WELL, IF SAN FRANCISCO DOESN'T GET GAYER BY THE MINUTE!!!!!!

Here's a First! Emperor Bob Cramer and his Court will have a Cable Car parading up and down the Powell St. line starting next week to promote (Gay is Good) and the Emperor's Coronation coming to us on September 13th at the Sheraton Palace Hotel's Garden Court. By gawd, we can expect the whole world to be there and it promises to be the most spectacular Coronation in our history. I think you will find this event extremely entertaining even if you're not into the Royalty trip.

What's this I hear about "Tequila" Avila entertaining (if you will) a San Francisco policeman on the swings in the Panhandle?? Who's loose?? ... Welcome home, Michael Daley. Maybe we'll be seeing you at "The City" soon? Huh, Tom? Happy Vixxo Birthdays to: Patsy, Miss Gay California I, Richard (Butch) Novak, Bobby Ferrazano (belated) and Dennis Birdwell. See you at the "Pink Flamengo" Party at Fell Manor.....

IT'S ABOUT THOSE QUESTIONABLE (?????) coffee breaks that that bunch at the Castro Cafe are taking. Is it really to give the customer complete Service? What say, Scott, Craig, Dan, Bill, Jack, Jason, T. J., Chuck, Jim, John, Keith, Michael, Jerry, Darrel, Randy and Scarlett? And why does Maryanne and Bessie look so perplexed and confused? Speaking of the Castro Cafe, Bob Reed called me from the airport on his way to Mexico to buy new tiles (?) insures me that he is not having a breakdown and attempting suicide. And his Hawaiian sex-change trip did not take, so he's going to try a Mexican surgeon who specializes in tiles.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE "Pacific Coast Times" in San Diego on your 2nd Anniversary. Sorry I couldn't celebrate with you. Much luck and love in this next year, with the hope that we'll grow and grow and grow!!

HECTOR NAVARRO'S "THANKS A MILLION" Cruise was nothing less than outrageously fabulous. What with Michelle Mc'ing (as only she can), "Sweet Charlie", and the scrumptious, beautifully prepared buffet was flawless. And Sandy Lee brought the house (boat) down to it's knees. If this man called "Hector" doesn't make Emperor this year, it'll be a big surprise to me!

IF YOU HAVEN'T BEEN A GUEST at the "Chelisk", you've missed treating yourself to some very good vibes, beautiful nic-nax, trinkets, conversation pieces and accessories and furnishings. Stop by and get acquainted with Ben, and very UP person that's always on a natural high. Nice Guy, he is.....

"HOT FLASH"... "HOT FLASH" 2351 Market. Special Grand Opening Show of Edward Parente's "Boxes". It's "HOT"!

VERY SPECIAL GET-WELL GREETINGS with love to our own Ken Dickmann (Pola del Vecchio) who got the living shit beat out of him on the freeway, damn near killing him, and left him in a coma for the better part of a week. Hear tell he's to be released soon for home. Take care and hurry back to "Mecca".... we miss you!

NOW HEAR THIS: The Casa de Cristal will be staying open until 3:30 A.M. on Fridays and Saturdays, and that's just what we need on Polk Street. Excellent idea!

THE CINEMATTACHINE is now up to 4300 members and something has got to be going right on Ellis Street. The Newsreel for this week is: "Reba's Roasting at the S27 Club" and "Highlights of 'The Wizard of Oz'". Also on that bill is a new film from Colt Studios called "Oasis", a new one from Griffen "Pumping Iron" (I'm getting hard), and a request encore of "Welcome Intruder" starring John Holmes. And on top of all that, they feature there, lots of regular hot shorts (and longs for you flinkynumbers). Check it out, will ya?

RUMOR HAS IT THAT THE "ROYAL Palace will be a straight discoteque. (Good luck! baby!)

Sorry to see Ken Rice and Harry (our littlest Angel) leave the SIR office.

And I wish them luck in their new endeavor. I've got to say that I've never been treated so royally everytime I'd ask them for help and suggestions. Thank you, Ken and Harry from all of us. You'll be sorely missed. And as for the new office manager, Chuck Larsen, I look forward to your friendship and working with you. Much luck to you and your staff!

PRESS RELEASE

THE SECOND FLOOR, a gallery celebrating the male form in art, has opened in San Francisco's Financial District at 687 Commercial Street near Keamy. This male theme gallery features original paintings and drawings primarily by local artists. Selected prints and sculpture reproductions are also available. The first gallery in San Francisco to specialize in the male form includes both erotic and non-erotic exhibits. The erotic section is set up as a private, discreet exhibit which leads itself to relaxed viewing of quality art works. The gallery is open from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m., Monday through Friday. For further information call David Johnson at (415) 397-4535.

