San Francisco's Queues Ball and Coronation

Friday, November 9, 1979
9pm til 2am

BIVIUS 356 CLUB
1050 Columbus Avenue
San Francisco
$15 (GENERAL ADMISSION) $13 (AT THE DOOR) $10 (RESERVED)

Women can dance uptempo to contemporary disco, or downbeat to Mary Watkins, Linda Tillery and other artists; for those who crave nostalgia, the evening offers "oldies but goodies" from the 50's and 60's.

At this (from 8 pm to 1 am) for a mere $2.00. Proceeds benefit Women Against Violence in Pornography & Media (WAVPM) which organized the 1983 march of 3,000 on San Francisco's Broadway District, and briefly but effectively, targeted the city's heterosexual porn center.

Beth Goldberg, spokesperson for WAVPM, explains that although Take Back The Night accomplished everything WAVPM had intended, the event took three months to organize and saddled the group with $7000 in unpaid bills.

The money from the celebration will let us pay off the balance of that debt, and more importantly, sustain our ongoing projects while finding seed money for new ones.

Ed Chadwick

WAVPM

Women Against Violence in Pornography & Media, a newsletter for feminists and others interested in the ongoing struggle to end violence against women. They've also produced a slide show on anti-woman media, available to women's groups on request.

Another WAVPM project provides forums for the Bay Area's non-gay, x-rated bookstores and movie theaters, so women can see first-hand the material that inspirers want forbidden with First Amendment arguments. This same month, WAVPM builds responsibility for terrorizing women's lives.

Goldberg tells us WAVPM needs to raise money to pay more staff members. She hopes for "the re-sources to open up a library on the subject of violence in pornography and the media that could be used by interested parties world-wide."

To those gay men who view WAVPM as the way hard drinkers view the Women's Christian Temperance Union, Goldberg says there's a distinct distinguishing between pornography and erotica.

Jose At Chez Jacques

Jose Barria, San Francisco’s first openly gay candidate for public office—the man who created the title and became Emperor / L F San Francisco—is back.

Jose returns as leading dive of the revived Black Cat Opera Company, appearing at Chez Jacques in San Francisco throughout this month. This performance: November 17: Traverse, L.G. Boheme, and Mrs. Rapillon (Madame Bottome).

— Accompanied by pianist Jim McConnie. Jose jestfully commits operatic anacronies, successfully saturation program notes, singing all major roles in ger­ nerual language comes to hand, and insulting his audience between gigan­ tous8 openings of precocious high c’s.

“Something pornographic must portray a man, [WAVP] concerns itself almost exclusively with heterosexual porn, in which the notion is man dominating and/or abusing women. Ed.) woman or child being bound, raped, tortured, degraded, mutilated, or murdered for sexual entertainment.”

“Continues: “The material shows unequal power relationships, usually an exploit of women, and women in a sexual context, in such a way that it seems to recommend and applaud iniquity.”

Educational materials will be available at Amelia’s during the November 18 celebration and dance. In addition, photographs of the 1978 march and concert will line the walls of the bar.

Describing last year’s march at its peak, one participant later wrote: “For an hour, Broadway belonged not to the barbers, the pimps, the pornographers, or to the theater owners, not to potential rapists, not to wholes, hustles, or can­ cils. It belonged instead to the song­ voices, rage, vision, strength, and pre­ essence of three thousand women who took back the night.”

Donations may be mailed to: WAVP, P.O. Box 14814, S.F., CA 94114.

VOTER INFORMATION... (continued from front page)

“Tornout, Patterson said, “there’s just not as much voter interest as in previous mayoral elections. There have been smaller turnouts, but not for a mayoral race.”

POLLS open at 7 a.m. Tuesday morning and close 8 p.m. that night.

Because polls tend to be crowded before and after work and during lunch breaks, it’s best to plan your day so that you vote between 9 and 12, or between 1 and 5.

The law requires employers to allow workers time off for voting.

If for any reason you aren’t allowed to vote at your precinct or don’t know where to vote, call the registrar’s office at 558-3417 for assistance.
