NEW FAR RIGHT FASCISTS....!

'Thou shall vote for ...!'

from Prairie Fire

The New Far Right (NFR) has grown into a politically potent force in 1980 electoral politics. In recent months the mass media rediscovered the New Right after a three year hiatus. Christian leader Jerry Falwell of Moral Majority became Newsweek's cover story. Harper's Magazine looked at the 700 Club, Pat Robertson's million dollar a-week enterprise. Sixty Minutes interviewed both evangelists for its story on the Christian Broadcasting Network. Local newspapers printed a number of editorials and articles on the New Far Right and its ties with various candidates. The multi-million dollar fundraising business of New Rightist Richard Viguerie and the candidate/organization education program of fundraiser Paul Weyrich (who gave funds to Dennis McQuaid and Bill Royer in local races here) also have been scrutinized in the mass media. These men represent part of an intricate web of interlocking organizations. (See diagram on page 2). Their goal is to gather and channel money and support to an number of carefully selected conservative candidates, and to promote legislation which they term "Pro-Family" or "Pro-American."

The New Far Right's concentration on emotional issues has generated widespread support throughout the country, and influenced the outcomes of several elections.

Aside from the "Pro-Family/Pro-American label, the complete platform" of the NFR is basically negative. It is a platform that is anti-busing, anti-union, anti-abortion, anti-ERA, anti-welfare, anti-gay rights, anti-food stamps, anti-Salt II, anti-gun control, and against diplomatic relations with the People's Republic of China. The New Far Right would like to see massive tax cuts in the upper income brackets, a beefed up military, greater reliance upon nuclear power, deregulation of business, capital punishment and prayer in public schools. The New Far Right's program fails the test of logical consistency. For example the NFR opposition to abortion is based upon their belief in the sanctity of all life born and unborn. Yet their advocacy of capital punishment seems to imply that condemnation by a court of law supercedes the convict's right to life. Another example of the NFR inconsistency can be found in their advocacy of a simultaneous increase in defense spending, balanced budget and tax cut. These inconsistencies and others have been publicized by the mass media. Ironically, the NFR craves any and all publicity, positive or negative. In its own publications, the NFR attempts to generate a sense of commitment and membership by portraying mass media as a tool of the dictating liberal establishment. Through its control of the press and broadcast news, that liberal establishment has misled the American people with half-truths and promoted wrong things. Insinuations of conspiracy abound in the literature of the New Right. The NFR view is that an entire group of secular humanists (presumably educated in the East) have betrayed the country and sold America down the river.

Liberals may find the inconsistencies in NFR so staggering that they cannot grasp the appeal of the movement. Liberals often condescend to the NFR. Liberals forget that American history is checkered with eras when simple, emotionally satisfying solutions to the issues of the day have received solid support. These historical eras were characterized by rapid social change and a sense of national and personal instability. I believe these traits characterize this era as well. Inspired by Richard Hofstadter's fine essay, "The Paranoid Style in American Politics," I submit the following scenario. I hope it will demonstrate the emotional? logic which fuels the New Far Right. The times at hand seem out of control. U.S. diplomats are hostage in Iran, inflation is rampant. An energy crisis looms on the horizon. (continued page 2)

BOYCOTT COORS

The article, "New Far Right Fascists...!" and the graph on page 2, shows just how powerful the radical right-wing has become. And in seven of the groups listed in the graph on page 2, Joseph Coors is a member in 7 of them. Seven of the most powerful right-wing groups which are out to destroy all that we have gained in the past years. To try and pass legislation to govern our morals (and in certain peoples and groups cases maybe that wouldn't be such a bad idea!) The U.S. Constitution gives to us certain rights. And those rights are in danger by people such as Joseph Coors. The Coors Brewing Company has virtually "bought" their way into the gay community with money to the gay churches like MCC (Metropolitan Community Church) and in huge ads in the Gay Freedom Day Program and in the MCC anniversary issues as well as in the Arizona Gay News and the Denver Scene. Coors Beer must be forced to halt Joseph Coors from giving his money (from our buying their beer) to try and put us as gay people into prisons by electing legislators backed by the Moral Majority.

The interlocking relationships between the organizations and leaders of the NFR (New Far Right) is illustrated by the example shown at the right here. Among the more prominent are:

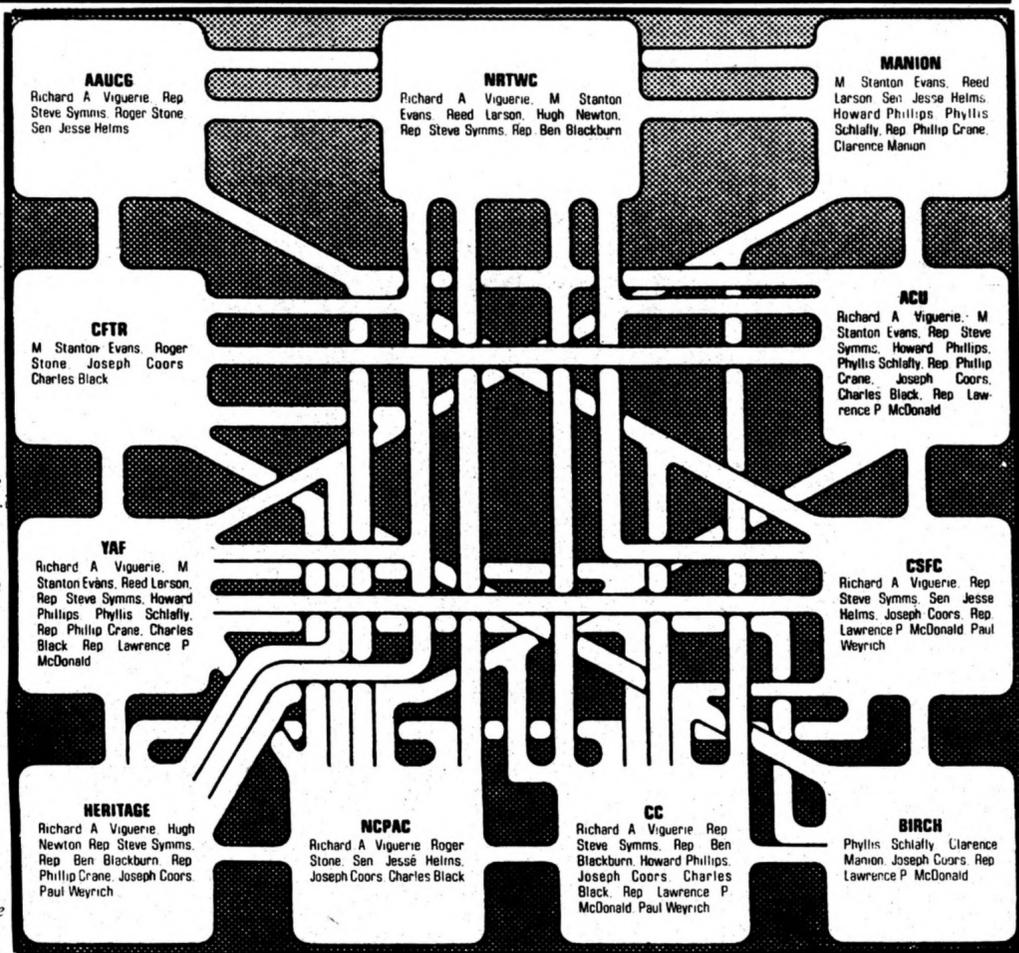

- NRTWC - National Right to Work Committee
AAUGG - Americans Against Union Control of Government
MANION - The Manion Forum
CFTR - Citizens For The Republic
ACU - American Conservative Union
YAF - Young Americans for Freedom
CSFC - Committee for the Survival of a Free Congress
HERITAGE - The Heritage Foundation
NCPAC - National Conservative Political Action Committee
CC - Conservative Caucus
BIRCH - The John Birch Society

The names in each organization box are of prominent New Far Righters who have served as organization officers or staff or supported it through such efforts as speeches and fund-raisers.

The diagram at the right is reprinted from the United Auto Workers pamphlet, "The New Right Takes Aim."

The Frank Miller cartoon on the cover is reprinted in the IPIRG from the Des Moines Register.

The efforts of all of the IPIrg are greatly appreciated by those of us in the gay community. rb

Changing roles in the workplace and in the home threaten old values. ABCAM brings to light more corruption in government. The collective and individual sense of security is under attack from all sides.

The NFR uses this backdrop to play on the theme of conspiracy. America is the greatest country in the world; everything is going wrong. Therefore we are being betrayed. The conspiracy against Christianity and American democracy, two institutions which are inextricably linked by the NFR. The threat from within is the Council on Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission and secular humanism.

As traditional American values erode, our ability to withstand the threat weakens. There is a sense of panic and urgency - - - the conspiracy is viewed in apocalyptic terms. The leaders have betrayed the people.

"America didn't evolve," said Jerry Falwell, "It was given birth by God." But, America, the 'New Eden,' the 'City on the Hill' has lost its superiority among nations. She could no longer make the world safe for free enterprise. With its sense of inferiority and doom, the NFR pleads to strengthen the military and the family. It is a deeply bitter, fearful and alienated world view.

In this word view, those who are not for the NFR position to save the country are branded as opponents of God, the Flag, and Free Enterprise. Such an extreme and narrow view of patriotism leaves little room for debate and compromise. Matters can only be resolved in absolutes, and anything less than total victory is a failure.

The NFR (New Far Right) is capable of carrying its message to the voters in a number of ways. The most familiar method, the direct-mail campaign, is headed by Richard Viguerie. Using sophisticated computer techniques, Viguerie is able to generate lists of millions of conservative voters likely to contribute to campaigns. These voters are cross-referenced so Viguerie can tailor his lists to the needs of his client organizations; indeed customize each letter to match the interests of each person he contacts. It is a costly approach to fund-raising, but it often works.

It works because NFR campaign literature makes an effective emotional appeal to the voter. Inflammatory language and leading questions are intended to create anxiety in the voter which spurs action. How will (fill in the blank) affect your child? Did you know the tragic truth about the Council on Foreign Relations? If elected, Stoner would become another of the numerous millionaires in the U.S. Senate . . . most of whom vote pro-abortion!

Facts can be distorted in a loaded context. While stressing the awful power of labor unions in its anti-union/anti-inflation pamphlets, the NFR fails to mention that there are fewer than 300 labor organizations in the U.S., and over 2,000 corporate P.A.C.'s. Vague phrases such as "common enemy" or "True Christian" or buss-words like, socialist, homosexual, or secular humanist, abound in the NFR literature.

The vagueness found in NFR literature is matched by the glibness of the NFR leadership. Paul Weyrich is the director of the Committee for the Survival of a Free Congress (contributors to the Dennis McQuaid campaign), an important organization in the NFR. He has said, "We are different from the previous generation of conservatives. We are no longer working to preserve the status quo. We are radical working to overturn the present power structure in this country." But to a reporter from Newsweek, Weyrich said, "Anybody who thinks this group is going to contribute to a political revolution in this election is going to be disappointed." In the "Weyrich Report" a CFSC publication, Weyrich takes the dual role of political commentator and fundraiser. He has some interesting things to say about liberals, busing etc. And regarding the November 4 election Weyrich said that "Big money and the usual labor inspired smear campaign are sure to highlight U.S. Senate races in Iowa, Colorado, Indiana, Idaho, California."

Many Americans are scared to death of the tie between the NFR and Fundamental Christianity. One fear is that the NFR threatens the First Amendment guarantee of the separation of church and state. Another fear is that the NFR is attempting to define Christian morality and to use the doctrine of biblical infallibility as justification for political action. At "Washing For Jesus" a rally of 250,000 of the NFR, Jerry Falwell said, "Jesus was not a pacifist. He was not a sissy." Billy Graham, his Sojourners Magazine, and other main-line churches who oppose the arms race, view the Christian scriptures differently. They tend to place more emphasis on the elements of charity which are found in the Bible.

Pat Robertson of the 700 Club foreshadowed the NFR view that there is only one "correct" version of Christianity, when he implied that President Carter's actions indicated that he was not truly born again. Apparently, to be "truly born again" a person must follow both the religious and political lead of the NFR. A recent Gallup Poll shows that most churchgoers believe that preachers should not tell people how to vote from the pulpit. According to the Poll, a minister's endorsement of a candidate is not likely to change voters' minds.