Dear Pat

Last April, I involuntarily broke up with a man I love very much after two years of a relationship that was considered to be a classic exercise in mental masochism on my part. He told me mostly from the beginning that he could never love me as a "lover" and I think we had sex together only two or three times during the whole affair. He is a Capricorn and I am an Aries and according to many of my astrologically-minded friends this relationship was doomed from the start and I should have never let it extend to what it eventually came to.

Since April, I have been having short affairs and liaisons with various men who are great in bed, believe in short affairs and we both go our ways with no serious intentions or grievances either way.

A couple of weeks ago, I met an absolutely adorable guy who never fails to say how great we are together sexually; how much he "likes me", how much he "loves me". I make him feel good, he makes me feel good and he wants to be with me a lot because he feels great about it.

Last week he told me that someone he met last April here was returning for a 10-day vacation. When he met this other person, they had a 7-day hot and intense relationship that ended when the other person (who is in the military) had to return to duty in the East. Since that time, they have been communicating through daily letters and frequent hour-long telephone conversations. He has already told this person about me (I don't know what the reaction was), and he is looking forward to that 10-day visit with much enthusiasm because he also "loves" and "likes" that other person in the same way he feels about me.

We have a great date set up for Sept. 13th and his friend arrives on the 12th; a special function takes place on the 13th and now he wants to include his friend in what I thought was to be a "big" night for us alone. In addition to this, he says he plans to spend most of his time with this person during that 10 days and I can expect to see him once or twice during that period. In addition, he tells me the person will be going back to his duty station and that I should not be jealous or hurt because after the person leaves, I will be his exclusively.

Should I just forget the whole relationship, cancel our plans for the 13th and jettison the whole idea of our relationship or should I go along with all his suggestions, accept the person for what he is and grin and bear it?

While I realize my motives may be selfish I must admit I am deeply in love with this man. I learned from my previous relationship that jealousy is not where it's at - I don't know what to do about it.

My new friend says that his only two previous "loves" were terminated because of jealousy and it is a trait he cannot stand, tolerate or condone in anyone because it is too terrible to contemplate.

What should I do? Should I cancel the whole September 13th thing because I cannot bear to "share" him with someone else and hope he'll come back to me

Emperor Bob Cramer

The Cable Car Court

Congratulations to Walt and Pepe, the new Emperor and Empress of Alaska. Sincere thanks for the hospitality extended by them, Craig I and Large Marge to all the visiting dignitaries, especially from San Francisco.

A rather large contingent from San Francisco, Empress Doris, myself, Bob Cramer, Empress Frieda, Tzarina VooDoo, Roger Hall, Tavern Guild Treasurer, Ed, Paul and Loydell were wined, dined and escorted all over Anchorage for the better part of a week. A motor trip to the Portage Glacier, the Alaska State Fair in Palmer were the high-lights of the week, along with a cocktail and dinner parties and a picnic at the home and grounds of Bill Wester on Goose Lake. The homes that were opened for us for cocktail parties and dinners were too numerous to mention.

Side trips to the Museums, the mountains and Earthquake Park were also exciting and enjoyable. A special thanks to the gang at the Club Rendezvous where the dancing music is good and the drinks were strong. Bubbles, the Princess Royal of Seattle and myself, guest hosted at the Rendezvous -- keeping the customers in stitches -- (The blind leading the blind).

The Coronation Ball was held at the Western International, Anchorage

Westward Hotel Grand Ballroom. A S. R. O. crowd of nearly 700 people danced and were entertained for nearly 5 hours. The final act of the evening was of course, the Coronation of the 2nd Emperor and Empress of All Alaska, Walt and Pepe. "Long Live the Empress and Emperor!"

On my flight to the North Star Court, I stopped over in Portland to witness the installation of Darcell (Walter Cole) as the new President of the Portland Forum, the educational, social and cultural gay organization in Oregon. Along with the installation of the other new officers of the Forum was Vanessa's Precious Rose Awards - a fun, camp and entertaining evening.

Speaking of entertainment, this was provided by San Francisco's one and only Michael Daley. I have seen Michael many times in the past and enjoyed him. However on this particular occasion, Michael and his back-up duo were superb. Starting off with his male image as a singer then onto his comedy routine and finally into his camp-drag segment.

In closing, all I can say is don't miss ALASKA or MICHAEL DALEY. What a combination (two separate trips, of course!)

P. S. Coronation Ball at the Palace is but one week away. Saturday, September 13th at the Sheraton Palace Hotel, Garden Court and Grand Ball Room. Along with a fun evening will be a 12 piece orchestra and nine - count 'em - nine bars to serve you. Elections for the fourth Emperor will be held the same day, 12 noon until 8 p. m. at the S. I. R. Center, 83-6th Street.

