Dr. Mark Freedman Dies of Hepatitis...

Dr. Freedman was known across the land as an up-front homosexual. He didn’t try to hide it. He passed over on July 21, dead of hepatitis while in the U.C. Hospital.

Dr. Freedman wrote the book, “Homosexuality and Psychological Functioning”. He was at one time a staff member of the Northeast Mental Health Center in the Tenderloin of San Francisco, and a frequent visitor to the old Helping Hands Center on Turk Street.

Dr. Freedman was a pioneer in many areas for the gay liberation movement. And his efforts on behalf of better mental health for all people is his monument. God bless this gentle young soul. rb

BATH HOUSE BUST FIZZLES!

On June 25, 1976, dozens of San Francisco police officers descended in a raid on the Folsom Street Barracks, a gay bath house. The raid began with a bang and was directed by a confident Inspector Kenneth King of the Narcotic Bureau, who was armed with a search warrant which had been issued by Judge Daniel Hanlon of the Municipal Court.

The officers entered the Barracks by searching all private rooms and lockers for possible contraband drugs. Upon completion of the search, seventeen bath house patrons were placed under arrest for charges ranging from unpaid traffic warrants to very serious felony counts charging possession of restricted drugs for sale. However, by July 28th, the cop’s great bust which had begun with such a bang, died with scarcely more than a whimper.

Credit for deflating the cop’s trial or test balloon for raiding gay bath houses, belongs to attorney B.J. Beckwith, who represented four of those arrested.

Attorney Beckwith succeeded in having the search warrant declared invalid with respect to the patrons and the private rooms of the bath house. Thus, all evidence seized by the police in the private rooms or taken from the person of the patrons is no longer admissible as evidence against those arrested. Without the evidence, the criminal charges must be dismissed.

To achieve his victory, lawyer Beckwith scheduled a hearing on a “Motion To Quash The Search Warrant”. The motion was based upon the theory that insufficient evidence had been presented to Judge Hanlon to justify issuance of the search warrant in the first place. Secondly, Beckwith charged that much of the information presented to the Judge by the police narcotics officers, had been either false or misleading. At one point in the hearing, the deputy District Attorney protested loudly, “Your Honor, Mr. Beckwith is calling the police officer a liar.” And Beckwith in harsh reply to the District Attorney, said, “Yes, I am! That is exactly what I’m doing and I will present evidence to substantiate the charge!”

The hearing covered two days and attorney Beckwith produced witness after witness. He was able to establish the exact nature of gay bath houses, the type of conduct that occurs there and the private nature of the rooms and lockers. He produced witnesses who flatly denied statements included in the affidavit filed by the police to secure the search warrant.

At the end of the hearing, physically exhausted from his efforts, lawyer Beckwith, known for his many court victories for gays and gay causes, broke into a broad Texas smile and expressed happiness that he had been able to secure another favorable decision for the gay people of San Francisco. But, then his eyes and countenance saddened and in his slow but precise East Texas drawl, he confided his hope to this reporter that, he hoped that the police raid on the Folsom Street Barracks was not the signal of the beginning of a period of increased police harassment of gays here.

This reporter cautions all gay peoples to exercise caution in your behavior at the gay bath houses in the future. This is based upon conversations with various cops who are trying to make Chief Charles Gain “look bad”!

But, in the meantime, the Beckwith bath house victory is a landmark decision for gay people, and for Fourth Amendment Rights.

The Best & Worst of Fagcity

SAN FRANCISCO....THE BEST AND WORST OF CITY

Before I list places which the Gay Crusader of Our City find to be the best and worst of Our Town... Some say "cpu", some say "cru", and others say "fried chicken"... We can say "hamburger"... Whether you agree, whether you disagree, why not look at the following list of the Gay Crusader's... The paper Madam Leslie reads all the time.

DAILY PAPER
Best: The San Francisco Examiner, it does the best job of reporting on the Gay Community. Daily PAPER"... It's a better person's pay for all of us. We are happy to have it in San Francisco, which has its little to say about current day San Francisco. A 90 paper.

