"BROTHER PHIL IS UPSET, SO I HAD BROTHER JOIN GIVE ME A CALL..."

That's what happened July 27th, 1980, when Congressman Phil Burton was informed by a San Francisco Bay Area cop that his longtime opponent, San Francisco Supervisor Ross Mirkarimi, was planning to unseat Phil Burton in a bitter Democratic primary battle. Then Phil Burton supported SF Crusader, Rev. Ray Broshears to find out why Ray was putting the screws to his opponent was like a knife in the back for those years of Hallinan support of Burton."

That's what happened July 29th, Congressman John Burton called the publisher of the Brother Phil Burton over in District 6. And the problem goes way back to when Phil Burton had put in for the job of being the editor of the SF Crusader, the publication.""Phil Burton was an editor in the political scene before he was - well, you know."

"We are not going to give you back..."...but the real news is that the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Crusader is going to give you the other side of the story and print the reaction from the new, dedicated leadership and the Cruc..."
SOUTH OF MARKET FACES BIG PROBLEM: The south of Market gay business community has been very powerful for the past year and a half. For instance, the turnout was very powerful for the anti-draft actions in the July 7th. This ended with the closing of the pool of the old Black & Blue. When the ABC and SFPD came down hard on the bar because of the Open has-advocated sex acts, it was bad on everyone. Alto least tens of thousands of dollars because of temporary closing by the ABC. Now, one of the central figures in all the bullsh*t is running once again, this time with Peter Bassett and Jay Kernis. They are good people, and have done a lot for South of Market. People have said me that the police are on a high level and made me watch them for such operation. But, with a turn in the Market operation with the people that they open with, we feel they are welcome south of Market and will hurt south of Market, unless they get rid of that person. Back to the news...

Poet Makes Debut at Previews

The public debut of East Bay poet Charles R. Sears, Jr., was at the off-Off Kline Theatre Bar on Sunday July 27th, to a most appreciative audience of friends and fans of the poetry as well as patrons of the highly popular, reviews A Theatre Bar.

The poets of the handsome East Bay had all had no titles, but as he read them, one could make up one for each of the poets, which ran the gamut from comedy to pathos. And the audience shared with them at the end of their efforts, works, with them, with the audience, and the audience sharing with them appreciation of the work and art of making and art works, they did come together in a most beautiful exchange of spoken word and applause of appreciation. Sears obviously will be heard from again, please.

Matthew 10:39, "He that findeth his Life, shall loose it, and he that loseth his Life for My sake, shall find it." (Matthew 10:39, "He that findeth his Life, shall loose it, and he that loseth his Life for My sake, shall find it.")

There are two separate and distinct manifestations, natural life and spiritual life. The physical body is a complete surrender of the natural life; a form of dying to be reborn in the spiritual. This physical life is the very beginning of the spiritual life. It is the only the very beginning of the alpha stage of Spirit-life. As this phase of life is well formed and matured in us, then comes the day when this life too is required of us in order to gain more of God and a greater concept of Spiritual ideals and realities.

UNITED "FISH STORIES" ENSEMBLE

"OUTSTANDING!"

Joe Orton's "The RUDDY ONE On The Stage" prior to its current production at the Actor's Ensemble, 16th & Mission, has never been presented in San Francisco. This seems odd, in view of the play's theme of incipient homosexuality and also considering the writer's literary output, but possibly because it was Orton's early work it has simply been overlooked till now. At any rate, the Ensemble is compensating for this national neglect with an unusual production of the comedy-drama in its New Generation Series. Director Jim Ballantyne has successfully captured the shifting moods of menace and comic absurdity as outlined by the script, and his actors are delivering roles with power and telling effect.

Leonor Wilson's "Laughing Fair" is the curtain raiser for the Orton play. It has been directed with all of its light and shadow, and the two female co-conspirators are both convincing. Each suffers with their personal problems, are well played by John Stevenson and Shelley Fine.

Excellent acts for the two one acts, were designed by Bruce Bros.

The fish is a popular item, operating on a very limited budget, has a weakness for this - emphasizing the irony of the $350... 450 spent on "Goosebumps" - viewed elsewhere on this page.

DOUGLAS DEAN

"KITT A MAGNIFICENT"

When Eartha Kitt substitutes her own songs for Sommers' "I'm Still Here" and sings "I was a new face in '52..." The lady is older but just as sexy, and we get an idea of the delight we're in for during one of her acts at the Plaza Room, where the inimitable and original cabaret is holding forth through August 13th.

We expect the purrs and the claws of the sinuous body movements, of course, when she sings her standards I"I love a man..."

But perhaps Kitt's artistry is most supremely revealed in "Leave You" which she sings simply but with sweetness, reminding one of the actress who breaks in the middle for a display of "New Immodesty."

This whole performance is a superb stroke of showmanship. If you've never seen and heard Kitt in person before, rush to the Plaza Room. $440 tickets will get you her headliner act. The lady is not just a singer, she's a magnificently sculpted woman - a product of a kind. The力 which of we may never enjoy again.
