Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, and is not puffed up, Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth. Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never faileth; but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge it shall vanish away. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away my childish things. For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face; not I know in part, then I shall know even as also I am known. And, love worketh faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

Child Rapist Still Free...

SFPD Sex Crimes Unit's Zero!

Here, based upon the boy's description to the police artist. The suspect is a white, of average height with brown hair, then parted on the left. He was wearing a blue wind-breaker at 29 Berry Street, where he sexually attacked and beat the tiny boy. The SFPD Sex Crimes Unit is asking all witnesses to come forward. Any information can be given to the police artist.

Meanwhile, back at the Hall of Justice, officers of the Sex Crimes Unit seem to be growing increasingly frustrated over the number of case admits, as the while many like the child rapist roam the streets freely. The SFPD Sex Crimes Unit has declared war on child rapists.

Two hundred people turned out at KIMO's, a popular Polk Gulch night spot to help raise funds for the 8th Annual Gay U.S.O. Show at the United States Veterans Medical Center [Fort Mason].

The event was initiated by KIMO, the owner of KIMO's, and was attended by the important people in the gay community, including the mayor, the mayor's husband, the mayor's son, the mayor's daughter, the mayor's mother, the mayor's father, the mayor's brother, the mayor's sister, the mayor's cousin, the mayor's aunt, the mayor's uncle, the mayor's nephew, the mayor's niece, the mayor's great-grandmother, the mayor's great-grandfather, the mayor's great-great-grandmother, the mayor's great-great-grandfather, the mayor's great-great-great-grandmother, the mayor's great-great-great-grandfather, the mayor's great-great-great-great-grandmother, the mayor's great-great-great-great-grandfather, and the mayor's great-great-great-great-great-grandmother.

It was a high energy night with lots of laughter and good natured joking. Mayor candidate Dianne Feinstein, obviously the overwhelming favorite of the people in attendance, was married to Gay U.S.O. Show director, Rev. Ray Brody, and the crowd in response "gave it to him" with their support.

"Jesus the HomoGay"

Jesus was not for or against homosexuality. He never engaged in a discussion about the morality of a person's sexual orientation. Instead, he focused on love, compassion, and acceptance. He taught forgiveness and the importance of treating others as you would like to be treated. Jesus emphasized the need for people to live in harmony and love one another, not to judge or label others based on their sexual preferences.

In the Book of Romans, it states, "What does it profit a man to gain the whole world and forfeit his soul? For where will he be able to take his soul with him?" (Romans 8:36). This verse highlights the importance of prioritizing spiritual growth over material possessions. It underscores the idea that true fulfillment comes from within, not from external achievements or possessions.

Jesus' teachings are timeless and universally applicable. They remind us to focus on the essential aspects of life—love, compassion, and grace—rather than on superficial differences and labels. By embracing these principles, we can create a more inclusive and understanding world for all individuals, regardless of their sexual orientation.

A few productions had short runs during the past few weeks.

Most interesting of the lot was the Oakland Ballet's production of "NOTICEMAKER," charmingly choreographed and quite beautifully danced. Especially excellent were Liz Labell as the "ListAdapter" and Tessa Laffy as the Nymph/Necromancer Prince.

I was amazed by the dancers, I heartily recommend making plans not to miss it next year.

Two separate programs of short plays by Tom Stopney were offered at the Martin Museum by the "MIME LINED" and "NEW-FOUND LAND," a hilarious political send-up and an antagonistic spoof of S.F. life. The second program, "DOG'S HAMLET" and "FANTASIA MACBETH" are more typically Stoppard, correlated and much less interesting.

“Love Is A Four Letter Word” was a song by Bob Dylan and one of his more beautiful ones. Love is a word that has very little meaning with too many in society today. Hate is a favorite pastime with many, and for them I am a fuse to accept, he is Jesus Christ. When you have I and will not make that opinion, I can only say that my need allot of love in their lives and the one person who can, to allow me the right to differ with them, and thus, they must hate me. Si A? possibly. But I am not a psychiatrist, or a cop, or a priest, or a teacher, or a scientist, or a doctor, or an attorney, we will refer to use the word “illiterate.”
