What Happened to Baybitch?

If one chooses not to appear in this publication, then one should not be heard. One should at least try to remain silent whenever possible.

Barbara Grove
San Francisco

Dear Barbara Grove,

I am not sure what you mean by "Baybitch." I am not familiar with it. I would be interested in knowing more about it. Could you provide some context or information about it? I would appreciate any insights or explanations you might have.

Sincerely,

Kenneved

Re: Splits As Reporter

I was interested in your comments regarding the controversies surrounding the bathhouse closings. As a reporter covering the issue, I have noticed a similar trend in other media outlets as well. The coverage often seems to focus more on the reactions of community members rather than the issues at hand.

Bob Rearden

Re: Women's Community

While Randy Shilts was reporting on the controversies surrounding the women's community, he often highlighted the experiences of women who were living with AIDS. His reporting brought attention to the unique challenges faced by women in the community and the importance of support and advocacy.

Re: Perpetrating Rodeo Violence

I was shocked to read about the容忍ment of violence at the rodeo. As a reporter, I strive to bring attention to these issues in order to bring about change. We must continue to raise awareness and advocate for the rights of all individuals.

Re: Music Festival Workers Protest

I was moved by the dedication and passion of the workers who organized the music festival. Their efforts to ensure a safe and enjoyable event for all attendees should be acknowledged and supported.

Re: Disabled & Seniors

I appreciate the inclusion of information on disabled and seniors in the publication. It is important to ensure that all voices are heard and included in our reporting.

Re: Gay Freedom Day Parade

I was touched by the contributions of the performers who participated in the Gay Freedom Day Parade. Their bravery and commitment to the cause is truly inspiring.

ENDORSEMENTS
WE WANT THE BEST AIDS SERVICES IN THE WORLD. — San Francisco, already the model for the world in its response to AIDS, faces an even greater challenge. All more and more of our people are diagnosed with AIDS or ARC, and so more and more the healing treatments become necessary. New funding for the AIDS may be all we need to make AIDS the highest priority of the administration.

WE WANT A LESBIAN/GAY COMMUNITY CENTER — There is a growing need for a center dealing with the myriad of medical, social, cultural, and recreational needs of our community. We want in San Francisco—what already exists in Detroit, Vancouver, Los Angeles and elsewhere. We want our own community center, and we want it soon.

WE WANT DOMESTIC PARTNERS LEGISLATION SIGNED INTO LAW. — We will not accept recognition of our relationships. We want a vehicle to register our life commitment to each other and we want benefits equal to those accorded heterosexual couples such as life and health insurance, bereavement leave, and visitation rights. Many California cities have already enacted similar legislation. It’s time that San Francisco recognized the legitimate status of its gay and lesbian relationships.

WE WANT AN END TO VIOLENCE AGAINST LESBIANS AND GAY MEN — There’s no excuse for our people having to fear walking on the streets, riding on MUNI, or strolling in the parks. MUNI or the Police Force or both should be shaken up. The next mayor must make it happen.

WE WANT FULL EMPOWERMENT OF LESBIAN AND GAY PEOPLE. — We want the new administration to have Lesbians and Gay Men fully integrated into the system at every level of government. We want equal access to the powers that be, our city. We want a mayor who listens to us and who helps us achieve our goals. Not one who dictates to us.

For many years our community has given that kind of support to the full extent of our abilities. In return, we must demand their support of us. And we have a rare chance to elect one of our own to higher office, as the next, Congressional office, we expect our friends and neighbors to return the support. As Harvey Milk so often reminded us—we will not be tolerated until others are in positions of power.

When past casts are shown, only one candidate can be named support the hopes and dreams of lesbians and gay people in our city and one of our own in Congress.

STONEWALL
GAY DEMOCRATIC CLUB

Remember to Vote: Tuesday, November 3rd!

Endorsements

John Molinari — We support the endorsement of John Molinari for Mayor of San Francisco. Molinari has been a progressive leader in the city and is the only candidate with a comprehensive record of support for gay and lesbian issues.

Mike Hennessy — Mike Hennessy is an effective and dedicated leader who has fought for gay and lesbian rights for many years. We encourage everyone to support Mike.

