"MISS GAYZETTE" II CROWNED

Leonarda's was brilliantly alive with the most unusual and yet marvelous enchantment Luella has ever experienced on the occasion of a coronation.

Stu, the new and lovely "Miss Gayzette" II ("Miss ADZ-Gayzette" is NOT a "throw-away," that quaint title has merely never been in existence, silly BAR lady), was as delighted as this girl, when proclaimed winner by Empress Jonnie. Contestants Billy, Tommy and Chuckles, who individually and collectively added such lustre and compliment to the party, caused the merriest difficulty for heaven judges Empress Jonnie, Dowager Cristal, Jim (Mr. Gay S.F.), Miss Cotillion '71 and Prince Consort.

The relaxed and beautiful audience were happily surprised to hear the announced arrival of beaming Czarina Nickie Nations and her gorgeously attired Peninsula court.

Miss Gayzette I (Neil) couldn't have been a more enchanting hostess. She has announced a brief retirement from social madness, while her successor and her new "ladies" are busily preparing for an active 1972 season.

Congratulations, no. II, from loving Luella. Have a grand that we want all work for a common cause—the good of our community.

All would agree that unity is working together. In every way possible, yet those who screen out the obvious—do not put down the efforts of those who are concerned about our community. The goal of unity.

Dear Debra John,

I love coffee and drink about 12 cups a day, mostly all of it homemade. I have been told I don’t like coffee and won’t drink it. I have had no problems with the coffee except for the taste. I like it very much. It isn’t exactly the same as the coffee I bought at the store, but it’s close enough. I have tried many different brands and none of them have come close to the coffee I buy at the store. I love coffee and won’t stop drinking it. I have tried many different brands and none of them have come close to the coffee I buy at the store. I love coffee and won’t stop drinking it.

Sincerely,

Ron

Dear Debra John,

I agree with you about sending coffee to our community. It is definitely a great way to support our local businesses. We have had a lot of problems with the coffee we buy at the store, but it has been good. We have tried many different brands and none of them have come close to the coffee we buy at the store. I love coffee and won’t stop drinking it. I have tried many different brands and none of them have come close to the coffee I buy at the store. I love coffee and won’t stop drinking it.

Sincerely,

Ron
