Subscription:

Starting with number 86, subscription to the Kroeber Anthropological Society Papers will be based on an annual fee which includes three volumes per academic year (fall, winter, spring). Subscription rates for students are $30 and for all other individuals and institutions are $60 per year. All foreign subscribers should add $10 to those rates for shipping and handling. Back issues are available at $10 per volume, plus $2 shipping and handling for U.S. addresses and $4 for international addresses. Checks should be made to the Kroeber Anthropological Society and sent to the address at the bottom. Please contact the KAS for questions about reprints and copyright fees.

Information for authors:

Founded in 1949, the Kroeber Anthropological Society Papers is the oldest graduate student-run Anthropology publication in the United States. We publish articles in the general field of anthropology (and all its subdisciplines) which are of theoretical, descriptive, or practical interest. We welcome submissions by anthropology students, faculty, and professionals. All submissions for our general volumes are evaluated through a blind peer review process. Submitted papers should not exceed 30 typewritten, double spaced pages and conform to the style guide used by the American Anthropological Association. Two paper copies and one computer copy of the manuscript should be submitted. Computer copies should be on 3½" diskette formatted for either Mac or DOS, text should be in Microsoft Word, WordPerfect, or plain (ASCII) text format. Email submissions are acceptable, but should be followed up with two hard copies sent by regular mail.

All inquiries, submissions, and subscriptions should be sent to:
