Lesbian/Gay Pride marches across U.S.

ONE MILLION LESBIANS & GAY MEN JOIN HANDS ACROSS NATION IN GREATEST SHOW OF UNITY IN HISTORY OF U.S.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28—Some 300,000 lesbians, gay men, and their supporters marched here today. The theme of this tenth commemoration of the Stonewall Rebellion was “Front Line of Freedom.” Marches and rallies for gay and lesbian rights were held in cities coast to coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28—It was festive as ever, with balloons and rainbow flags lining the length of Market Street, the outrageous Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence mocking the church, and with Gays for Brunch, Gays Against Brunch, Lesbians Against Brunch and Lesbians Against Potlucks marching and dancing to the beat of rock, jazz, salsa, and country music in the sunny San Francisco afternoon.

But the theme of this year’s march, the tenth in San Francisco, since the Stonewall Rebellion in New York City, was “Front Line of Freedom,” a recognition, as organizers said, “of our integrity and peril.” It was the largest and most political Lesbian/Gay Freedom Day Parade ever, according to organizers and participants alike, a some 300,000, with 50 floats, and 160 contingents that marched from the Embarcadero to the Civic Center, angrily denouncing the New Right’s threat to their existence.

The chants and placards this year both demonstrated the fighting spirit of a community under attack, as well as their willingness to “extend hands around the world to those struggling for their rights.”

“The unions are behind you,” said one of the placards. Another: “Freedom’s road is paved with our resistance.” Another: “Guatemala presente en la lucha.” Another: Support the Irish hunger strikers—boycott British goods.

Visibly militant in the three-hour march was the Stonewall Contingent, whose band, Carry It On, played the “Internationale.” As the contingent turned the corner of Spear and Market, to the applause and whoops of spectators, a loud chant went up of “We gotta beat back the Right’s attack, we gotta beat back the Right’s attack, we gotta beat back the Right’s attack!”

Stonewall included the Committee in Solidarity with the People of El Salvador, Gay and Women’s Committee of Casa Nicaragua, One Struggle Many Fronts, Lesbian and Gay Focus of People’s Anti-War Mobilization, and Worker’s World Party.

This year’s chairwomen included Barbara Cameron and Robin Tyler, two lesbians who last year were denied speaking time because they were “too political,” and with supporters, took over the stage. This year, the two brought the crowd to its feet, with ovations, applause, cheers, and tears.

Tyler scored the so-called Family Protection Act bill: “If the government is so concerned with the protection of the family,” she shouted, “why do they continue to build nuclear power plants, why do they continue to poison our oceans, why do they continue to rape out land? If they are so concerned with children, why do they send baby formulas to Third World countries and murder thousands of babies? Why are they bent on starving our elderly to death, cutting back benefits to a disabled community that can barely survive on what they’re getting now? Why, if Children are so important to them, are the continuing to kill the children of El Salvador? Why on earth do they send our children to war, and then accost them when they come home so that Viet Nam... CONTINUED ON PAGE 3 column 3 bottom.

WITH THIS NEXT INSTALLMENT OF THE BOOK "THE GAY QUESTION" BY Rob McKerrow and the C.I.G. we can now look at what has happened since the fall of 1980. It's been a bloody year.

AS THE TITLE SUGGESTS, THE GAY QUESTION is a book that deals with the issues and events of the gay liberation movement. It is not intended to be an exhaustive or encyclopedic work, but rather a collection of essays and articles that provide a snapshot of the movement at a particular point in time. The book was published in 1981 and covers events up to that point in time. It includes contributions from a variety of authors and reflects the perspectives of the gay liberation movement during the late 1970s and early 1980s.

The book includes a variety of topics, including the political and social implications of the gay liberation movement, the experiences of gay people in different parts of the world, the role of the media in shaping public opinion, and the impact of the movement on law and policy. The book also includes personal stories and reflections from gay people who have been involved in the movement, providing a human dimension to the broader political and social issues.

Overall, "THE GAY QUESTION" is a valuable resource for anyone interested in understanding the history and development of the gay liberation movement. It is a testament to the courage and dedication of those who have been involved in the struggle for gay rights and to the ongoing fight for equality and justice.

The Norman Corporation are those plants about the lives of six people over the weekend. Although considered a "minor" event by some, it is important to remember that the lives of these people are significant.

Dr. King of News Arrest (434-6245) for (11) is that the Norman Corporation's treatment of the homeless in the city is a disgraceful event.

And, in Los Angeles, they gave to the Gay Community Center for Housing and Shelter, to help them in their work.

Takazauckas has directed with a sure hand and a fine sense of bringing out the comic highlights in each scene as well as providing a subtle sense of drama which adds to the overall effect of the play.

The direction (no credit listed in the program nor are any actors named) is also somewhat peculiar.....Drake's major triumph is that he has created a character who is memorable in the play.

The inherent logistical problems in feeding 200 homeless people a meal that is both nutritious and delicious.

And you must bring a flashlight, for although the paths are reasonably well lit, both Johns and the park are dark.

There are shows that are meant for hikes or walking with prepared meals, as much of the walking is in the dark. A trailer with tables and chairs is available to those who do not wish to hike or walk.

The plays neither pose any deep problems nor offer any answers; they are, rather, hilarious entertainment and, in the words of the Gay Community Center, a "joyful" experience.

With almost Camille-like tragedy, while John Vlahos in 'Pinafore' has not only gone "to the dogs in the manger" but also "to the dogs in the manger" while the "dogs in the manger" are "to the dogs in the manger".

Pinafore never sets sail. 621-2112 for info.