Even so, the NFR through its CBN, are pushing voter registration from the pulpits. "Moral Action Chairmen" pass out registration cards at Sunday services. The NFR is attempting to politicize large numbers of previously uncommitted people. Their goal is to create a new coalition: A moral majority. Although the NFR may not triumph, they do have a carefully planned strategy which is likely to be effective in the long run. First, the NFR ideology is emotionally appealing and very simple to understand. Second, the NFR has plenty of money: Direct mail fundraising prompts thousands of small contributions, and corporate P.A.C.'s have been generous contributors. Third, the architects of the NFR are politically experienced people who understand the importance of a grass-roots organization. Fourth the NFR seems to have no difficulty attracting bright, articulate and attractive candidates eager to move up the political ladder. Weyrich's candidate education program must not be under-rated its alumni have tended to succeed. Finally, the mass of voters who support the NFR have long perceived themselves to be the voters that the politicians ignored. And they were right! The NFR is attempting to capture this coalition, and bring to fruition the political realignment that political experts have long anticipated. The Reagan win, the "Night of the Banging Bibles" (November 4th) saw the defeat of many liberals. We must organize, educate, and prepare for the '82 and '84 elections and whatever, in between!

PROTEST GREENSBORO VERDICTS: A broad spectrum of community groups and progressive organizations will protest this week's verdicts in Greensboro, N.S., which freed six KKK and Nazi members in the murder of five patriots, CWP members, organizers of an anti-Klan rally, last year. Oakland City Councilman Wilson Riles, Jr., the Rev. Lloyd Wake (formerly of Glide), Paul Cobb-OCUR, the Oakland Chapter of the NAACP, and Debra Hanzo of the Communist Workers Party held a press conference on Monday November 24 to announce a Rally Against the KLAN/Nazis at San Antonio Park, Saturday December 6th. Spokespersons for the coalition putting the Rally on, said: "let us remember in Nazi Germany, first they came for the Communists, then the minorities, then the union leaders, homosexuals (gays) the handicapped.....until no one was safe." The SF Crusader, the GLA from the gay community have been the only gays to join in the battle against the KKK and the Nazis consistently. The protest is against the verdict in Greensboro, and to demand the freeing of the Greensboro 6. The demonstration/rally will bring together all the progressive groups that oppose government repression of human rights, and the rise of the KKK and Nazis. For more information, call 763-3272.

GAY HATER GUNS DOWN 10 GAYS IN NY..... Ronald Crumpley, 38, gunned down ten gays on Christopher and West Streets in Village of New York on Wednesday November 19th. Of the 10, two have died, two are in serious condition. The bloodbath occurred outside the Ramrod, a leather S&M type of crowd, bar near the river. On Thursday night, 2,000 stunned and angry gays marched through the streets of Greenwich Village, behind the NY Gay Community Marching Band, who played the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" at the processions end. The two who were killed were 21 year old Jorg Wenz, a doorman at the Ramrod, and church organist Vernon Koenig of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church in NY. Others who were wounded were, Thomas Rose, Olaf Graveson, Rene Matute, John Litaker, Richard Huff, John Gamreksi. "I'll kill them all (homosexuals)," the killer was quoted as saying. His father is a minister in New Rochelle, NY, Rev. Grady Crumpley, "I know he is a sick man, and this is a terrible thing. I'm very tired, numb about this."

SENATOR BIRCH BAYH WARNS OF NAZI TREND IN AMERICA: The popular liberal U.S. Senator from Indiana who was defeated after an 18 year career in the Senate, told the nation to "beware!" Bayh, 52, said that he was not going to set idly by and allow the New Far Right to take over the country. He was referring directly to the Rev. Jerry Falwell and the Moral Majority. His immediate concern he said is to "squell the rise of those right wing haters who use the word of the Lord to excuse things that are very ungodly. I don't intend to sit still and let it happen in the tradition of Nazi Germany where no one spoke out when it started." "It is important to put those haters in their place and let the American people know what is happening." The defeat of Bayh was a setback for gay rights.

Tenderloin Bust

TENDERLOIN MARKET BARRED FROM ACCEPTING FOOD STAMPS....FEDERAL FOOD VIOLATIONS CHARGED. The Maryland Market at Turk and Leavenworth streets has been halted by the U.S. Department of Agriculture from accepting food stamps for violations of federal food stamp regulations. The market is at 300 Turk Street, and the owner, George Anagnostou was disqualified from accepting the stamps for 90 days. Anagnostou is charged with accepting the stamps for ineligible items such as beer, laundry detergents, patent leather cleaner, and for entering into transactions which returned a greater amount of cash change than 99 cents - - - the amount the law allows. Anagnostou could have been fined as much as $3,000 or given three years in prison for each of the charged violations.

Castro Mess

A demonstration outside the Castro Station, a popular Castro Street bar, was held by an Ad Hoc Committee Against Racism in the Castro. The demonstrators have charged the bar with discriminating against black gays. Held in a light rain, the pickets let it be known that the policies of the Castro Station in their way of thinking is racist. Some gays have charged that the Castro Station is not alone in racist tactics in the Castro area and that they will be "dealing" with the others in the near future if they didn't get the message on Saturday November 22nd.

KK Killers Let Go...

NAZI'S AND KLAN CALL FOR SECESSION IN NORTH AND SOUTH CAROLINA AFTER RACIST VICTORY IN GREENSBORO KILLINGS OF PATRIOTS!

Harold Covington head of the Nazi Party in the State of North Carolina and who narrowly lost out in the Republican primary for the nomination as Attorney General of that racist hotbed, has called for both North and South Carolina to secede from the union and become a white only nation. His crowing in light of the racist victory in freeing six KKKers and Nazis of murder in the slayings of five patriots in an anti-KKK rally in the city of Greensboro in November of 1979. The all-white jury freed the Nazis and Klansmen after a short seven hours of deliberation, of all charges, even the television news stations in the racist city of Greensboro televised the killings and the video tape introduced in Court (if you can call it that!) The KKK and Nazi's who have been calling for the death of all gays/homosexuals in the land, had some harsh warnings about what can be expected across the land now they have won. The KKK and Nazi's have grown in known membership in the nation to about 47,000 estimated members of the two white supremacy groups. Even President-elect Ronald Regan whom many of the KKK openly endorsed sent a telegram to Washington, calling for the Justice Department to investigate with an eye to prosecution of the KKK and nazis. In the Bay Area, there will be a rally against the KKK and Nazis, in Oakland on December 6th at San Antonio Park. The SF Crusader has endorsed this important rally and urges all gay people to do the same and to attend this rally.