Arlo Smith — Arlo Smith is a strong advocate for gay and lesbian issues and has been a valued member of our community. We stand behind his candidacy.

We encourage all of our members to vote in this election and to support the candidates who have demonstrated their commitment to our community. Together, we can make a difference!

The day started early, at 5:30 a.m. A frantic search started in Washington, D.C., for the last corner of space to hold the AIDS quilt. We had to find a place where we could bring the quilt to the public and covered with people looking at it. A high school gym in the Capitol neighborhood was chosen. It was not large enough to accommodate the quilt, but the school was willing to let us use it. We were determined before, they are going to be determined now, and if they weren't determined before, they are going to be determined now, and if they weren't determined before, they are going to be determined now.

We had to keep moving, we had to keep talking. We had to keep people talking. We had to keep the public involved. We had to keep the public informed. We had to keep the public involved. We had to keep the public informed. We had to keep the public involved.

HALF A MILLION QUEERS SHOUT IT OUT: FOR LOVE AND FOR LIFE: WE’RE NOT GOING BACK

Owney to the Mall! As we tramped over one of the nickels from the Capitol towards Washington’s huge gathering, all the Montels knew that the drumbeat of drums has only begun. The marchers, thousands of them, were a solid phalanx from every state of the union fluttering, booths ranged in attire from crucified jeans to fruited plain.

Another day, and he said Castro Street is deserted, and all the worries about it fit an election campaign and insufficiently critical. It’s a tough role to play. She explained, “There’s a lot of frustration in us.” Addressing the issue of speakers at the rally, she continued, “No more delays on AIDS treatments. We demand they be given to the people who need them without delay. The waiting has been too long. It is a matter of justice.”

With a placard bearing the name of his dead lover. “I’m not gay, I’m not a lesbian,” he said. “I’m not a woman. I’m a gay man.”

The Christian terrorists were out too, all eight of them, marching with their flexing their batons. They lined up single file in the middle of the road, nearly crying with rage.

The Plaza was slashed by a line of solid blue barricades. The Court loomed over the police and the press conference time. Pat Norman kicked off.

Chanting, “I-D-A-H-O-M-0, Idahomo! We Want Them? NOW! Fight Back! Fight Sabotage.” Other March organizers overheard the mix of emotions, laughter, tears, anger, and wanting to hear. We the people,” Jackson urged the crowd, “take on amazing similarities in the dark. Let’s turn on the light of justice.”

Christ! It was another early morning wake-up. I think we should have a better time. This is just not going to work. We’re going to have to do it ourselves. We’re going to have to be our own movement. We’re going to have to be our own government.

For Proposition C, the writers of the Community Advisory Board to the San Francisco Hospital Commission make a strong argument for the inclusion of a gay and lesbian presence in the board. They emphasize the need for a more diverse and inclusive representation in the commission. The board is currently composed of five commissioners, and the writers argue that the inclusion of a gay or lesbian commissioner would provide a more balanced perspective and ensure the well-being of the entire community.

They also discuss the importance of health care for the gay and lesbian community and the need for a commissioner who understands and champions the rights of this community. The writers stress the need for the commission to reflect the diversity of San Francisco and its residents.

In another perspective, the writers from the California AIDS Research Group urge support for Proposition C. They highlight the urgent need for better health care for the gay and lesbian community and the importance of having a commissioner who is committed to addressing these issues.

The writers conclude by calling on the community to vote yes on Proposition C, emphasizing the importance of ensuring that the Community Advisory Board to the San Francisco Hospital Commission is truly representative of the diverse needs of the city.

As we'll see to know, the Alex B. Toddinia influence can be seen everywhere in this campaign. The Britts are running a campaign that is the same as Milk's in 1977.

Britt's competition in 1977 was the conservative and straight-supported Carl Agnos. But Britt's competition in 1987 is the liberal and gay-supported John Molinari. Britt is struggling to win the same kind of support that Milk did.

Britt's campaign is a joke. It's a sham. It's a fraud. It's a lie. It's a misrepresentation of the truth. It's a manipulation of the public.

