GAYS ELECTED TO CDC POSITIONS

The theme of the 21st California Democratic Convention was "Constitutional and Individual Rights" and delegates from the Alice B. Toklas Memorial Democratic Club joined more than 600 others at the Los Angeles Hilton the weekend of March 9, to study the issues and to determine the priorities in obtaining our goals for the coming year.

Representatives of the gay community took active and open roles in all the issues and Political and Legislative Workshops dealing with Restoring Congressional Power, Restoring Basic Rights to the people, Equal Rights, Education and Academic Freedom, Freedom of the Press, Judicial and Penal Reform, Economic Rights and Environmental Regulations. They also discussed the basics of club and election organization.

Gerry Denning of the Gay Community Alliance presented a resolution before the Penal and Judicial Reform workshop for recordation which was overwhelming approved. The Basic Rights Workshop successfully passed several pro-gay resolutions.

Jim Foster was elected Program Secretary of the C.D.C., making the gay voice heard of the Executive Board for the first time in California History. Jim is the founder of the Toklas Club, is the political chairman of S.I.G., and is most highly respected in the political arena. His election is a tribute to the gay community throughout the state.

The gay caucus was well attended by delegates and community representatives from many other parts of the state, as well as those from San Francisco.

The caucus elected Jo Daly as the State-wide Chairperson for the coming year. Reverend Jim Sand mir, post chairman, promised to support and work for the caucus, and expressed his regret that because of his activities working with the gay community in so many other areas he could not devote full time to the C.D.C. The caucus report was drafted with the full consensus of the members and was presented to the convention by Jo Daly. It reads:

"The Gay Caucus, meeting in session March 9th, 1973, has established as its first priority for the coming year the organization of new Democratic Clubs in such regional areas as possible. Through such clubs we hope to reach out and educate a new constituency for the California Democratic Council and the Democratic Party. Recognizing the obligation to do more than merely pay lip service to the support that has been shown to us at this and previous conventions, we intend to engage in aggressive recruitment of support for all the principals to which the California Democratic Council is committed.

We pledge ourselves to work in the following specific areas:

- Voter registration, vigorous support of CDC-endorsed candidates, fund raising, and precinct work.
- Recognizing that successful political action depends on a broad base, and out of compassion for our common oppressions, we intend to earnestly seek effective cooperation with other minorities. Finally, we would like to call to the attention of the convention the comprehensive law reform proposal which we have prepared and which is being submitted to the State Legislature. We welcome and encourage the opportunity to meet with all Democratic Clubs in California to explain this legislative package.

The convention was attended by the major gubernatorial candidates who will be running in the primary next June. Hospitality suites were open, giving the delegates the opportunity to meet with State political leaders, personally and discuss pertinent issues to the gay voter. A hot-seat dinner, with Willy Brown acting as master of ceremonies, and with the candidates in attendance, highlighted the convention. The candidates who agreed to appear were Secretary of State Edmund G. Brown Jr., Assembly speaker Robert Moretti, State Senator George Moscow, Representative Jerome Waldie, and Mayor Joseph Alioto.

BERMUDA

Approximately 580 miles off the coast of North Carolina lie 21 square miles of islands known as BERMUDA. Clear water, lush foliage and pastel-colored houses is just an example of some of the island's beauty. One finds the "good life" and the personification of "gracious living." Open stretches of beaches where the sands are pink-tinted coral, ground powder-fine by the wind and the waves are easily reached by renting a motorbike. Driving is on the left hand side of the road, and a helmet is a must.

From Gibbs Hill Lighthouse to 17th Century St. George, the islands offer many spectacular views and numerous secluded beaches where a picnic lunch may be enjoyed to the utmost.

The Colony is governed by Great Britain and inhabited by friendly, charming Bermudians. The climate is semi-tropical and is at the best during June, July and August.

Unfortunately, this time of the year the hotel rates are "sky-high" and the islands are over populated with tourists. My favorite time of the year to visit was September or October at which time I had the pleasure of meeting many very interesting natives.

I had the experience of an alert when the island was hit by the fringe of one of the "girls." I will never forget the chilling of the air and waves crashing against the coast, sending spews of water in the air—definitely very romantic.

There is one semi-gay pub on the island, located in the capital Hamilton which is called The Hog Penny. I have always had a ball there and met fabulous people.

Bermuda is reached by daily flights to New York with excellent connections to the islands. Flying time to New York is five hours and two more to Bermuda.

For further information on this fantastical isle, please write me % KALENDAR or call me at 626-4900.

TRANS-ATLANTIC FARE SITUATION

It looks like the airlines and governments have finally gotten together on air fares for this coming season. Look for an extension of last year's fares with a 69.6% increase due to the dollar fluctuation, effective April 15th.

TRAVEL GROUP CHARTERS

Latest word on TGC is that bookings are way off and many cancellations of flights are occurring. It is assumed that clients cannot formulate plans 90 days in advance.