MAE WEST

She's an Angel now.....!

"I'm No Angel", one of the late Mae West's fine films, prompted one San Francisco gay to say, "God, she was a legend, I feel that a part of me has gone. She was so famous and always seemed like a very real part of my life. We'll all miss her, but we have her on film, thank God. She's an angel now!"

And one of San Francisco's grande dame entertainers of the drag scene, one of the original Jewel Box Revue out of Miami, Big Joe Parker said, "God, what a shock. She was just heaven. I really shocked to hear of her passing. She was the greatest, she was always there when someone needed something. She was a very generous person and I'm really sad to hear she's passed away...a great loss to show business and to all of America."

Mae West, a legend in her own time...how many could ever say that! A great lady, a most gracious lady.

Mae West always looked as if she had just stepped out of the Gay Nineties. She always wore her dresses and gowns down to the ankles and lower. She once told a reporter that she didn't "want the men to get too much of a gander for free. It takes all the fun out of it!"

Reported to be 88 at her passing, Saturday November 22nd (the anniversary of the killing of President John F. Kennedy) and as she had been ill for some time, her passing still came as a shock to most.

Mae West loved men and she let you know it. She liked ALL men, young, old, hip, flip, or fag. As he once said, "There are only two kinds, O.K. and risque."

Mae West once wrote a gay play, "The Drag" which had all the humor and tolerance she was always noted for.

This legendary lady, was noted for her aura of "naughtiness," yet Mae West in real life was a very "clean liver." She didn't drink, do drugs and did not curse.

Mae West helped America laugh its way all through the terrible depression. She made such films as "Night After Night", "She Done Him Wrong", "Klondike Annie", and

"I'm No Angel" not to mention, "Belle of The Nineties." All of them are classics now. Her last film was "Myra Breckenridge" in which she played "Letitia." And she received $350,000 for that small part.

One of her last public appearances was right here in San Francisco at a special night to honor her at the Warfield Theatre. It was a gala night and the place was packed to the tits as were the streets out front. The spotlights pierced the darkness and lights and red carpet adorned the front of the theatre as she stepped from a limo, resplendent in her white gown, furs and sparkling diamonds to a thunderous applause. Mae West, a living legend had come to San Francisco for the last time, to visit with her tens of thousands of gay fans in this city alone. A romance if there ever was one.

Now, she's gone!

In 1926 on Broadway, she did "Diamond Lil," and she was busted for it by the NYPD. It was a wild wild revue in the best of the Mae West styles.

Lines such as "When they wouldn't let me say what I said, and do what I did on stage, I figured the only way I had to get the material over, to get the character across, you see, was to punch it across with funny lines. I mean, in films they wouldn't let me sit on a man's lap, and I've been across more laps than a napkin." "A man in the house is worth two in the streets." "Beulah, peel me a grape!" Mae West...two words, isn't enough to describe what those two words have done to and for America.

But her success abroad was never as great as it was here. For when they dubbed her voice for the films abroad, they just couldn't bring across The Mae West, for after all the Mae West voice was an integral part to appreciate her humor. Its loss dulled her impact and puzzled the Germans and the French. Pity for them!

Some say that of her last films, "Sexploitations" was not of her best, but it did give the public another last opportunity to see Mae West, the living legend.

But a Mae West film regardless of the acting was good, because it gave us an opportunity to see and enjoy her.

When Mae West was asked about the statement, "Is that a gun in your pocket, or are you just glad to see me?" She said that she never said in a film, but it was a real life statement when a cop who was guarding her gave a bouquet of flowers from his lieutenant, and Mae looked at the young cop and said, "Mhmm, he told you to give me that? Mae drawled, "and is that a gun you got in your pocket or are you just glad to see me?" The young cop nearly died of embarrassment. But, that was Mae West. "She's an angel now!"

URBAN GENOCIDE

GENTRIFICATION (privileged whites, moving or taking property from those of what privileged whites feel are a lower class of people.) The issue of gentrification will not rest in San Francisco, for as the white gays move into the city by the hundreds monthly, there is a push to replace less than average housing with nice housing. Of course these buildings are now filled with Third World peoples, and a broad cross section at that; blacks, chinese, southeast asians, latinos, samoans, filipinos, japanese, etc. The areas which gentrification is taking place are the Hayes Valley/Mint Hill area; Inner Mission; Duboce Triangle; South of Market; Tenderloin; Western Addition and the Potrero Hill neighborhood now and to a lesser extent, Bayview.

Gentrification is a term of the Middle Ages which referred to the privileged lords and the peasants. The privileged white lords could oust the peasants at whim. This is what is happening in San Francisco, only 90% of those "privileged lords" are those! They are white urban homesteaders.

As most older peoples can remember, it used to be that the Third World peoples used to live just outside the big cities in little "shack cities" but with World War II and the need for labor, Third World peoples began moving in large numbers into the decayed cores of the major U.S. cities. But now, thirty years or later, the whites see the value of the core (inner) cities they deserted for the suburban life of the fifties and sixties. During the seventies white began moving back into the inner cities, particularly in San Francisco. For the "flower children" of the Haight Ashbury brought about a great interest in that area which was really run down then, and now it is almost all white again, and very privileged except for a few isolated areas. And as a result of the move by the whites to reclaim the inner cities for themselves, the game of "checkers" is again in effect. As we said, blacks were forced to live on the outskirts once and now they are being forced back into the outskirts now called "suburbs" and it is because the suburbs are decaying. Back and forth goes the racial balance of urban America, with the well-to-do whites being the victors all of the time.

But in San Francisco, when you cross the typical racial angle of things with the sexual angles, you have a time bomb waiting to go off into the biggest blast of racial troubles the nation has yet to see.

The situation in the Western Addition, in particular around the Haight-Fillmore Streets area is about to blow up and none of Mayor Feinstein's "do-gooder" committees is going to be able to control or stop it, for they all have the gentrification mentality which is what is causing the situation in the first place.