HAMBURGER
Best: The Grubstake on Pine Street... Although it may be "dirty" in San Francisco, it is the best hamburger we have ever tasted. Tomorrow, we will taste an even better burger. We will tell you about it next month.

PORN SHOP: Best; This was simple... "La Salle on Park". Heavy of all the places which place swap on the magazine you can't see what you have.

Worst: "Fatty's" which paddles near here. They said it that 19,000,000,000 for the 1975 title.

DRUG STORE: Best: "Merrell on Market Street". Still they are more knowledgeable of the drugs, etc. and provide good items at low cost.

Worst: "Rite Aid"...between which are all the "hers he" neighbors... Food and other stuff... We won't put any more.

PARKS: Best: "Golden Gate Park"... Hands down, it has to be Stan Borman of KPIX, with Pete Giddings of KGO a close second.

Worst: "At the Beaux Arts Ball".

Lantern '75
Best: "Casa de Cristal on Post Street"... although a bit "soggy" at times, they are the best. We have heard the following.

ST. MARY'S
Best: "Church Street Station".

Worst: "So many it's hard to say just one."

Emperor V de San Francisco:
Best: "Le Salon on Polk!"

Worst: Too many to name.

HARD-ON WITH HEART

THE MAN

Circus-Circus was a trip. This Tavern Guild event raised a net of $16,000 to $17,000 for our community's self-help mental program, Operation Concern. Gay bars and businesses from all over the city worked very hard to put it all together, but, in my opinion, The Man of The Day was without doubt Dixon. After working long hours choreographing construction of all the booths, Polk Street Sally—

Dixon made a tremendous appearance on stage as the one and original 'Little Eva'. If that dance had been filmed, Sex Shop would have a new attraction and if I had a right hand that I wouldn't be working. Right on Dixon.

And, if you missed that one too, join me for lunch on his birthday at the *P.S. (1121 Polk Street)....Wednesday through Saturday and meet a really hot man.

SIXTH ANNIVERSARY of *P.S.!!!

"WHAT A DUMP!" well-known Betty Davis quote, would not apply to the *P.S. Restaurant at 1121 Polk Street. The *P.S. just celebrated their Sixth Anniversary in July, and the crowds that night were shoulder to shoulder. A galaxy of stars came by the *P.S. to pay their respects to the staff and management, as well as major stockholder, Bob Trottolo, a pioneer in the gay bar scene in San Francisco. The pictures at the left here, show persons such as Emperor I, Marcus present and doing his thing, as well as famous star of stage, screen, and more stages, Rosie Hart glittering for all to see. Fabulous entertainment was provided by the stellar star of the Polk Strasse, Dixon, also known as POLK STREET SALLY. Pictured here in his most patriotic hat, he lovable ole Dixon is shown entertaining his countless number of friends. Other entertainment was provided by the nightly piano bar singing star of stars, Bob Sandners, who was assisted by Bruce Hurbut.

Cake, prizes, and champagne were in abundance at the gala event, which followed up a hard day of work for many at the Circus-Circus. A Polk Street "landmark" is pictured at the bottom lower right hand, Kamp, the Parking Attendant at the *P.S. Yes, he is a "landmark" in that he is the only Parking Attendant for any Polk Street restaurant, and he was the first for any gay restaurant anywhere. Kamp is a real gentleman, and while not "gay" as the patrons of the *P.S. and this paper, he is fun! A real fine person.

Pictured here also is Bob Trottolo, the pianist of the gay bar (dance) in San Francisco, along with the famous manager of the *P.S. Roy Harter (known as "Fay") to his intimates. The *P.S. Restaurant has cleverly served the finest of food in gay San Francisco, and is known for it handseom and very polite waiters.

So, if you have never eaten at the *P.S., you are missing out on a Gay San Franciscan tradition. Happy Anniversary Bob T!