BODY TALK

MR. ACME BEER '75

Some bodybuilders who train on only the basic bulging-up exercises tend to acquire a type of build which, while it possesses size and density, seems to lack that "finished" quality which separates great physiques from the merely well developed but not outstanding.

In our discussions of the chest, we have gone into those exercises that increase the size of the rib box and of the pectorals. This is important as a preliminary before training for "quality" in earnest. Naturally, this doesn't mean one should just pile on size by any means at all, with the expectation of trimming off all the blubber at a later time. A few people, such as former Mr. Universe, Bruce Randall, can become gargantuan and then train down to a lithe physique, but this is certainly the exception and not the rule.

Now the chest and upper back are measured together when determining the chest measurement, so one may reasonably regard them as a single unit for purposes of discussion. I know several people who do only one exercise for their chests, and that is the Bench Press. This results in a very beefy central Pectoral development with little lower Pec definition or upper Pec growth. Teamed with supine lateral raises or "flyes", the lower Pecs are working nicely, but more is needed for the best shape. I've recommended an isometric exercise consisting of pushing the two hands together in front of the chest as an additional way of working the Pecs. But all of these give very little benefit to the upper portion of the Pectorals. To reach this area, it is necessary to include a form of incline press or incline flyes. In the gym we have some incline benches. These are benches at an angle between flat and upright, and doing bench presses (light), dumbbell presses, or flyes, on such a bench will fill in the gaps on the upper chest, giving that "complete" look to the Pectoral muscles, and height to the chest. This also works the Anterior Deltoides, or front shoulder muscles.

Along the sides of the ribs, forming a "saw Tooth" appearance, are the Serratus Anterior portion of the Serratus Magnus muscles. If any muscles give the chest that "finished" look, it's the Serratus. And the majority of people are totally unaware they even exist. This area, on thin people, is just ribs. On the portly, it's blubber. Only athletes and bodybuilders ever seem to show the Serratus to advantage. As the Serratus Anterior's function is primarily to articulate the scapula by drawing it forward and laterally, the best way to work it is by doing exercises which involve full articulation of the scapula. One such exercise is handbalancing and handstand "push-ups". This may be done using a wall for balance but minimal support. Supporting a barbell at arms length overhead has a similar effect. "Dislocates" are a seldom done but effective exercise. They are like straight-arm pullovers, but when the arms are extended back behind the head, you allow the shoulders to "dislocate", turn the palms out, and allow the dumbbells to return in a circular manner to the sides rather than over, as in the pullover. The Intercostal Extensus muscles are located at the lower border of each rib. They

288 6th STREET
SAN FRANCISCO

Hello out there once again to all of the Sidecar's friends. Hope that your Labor Day weekend was a fun-filled time, bringing summer to an end. This run out we will be cruising from Seaman's Hall where the Warlocks held their 14th Anniversary, then head out with the S, F, G, D, L to their run Number 3 to Juanita's in Jack London Village. From there we will be cruising down to "Don Pedro Park" with the San Franciscans on their "Chuck Wagon Run #5". The sidecar thought that it would be a good time for the president of the San Franciscans to be the officer sitting at "The Desk Of" this time, since the San Franciscans not only did their Chuck Wagon Run, but also celebrated their 5th Anniversary on the run. Hope you enjoy reading it as much as the Sidecar did, covering all of these happenings personally.

at the door by the Warlocks. From there as people headed across the room towards the "2" bars that were tended by different club members from different clubs. They passed a beautiful buffet that was in the shape of a circle. Inside the circle being the big green Honda 550 that everyone in that room would have given his eye teeth for. As the evening went along, prizes were drawn for some very nice things. Mingling with our bike clubs from the Bay Area were clubs from Washington, Mississippi, Texas, Michigan, Vancouver, Los Angeles and many Independents. Just prior to midnite the next to the last drawing was held for a ten-speed bike. The lucky winner for that was Rocky from the CMC, Wally from the Mississippi Mini Bikers was called on stage to draw the winner for the Grand Prize. When the winner was read, the crowd showed it's excitement when Bill Taylor from the San Franciscans name was called. Champagne was poured over the proud winner, as the Warlocks started to leave the stage each brought a bottle of champagne down with them to fill their guests glasses, as everyone headed towards the big beautiful cake that was being served by the Warlock's Ladies Auxiliary. You always meet the nicest people on a Warlock's Honda. Congratulations on the past 14 and best of luck in the ones to come. Thanks for a fun-filled night for all of us.

WARLOCKS

"HOT FLASH FROM HOT FLASH"

We are proud to present for our Grand Opening, "Boxes" by Edward Parente, a New York artist in his first one man show on the West Coast. Although Mr. Parente's work can be seen in many homes in this city and in cities as far reaching as Rome, Bangkok, and London, he has never shown outside his native New York City.

