JO DALY DEFIES LAW AND FEINSTEIN

Some have reported that the guards have made the guards copeulate them for a favor such as the use of the telephone.

To date, Sheriff Brown has refused to answer any questions about the jail, saying they are among the best the nation has. Which caused one recently released traffic ticket offender to say, "I know Mayor Brown says his jails are some of the best, I dare that black s.o.b. to spend a couple of days in there without any special protection and see how he likes it, or better yet, let him have a kid brother who nobody knows go in there and "get turned out" being beaten, screaming all the times the guards play with themselves, yea, Brown talks a good game, but jail isn’t a game.”

District Attorney Joseph Freitas has refused to look into conditions on the 6th and 7th floor jails even tho the Grand Jury has condemned conditions there. Chief of Police Charles Gain told reporters that the 6th and 7th floor jails, “are not my problem, all I do is put the people into them, that’s my job. Go see Sheriff Brown with your questions!”

SOUTHERN MARKET

SENIORS ABUSED AND NEGLECTED BY CITY AND BUREAUCRATS!

Activists on behalf of the elderly poor, who live in the Tenderloin and south of Market, are furiously at the profit and corruption of the so-called city and federal funded senior groups.

The elderly are being "forced out" of the south of Market senior projects and being replaced with newly arrived orientals (boat people, in some cases). The elderly, who resisted the call to our nation being forced into the ghetto of the Tenderloin and its crime. Mayor Feinstein has shown no concern, nor has Supervisor Bob Gonzales in whose District (7) this troubled area lies. Many of these newly arrived Asian, are being placed in the senior projects, after other older Caucasians are forced out, and in addition, these newly arrived are being given over $250 a month to live on, even tho they are not even citizens. This is a colossal Mayor Feinstein and the District Attorney are afraid to look into it.

TRIALS & TRIBULATIONS

The California Legislature returned from its August recess on Monday and adjourned December 10th to introduce some of the next session bills. In a press conference following the legislature's final session, Senate Republicans introduced a bill that would have the effect of eliminating the state's death penalty. The bill was introduced by State Senator John Burton and Assemblyman Sam Sidhu. Burton said the bill would save California taxpayers millions of dollars by eliminating the death penalty. Sidhu added that the bill would also help to reduce the backlog of cases in the criminal justice system. The bill was controversial, with many opposing it on the grounds that it would reduce the state's ability to protect itself from serious crimes.

GAY VOTERS 2020

San Francisco, CA - Despite a pandemic and a divisive presidential election, San Francisco's LGBTQ community continues to have a significant impact on the city's political landscape. A new report from the Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund shows that gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, and queer people are among the most politically active and engaged voters in the city. The report found that 66% of gay voters in San Francisco cast ballots in the 2020 election, compared to 53% of the city's overall population. This translates to a 13-point increase in the number of gay voters casting ballots from the 2016 election. The report also found that gay voters are more likely to support progressive candidates and issues, and are less likely to support candidates who oppose LGBTQ rights. The findings suggest that the LGBTQ community's political power is on the rise in San Francisco and across the country.

ANNITA BRYANT'S VICTORY

Annita Bryant, a gay rights activist and the plaintiff in a landmark divorce case, has won a major victory in her legal battle. Bryant, who is the first openly gay person to be granted a divorce in the United States, filed suit against her former husband in 1970, alleging cruelty and incompatibility. The case was heard in the California courts and ultimately resulted in a judgment granting Bryant a divorce. Bryant's victory has been praised as a significant milestone in the fight for LGBTQ rights, as it helped to pave the way for other gay and lesbian individuals to seek and obtain legal recognition of their relationship status.

MATTHEWS SUES CABLEVISION FOR CIVIL RIGHTS VIOLATIONS BY GAY ACTIVISTS

San Francisco, CA - Matthew Matthews, a gay rights activist, has filed a lawsuit against Cablevision for violations of the Civil Rights Act. Matthews claims that Cablevision employees discriminate against gay customers, refusing to provide service or support to gay individuals. Matthews alleges that he was denied service at a Cablevision store in San Francisco, and that he was refused service multiple times by employees who referred to him as "gay." Matthews' lawsuit seeks damages and an injunction against Cablevision to prevent future discrimination against gay customers. The case is significant as it highlights the ongoing challenge that gay and lesbian individuals face in accessing the services of businesses that do not provide equal treatment to all customers, regardless of sexual orientation.

