FOR SEVENTH YEAR, GAYS ENTERTAIN HOSPITALIZED VETERANS AT VA CENTER

The Gay Show of star performers entertained the Veterans who are hospitalized at the USVA Medical Center (Ft. Miley) in San Francisco once again and this time to the largest crowd in history, as all the show was televised live and in full color in all of the patient units in the hospital.

Mrs. Peggy Lucas and Leslie of the Volunteer and Recreation units respectively, invited the gay troupe which has performed at this busy installation to perform once again.

This year, as four previous times, famed entertainer Kimo Cochran directed and emceed a dazzling array of talent and this year all of it was live for the first time. In the past, mine was allowed, but not this year.

The performers consisted of both gay and straight, as Kimo combined the best of both to give all who watched one of the finest evenings of entertainment they have seen in many a year.

The "Dance of the Pacific" provided the many fine dancers and south seas music makers. They were so fantastic that the audience kept applauding for more and more. The dancers were directed by Rick Smith of Walnut Creek. The group competed this year in Tahiti in the Tahitian Festival of Dance and out of 134 groups, they finished in 2nd place, which is amazing considering that almost all are not natives of the south seas.

Steve Miller and Mike Daly of the Pines dazzled and caused the crowd belly laughs galore with their wild comedy routine.

VIOLENCE IN THE HAILSTORM

The area of Fredericks and Walker, has been reported that young persons of the age 15-17, about 8 of them, have been involved in violent episodes. A call to the Office of Chief Gay, by this paper has shown that Gay gave no information about the beating of gays in the Haight. Gay did not want to be interviewed. Most of the fights took place and around the Audubon Market.

VIOLENCE IN THE CASTRO

A car with the plate number 856 CPS, a dark blue van, has been repeatedly going through the Castro District. Police report that they have received reports of fighting, etc., and dispatching officers, at gay bars, etc, in this district.

MINT HILL - LOWER HILL

Is in conflict with violence against gay youths and has tried to stop any action of this kind of violence against gays.

MAYOR DIANNE FEINSTEIN WANTS NO ONE GETTING INTO THE UNIONS

According to the Office of Chief Gay, Mayor Diane Feinstein has ordered the SFPD to pick up all gay youths who fit the description.

The SFPD has failed to take any steps against the action against gay youths, as described by the gay youths.

GAY RIGHTS LAW INTRODUCED

ANTIGAY EMPLOYMENT DISCRIMINATION BILL, CB 18, has been introduced by State Senator David Roberti!

SFPD has been introduced by the gay legislature from Hollywood, State Senator Roberti. This legislation, similar to that introduced by John Van Aken when he was in the Assembly that it was defeated, will end discrimination based upon sexual orientation in housing and in employment, statewide. In San Francisco, we have such legislation already, which was authored by the late Supervisor Harvey Milk. But the rest of the state's homosexual community is unprotected and has no legislation to protect them.

A call to the Office of Chief Gay, by this paper has come. The SFPD has failed to act according to Amendment Leadership. Gay rights, being complicated and tied gay rights into rights for pregnant females. Most gays are rallying behind Roberti's SB 18, as it is clear and simple, and can be passed for easier than the Agios legislation. Roberti said that this "will end second class treatment" of homosexuals once and for all legally. This measure is supported by this paper.
Gay Republican Club is OUSTED

The first gay Republican Club, in all of the United States, has been ousted by the Republican County Central Committee of San Francisco.

The Gay Republican Club of San Francisco has been ousted by the County Committee in a letter signed by Chair John Johann, for their having supported the very pro-gay rights candidate in the 18th Assembly District, Dr. Harry Jackson.

The Republican Club has always placed gay rights above the Republican Party principles which the Club, at its time of application, stated would always be first. The County Committee members whom the paper described as a "bunch of creeps and old middle-class fossils" for the most part, and also a couple of suspected CIA agents took the action at the request of the members of radical right wing groups in the County Committee’s other organization, such as Terrence Fain, Max Woods, and others too numerous to mention. Some members of the third gay Republican Club ever, the CRIR (Concerned Republicans for Individual Rights) too a more active role in ousting the Teddy Club.

CRIR, 250 Fourth Street. For that was the day that two friends and the editor of the SF Daily Planet went down to the 25th Fourth Street. They were met at the scene by the editor of this paper, and then the staff of the City VD Clinic.

The Teddy Club has made a very strong effort to disband, legitimate documents was given to the custody of the Gay Voters League, and is no longer a Republican.

As of this date, no local Republican official will allow himself or herself to be quoted as stating what was done by the County Committee. But in January a new County Chair will be elected and it is possible that the Teddy Club may regain its official recognition. In the meantime, the Teddy Club has officially disbanded, but legal documents has been given to the custody of the Gay Voters League.
The above letter is for all those in the gay community who came to the auction at KIMO’S to raise funds for "Christmas in Hawaii" on December 17, 1977. I would also like to thank you for the gifts distributed to our patients. We are grateful for your thoughtfulness and generosity.

This type of activity provides our veteran patients with many happy moments, so that we offer our appreciation and wish you a happy holiday season.

Sincerely,

The above letter is for all those in the gay community who came to the auction at KIMO’S to raise funds for the Christmas Show at the St. Mary’s Hospital Medical Center, and to all those who worked so hard to put the show together and to all those who performed. Even the letter is addressed to myself, it is for ALL OF YOU WONDERFUL CHRISTIAN gays who worked so hard. The above letter is the great, amazing story of the gay bars of Richmond. JUMBO’s which is right at Washington and Park Place, tree lined main street, has the greatest found anywhere in all of northern California. Sure, it is not one of your most beautiful places, but we weren’t too impressed by any of the plumbing or any of the expansion. Our deep appreciation and love for all of you. JUMBO’s is of the Catholic Church.

Richmond is separated from Point Richmond because of hills, the bay, and huge stretches of railroad yards. So, that is why when you visit you think you are in an entirely different city. The Point Richmond Bridge is reached by air, by going north on the AC Transit bus or train. Richmond Bridge to the north in the most wonderful city just as you visit, you think you are in a completely different city. Richmond, God bless and remember you always.

On December 15th, seven members of the San Francisco Police Department pleaded guilty to "blackmail," after a federal grand jury indicted them and a federal grand jury in Richmond, on extortion and conspiracy charges.

The reason why Michael Caringi no longer lives in San Francisco today. For if he did, his life could well be in danger due to the vengeful nature of his former colleagues. The seven, as well as Captain Curran, were indicted on extortion charges in the early to mid-1970s, and were tried in 1977. Michael Caringi and his former colleagues were tried in 1977, and were found guilty of extortion and conspiracy charges. The reason why Captain Curran was not indicted was that he had already retired.

Michael Caringi was one of the seven who were indicted. He had pleaded "not guilty" to the charges, and was tried in 1977. The jury found him guilty of extortion and conspiracy charges. He faces a maximum sentence of up to 15 years in prison, and a fine of up to $250,000.