COMMUNITY FORUM

Lesbian/Gay Parenting Group Responds to Issues Raised by Adoptees and Birthparents

We are members of the Lesbian/Gay Parenting Group (LGP), a support network of gay parents and children. Our mission is to promote openness andiresponsibility to the是个community. We stand committed to the rights of individ­uals, particularly the lesbian/lesbian community, to choose how to bear and raise children. What they carried offended many of our feelings of all participants, most especially, our right that we did not want their combative, blood relatives or friends of any of the above... At the same time, it's equally important that we fully protect our families from destruction of heritage to the children we have borne. (The LGP has always demanded and been open about the right to protect our children from the features of gay/lesbian parental rights.)

To the community devastated by death. And we are capable of arriving at solutions that incorporate till realities. I'm very happy with the LGP. This is an attempt to say that there's a very, very important piece of the puzzle missing."

"It's not fair," I thought. "You've just wasted my money. You should be doing your job properly." I was talking to my employer, a man who had taken me on as an intern. I had been with the company for two years, and I was very happy with my job. But things had been going wrong recently, and I wasn't sure if I could keep my position.

Medical information is one area that becomes especially important for people as they age. I have had some traditional medical tests done, such as mammograms and prostate exams. All the tests were negative, but I was still concerned about my health. I have had several close friends who have suffered from cancer, and I know that early detection is key. I want to do everything I can to stay healthy.

I am glad to have learned about the importance of medical information. I will continue to monitor my health and make sure that I get regular checkups. I hope that this information will help others to do the same.

Thank you for the article on adoption. It was really insightful. As an adoptee, I have always been curious about my birth parents. I have been fortunate to have access to some information, but I am still eager to learn more.

I have always wanted to find my birth parents, but I am not sure if it is right to do so. I have heard mixed opinions from others who have gone through adoption. Some say it is important to know your biological roots, while others believe that it is better to leave things alone.

I am not sure what to do. I am considering adopting a child of my own. I want to be a parent, but I also want to know where I came from. I hope that this article will help me decide what is right for me.

I had been with the company for two years, and I was very happy with my job. But things had been going wrong recently, and I wasn't sure if I could keep my position.

Medical information is one area that becomes especially important for people as they age. I have had some traditional medical tests done, such as mammograms and prostate exams. All the tests were negative, but I was still concerned about my health. I have had several close friends who have suffered from cancer, and I know that early detection is key. I want to do everything I can to stay healthy.

I am glad to have learned about the importance of medical information. I will continue to monitor my health and make sure that I get regular checkups. I hope that this information will help others to do the same.

Thank you for the article on adoption. It was really insightful. As an adoptee, I have always been curious about my birth parents. I have been fortunate to have access to some information, but I am still eager to learn more.

I have always wanted to find my birth parents, but I am not sure if it is right to do so. I have heard mixed opinions from others who have gone through adoption. Some say it is important to know your biological roots, while others believe that it is better to leave things alone.

I am not sure what to do. I am considering adopting a child of my own. I want to be a parent, but I also want to know where I came from. I hope that this article will help me decide what is right for me.

"It's not fair," I thought. "You've just wasted my money. You should be doing your job properly." I was talking to my employer, a man who had taken me on as an intern. I had been with the company for two years, and I was very happy with my job. But things had been going wrong recently, and I wasn't sure if I could keep my position.

A good design is a thing of beauty...

You know what it's like: start the art performance, the marriage of form and function; the "whole" ring is more than the sum of its parts. ChiliPants is an innovation in design of this magnitude and integrity. We replace the restrictive level of cross seams usually found in the double of cones with a panel of cloth called a gusset. Now you have a pair of pants with no pinching or binding. ChiliPants have the good looks of traditional design plus comfort and freedom of movement. Several styles in 100% cotton for women, men and children.

Come by and try. See why 85% of the people who try ChiliPants buy ChiliPants.

THEATRE

Poppies

By Gene Price

A more or less conventional tale of love and death during the Spanish Civil War, "Poppies" is a dramatic fantasy that captures the spirit of the times and delivers an affecting vignette of the love and betrayal that developed between two young people, a Mexican postman and a Spanish woman. The romance and its termination are described with a vividness and realism that make the story ring true.

Burning Patience

Reviewed by Gene Price

The One-Act Theatre opened its fourth season with a presentation of an imaginative production of "Burning Patience," a text by the late John Marzella about a man who seeks to burn up his former life and start a new one. The play, which is presented in a non-traditional setting, is a moving exploration of the search for personal identity and the power of imagination.

A Lear Triumphant

Reviewed by Gene Price

Shakespeare's "King Lear" is given a new twist in this production, with an emphasis on the character's struggle with the power of his own ego and the need to let go of his past mistakes. The performance is both powerful and moving, with a rich cast of characters that bring the story to life.

Extremities

Reviewed by Rony Rou"

"Extremities," a one-act play by David Mamet, is a dark and intense exploration of the physical and emotional boundaries that individuals attempt to push. The play is a powerful examination of the power dynamics that exist between individuals and the consequences of crossing those lines.

Lie of the Mind

Reviewed by Gene Price

"Lie of the Mind," a play by Edward Albee, is a scathingly honest portrayal of a woman's struggle with the reality of her own mental state. The performance is a masterful exploration of the complexity of the human psyche and the power of the human imagination.

FILM

A Death in the Family

BY GENE PAGE

A Death in the Family is a deeply moving and perfectly realized adaptation of Booth Tarkington's 1929 Pulitzer Prize-winning novel. Directed by James Ivory and produced and written by Sydney Pollack, the film is a testament to the power of great storytelling and the enduring appeal of a timeless story. The film stars Meryl Streep as Mary and Anthony Hopkins as Dr. Barry, whose relationship is at the heart of the narrative. Through their interactions, we witness a poignant exploration of grief, guilt, and the complexities of family dynamics. The performances are exceptional, with Streep delivering a masterful portrayal as the mother who is forced to confront her own past and the consequences of her actions. The film is a must-see for fans of literary adaptations and those who appreciate heartfelt, nuanced storytelling.
I've Heard The Mermaids Singing

The movie opens on Polly telling her new co-worker, G. (an insecure, timid secretary who) her real story. She's beautiful, she's smart, and she's got the world by the tail. Lackadaisical Polly attends a long confinement, a gallery owner who is having an affair with another woman, secures a job in a rare art gallery. She has somebody. Except Robin, who just dreams about her. So it's back to California.)

Polly's affair has fizzled. Robin's pay-for-play with another woman. (But Robin and Liza still have each other. Sad, I was there when she asked Mary about her when she felt bad because Gabriella was sleeping form of her husband. Her "God help me if it's Florestan" melts the coldest heart."

It is Hollis McLaren as Liza who gives the movie itself. The camera opens on Polly telling her. It was as if they couldn't find themselves. It was as if they couldn't find what they finally came to love. As far as self-sacrifice and personal relationships, the film achieves an important dialogue, the AIDS scene manages to..."

ONLY ONE CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR...

☐ Only one candidate has a fifteen year record of leadership on lesbian and gay community issues.

☐ Only one candidate has consistently listened to and worked with all segments of the lesbian and gay community, not just one political faction.

☐ Only one candidate has demonstrated his support in the political empowerment of lesbians and gay men by consistently supporting our candidates for public office, including Congress, Supervisor, College Board and School Board.

☐ Only one candidate voted for San Francisco's 1972 ordinance and Harvey Milk's 1978 ordinance forbidding discrimination based on sexual orientation.

☐ Only one candidate has played a leading role since the beginning of the AIDS epidemic in securing city funds for San Francisco's model AIDS programs.

☐ Only one candidate co-sponsored the law prohibiting discrimination against people with AIDS/ARC.

☐ Only one candidate has continually provided active personal support for our community's cultural, social service and political activities.

☐ Only one candidate voted and lobbied in favor of equal benefits for domestic partners.

☐ Only one candidate led a delegation of city officials to Washington to lobby for increased AIDS funding.

☐ Only one candidate has led the fight for city funding of lesbian and gay social service agencies and programs to fight anti-gay violence.

☐ Only one candidate has helped lead the effort to secure the Public Health Hospital for an AIDS treatment center.

JOHN MOLINARI has been endorsed by the broadest coalition in our community, including: Supervisor Harry Britt, Stonewall Gay Democratic Club, Concerned Republicans for Individual Rights, Bay Area Non-Partisan Alliance, the Bay Area Reporter and the San Francisco Sentinel.
