As most of you undoubtedly know by now, your (Miss Dixie) is no longer at beautiful downtown Sixth Street. Bob and Alice Conroy and I are still very close friends, and I encourage all the Gay community to stop in on Friday and Saturday nights to listen to Johnny and the Western Ramblers.

I have now parked my pony and a couple of former tricks in front of the NITE CAP at 699 O'Farrell where I swing my five till two in the morning. (Enough of that crap!)

(LATELY IN OUR COMMUNITY!!)

I had a few minutes Sunday so decided to stop at the Orpheum Circus and take in our Grand Lady of Opera (Jose) and her well-known lover Hazel and what Jose explained to us as (CARMEN?). Well!!!, needless to say, the show was an absolute delight, that is, what I could hear of it.

I also made the Gold Street scene and saw my luscious Gary Schneider carrying on like absolute trash behind the organ. Gary is still at Gold Street on Friday, Saturday and Sunday each week, and (Mother Don Banks) still does whatever he does as always.

As some know and most do not, the (Rainbow Grocery) has gone under for a year's rest. (Mother Don Banks) still does whatever he does as always.

(SOUTH OF MARKET)

If you want a real scene, drop in to say "hi" to A1 and Gary at the (ROUNDUP), the best cruising bar in San Francisco (in my opinion).

And now to (Marcus), better known as Mr. Boot Camp himself; in my opinion, this guy has done a fantastic job in making the (Boot Camp) the number one leather bar in the city. I encourage all of you that groove on leather to stop at the Boot Camp and catch the action.

UNTIL NEXT TIME

LOVE, DIXIE DEL RAYE

HELLO, HELLO - SWEETHEARTS

Mother Gildy is back and I have agreed to write for KALENDAR on a regular basis.

Please, my dears, I am not Dear Abby. Do not send me your problems.

Spring is in the air and our outdoor gathering places are coming back to life once again -- I know, I continually ride my scooter through G.G. park. Why, I nearly collided with a Honda cop along one of the back bush trails. It was darling -- blue eyes, blond hair and in police drag. What a shame!

Dixie darling, welcome to the rag. Lovely water at the MINT - the EDITOR has asked me to thank you ---- for what, I do not know.

Dog Lucy -- thank you for a lovely Leap Year party. Gorgeous little dog. Why didn't I win it! I see GAYZETTE is back - Where is Luella?

Loves, I have been rummaging through my chest in search of my green St. Patrick's dress. The only thing I can find is my Valentine bra.

Miss Gayzette -- I will try to include the Saturday Nite Contest in my busy busy schedule.

My next writing will be addressed more personally to all you beautiful readers.

LOVE, GILDY

P.S. Gildy welcomes THE PETALUMA PRINCE which will appear in the next issue of THE GAY TIMES. I hope he falls off his limb.........

P. S. No warnings at this time.

Darryl, the manager at the BACHELOR'S CLUB, has the distinction of being this issue's KALENDAR HOST. He managed to seduce two members of our Staff with his very own delectable "Spaghetti Feed" on a Saturday evening not long ago. This feed takes place every Sunday at 5 p.m. at the Club and offers one the opportunity to admire our HOST and other "groovy specimens". So, for satisfying the desires of both sight and stomach pay Darryl a visit and partake of his "Feed" and lively crowd. He'll be glad to expose you to the best M both. (FOR THAT MATTER, STOP IN ANYTIME!!!!!!)

Inside Out

Customers can now place display advertisements by mail. As an incentive, a 25% discount is offered providing the U.S. mails are used. (See coupon front page)

We expect questions and they can be answered by calling (415) 824-2535 (from 1-5 p.m.) daily.

Advertising in this issue of KALENDAR nearly sold out. Please remember we do not add pages to compensate, so send your ad in early. We appreciate your patronage.

Gildenhoe has returned and is now writing for KALENDAR on a regular basis.

We ask readers to take KALENDAR home with them and use them as TV guides.

Congratulations to S. L. R. for running their (COME CLEAN) campaign against V.D. The history of V.D. is in the current GAY TIMES.

I would like to thank the many people who are pooling their talents so as to make the GAY TIMES a better paper. The April issue is expected to be larger.

This INSIDE OUT Column will end with this issue of KALENDAR. Welcome, Dixie Del Raye to KALENDAR Staff.

Happy St. Patrick's Day to all.
