CINDER FELLA BALL

WORLD OF ENTERTAINMENT
By: Margret-Ann

A NIGHT TO FORGET!

Last Saturday evening in the
at the coronation ball. Since I was a waste of time and certainly a night to forget!

To begin, the Grand Ballroom room in the true San Francisco tradition with its heavy, carved white doors, huge gold crests adorning the ceiling and the hubbub, deep blue carpet giving the room a regal feeling of luxury... The room is enormous, no doubt about that, and easily seats 1200 (Actually the room would be a welcomed change from the ticky-tacky Jack Tar for the Coronation Ball) So much for the good... .

The outside entrance on Cali-ferred in a red velvet chair located stage center. Once and not heard.

Have a happy 4th!

PERRY PRESENTS TROPHY TO "MR. CINDER FELLA"... DOUGLAS DEAN

S.F. GAINS L.A. COUNCILLOR

The Society For Individual Rights and Tavern Guild of San Francisco are cooperating to provide Military and Draft Counselling, a needed service to the S.F. Gay Community.

This week, S.I.R. and TGSF
both agreed to divide equally the ministrance salary to be paid to Peter Sorgen, Military and Draft Counsellor, while S. L. R. will bear the cost of telephone, mailing and office space at its facilities, 83 Sixth Street.

The service is now available to any gay person, not just members of the above organizations.

NEW JOB PLACEMENT PROGRAM

Chuck Schoedle, Community Services Director for the Society
For Individual Rights, this week announced the inauguration of a Job Placement Program at S. L. R.

This program will be designed to not only match existing jobs with those who need them, but to open up new jobs in areas previously closed. The service will be open to all gay persons,
not just members of S. L. R.

Assisting Chuck in the program will be Peter Sorgen, Military and Draft Counsellor.

RELEASES FROM FRANK FITCH
The highlight of the evening was the annual Drag Ball at the Bear’s. It was more than an evening event. It was a category event. If you want to have a good time, you must attend. The theme this year was “The Inner.”

The audience was divided into two sections: male attire plus a few drag queens. The audience was hooked from the start. The finale was a Categories Episode, which was the highlight of the evening. The Categories Episode was divided into three parts: Male, Female, and Mixed Gender. The Male Category was the most popular. The Female Category was the least popular. The Mixed Gender Category was in between.

The Categories Episode was followed by a bonfire and an all-night dance party. The bonfire was the best part of the evening. It was a great way to end the evening. The all-night dance party was great too. It was a great way to start the new season.

The Categories Episode was an amazing event. It was a great way to end the evening. The bonfire and the all-night dance party were great too. It was a great way to start the new season.