The son of a lithographer, it was only natural when, in 1951 at the age of ten, he won first prize in poster competition at his grammar school. That honor alone was enough to encourage him, but when the prize was presented to him by Senator Alpern, he naturally went on to higher honors! In 1958, the Design Award at Forrest Hills High School; and in 1963, 2nd prize (Stockwell Competition) at Parsons School of Design. He worked constantly in his field developing and broadening his technique and range. Although his exhibit deals only with his boxes, his talent in drawing and sculpture, is of the finest quality. His work experience ranges from offset lithography to silk screen work, from wallpaper and industrial interior design, to architectural rendering for Zonta in Rome for two years.

was able to take a two year sabbatical for just "heavy living, farming, and beachcombing in the summer". This was a turning point in his work as he started to collect flowers, weeds, shells, insects, butterflies and anything that could be dried or preserved. For those that couldn't be found a way. This led to his first exhibit of lucite boxes in 1973 at the Bellardo Gallery in New York City. It was an instant sellout and was followed by a one man show in 1974. On the last day of the exhibit, again a sellout, he left to take up residence in San Francisco.

Edward has spent the last ten months traveling the desert and mountains, to Oregon and even Golden Gate Park collecting for this show. We feel he is the right person to open Hot Flash of America as his work is a prime example of paradox, combining organic objects with body casts and encasing them in lucite. We know you will be excited by his show as well as get a glimpse of the work that is to come from this very talented man.

Returning to New York in 1968, he opened one of the world's first Erotic art galleries in the now well inhabited SoHo district. As owner and operator of the Cannabis Gallery, he gave other artists working with a subject matter that at that time was not so fashionable, a place to exhibit, while continuing to show his own drawings and has been seen with various "men" in the past and so has Mr. Curt with various "he-men", but now at long last it seems that the light has been arrested and they are "one again together", leaving for an extended honeymoon towards Texas for a much needed togetherness, much happiness to both.... Seems a BK item between Mr. Mark Calhoun and a certain Mr. Shore.... That really gets up, up, 6 up, darlings-----VOTE 4 HECTOR, The Man of All Seasons!

One of the events of the year had to be the Seventh Annual Data-Boy Magazine Saulley Awards in which both Dixon and Princess La Kish won as King and Queen, with many other winners such as Danny Rodriguez of Zeldas, Marsia Pistol, Patsy, Tom Avila, the sudden appearance of Madame Marcella in full peeeeee for the world to see (Closest soon, dearest??) A splendid performance by Fat Shirley via "God Bless America", the handsomest David Hodgson in stunning blonde hair, Irene, Missy, Tammy Lynn, Rude Ruth, The Joker, the photographer Eddie Van, the personalities of Flame, Donna Mae, Bob Calhoun, Empress Maxine, Boo and Roy, Dr. Woods and John with Roger and Harry, Tony Pacifica with Tony Royal Baby, just hundreds and hundreds. Thank you both, Fat Shirley and David for a very interesting evening and for the winning of King and Queen-----The "Mouse"

