In 1964 the Recon Motorcycle Club asked a San Francisco bar to participate in a toy benefit at Christmas time for needy children. The bar gave a drink for each toy. So overwhelming was the response, that the bar came close to bankruptcy and the Recon had to assess their members to pay for gift wrap. Six years later and involving community effort, the seventh edition of The Toy Thing opens at 7:30 pm, December 5th, at Maritime Hall, 350 Fremont Street.

The event is now additionally sponsored by the Barbary Coasters, the California Motor Club, the Challengers, the Constellations, the San Franciscans, the Serpents, the Warlocks, and other social and business organizations. A G.I. read the Toy Thing story in a New York publication this year and sent a check for $5 in a Christmas card that said he had ordered toys from the Sears Roebuck catalog. In 1965, a purchasing committee was asked by a wholesale toy store owner why they were buying so many toys. When he had heard about The Toy Thing he said, "go back, double your purchases, the bill is the same."

There is no available record of the total number of toys that have been collected throughout the years, but last year there were six truck loads to be distributed to thousands of children of all ages.

Last year surplus funds purchased a much needed Bennett Respirator. A new toy and a $5.00 donation entitles the bearer to an evening of dancing, light show and drinks. The Toy Thing combines an act of giving and a "gay" holiday party. Adz-Gayzette commends The Toy Thing for contributing to the holiday joy of so many.

Luella Parkons

This girl is dying in anticipation of the forthcoming Home Show, that offers celebrities, gayty and fun displays. The opening at Brooks Hall on Dec. 5th is a social event.

Luella and Marty, after tripping the bridge fantastic to Oakland, took a lovely CRUISE of Lake Merrit and then had a delightful remnant of Grandma's House. Excellent service and atmosphere.

Luella is furious! The suggestion that she is contracted to dine out is insipid! Tra la la for now.

Dear John,

I started going with my lover about two months ago. He just recently put a wall grouping in his apartment. A lack of hair from a past girl friend. He really dig it, but I have some reservations. What do you think of my position?

Sincerely,

Peter

Dear John,

I've just finished my seventh try at happiness since the beginning of the year. And I didn't pan out, and fear I'll fall. I've tried dating from want to pretend not to care.

Sincerely,

Karen

Formerly from Battlecreek, Michigan, he has lived in California for 9 years. He's 22, has brown hair, green eyes, is 5'9".

Dear John,

I've included my recent try at happiness since the beginning of the year. And I didn't pan out, and fear I'll fail. I've tried dating from want to pretend not to care. If you break up with a guy, be sure to find a woman who is better for you. You'll never know if you up and leave. Keep trying.

John

I usually pick up GAYZETTE paper at one of the cafes on Turk Street. The last time I was there, I ordered as they so no longer hand out. They're gone.
