 2 to qualify his initiative for the April primary election ballot. The petitions started circulating last Oct. 1."

Said Hardman, "The real reason is that the initiative is defective. Briggs himself admitted he did not want it to go before Rose Bird."

CITY ATTORNEY

JIM REILLY has practiced law in San Francisco for the past 25 years and has a long record of helping Gays who couldn't afford to hire legal help. Back in the 60's and early 70's, long before it was fashionable to court Gays, Reilly was known to put his reputation and legal practice on the line to go into court and fight for Gay causes. Reilly told me recently that he considered it nothing more than "discrimination" that the City refuses to allocate funds from its Hotel Tax Fund to help sponsor the annual Gay Freedom Day Parade in San Francisco, and promised that if elected he would advise the City to grant such funds. Jim Reilly has earned our support.

CITY TREASURER

KAY PACHTNER is a consumers' advocate with a knowledge of economics that speaks well of her qualifications to be City Treasurer. Pachtner has actively sought Gay support in this campaign, and while serving as director of Consumer Action, which she founded, Pachtner chose a Gay woman and a Gay man as two of her first three Consumer Action staff members. Kay Pachtner has spoken out in support of City funding for health, social and recreational services for Gay people, and her election would bring a fresh, welcome, needed change of direction in the City Treasurer's office.

SUPERVISOR - DIST. 4

BARRY KING, a 35 year old housing specialist, has run an impressive campaign for Supervisor in District 4 and is given a good chance of winning. Coupled with the expected election of Harvey Milk in District 5, the election of King would give the Gay community a long overdue strong voice on the new Board. King faces a tough fight to win this seat, but he is campaigning hard, has a good campaign going, and has picked up support from both Gay and straight voters in his District. We need King on the new Board, and I urge those in District 4 to support him by voting for him on November 8.

SUPERVISOR - DIST. 5

HARVEY MILK has greatly improved chances of election with the endorsement of the BAY GUARDIAN last week and the SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE this week. It speaks well for Milk that two papers with wide differences of political

Editorial

The S.F. EXAMINER issued a no endorsement in District 5 which is one way of saying no one is preferable to Harvey Milk. The BAY GUARDIAN, THE SENTINEL, the B.A.R., the NOE VALLEY VOICE have all heartily endorsed Milk which might have been expected.

However, did we ever dream we'd see the day when the SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE, the "vox populi" as it sees itself, would endorse a Gay candidate? Did we ever dream that a man who marched in the streets with his people, thundered against the power brokers, challenged the establishment would be cloaked in the CHRONICLE's mantle of respectability?

The CHRONICLE editorial staff never ceases to recommend what it thinks best for San Francisco. And on November 1, 1977, they concurred that Harvey Milk would be the best for his district, and good for San Francisco.

A sociological sound barrier has been shattered!

Milk in District 5

THE SUPERVISORIAL RACE in the Fifth District (Upper Market/Haight) is one of the most hotly contested of all, with 17 candidates seeking the voters' approval. The Chronicle's choice in the district is Harvey Milk.

A Castro street small businessman, Milk has long been active in community affairs, and particularly in those affecting the district. In addition, he has experience as a financial analyst, having worked for firms on both Wall street and Montgomery street, which would stand him in good stead in a supervisor's duty of analyzing the city budget.

Milk ran for the Board of Supervisors in 1973 and has since appeared before the board on many occasions to speak on issues of his particular concern, such as upgrading public transportation, lower taxi fares, and expansion of the public library system.

He would be an effective addition to the board, and The Chronicle urges a vote for Harvey Milk.

views both agree he is the best candidate. After extensive interviews with all 17 candidates in this District, the CHRONICLE felt that the election of Milk on November 8 over all the others, both Gay and straight, was in the City's best interests. Harvey Milk is a man who has been a champion for Gay rights and, unlike one of his other main Gay opponents who has attempted to buy this election, deserves the support of us all. Elect a fighter on election day - Harvey

CAROL RUTH SILVER has earned the support of all Gays and those living in District 6 would do themselves a disservice to consider anyone else. I cannot speak strongly enough for this woman; she was there every damned time we needed her. It is ironic that her main opponent has a past record of being unfriendly to Gays, yet some Gays have now bought his "repentance" story and are supporting him. Actions speak much louder than words, and the actions of Carol Ruth Silver in being our friend in one cause after another speak much louder than the words of her opponent who has suddenly become aware of the Gay vote in the western part of District 6 and now wants to be our friend. Vote for Carol Ruth Silver for Supervisor - she needs our support and has earned it!

John Molinari

On request, John Molinari's office provided the following piece of legislation to protect the rights of Gay people, including:

a. 12A forbidding discrimination in city employment.
b. 12B forbidding discrimination by those who have contracts with the city.
c. 12C forbidding discrimination by those having leases with the city.

John Molinari was one of the first candidates to seek SIR's endorsement, advertise in its publications and openly use that endorsement citywide.

John Molinari has been the author of every single piece of legislation to protect the rights of Gay people, including:

a. 12A forbidding discrimination in city employment.

b. 12B forbidding discrimination by those who have contracts with the city.

c. 12C forbidding discrimination by those having leases with the city.

John Molinari authored the resolution urging the Florida Legislature to pass anti-discrimination legislation. He actively supported AB 1302 to ban discrimination in all of California. He authored the resolution opposing the Briggs Initiative. He actively supports the Gay Community Center. John is one of only two Supervisors who oppose the building of a city garage on the site of the Gay Community Center. He favors the use of the Hotel Tax to fund the Gay Freedom Parade.

Sheriff Richard Hongisto said Supervisor Molinari is "a leader in San Francisco who has fought to protect the rights of every person to live his or her lifestyle without harassment or discrimination."

Gordon Brownell, West Coast Coordinator, National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws, said, "John Molinari has been the most active proponent of marijuana decriminalization on the Board of Supervisors. His leadership in working for changes in the marijuana laws and their enforcement in San Francisco stand in healthy contrast to the majority of his colleagues on the Board who do not share his responsiveness to the clearly stated views of the San Francisco voters on this issue. John Molinari is the only incumbent I am supporting for reelection and I do so wholeheartedly."

The Men in My Life

Championship Season

by Paul-Francis Hartmann

Seventeen candidates are vying for support in District 5 (we take this as a healthy climate for a participating democracy). At least 10 are Gay or Gay-oriented (we take this as highly significant - as the large Gay vote in the Castro, Haight-Ashbury and Noe Valley warrants representation). Who best can and will do this is both the mystery and the bone of contention in District 5. It's down to the wire, and nobody's picking a winner.

The shake-down phase of the campaign has passed, and only two Gay-oriented candidates now stand a chance of winning - Harvey Milk or Rick Stokes. No other Gay-committed candidate has captured the imagination of the voters. At this point - like it or not - the Supervisor John Molinari campaigning in North Beach. "There is still much to be done to remove government and discrimination from our private lives."

Gil Graham has a law degree from Harvard and did graduate work in the Public Administration program at the London School of Economics. However, he has dedicated his life to public service - serving as chief counsel of the San Francisco Neighborhood Legal Assistance Foundation.

While many attorneys were making large sums in private practice, Graham chose to help the disenfranchised - gay people, the elderly, children. He has fought against slumlords and consumer fraud. Early in his campaign he announced his support of gay rights. He openly states this position in his campaign literature.

TOKLAS: What Is the Club About? How Does Toklas Endorse?

The Alice B. Toklas Memorial Democratic Club was chartered in 1972 by the California Democratic Council. Among its membership are several elected state and local officials. Membership dues for the remainder of 1977 and all of 1978 are $10. Meetings, open to the public, are held the second Monday of every month. For more information, write P.O. Box 11316, San Francisco 94101, or phone 861-4881.

The gay-oriented Toklas Democratic Club sent out extensive advance questionnaires to all the candidates for supervisor. Responses were reviewed for the membership. Pro and con arguments were presented on all propositions.

The club requires 60% approval before any candidate is endorsed. This year, for the first time in its six-year history, the club also required a 60% approval for a position on propositions. Over 130 of the 250 members voted at the endorsement meetings.

- Propositions receiving over 50% (but not the required 60%) were as follows:
A - Recreation & Park Bonds - 58% Yes
B - Fire Department Bonds - 51% Yes
G - Budget Reductions - 56% No

baker's dozen are "also his own campaign too hard runs." They persist out of and too fast. Rick has his either rigid application, run for him. The busy bee blindness, or contrariness versus the noiseless (all of which would be patient spider. Or Harvey righteously denied, but it can be offensive, Rick can be viewed in no other offenseless. One grabs; way). They have been the other barely touches. unable to ignite or to convince a major constituency, nor able to raise the money or the workers.