What delightful Mr. Gay S.F. loves to wear his handcuffs to the Ramrod and entice "men" of Leather & Levi's for some dirty talk, filth & toys of all trades who has a wife who wears red in to "boogie balls"????? You fascinating dar-----ling! What special devote person had sooo many husbands in a certain La Tubs which consisted of so many oreo cookies and coffee that they got in the way (the cookies) when a certain gentleman removed his weapon from her virtuous hidden valley of joy that there seemed to be a river of coffee and cookies flowing from her onto the rubber sheets????? I believe it was Jacks, someone is always watching the funny Empress of Colma-----Where's that hidden apartment you promised me Hector?? You can get your VECTOR Cover-Man tickets from Bobby Calhoun at both the Purple Pickle or the infamous Empress Maxine at the New Bell, He's not to watch, a terrific cook, fascinating lover and decent man to have as a friend along with his Don, Vote for Bobby Calhoun!.... Now this is love, naturally I can't mention names, but imagine this To be so tired that the bathroom is lit with fragrant scented candles, your heavenly touchable body is surrounded by millions and millions of bubbles (lemon of course), the walls are covered by the Carriage Trade and Tommy's Plants, making you feel like LaMour is about to spring upon you, Your lover is rubbing ointments of love, the heated floor is invitingly warm from the heated pads, the Hayworth Aroma is over powering, your head is in a daze of love, (by the way it's only 6:00 P.M.) (I'm exhausted just typing this out! Then to the rumbling bedroom with hanging gardens of Babylon, isn't just tooooooo heady and heavenly dar-----lings??-----Congratulations to both Tammy Lynn and Peter Decker for the sensational Red & White Boogie Ball with the door proceeds going to five (5) different charities. These two are always in the habit of doing for the community... very dear persons-----It's good to see that we have the ex-emperor of San Diego, Ed living in S.F. which is beautiful. He is a man of all seasons. Who by the way is now working at the Nickelodeon. A special hello to Ty.... Don't forget your precious V.D.... Sorry I missed the roasting of Marcus I at the Folsom No-Name Street, but Bobby Calhoun had me girl napped to his apartment of dirties... How could I say no to him for Vector Cover Man-----The Casino Royale at SIR, Hector's Home on 6th Street was a great success. But the event of the evening was when Fifi with her 'girls' and male dancers did a complete Las Vegas MGM extravaganza via much dancing, parading, smiling, twitching of the hips, female Hayworth Aromas with the Royal Baby, Mr. Tony doing his impression of Gene Kelley's "Les Girls" in the true Hayworth-Cover Girl Kelley rendition which was dedicated to Princess "LA" in his most truest masculine manner. The audience was completely agass at the manner in which these people had taken the time to give to us in the community a show of marvelous spectacle after the friend leaves? Or should I go through with the date knowing he'll be with me only during the function and then leave with the other person? After all, this is a big night for me and I don't feel I should share it with someone else I hardly know. He is a Taurus and again, this is a relationship between two signs that rarely hit it off even though it is going great so far. What do you think about the whole affair, but mostly, what should I do? I do love him and don't want to lose him over a 10 day tryst he is having, but it is hard for me to accept the fact that he is engaging in sex and love with someone else when he feels the same way about me. I await your answer.

Bewitched, Bothered & Bewildered

Dear B, B, & B:

I would not cancel my plans, but it is going to take some real level-headed maturity for you to go. Be sincere and charming, and conduct yourself as a gentleman in every sense of the word. Quit listening to your "astrologically-minded" friends and dooming relationships simply because your signs are not compatible. If it works, some astrologically minded friend will be able to show why the exception in the stars can prove and disprove more things by the Zodiac than Billy Graham and Carl Roberts can with the King James. Don't gobble that garbage, in short,

If I were you, I would just see with whom he leaves the function, and if it ain't you baby, don't welcome him home at the end of ten days. I am with you on not wanting to lose him over a ten day tryst, so I'd definitely say, give him another chance. but let him prove he has made up his mind who it is he wants, and tell him firmly it must be one or the other. Jealousy is a bad thing, but don't let him sell you the whole bill on that score, either. If he cannot form one to one relationships, from the tone of your letter, I don't think he is good for you.

Dear Pat:

I have recently purchased a well established gay bar in the Sacramento Area. The bar has great potential, but since I live in San Francisco, and work here, I am unable to give it the attention it needs. Do you know of anyone looking for

THE BOB'S CORNER

Picture in your mind the perfect dinner party: marvelous guests, superb food and wine, but an empty chair at the table.

The "missing" guest is the host (or hostess) working so hard in the kitchen, there was no time to sit down and enjoy the dinner and company.

How can a "single" do all the work of a gourmet dinner, yet have time to relax as well?

Impossible? A secret? No, but unless you find a lover who tends bar and cooks too, you gotta prepare the meal in advance. Then, when the guests arrive, relax and let the oven do your work.

Here's a perfect buffet dinner for six... perfect for pre-theatre parties, or just before a big night on the town.

MEDITERRANEAN LINGUINE

1 lb. lean bacon
1/2 lb. sliced mushrooms
2 tbsps. butter
1/4 tsp. Italian herbs
1 garlic clove, crushed
2 - 8 oz. cans chopped clams (with liquid)
1/2 cup ripe olives, pitted
1-12 oz. pack linguine, cooked & drained
5 oz. precooked crab meat

1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
1/2 cup melted butter
1/4 cup chopped parsley
(lemon wedges for garnish)

Saute mushrooms in 2 tbsps. butter. Set aside. Cut bacon into one-inch strips, and cook over low heat until crisp. Drain on paper towels. (Save 1/4 cup bacon drippings).

Combine herbs, garlic and olives with drippings and simmer over medium heat for 3 minutes. Add clams; and simmer two minutes more. Remove from heat.

In large mixing bowl, combine bacon, crab, mushrooms, grated cheese and melted butter mixture.

Add linguine and toss.

Transfer mixture to a large casserole and refrigerate.

Two hours before serving remove from refrigeration. Heat 45 minutes for one hour in a 275 - 300 degree oven.

Garnish with chopped parsley and lemon wedges before serving.

Add the gourmet's touch with a large tossed salad topped with your favorite dressing, warmed slices of S.F.'s famous sourdough bread, and a rich white wine.