In the Inner Mission we have witnessed fire bombings and arsons, as well as numerous beatings. Third World people are afraid,

The above persons and businesses should not be forgotten by those gays who appreciate the gay rights which we now enjoy here. John Burton was the leader in the California Legislature for gay rights, and this is how the above crowd repays him, for whatever petty reasons. Support those businesses and persons who support You. Remember, the Moral Majority support McQuaid, gave him much money! Do remember the above who voted against You!!!

they are frustrated, just as poor whites are. Poor whites and Third World people are both being exploited by the privileged white class equally. This is why it is distressing to see a racial conflict which seems in almost always boil down to a battle between the oppressed peoples and the privileged class "get off."

In order to avoid a racial conflict, poor Third World Peoples and Poor White Peoples have to come together, to open dialogue so as to better understand their common enemy.

Third World and Poor White people should never be at one another's throats.

San Francisco's gay community has not tried to face up to its own role in this, for as many gay people are coming to an understanding that their gayness is not a "tie that binds" but is merely an expression, but the tie that binds is one of social and economic concerns, which are more lasting than an "orgasim." As soon as the gays of San Francisco face up to the fact that their sexuality is just that...sex, and get about the task of educating themselves into a more responsible political state of being, the better off they and the communities in which they live, will be.

Marginal Whites and Third World people are being pitted against one another by the privileged white real estate speculators and bankers. And many of those real estate speculators here in the troubled areas are gay (homosexual at least!)

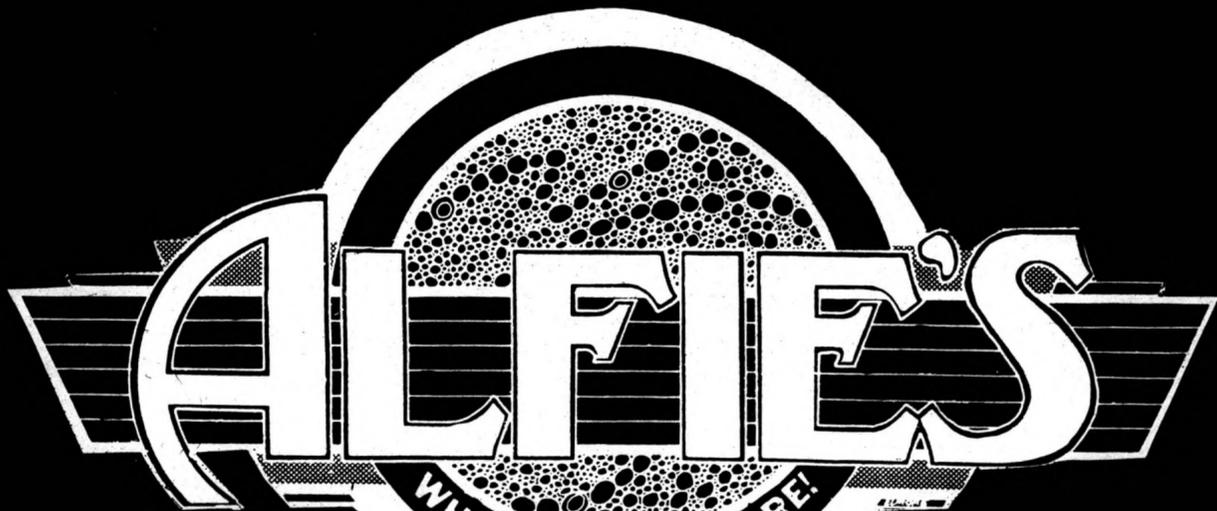

So as the suburbs decay, and the inner cities become more desirable especially with the gasoline shortages which make commuting more expensive, poor Third World and Whites are being forced back to the shanty towns which are now called "suburbs...in the Bay Area, Daly City, once all white... but as the World War II "baby boom" is over, and the area has become run down... the whites have moved out even further into rural Amerika or back into the inner cities (forcing blacks into decaying suburbia), racial tensions can only increase.

Gays who delude themselves and allow the gay press of the slumlords and real estate speculators to continue brainwashing them into believing that it is a matter of "gay vs. straight" in these various attacks, are going to become first-rate racists unless they wake up to their brainwashing by the privileged white leadership.

Gays have to realize that pushing Third World people out as they are doing, is going to create hard and violent feelings, this is not to say that Third World people are justified in using violence. But the need for communication and education is needed. But it will not come through the white privileged politicians like Dianne Feinstein who is one of the biggest enemies of the Third World and poor whites we have yet to see. We'll have to do it ourselves. rb Writing about music can be about as exciting as watching home movies with your neighbors. If your neighbor likes traveling to Peoria, never your mind.

Here in my Music Box, we'll keep things simple. Breaking the world of music into four areas that are interest to you in the Gay Mecca.

First, is classical selections, including direct to disc and digital recordings. Second is country, third is disco and four, Top Ten (pop).

One might notice the lack of New Wave. An occasional mention of note-worthy product will suffice. From the bottom of the disco production family MECO, who's disco version of Star Wars was their only success.

Wonders never cease, and "Christmas In The Stars," is a wonder. After many a sad attempt, MECO has created a Star Wars Christmas Album that is actually clever. I found a copy at Tower Records and it is available at record stores everywhere. A Christmas Party must!

In the classical department, I must backtrack to 1979. For those true audiophiles, from Digital Records comes the Digital-DBX recording.... "Digital Hits of 1740." Including works,..... Pachelbel: Canon, Albinon: Concerto in F for trumpet and strings, J.S. Bach Brandenburg Concerto Number 2 movement 3, and others: This disc is a study in wonderful Audio. Note; a DBX 2 decoder, is required to play the disc.

