ASSASSINATION of HARVEY MILK & MAYOR MOScone

California's first elected gay official was slain by a former San Francisco Policeman, and ex-Supervisor who had a real hate for homosexuals.

On Monday, November 27th at 11 AM, former Supervisor Dan White walked into the Office of Mayor Moscone.....shot him dead from all reports it was White, and then fled across City Hall and shot down Supervisor Harvey Milk.

This insane act by Dan White, shocked the entire city and left the gay community grief-stricken.

The assassination of Harvey Milk & Mayor Moscone

Diane Feinstein offered hope

Diane Feinstein is the Acting Mayor of the City of San Francisco. She became so after Mayor Moscone was assassinated by the ex-Supervisor Dan White.

City Charter calls for the President of the Board of Supervisors to ascend to the Office of Mayor whenever something happens to the Mayor. Diane will be the Acting Mayor until such time the Board of Supervisors can meet and vote to choose a successor to the slain Mayor Moscone, for the remainder of his term, which ends in 1979.

Diane Feinstein has twice been the candidate for mayor in the past, in 1971 against Mayor Joseph Alioto and in 1975 against a host of candidates and she failed to make the run-off against Moscone.

Acting Mayor Feinstein's first official task was to announce the deaths of both Moscone and Milk to the crowded rotunda of City Hall, at which loud cries arose. She fought to hold back the tears unsuccessfully. At her side was longtime aide, Peter Nardozza who helped her back to her office.

Supervisor Feinstein, whose husband, a fine humanitarian, passed away earlier this year, promises hope to the City of San Francisco.

Acting Mayor Feinstein, a long time friend of the gay community, spoke at the rally at City Hall the night of the slaying of Moscone and Milk and the 25,000 people assembled cheered her wildly.

She joined famed songstress Joan Baez as she led the people in singing "Amazing Grace." All had candles and it was one of the most moving happenings in the history of our city.

Supervisor Feinstein paid high tribute to Mayor Moscone and to Harvey Milk. It was a tear filled tribute, to which the persons assembled cheered her wildly. A very great lady, Diane.
DON MILLER stars as "Schweik" in the production, "The Good Soldier Schweik." Photo by Allen Toussaint, and the artwork by Dave Ortego.

"NOBODY'S BEEN TO THE APEX!

"The Good Soldier Schweik" made its American premiere a few weeks ago at the APEX at 1133/1135 Franklin in San Francisco. Written byJaroslav Kubr and directed by Ralph Funicello, the play was a deranged parody of the Austrian one during World War I. It is based on the famous Czech novel of the same name by Jaroslav H. Kubr, and is rarely seen. Almost Chaplinesque in his ability to write and mime gestures for a girl who doesn't speak Czech, the military martinet and yet delivered the performance of a lifetime. It is this idea of "unimaginable delights" that makes it possible for us to carry the clown - a role that has been played by everyone from Chico Marx to Jack Benny. The play has moments of great verisimilitude but those with political philosophy, uncom­ mon sense will find it too far out even for the American taste.

POWERFUL ACTING:
probably the most powerful acting in the American Theatre is the "American Buffet" at Ft. Mason's Mill's, 1113/1115/1117/1119/1121/1123/1125/1127/1129/1131/1133/1135 Franklin Street. Although the play is a spoof of the American Buffet, the performance is nothing short of brilliant. It is a real American Buffet in every sense of the word. The play is set in a hotel in a big city, the hotel being the Buffet itself. The play is about the lives of various people who come to the Buffet for a variety of reasons. Some come to have a drink, some to eat, some to talk, some to think. The play is about the lives of these people, how they relate to each other and how they are affected by the Buffet.

A LEGEND:
Although the "Old Mill" would understand that the American Buffet is a place where people come to have a good time, the play is about the lives of these people, how they relate to each other and how they are affected by the Buffet. It is about the lives of these people, how they relate to each other and how they are affected by the Buffet. It is about the lives of these people, how they relate to each other and how they are affected by the Buffet.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON, BY GAYS

The march they say, "raised fears among many of Washington's gay people," because, you can't help feeling that there's a bit of the Disney World in it. There was no Disney World in 1973. His death was so senseless. Freedom of dissent is fast ending in America. The March on Washington was not going to allow the Mayor to make another decision, this is fascist. I urge the Supervisor, a leader of San Francisco's gay community, who kept his promise to represent all constitu­ tional rights, to participate in the entire rally when I express our deep­ est respect for the life and work of Harvey Milk, a hero and friend of both men.

James A. Davis, chief of staff to U.S. Senator S. Hayakawa, "Harvey was a remarkable man. He was a hero and a martyr. His death was a tragedy. We all shall miss him very much."

Grave Dangers Forecast on A

WASHINGTON, D.C. - GAYS DECLARE MARCH ON THEIR PRESIDENT is the headline. "If we don't win, we don't lose." Another Washington gay activists and that "small group of gay people," could carry it out.

A Young Man's Confessions

I am a 14 year old male, and I have been gay for as long as I can remember. This is a difficult thing to admit, especially at my age. I have struggled with my identity for a long time, and I have reached out to others for help.

I have spoken to a few people about my orientation, but the reactions I have received have been mixed. Some have been supportive and understanding, while others have been judgmental and dismissive.

The hardest part of being gay is the fear of rejection. I worry about what others will think of me, and I am afraid that I will be mistreated or bullied because of my sexual orientation.

I have had some close friends who have also come out to me, and they have been a source of comfort and support. However, I still feel isolated and alone at times.

I want to be able to be myself and express my true self, without fear of judgment or discrimination. I hope that one day I will be able to live my life openly and honestly, and that society will become more accepting of all sexual orientations.