Start early on this meal. Enjoy your guests (before dinner treats?) and let your oven do the work.

run the GDI had not only bikes, but cars and a bus going up. The bus left the Prison at 11:30 to swing by the Royal Palace to pick up people and bikes and cars headed for the meeting point on the other side of the Golden Gate. When the bus arrived, there were close to 100 people ready to go. The poker run was done on the way up to Juanitas from there on the bus, everyone was having a ball. Juanita had reserved the entire downstairs dining room for brunch, which for a mere $3.50 was served in the true Juanita Style. The place looked great and she was presented with an autographed poster of the Juanita's Run by the club. After everyone was stuffed, we headed to the Monkey Pod in Santa Rosa for the dance contest. Judges for the contest were the road captains from other clubs. After much dancing and much deliberation, the winners were announced. In the dance contest, Mike from the Knights of Malta and his partner, Sherrie finished 3rd; John and Carl finished 2nd; and coming up in the number 1 slot were Paul and Bobby from the Monterey Dons. In the poker run, 3rd place went to Mike from the Pealuma Cocks, 2nd to John and Carl, and in the number 1 slot was Mopett. All winners were each given a ticket to the GDI Minsky's Show on Oct. 19th. It was a great run out from the other clubs, which made it possible for the Juanita's #3 Run to turn into a fun day for everyone. All of the time and effort that the GDI put in to this last run of the year was well worth it!

vegetables and salad, and the other dinner was a half B-B-Q'd chicken per person with corn on the cob and a super good salad bar. There was plenty of food to go round for seconds. The San Franciscans put their show on Saturday Night, following the Cheaters cocktail party and dinner. Some of the numbers from this fast fun moving show were "Glenda's Place", Acapulco Goldie", "Honey in the Honeycomb", "Getting A Man", "Love Eyes", "Lonesome Polecat", "I Feel Sorry For The Boy", "Go In, Go In, Give A Little Whistle". Their show was closed with what better number than "San Francisco". Sunday night was guest night and to try and put down all of the numbers and folks would be impossible. But the Sidecar will say this: I would not have wanted to be a judge for that show. The Monterey Dons hosted a cocktail party before dinner on Sunday night in the "Glory Hole" bar. After the show the presentation of colors was presented and awards were given out for the bike events, the best individual campsite, best group campsite, guest night numbers, S.F. Man of the Year and the Cam 5. Award in the bike events the winners were:
1st Place rider heavy - Tom B. Ind.
1st Place rider light - John C. Monterey Dons.
2nd Place heavv - Van E. CMC

Best Group Campsite: Monterey Dons

Last but not least, the San Franciscan Member of the Year Award went to Jimmy T, Stage - SFGDI, Sound - Ralph Rotten of the Ramrod, Lighting - Chris and Thadd of the B, C., Along with the B, C., Cheaters, CMC, Constantines, Cycle Runners, KofM, Monterey Dons, SFGDI, Petaluma Cocks, SF Serpents, Recons, from our Northern Area. There were the Bronco's from L, A., Celtics from Pascagola, Mississippi Mini Bikers, Mobile, Alabama an associate member of the San Franciscan's from Australia, and 2 Independents from Paris. This comprised a total of close to 200 people for the weekend.

Almost forgot, the San Franciscans had a ski boat at our disposal and a small boat besides to cruise around the lake, along with swimming over the weekend. Cam S, The Sidecar enjoyed your Carol Channing number having never seen it before. Will be looking forward to seeing it again. If I have missed anything about this run it is not intentional. There was so much going on, all fun, fun, fun!!!

Good to see old friends, Jim M, Jim L., Gordy T, from Victoria B, C, Canada at Bradley's, Tuesday night where about 20 GDI's had Bill's great spaghetti feed. They are guests of Hank and Ron and Jim and Paul for a couple of weeks of the GDL

You will be able to catch the Side car at the Accident, Monday, Wednesday, Thursday nights and Saturday days. So if you have anything to put in it's gas tank, stop by.

Remember: September 13th is the moment of truth. Get out and vote for our next Emperor "4". The Sidecar still believes very strongly that HECTOR N, is the man for the coming year. Vote for experience that has already proven it can do it and will continue to do it. Vote for HECTOR the man of experience.

ial club. Since that day, THE SAN FRANCISCANS have aimed, and succeeded at being a "FUN CLUB". I hold special pride in acting as President during this, our Fifth Anniversary Year of the Club.