As for what records you are buying or listening to on the radio, here are the lists:

- COUNTRY: Courtesy KNEW Radio
1. Lady.....Kenny Rodgers
  2. Smokey Mountain Rain...Ronnie Milsap
  3. If You Change Your Mind...Cristal Gayle
  4. She Can't Say That Anymore...John Conlee
  5. Why, Lady, Why.....Alabama

- TOP 40: Courtesy of KFRC Radio
1. Woman In Love.....Barbara Strisand
  2. Whip It.....Devo
  3. Another One Bites The Dust.....Quenn
  4. The Wanderer.....Donna Summer
  5. He's So Shy.....Donna Summer

- DISCO Top Sellers: Courtesy of Aloha Records, 18th & Castro.
1. Underwater.....Harry Thuman
  2. Ultimate Warlords.....Immortals
  3. Sharks Are Cool/Jets Are Hot...The Quick
  - 4...Give Me A Break.....Vivien Vee
  5. Up On The Roof/If You Could Read My Mind.....Viola Wills

A note about the Top 25 Party, "HOT ICE" December 3rd at DREAMLAND, which will include live performances by Candi Staton and Jackie Moore. Top 25 is a collection of Dee Jays in San Francisco. Their first party in October at the Trocadero was a big success and alot of fun.

Any whichway, 'tis all for now, and as always....."Out to lunch!"

PUBLISHER'S RAP!

If you notice, this time the Theatre and the Entertainment pages are not too well filled with much of anything except ads, but most certainly they are not filled with theatre reviews. We have had an unfortunate run of things concerning "reviewers. Douglas Dean has been helping us out when he could, but now that is no longer possible as he will be writing for the publication called, "Eddie Van's Spolite." We wish Dean well for he is a fine person and more than qualified to write for any paper in the nation. He still writes for Show Biz West and also does reviews for KEST radio, as well as his new spot. His new spot with Eddie Van will not last long in our opinion knowing how very erratic that Mr. Van has been in the past. But time will tell.

So, we are in need of a reviewer. No pay of course, and long and hard hours (ha ha!) If you know of anyone who would like to try and get along with us and write for us, please have them give us a call at 885-1001. We'll do the best we can to try and give the person a forum for their views, so it will be tit for tat.

The situation at the Hotel York (Plush Room) has not improved any in recent weeks. Mr. Cox continues to insult longtime reviewers and to be extremely unprofessional. Now, he has fired American staff and replaced them with gay Cuban refugees (four of them.)

 On November 8th, at 3:30 am, I and others ran for our lives because of the fire at 1242 Polk Street, leaving everything that we owned to the flames, water and smoke.

Three years ago, I moved into the unfurnished apartment and the carpeted floor was my bed for three weeks. I went from the bed on the floor to a completely furnished apartment in time.

On the morning, hours after the fire, I discovered just how some members of the San Francisco Fire Department get excited when it comes to fires. I don't cut or attack all firefighters, because they do an outstanding job at every turn.

Mine, was a corner apartment that overlooked Polk and Fern, on the third floor. The fire stopped just about at that point after burning in the hall, which was the wall to my closet, and I lost everything that was in closet. The rest of the damage was from water and smoke.

To re-enter the apartment building, myself, as well as other tenants, had to be escorted by a Fireman, and since it was just six hours after the fire had started, the SFPD was still there standing by, and I'm sure no one other than those who lived at 1242 Polk had entered the building.

I would like to thank only those Firemen who were involved.
 I would like to thank you for putting out the fire in my closet and not letting it burn the bedroom or living room or the kitchen.

I would like to thank you for smashing the color TV which Rent-A-Color wants me to pay for. The screen was smashed inward.

I want to thank you for throwing or knocking my stereo units to the floor which was in no way in any danger from the fire being in a corner and against an outside wall. The system sat on a cabinet that also housed my records, tapes and other items which had not been disturbed. Even if it had accidentally been bumped, the turntable, tuner and tape deck could not have fallen to the floor.

I want to thank you for saving the life of my 35 mm camera n flash, and leaving the less expensive camera behind.

And my warmest thanks for removing from the living room sofa, my leather, neatly laid out for the special events of the weekend which included a vest, leather cap, gloves, jacket, collar, arm and wrist bands, collar and handcuffs. Thanks for overlooking or leaving my chaps.

I'm not sure if you did this because of the nude male photos and other items around that told you that I was gay, but I honestly feel that's why it was done.

Horse and FFA fil booths at the Locker Room on Polk seem to have a big trade from the management of the Marathon Ballroom. What was that wet spot on your pants RD?

Michael/Le Disque and the new new bartender from the Castro, Butch, (formerly of Badlands and Toad Hall) have already had dinner and cock and tails! Michael is looking for a new room mate...any interested parties give him a ring! Hot man!

"No cloves in the ham please!" was the hand written message of Mister Peter Switzer of Sutters Mill to the Flying Nun concerning the cooking for the senior luncheons of Helping Hands Services. Dear Peter sir! The Pervert Michael is doing the cooking and he knows how to cook so there will be no cloves this year. Unlike me, he knows what he's doing in the kitchen. Thanks for the donation!

Red-headed Ed Schoaff, 24 formerly of the evil Turk Street News also called Centaur...well, he is an EX employee and would like for Massa Wolfe to pay him for all the hours he has coming. His birthday is very soon! Hey! Ed, take him to the labor board! That's one way to get your money and some of his too, maybe, for the State!

December 17th is Happy Birthday time for the famous BILL HARRIS of the Pleasure Palace. Bill will be...ahh, I forget just how old. He does lov gifts and plent of them as long as there are no strings attached (unless it's Willie on the other end!). He sez he'll be 24 but you know how those guys with those Texas accents are!

Speaking of the Pleasure Palace, the owner Pat Townsend and his lovely mother had a very narrow escape from death in a terrible highway incident near Sacramento! He is ok tho and so's his mother. Happiness!!!!

Delicious Dee Dee Love of the Ram's Head is having her 4th Annual Drive for St. Anthony's Christmas Dinners. Dee Dee and Friends raised some $3,500 last year and hope to top the $5,000 mark this year. The event will be on December 7th at the Frisco Saloon, 60 - 6th Street and begins at 2pm until???. Ed Corky will be the emcee this year with Dee Dee. There will be a raffle, and an auction too. There is to be a variety show with go boys too!!!! A most worthy cause, so you all get your tight and loose buns on over to the Frisco and do a good thing for charity...YOU HEAR!!!!

