A sixteen year old youth from Coos Bay, Oregon, Michael Wildie, was found dead in a room the San Francisco Baths, 229 Ellis Street, on the early morning of April 18th. Michael, who has run away from home twice before, had come from his grandmother's home in the Oregon seacoast city of Coos Bay, to hustle, make quick money, but all he found on this trip, was a horrible death.

Michael had been living at various rooms, apartments, in the Tenderloin and Polk areas and at the time of his gruesome death, he was allegedly living at the Tenderloin room of Stephen "Roots" Sweet, 30, who has since confessed to strangling Michael until he was dead.

In a confession to San Francisco Police Department Homicide Inspectors' Dave Toschi and Frank Faizone, Sweet, who told the officers that he was into S&M (sadomasochism) that "I have fulfilled a longtime fantasy - always wanted to strangle someone to death as I orgasmed!"

This confession was so outrageous, it has brought about a greater hue and cry within the gay community for a halt to the growing tide of S&M behavior. For sometime a good many gay community activists had feared just such an incident, and now, it has happened.

Stephen Sweet, the confessed killer, formerly worked as a dishwasher at a Polk Street cafe, and lived in the Tenderloin. He frequented south of Market bars which cater to the S&M crowd. His room had all sorts of materials, publications, which indicated he was very deep into sadomasochism.

Articles in publications like Drummer Magazine have given many cause to worry about the rise in S&M practices in San Francisco, which now has three "bath" houses catering to those of the S&M desires.

Sixteen year old Michael Wildie, is now dead, as a man, living out his sexual fantasy, for the course of a sexual act, as part of its gratification, strangled the youth to death.

It led our editor and conservative cleric to remark, "God only knows for sure what causes this sickness called sadomasochism to happen. It is disgusting to think that one can have pleasure in the pain or death of another human being. It is time for every God-loving, compassionate person, to plea with those into this catacomb of sickness, to seek out help!"

On April 20th, 34 year old William Seeberg was found dead in the "Waiting Arms", 1188 Folsom Street. Inspector Clark of the SFPD Homicide Unit said that it was most likely drug overdose, but other aspects were being looked into as well.

We, the people of San Francisco, demand that the District Attorney, along with the Chief of Police, cease the arrest and prosecution of individuals involved in the cultivation, transfer, or possession of marijuana.

This is an initiative campaign to stop the prosecution of marijuana growers, sellers and users. In San Francisco. We urge all 15,000 signatures of registered voters to place this initiative on the November ballot in San Francisco County. We are doing this because people are still being prosecuted under the marijuana laws. Even though the many and the district attorneys both promised in their 1975 campaign that they wouldn't prosecute marijuana crimes, they haven't followed through on these promises. We believe the police should put their efforts into halting violent crimes. This initiative is being supported by the Bay Area Harvest Committee, the Direct Action Foundation, the Gay and Lesbian Community Services, the Gay Youth League, the San Francisco Crusader, in maintenance of all the many supporters of this important initiative.

Statement of Policy

Measure to be Submitted Directly to the Electors:

We, the people of San Francisco, demand that the District Attorney, along with the Chief of Police, cease the arrest and prosecution of individuals involved in the cultivation, transfer, or possession of marijuana.

Dear Roger...

When Bobby Darin took over the post of "Johnny Casablanca" on Broadway, many people thought he’d been given the wrong part. Maybe it was because Bobby had been playing the role of the romantic hero in other films, or because his music had been so popular. Whatever the reason, Bobby enjoyed playing the part and proved to be a capable actor. He even received a Best Actor nomination for his role in "The Best of All Possible Worlds." Bobby always has been a great singer, but his acting skills have been overlooked in the past. This movie is a good example of the kind of work he can do. He is really right transformed in this role.

Bobby's voice is as strong as ever, and his singing is just as good as it ever was. He brings new life to the song "I've Got A Woman," which was written for him by Sammy Cahn. It is a love song that speaks of love and devotion. Bobby sings it with great emotion, and it is one of the highlights of the movie.

One of the things that makes this film interesting is the way it combines live action with animation. The animation is done by the company UPA, which was known for its innovative work in the 1950s. The animation adds a surreal quality to the story, and it helps to underscore the relationships between the characters.

In conclusion, "The Best of All Possible Worlds" is a film that deserves to be seen. It is a testament to Bobby Darin's talent as a singer and actor. I hope you enjoy it as much as I did.