THE SAN FRANCISCANS is still known as a "Fun Club" and whenever it fails to accomplish this purpose, the Club, undoubtedly will cease to exist. In honor of our Fifth Anniversary, I've been especially proud of the enthusiasm and camaraderie shown throughout the year. Our first major function, the Fifth Anniversary Party was enthusiastically received as presented at Lenny's "527" and special comment made at the Special Silver and Red buttons issued that evening. Our Batch Brunch held Sunday, March 16th, carried through with a St. Patrick's Day Theme, resulted in 600 plus guests at the Fremont Street Hall... almost twice the number expected. The "Father's Day" Ecology Run, June 15th proved a greater success than ever with many of our brothers from the bike clubs competing for the assorted prizes now associated with the SAN FRANCISCANS and this event.

Having just returned from this weekend's major function of the SAN FRANCISCANS the Labor Day Weekend Chuckwagon Run with the theme of "Batch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid", I realize a special satisfaction at it's great success and the enthusiasm as our priceless guests in participating in our Guest Night Show, contests for best Campsite theme and Best Disguised Outlaw as well as Dance Hall Girls. The ingenuity of the participants was astounding and added to the enjoyment of our many guests and very special friends. I can only say to my Club and our participating guests... a sincere THANK YOU for making this event the memorable function it turned out to be. The boat excursions and midnight "cruises" were enthusiastically received. We owe this to our very own Terry L., residing in Los Angeles and proudly displaying our Little Cable Car Logo in the Southland. A special treat was the appearance of Graeme A., coming all the way from Sidney, Australia, where even the "Down Under" San Francisco is "loved and respected as well as known as 'THE PLACE' to visit when vacation time rolls around for the 'Aussies'.... Guests came from such varied locales as Paris, France, Pascagola, Mississippi, Mobile, Alabama as well as numerous Angelenos.

I've worked to make the SAN FRANCISCANS rank among the top clubs of the Bay Area and encouraged active participation in all social events and runs to "show the Colors". This year, as never before, the SAN FRANCISCANS' logo has been in evidence at nearly every major function in the City and Bike Run outside the City. We've been honored with recognition for this effort by a great majority of our fellow brothers in the bike community as well as the courts and titles of the City. Without the aid of the fine staff of officers working toward this goal and my fellow brother-members of the SAN FRANCISCANS with their devoted work to the Club and esteem for it, we would not today hold the prestigious position and close relationships

FILM REVIEW by Alan Farley

The Mitchell Brothers' long-hearided "Sodom and Gamorrah" opened this week at theatres around the area, and you'll be happy to know that it knocks down the myths about male homosexuality in those cities; at least according to this film, there just wasn't any. Unless you count someone sucking himself off, or another performer's ad libbing a lick or two to another guy's cock - I don't. Fans of Dr. David Reuben will love the cucumber sequence, but it's all stimulated (at least with the men) and could hardly be called gay sex. What we have here in fact, is a rather poorly-made, average straight porno flick, nothing more - complete with the standard 3-b lesbian sequence. While it stars George Macdonald and Johnnie Keyes, men of some considerable endowment, it is hardly worth the expense and boredom just to see them displaying their wares. The only good word I can say for the acting is that Sean Brancato does have his moments as Bera, the King of Sodom, and Ruffles is terrific as the commander of the space ship (yes, I said space ship - don't ask me to explain the story, you wouldn't believe it). By the way, Ruffles is a chimpanzee, and does a very good imitation of John Wayne (maybe that's not so hard for a chimp. after all).

In short, the film is a pretentious bore, and an insult to gay people; avoid it!

Shooting of the live performance was completed with 9 cameras under the direction of Steve Binder before a live audience. Filming took place during the last two days of the tour which broke boxoffice records in every theatre and established new heights in ticket requests.

I adore my King, Mr. Dixon of the *PS, may be sleep well at nights through these troubled times (what is that Empresses name???) He really deserves the "King" title for his courage and endless time he has given to so many without asking for anything in return... Love is around constantly. Vote for Mr. HECTOR for Emperor so he can give me that high-rise apartment. Also remember if you need ads for Vector please give Princess "La" a ring at the Purple Pickle or at SIR. This is of course for you monthlies (ads I mean), and she'll give you a wonderful service. Vote for Bobby Calhoun for Vector's Cover-Man and center-fold appearance. He's HOT completely, notice his thighs for giving pleasures... I'm in raging heat!!! Oh, "Mecca" don't print that. My public, where are my subjects of royalty???? (such camp!). work with the Serratus Anterior to elevate the ribs and aid in respiration. When coupled with deep breathing, the same exercises which work the Serratus Anterior also affect the Intercostals, as do all forms of pullovers, chinling, flyers and exercises with cable "chest expanders". But for both these muscle groups, it is essential that one practice deep, complete breathing, involving the entire chest and thorax. Full development of all these muscles is seen more on gymnasts who work out on the "Roman rings", than on any other athlete. Bodybuilders who practice only "basic" power exercises, seldom show much definition or shape in this area. Practitioners of the martial arts may, if they are slender, be good in this area. The late Bruce Lee had excellent development in this Serratus muscle area, and this gave him a beautifully muscular, though slender, torso.