CLAP CLINIC TESTS are held in the Castro still at the SF Health Center, 3850 - 17th Street between Noe and Sanchez, Monday thru Thursday, 1 pm til 7:30 pm. Now this is for testng only. This is not a treatment center. It is located (the treatment center) at 250 Fourth Street. Call 558-3905 for information. And all tests are confidential and all 12 and over may receive their tests without anyone knowing. VD is on the increase, what with the unhealthy private sex clubs, etc. Hepatitis is on the rise too. Have a happy holiday...by getting cleaned up!!!! Don't give anyone anything but nice things for Christmas.

Alert! The infamous Dan Daniels (Orca or the Dragon Lady) is back in town. He has been 86ed from Alfies at last word from Bob Damron. This man according to his own mouth, sang like a bird to the authorities about alot of nice people and almost everything he said was not true. He and Dennis Coder have hooked back up.

The Marathon is going full time Country & Western now? Bob Benny...are you sending boys to that gas station out in the avenues again?????

Good news!!!The Endup is going to lower their door charge to $2 come January 1st or so.

Don't forget...attend the rally against the KKK and the Nazi's December 6th in Oakland. A most important event.

Beverly Redding is still packing them in on Fridays and Saturday nights at Kimo's Showroom. She does two shows each night and the people are standing. She is one of the finest entertainers this city has ever seen. Bouquets to Mr. Kimo for booking her in!!!!!!!

GIFTS FOR VETERANS!

The 9th Annual Gay U.S.O. Show for the Veterans at the U.S.V.A. Hospital at Christmas time are needed. The gay community has poorly backed this project in the past. Please, change all that. Help make this a really gay Christmas for the hospitalized veterans. Support any fundraiser for the Gay U.S.O. Show.

Above is JIM of Trondson Sound; and here is Ed; and here is ROB (with a big box and buns. Jim is the "other % of Mark Price!" Rob is a model too!! All three are nice people who don't take no bleep from nobody!!!!!!

JUST FRIENDS, the card shop next door to Kimo's now has a wild and wide selection of Christmas cards and gifts in. Stop in and see Craig and all the guys. They DO HAVE the nicest cards in all SF!

Fort Miley Christmas Show is coming up...Big Joe Parker is putting the talent together. Joe is at the Cookery Cafe on Eddy Street. The Helping Hands Services and the Crusader are co-sponsoring the show again this year. But donations of gifts and or money is needed by December 14th. Call if you can help us to help the hospitalized Veterans have a really nice Christmas. The Gay U.S.O. Show is in its 9th year.

A call and not a crank one this time, from the former Bishop, Donald Joseph Pierce Weeks. Dear heart!!!!

The Tenderloin Christmas Party and Dinner will be on Wednesday December 24th at the Christ Chapel, 26 - Seventh Street. It is going to be a full-plus house and donations are urgently needed. Send any you can to: Helping Hands Services, 26 Seventh Street, San Francisco, CA 94103. Mark for "Christmas Dinner." Irene and the Rec and Park Department will be helping out with gifts, but much much food and other goodies are going to be needed!!! Please help!!!!!! (Not associated with Tessie in anyway!)

This will be our 11th year for the big event. Mister Michael Pervert will be the chef this Christmas, as the Rev. Ray Broshears gets carried away with those cloves in the hams and elderly folks just don't like cloves in the hams stupid! Get the message Ray? OK!!!!!! Make this one a most Merry Christmas for old folks.

LITTLE MAN...that's what they call the long long tall man above from Texas, who is one of the many fine dancers at the SCREENING ROOM, 220 Jones Street. LITTLE MAN just got out of the Marines, and from what you can see, if you go there, he's well equipped!

BIG JOE PARKER & DIANNE are going to be married on Sunday November 30th in the lobby of the Hotel Clark. The announcement of the wedding came as quite a sock to most, but all who know and love Joe wish he and his bride-to-be Dianne, the very best.

And to that nasty-mouthed, ner-do-well, Paul/Leslie...you are pushing it too far and someday someone is going to stop it. And my reason for not doing the wedding is not because you say "You're a phoney minister!"...it's because our Church has a strong rule, that the couple has to have undergone counselling...and must have been engaged for at least thirty days before, and have known each other for a much longer time that the two have.

"M-A" MENTAL ALERTLESS CAPS These legal, drug-free caps will put you on top. $2 for $1.00 Black Beauty at the Locker Room, 1038 Polk

One reason that RB will not do Big Joe's wedding is simple, and Pat knows the reason...but it is addition to the Church laws...and as Big Joe and Pat have allowed Paul to take over their restaurant and insult and run out customers at will, this is one customer that she won't get the chance. In time, they will find out that the kind of behaviour that he exhibits does not BUILD a business!

The "Turkey Trot" at the Russina River was a big big FLOP! That is due to the fact of POOR PLANNING and almost no promotion. Maybe the guys (3) at the Hex House will learn that the RR is "dead" during the off season!! But then, maybe they should get their act together as if to what they are going to do with the Hex House...and as far as having Sharon McKnight there...did you really expect her to be a draw??? After all, she has just worn out her stay here in the city...witness the poor crowd??? (if you can call them that!!!) at the Push Room of the infamous Russell Cox!!!!

FLASH! From the resident juvenile bartender of LE DISQUE comes word that BRIAN... 21, and MICHAEL 27 (who used to be lovers once upon a time) were walking home the other eve, and both were to the tits for days and they came across three young handsome hunks invited them up, and had a wild wild KISSY FIVE WAY ORGY...of course, one, Brian had to pass out when he had both of his openings plugged and kinda spoiled the fun...but from what we hear, Michael and the other 3 guys had fun with Brian even tho he didn't know much about it!!! VERRRRRRY GAY!

Why is it when Folsom Faye Roy Harnetaux walks by the 1808, people stick their heads out and go "gobble gobble, gobble!!!!"

Rumor hazzit that the crime ridden porn empire of the imprisoned Mike Thewis in the person of his nephew Mr. Manchandler, is trying to get a foothold in San Francisco...THAT is bad news!!!!!! Those Peachtree Street boys play damn rough!!! Deadly! JACKIE STARR is alive and doing very well at Alfies. In fact, doing far better than those liver-lipped females at the fallen-star pharmacy!! Right on Jackie!!!! you're a real sweetheart!!!!