They forget that one of the political ingredients is sportsmanship. That when bandy "ad nauseum" . . . a victory is out of reach to magnanimously turn aside and put another fellow over the top. Tenacity is a virtue, while pig-headedness is a vice.

If all the jostling and advocacy result in handing District 5 to an anti-Gay the dark horse, Gay liberation will have suffered a setback. In San Francisco we have reached that threshold when we can put one of our own into the spotlight of public office. Whoever that will be will receive national - international - attention; and our slow march for rights and justice will advance world-wide. It would be a quantum leap.

At this point, a major difference between Stokes and Milk comes down to a difference in style. The activist versus the worker. Others would put it in "headline grabber" versus "blank face in the crowd." Or Harvey running closure?" The extreme caricature of each man would be a Willy Loman in one corner and a Caspar Milquetoast in the other.

We believe the times tip the balance. If we're sending up our first champion, let us enter the oversized candidate rather than the underweight one. A trailblazer. In the last analysis, "behind the scenes" still reads "in the closet." Behind the scenes is where the Bryants, Briggs and Barbagelatas struggle to keep us.

We can elect a Rick Stokes. We should elect a Harvey Milk.

Election Eve Muni Boondoggle Port Giveaway

Carol Ruth Silver, supervisorial candidate in District 6 (Mission, Lower Noe Valley and South of Market), issued the following statement at her press conference held at the site of the No. 59 Powell and Mason Cable Car Line turnaround on the corner of Bay and Taylor Streets at 9:30am on Tuesday, Nov. 1.

"On the eve of the election of a new District

Carol Ruth Silver rides in the Gay Day Parade between Assemblymen Willie Brown and Art Agnos.

Board of Supervisors, an attempt is being made to sneak through this unbelievable boondoggle - the three million dollar, three block long, extension of the Powell and Mason Cable Car Line in the Fisherman's Wharf area.

"The S.F. Port Authority has now scheduled to hear this item on Election Day, Nov. 8. The Port is being asked by the Muni to all but donate land valued at up to $90 per sq. foot or more than $500,000 for the site of the proposed cable car turnaround on the corner of Jefferson and Taylor Streets.

"As a taxpayer and a candidate for the Board, it angers me that I have to take time away from my campaign to speak out against this double boondoggle: First against spending three million taxpayer dollars to benefit special interests and second, for the nearly broke Port Authority to attempt is being made to sneak through this valuable, revenue producing property in such an obvious squander.

"And all of this being done on the eve of the election of the new District Board of Supervisors is a blatant attempt to circumvent the new Board's functions.

"I call on the Port Commissioners to reject the Muni's request. I call upon the citizens of this City to write to the Port Commissioners and demand that they live up to their responsibility to protect the interests of the Port and to keep it financially sound."

Silver's opposition to the cable car extension has been supported by articles in the S.F. EXAMINER, the S.F. PROGRESS, by columnist Dick Nolan, as well as a Sept. 8 editorial in the EXAMINER.

Carol Ruth Silver Statement On Gay Issues

I supported and actively worked for repeal of the laws criminalizing homosexual behavior, both as an individual lawyer and through the San Francisco Bar Association's Barriers Club Non-Victim Crime Committee.

While his legal counsel, I supported and aided the efforts of Sheriff Richard D. Hongisto to better the lot of Gays in the County Jail.

I have been a long-time member of the Alice B. Toklas Memorial Democratic Club.

I aided the Gay community by serving as election officer for community elections to the Gay Health Board.

I have participated in the Gay Freedom Day Parade for at least the past three years.

I support legislation outlawing employment discrimination against Gays.

Marks Endorses Milk

October 24, 1977

Dear Friends,

I have held public office for many years. In that time - and, especially now, with district elections - I have been asked by numerous candidates for my endorsement. I have seldom done so. I am endorsing HARVEY MILK because he is an exceptional candidate. As you know, he is running for Supervisor in your district number 5, which is a non-partisan position.

I have watched the career of Harvey Milk for some time. What has impressed me is not only how hard he has fought for issues, but also that he has proven his independence.

Issues change. People's views change. What does not change is a person's integrity and independence. Harvey has both. When you add his articulation, leadership and responsiveness to his other qualities, you have the makings of a great Supervisor. So few people have that combination.

I urge you to support his candidacy in every way possible. I hope you will work for his campaign and that you will ask others to do the same. For our city's future, please vote for an exceptional person - HARVEY MILK.

Sincerely,

Milton Marks