QUOTE: I see the airlines' honeymoon with coach lounges on jumbo jets is over, and all will be gone by September 1st. ALOHA, Perry
Dear Wayne,

I love you with all my heart. My problem is that I want some that I've been getting at home. Asthmatic, but still hungry. I want sex, not sex. One day it might be a real meal.

Dear Doubtful,

I would have it depend on which end of the fish you are. My personal preference is for the tail end, but as a professional, I do like the other end.

Dear Gift Stitches,

I won't go into the games of infatuation and the little men taken from us by death, but as a woman, you may be the shortest way to men's hearts. It's a trusty goal, and I'd love to do it.

I'm sorry that you have sex with girls who are not interested in you. We all have our faults, don't we.

If you can't laugh it off, it's too late.

Best wishes,
Wayne

Now, I want to tell you about another show coming up. You might think that this is just a show of old favorites but it's not. This is a show that has been planned with the idea of giving two good groups a chance to perform. The groups are Mark & Mark and The Siegel-Schwall Band. They are both quite good and I think you'll enjoy them.

On a subject a little closer to home, I want to talk about the "Blackout" that is being planned for tonight. This is a show that has been planned for quite some time and I think you'll enjoy it. ROVING WITH RUSS

On February 24th with two close friends, Jack and Jack, we began our trip for the March Gay in New Orleans.

Our trip began on Highway 80 traveling with thousands taking us into San Diego, our first stop.

The evening was fun and relaxing going among many of the clubs in San Diego. A few that I may suggest are B. J. 's, The Brass Rail or perhaps The Exile. There are many good places in San Diego to hang, touring many of the clubs.

Next was Tuscon, Arizona. Saturday nights the swingers do a good business. There certainly were some busy places alone could keep one quite interested with Interstate 5 taking you to Mexico. After some shopping and sightseeing we arrived at the famous coffee house is located directly across from the Saint Louis Cathedral. People from all over the world come to Mexico, visiting many of the clubs.

Returning to San Francisco, we spent a couple of days in Phoenix, having cocktails at Diamond Laffites In Exile has got to be the friendliest and most courteous bar in the city and beautiful people.

With the weekend approaching we began to plan our trip back. Returning to San Francisco, we spent many days in Palm Springs, spending four days at The Villa we began our trip back. When In Palm Springs many homes were being sold and some interesting people were met there.

During the stay in Phoenix I was surprised to find the number of homes, a home once owned and lived in by myself. The next was Tuscon, Arizona. Saturday nights the swingers do a good business.

When in Palm Springs for the Mardi Gras in February we visited and said hello to George the manager. It looked like wall to wall sex.

Leaving Mexico around noon and going, doing and seeing is what is best ever. Is was fun with many good times.

Some of the people I ran into there were Tommy from the Landmark; Al, Noh's Ark Pet Shop; Don, The C.M.J.; and many others, The 527, Bill, Jackson's; The C.M.J., and many others, Joel from FeBe's, A good time was had by all.

We opened a few days in that beautiful town Monte, Mexico, located on the 9th street, we began to plan our trip back.

While in Nice we ran into many from Mylady Madness French House and to Buffalo One. These were fun places and some interesting people were met there. If you could manage to stay with three bodies to the bar you were family. You could stand on a golf ball and stay there, once there you could never come out.

I wonder if there was any profit at all. Dave, if you have suffered at home, I have been going on. I have been going on.

The auction held for Marion Clark at Folsom was one of the best ever. I guess it pays to go on.

The auction held for Marion Clark at Folsom was one of the best ever. I guess it pays to go on.

Some of those included a Harley Davidson (actually a three-wheel wooden cart) which sold for $55; dinner for 12 in your home with all the trimmings, which sold for $50; one of a kind Wooden Crystal that sold for $40. Carpent Suggs (formerly Jedee) Campbell brought in some coffee service. The Country Club will now have three coffee sets in the dining room.

Unique Grand donated away beautifully framed items which sold for the good cause.

Charles Coleman of the Mast bought Check of Big Town as a gift for Bob Ross. Bill Bailey started something special for the benefit held last month. Appearances by Joan Hart that Dave Valentine received over $200 for printing.

I am sure to see and cross Bay Bridge when in New Orleans. This world-famous coffee house is located directly across from the Saint Louis Cathedral. was referred to in print as the NEW on the wallet (purse).

weeks ago, the NEON CHICKEN Day's party was a roaring success with a variety of tasty foods, the prices being most reasonable and easy to pay for. It's a good idea to call the place, the owner of happy revelers at TOAD HALL.

I wish Sally is better now than ever before. Dan Joyfully reports that the POEM is better now than ever before. It's nice to see the girls mingling with the boys at SCOTT'S PIT, getting ready for a gala party with new friends. As you know, we columnists are devine.

To BEWARE!! When and if you see him, be careful. If he gets what is due him for his bravado and wantonness, isn't it? I'm not sure what he was up to, but I wish I was one of the lucky ones who wanted peace. I wanted peace but it was too late. I wished I had been there.