COORS BOYCOTT begins anew. The truce is over, as it has been officially discovered that Joseph Coors is active in SEVEN NFR (New Far Right) Moral Majority groups. Why give Coors money to give to our enemies to destroy us with. The Tavern Guild and MCC support Coors!!!! QUIT DRINKING AT ANY BAR THAT SELLS COORS

Next issue of the Crusader, we will print a list of all the bars that sell Coors. These bars are to be boycotted until they quit selling Coors or until Joseph Coors quits giving money to the 7 radical New Far Right organizations he does and disbands his own rightist Heritage Foundation.

DEAD BODY FOUND in Buena Vista Park on Monday morning (10:45 am) his throat had been cut. His identity is unknown to date. A man in his forties.

From TOM ISENBERG comes the suggestion that they have telephones installed in and around Delores Park...ro didn't you know there were none? Good idea! I could help a guy caught in the Park surrounded by punks...especially after 911 service begins when you don't need a coin.

Big Thanksgiving feeds at the LE DISQUE and ALFIES. Lotsa big birds around so everyone should get a wing...! BRUCE TRONDSON!

Joe White of the Locker Room Bookstore was given a pic of his own man with his dog and another man!!!!

KNIFE FIGHT ON MARKET (MEAT RACK) ended in a San Francisco Police Officer, Tom Parisi, stopping one blonde youth from killing another with a 'box cutter'. But the Policeman was injured as well. The sidewalk was covered with blood. Another good reason to try and pass a law banning the carrying of such subjects and giving those who use them a mandatory jail sentence...! A big "THANK YOU" to Officer Tom Parisi!

Officer Henry Friendlander of the Chief's Office is reported to be on his way out of that location. Rumor has it that the jovial Friendlander will be moved to the Police Community Relations Unit.

TOMORROW NIGHT, Thanksgiving Day nite; there will be a march in memory of the late Harvey Milk and the late Mayor George Moscone who were both gunned down by Dan White (up for parole soon) on November 27th just two short years ago. Supervisor Harry Britt, who gained the crown that Harvey couldn't, being elected citywide, will be there, as will another citywide elected guy, Dr. Tim Wolford of the Community College Board.

GET WELL CARDS TO: Frank Ross; Ed Brown; BJ, Charlie; Cliff N. Man; Bill Harris; etc., etc., etc.!

Dear George Parks! It's better the way you said in your letter...save on your eyes and your conscience won't be bothering you!!!!!! P.S....you write a terrible letter!!!!!!

FLOWERS FOR IRENE...in her plan to solve the big problem at Delores Park...but, even that won't work.

Are you ready?????CRIM really is trying to look so big and pish!!!! It's named Duke Armstrong your new president...well Dukie boy, what office you going to run for sweetie honey boy???? Sucha clonette!!!!!! How long did you say you've lived here honey lamb???? Oh!! Another carpet bagger??? Oh! You're not talking!! Oh well, it's more fun with a onesided conversation with you, and alot more intelligent!! Supported any more of those Moral Majority candidates lately?? you big ole Republican you???? Dennis McQuaid...he was the darling of the Moral Majority crowd.. tsk tsk!!!!!! Oh yes Mr. Barrister man...how many actual UPFRONT homos do you have in CRIR?? Oh! You don't ask any one their sexual preference!! But, I thought that CRIR was supposed to be a group of gay Republicans????!

Did you see that stupid ad for turkey day dinner with the turkeys at the *p.s. on Polk?? Yuk!!!! But you can bet, that the Pilgrim forfathers and mothers are turning over in their grave on that sickie ad!!!!

TROC is managing the White Horse in Berkeley...whee! Can Don Berry be far behind???? Hi! Bob Charrot!!!!

Speaking of SICOS, I wonder how Marcus is doing now that he at last admitted what everyone else already knew...he wouldn't be the manager of the SF Eagle!!!! Honey! You MAY be IN with Ms. Pat Batt, but betcha don't get a chance to do the Eagle what you did to the Arena!!!!!!

COUNTRY MUSIC GUIDE San Francisco Bay Area

S.F. CRUSADER, P.O. Box 1528 SF 94101 (415) 885-1001

If you wish to be listed or know of a place to be listed in our Country & Western Music Guide to the Bay Area, give us a ring and or send us materials in the mail including pics, etc.

The Country Music Guide is the only one of its kind in all of the United States. So, take advantage of it.

Groups/Bands, if you want your pics and address and or phones listed as being available, give us a jangle. No cost.

Country music ame to KSAN and fell all over the place. At least to the REAL county music fans, for what KSAN was playing was not too different than what they had already been playing. Program director Bob Young who used to be at KNEW said that "no Loretta Lynn on our station" in response to a question. And sure enough, about all you can hear over and over and over is Amazing Rhythm Aces, Crystal Gayle, Neil Young, Emily Lou Harris, The Eagles, the Doobie Brothers, Kenny Rodgers, Boz Scaggs, and on and on. It wasn't REALLY country music. That is one of the complaints about KNEW, but KNEW isn't as bad as KSAN. And all this leads to the continued hue and cry for REAL country music on the air in the Bay Area, and according to a source, it is possible that soon, another station will do the big switch but do REAL country music complete with Tammy Wynette, Eddie Raven, Loretta Lynn, Marty Robbins, Hank Williams Jr and Sr., Wilam Lee and Stoney Cooper.... get the idea? REAL country and not this progressive bull-shit! So we would recommend that you keep switching the radio dial between KEEN, KNEW and as a last resort KSAN and maybe you can find some REAL country music till our kind of country music comes on the air.

Paul's Saloon, 3251 Scott in San Francisco has pure Bluegrass every Monday night. It is beautiful!! Other nights different country bands and most are good.

California Dance Hall? Don't know what happened to it!!! Hank Thompson and the Brazos Valley Boys will be in the State on December 4th in Riverside. Wish he and the band could make it here.

This points out one thing, that it is seldom due to lack of promoters that Nashville stars get to northern California. Most go to the southern part of the State. That is not good for us of course.

"I Am What I Am" on Epic Records is the title of George Jones new album. Voted Country Music Entertainer of the year, George has come up with another winning album.

"How The Hell Do You Spell Rythum?" is the new album of the Amazing Rhythm Aces on Warner. Has a wide variety of tunes such as "I Musta Died and Gone to Texas" and "Give Me Flowers While I'm Living." Good record!!!!