ANNITA BRYANT RE-HIRE BY FLORIDA CITRUS COMMISSION

The Florida Citrus Commission has reversed controversial activist Annita Bryant's contract for $100,000 a year. Bryant, who was fired last year for making anti-gay comments, has been reinstated in her role as the agency's communications director. Bryant's reinstatement comes after a months-long controversy over her firing, with critics and supporters on both sides of the issue. Bryant's reinstatement has been met with both praise and criticism, with some hailing it as a victory for free speech, while others argue that it goes against the agency's policies on diversity and inclusion. The case has drawn attention to the ongoing struggle for LGBTQ rights and the impact that the media has on shaping public opinion.
FOSTER'S "LETTER" (FOSTER'S LETTER DISCERNING SCANDEAL)
The August 4th issue of the GCN carried a page one story on the issue which has brought the Office of Mayor Kevin White into turmoil. Former State Representative, Patrice Foster claimed that Mayor White had sent to Young made it clear that Foster caused a good deal of trouble with his inflammatory speech at the May 24th rally concerning Dan White's sentencing proceedings. Foster continued to work for the re-election of the Mayor, but did want things straightened out. And obviously, one person, Beth Charny, who knows the GCN, told GCN that he himself didn't want a letter from Mayor White.

The August 25th issue of the GCN (Gay Community Newspaper) of Boston has brought about more information in the GCN's August 25th issue concerning the letter controversy, "At the end of Foster's speech, which dealt at length with the issue of the demonstration (in San Francisco), "At your right here, is a copy of the letter reprinted by the GCN. Two of San Francisco's more prominent citizens, Father Duke Smith and Bishop George M. ROMAN CATHOLICS OF THE ULTRAJETINE TRADITION

The ultrajectine tradition came into existence in the Catholic Church in the early 16th century by the founder of the catological movement against the concepts of the Reformation. This stance of the movement, as well as its followers, is reflected in the works of various ultrajectines. The movement was based on the idea that the Church should return to its more traditional servations, and that individuals should have a more active role in the spiritual life. This movement gained popularity, particularly in the Netherlands, and spread to other parts of Europe.

The ultrajectines have been characterized by their rejection of the ideas of the Reformation, their devotion to the Catholic tradition, and their commitment to the vindication of the truth of the Catholic faith.

The ultrajectine tradition has been prominent in the United States in recent years, particularly among the American ultrajectines. These ultrajectines have been involved in various activities, including the publication of religious literature, the advancement of the Catholic faith, and the promotion of traditional Catholic values.

The ultrajectine tradition has been influenced by various factors, including the political and social climate of the period, the influence of individual leaders, and the spread of Catholicism throughout the world.

The ultrajectine tradition continues to influence the Catholic Church and its followers today, and it remains an important part of the Catholic heritage.

LENNY MOLLET FOR EMPEROR, at least these are the stories we hear. The latest gossip: ROBBIE CHASE who has left SF to return to his homeland. We shall miss ROBBIE. The man who was a rights man to the core. Hand over and over ROBBIE's head was very dear to many of us, and his great skill and spirit helped the gay community every step of the way. He was moving about another publication, so whatever he goes on to will be well. We hope he enjoys his new job.

LENNY MOLLET at least these are the stories we hear. Lenny owns the 527 CLUB, at 527 Bryant Street, which was once a ladies' bar before and now is a club. Lenny's a guy who has been around the Bay Area for a long time. He has a reputation of being a bit of a maverick. Lenny is a guy who is known as "Motormouth" and a hard worker in the gay community. He has a heart for the gay community and will continue to be a force for good.

LENNY was well known for his controversial column in the San Francisco Chronicle. He was known to speak his mind and was often harsh in his criticism of others. He was known for his love of the city and its inhabitants, especially the gay community. He was a strong supporter of equal rights and was a vocal advocate for the gay community.

LENNY MOLLET was also known for his eccentric personality. He was known to wear dresses and to dress up as a woman at parties. He was known for his love of fashion and for his flair for the dramatic.
