DEDICATION

This Volume is affectionately dedicated to the memory of our dear friend and great teacher, Alfred L. Kroeber. The Society which he so graciously allowed to bear his name has chosen to publish these essays as a means of saying "thank you," and of paying him our final respects.

He died in the fullness of his vigor, still keenly interested in problems of current research, still asking questions more often than answering them. These pages contain no eulogies nor attempts to delimit Alfred L. Kroeber's contributions to anthropology. Rather, this Memorial is composed, for the most part, of articles by professional anthropologists who received their doctorates at the University of California during the years when Professor Kroeber was active there. Each article contributes, in some way, to human knowledge. We think that A. L. Kroeber would have liked this volume.

Richard Roark, Editor

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

The Kroeber Anthropological Society Papers publish articles in the general field of anthropology, including those which it is difficult, for various reasons, to publish elsewhere. In addition to articles of theoretical interest, the Papers will welcome descriptive studies putting factual information on record, as well as bibliographies, linguistic texts, vocabularies and historical documents of anthropological interest. The Society welcomes student research papers of high quality.

Manuscripts must be type-written, double spaced, on good quality 8-1/2 x 11 inch paper, and on one side of the page only. Endnotes (the Papers do not employ footnotes) and bibliography should be placed on separate sheets. The bibliographic style to be followed is that used in this number of the Papers. Authors will note that the bibliographic style is an extended version of that employed by the American Anthropologist.

Authors will receive without charge twenty reprints of their articles. Additional reprints may be ordered at the price of one cent per page. A small extra charge will be made if illustrations must be reproduced by photolithography. When notified of the acceptance of their manuscripts, authors will be asked how many additional reprints they desire.