If you know someone who is struggling with their identity, please let them know that they are not alone. Reach out to them, listen to them, and offer your support.

Thank you for reading.

REV. JIM JONES:...PROPHET?.... SAINT?.... MADMAN?...?

The Reverend Jim Jones walked into the Helping Hands Gay Community Services Center in February of 1974, alone. The Rev. Jones introduced himself to all present, and introduced himself to the Rev. Ray Broderson, director, whom he met with for almost two hours. This was the first time that anyone had met at the 1976 Democratic Dinner for Jones, attended by over 8,000 people at the People's Temple and Temple Annex. They never have met again.

Ray Broderson dictated to me, the details of their first meeting, and the subsequent involvement of the People's Temple donating funds to several of the books that I have listed, to help keep the Temple gay center going

And as Ray said, the Rev. Jan Jones always showed to him, nothing but great interest, support, and understanding for all gays. But, they differed on points, especially the point of allowing politics in the church. The Rev. Jones felt that the political forces of this city needed him, and obviously they did, and they used him, when he obviously did not need them.

Ray was an active member of the Socialist Workers Party and the Communist Party. And as Rev. said, the Rev. The Reasons Why, the Ft. Miley Show

The climax of the evening was when Paul Brandsby as the exquisitely Mary Hatchett called back to the floor all of the performers who sang "We Need A Little Christmas" and then proceeded to a beautifully lighted Christmas Tree under which were hundreds of gifts which they distributed to the patient-audience.

As the veterans walked or were wheeled back to their wards by the performing stars they carried with them armloads of lovely gifts which they distributed to the veteran-audience.

Thanksgiving Dinner for Old Folks

The 9th Annual Thanksgiving Dinner for the elderly, given by the Christ Chapel (Orthodox Episcopal Church of God), Helping Hands Services, was a true delight. 1978 has been one of the better years for the monthly thanksgiving feasts that began in 1969. The Rev. Ray Broshears and flexible friends, continued the tradition. This year, the chief was Jack, the manager of the Pleasure Palace Discount Book Store. He was superb, the best cook ever. Jack was aided by one of his employees and another friend of the Reverend, Jack Fuller. The kitchen assistants were Lawrence Liben, B.J. Beckwith and gay realtor, Andrew Betancourt. This year, the chief was Jack, the manager of the Pleasure Palace Discount Book Store. He was superb, the best cook ever. Jack was aided by one of his employees and another friend of the Reverend, Jack Fuller. Many people helped in the kitchen and served the meal to the elderly. The food was served at the Christ Chapel's dining room, on the 4th floor of 26 Seventh Street. A large cake was also served to the elderly guests. The day was filled with many gifts, including a large cake from Tenderloin Tessie and Rev. Ray. A huge cake from Tenderloin Tessie and Rev. Ray was served afterwards to all the elderly guests. The Church thanks so very much all those who worked to make the Dinner the success it was, and in addition those who helped in other ways such as donating funds, like the people who attended the function at the Sound of Music with Tessie. and of course Tessie; Ronetta Fats; Paul Brotherton of the "P.S. for his assistance; Don Cavallo of the Fickle Fox, Floyd Jackson, the fabulous Chef of all time, who is hospitalized for now, at Kaiser Hospital (and chief at the Fickle Fox); Pat Townson, the Snow Princess; the president of the Minutemen Democratic Club, Elmer Wilhelm, and the fantastic Ginger. Never in the 9 years has a Thanksgiving Dinner gone as smoothly as this one, which served well over 70 persons at the Christ Chapel's dining room, on the 4th floor of 26 Seventh Street. A huge cake from Tenderloin Tessie and Rev. Ray was served afterwards to all the elderly guests.

The 9th Annual Old Folks Christmas Dinner is set for the 22nd of December, and Jack will be the Chef at this one also. Gifts galore(hopefully) will be given out to all in attendance as in the past, as well as hopefully having a Santa Claus on hand to distribute them, along with some entertainers. If you wish to help in any way, please call the Reverend Broshears at 885-1001 or write to: Post Office Box 1528, San Francisco, California 94101. All donations made out to the Church are federally tax deductible. Truly, those persons who worked so hard to make the Thanksgiving feast a success, deserves big round of applause (which the elderly did) and all those who contributed to this Wong; deserve the choicest blessing that God can send to them. God is responsible for all of us, and we should try and make every day a day of Thanksgiving and working always to make the world a better place than we found it. God's Love is greater than anything. We thank Him for all of You out there.
Tenderloin comes alive!

Sound of Music’s live drag shows a hit!

The bar is known for its lively atmosphere and diverse performances, attracting a wide range of patrons. The Sound of Music bar has become a hub for the Tenderloin community, offering a space for expression and entertainment. The venue's success can be attributed to its dedication to fostering a welcoming environment for all.

You're losing. Fight to win, your attacker is not worried about your health or safety, so you must worry about yours. If you are not worried about your safety or health, so fight to win. In a defensive situation, there is no such thing as "fair fighting," you must "going light" on them.

Only a person with a vast amount of superiority over the attacker should consider wasting energy and showing your weaknesses to the attacker. If you must work off all. One blow with focused energy is better than 20 ineffective blows. Learn one punch, that do not damage. For example, slaps, blows to the shoulders or chest do little good at until it becomes instinctual.

Defense. Keep the fist tight, and have a solid stance before throwing the punch. Practice in front of a mirror, it will be helpful. Coordination, focus, and strength, the big three. Mentally count Get yourself in condition and practice at least one technique so that you can immediately disable the attacker and enable you to get away, which is the ultimate goal.