Well that's it for this run. Nothing happening in the "little black book" now, but wait until next time. Summer fun is over, but winter is just as much fun.

Remember, I would rather see you here on earth than up in heaven...

Peace,

Deno

a good business opportunity, in that line? If so, please ask anyone to contact me through your column, if this is possible.

Sincerely,

(Name Withheld)

Dear Readers:

Any one interested? I don't know if he is interested in selling, selling in part or just looking for a good manager. All replies will be forwarded in confidence.

Dear Pat:

I am better than average looking, and here is the problem: If I am in a bar, it is more often than not that some clod I have no interest in (usually very drunk) strikes up a conversation and won't leave me alone. I am beginning to think some people just don't take hints very easy. I am sure other people have the same problem and could you do us all a favor and tell me and others how to stop these drips?

No Sig.

Dear No. Sig:

People who can't take hints can't be insulted easily either so a smile and sincere "Would you please leave me alone?" should do it. If it should fail, tell the bartender, and see if he can handle it from there. P. S. On second thought, go to the person in the room in whom you are interested, tell him your problem, and ask if he will have a drink with you to ward off the attacker... this should get you out of the frying pan and perhaps into the bed.

BUMPER STICKER ON MARKET Streets: "Custer wore Arrow Shirts".

THE C.M.C. CARNIVAL IS COMING at Seaman's Hall on November 9th, and Buddy Thompson tells me that we ain't seen nothing yet! Can't wait for the tickets to go on sale. I'll bet they beat their 4000 attendance record from last year. Bet?!!

HEAR TELL THAT SOME OF THE best cruising goes on in the basement dressing room of the Emporium. The rooms are no longer private. It's just one big (orzy?) room. Only in "Mecca"!

SUGGEST YOU TRY THE NEW LUNCH and brunch menu at the Purple Pickle. It's a real dandy one and there's huge servings for the morning after syndrome. Not expensive either. I don't think you'll be sorry.

BOKAYS TO THE SWEETHEART OF THE SAULLEYS: Thom Paine and J. B. - Eagle Creek Saloon. You both deserve them for many, many reasons.

HAVE YOU SEEN THAT NEW FLASHY Magazine "Blue Boy" yet? It'll be on the news stands soon with a special "San Francisco" (Mecca, please!) edition. Watch for it and thank you, John LaMotte.....you're hot!

COMPASSION AWARD OF THE WEEK: To Chuck Perkins and Bob Ferrazano for their humanitarian thinking and beautiful compassion towards a friend... a friend that'll never know.

GOD DAMN IT!! If the Gay Community doesn't unite and lay a big batch of pressure on this City to curb these senseless beatings and brutal and sick killings, we're definitely going to be in trouble. Mr. Marks, can you help? Does anybody have some ideas? Let's get pissed and do something right now before it happens again!!!!

HEAR YE...HEAR YE...HEAR YE! The Renaissance Faire in Novato is now in its Ninth Big Year and will be staged until September 28th. Enough said about that unless you've not experienced it. And if you haven't, ask anybody.

ANOTHER RUMOR AROUND TOWN: Studio One (ala Los Angeles) may be ala San Francisco soon.

ACCORDING TO HERB CAEN, of 103 voters asked at the CSL-Cops Softball game who they preferred for Mayor the results were:

- Marks.....59
- Feinstein.....31
- Moscone.....10

Marks has been a friend of the gay community for years and apparently they community hasn't forgotten who its friends are..... I guess it indicates something, huh???

"CLICK-CLICK" at the Laurel Theatre coming next week. Don't miss it! (Where oh, where is "Cruisin' '57", Thom? The expectation is killing me!)

WELL, THE CITY IS COMING THRU: Left Turn lanes on "The Silver Strip". Now what about downtown? Hurry!

Bobby, the notorious cabette and I are getting together (a conspiracy) and traveling around "Mecca" for a whole day. I intend to pick up some juicy tid-bits about those specialized places and areas that all of us should enjoy. Watch for it coming up soon. "Raunch with lots of Class"!

Now for a political endorsement

Although I know and love Mike Carlingi and Mike Delaney, I've got to commit myself to a man who I know much better and have a great deal of love and respect for and that man is HECTOR NAVARRO. I am sure that the opposition might just make good Emperors, but I can't believe that the SURE choice is Hector. Because of his dynamic track-record, I can see what he has done, which indicates to me that he should be a most excellent Emperor. Each reign of Emperor has become more involved with the main-stream of society and I believe that Hector will be able to perpetrate this idea even further. He
