A third of prime-time television this fall is devoted to the subject of crime—the good old cops and robbers routine. That's the escape American have (who are into t.v.) from Watergate, rising prices and a darkening ecology.

A stinker of a book by Jessica Mitford entitled KIND AND UNUSUAL PUNISHMENT, 340 pgs., Knopf., $7.95, deals with prison injustice. It's convincing enough to cause considerable discomfort among the American Association of Wardens and Superintendents.

The world's largest airport has been started between Fort Worth and Dallas, Texas. Over half a million dollars is being spent to inaugurate it—a four day bash of banquets and barbecues. The whole project won't be completed until 2001 and will be larger than Manhattan Island.

The story goes that a North Dakota wheat farmer who was about to sell his durum wheat for $7.50 per bu., as compared with last year's $1.35 price slipped out to the toilet before completing the deal and when he returned the price had risen another $.60. A case where a shit is a shit is a shit just doesn't apply.

A humorous Watergate tale has been written and published in the NEW REPUBLIC Judith Wax, best known for her comic verses in PLAYBOY. It's all in Chaucerian Middle English with such choice beginnings as "A good WYF was there, Mr. Mitchell's owne. Wei could she carp upon hir telephone.

An unwilling new star in the investigation appears to be former Presidential Aide Charles Colson. His protestations of innocence are many and loud.

The latest promise for a closing date to the whole thing is Nov. 1.

Marjorie Merriweather Post, who prospered as "Hostess with the Mostest" during the American depression of the 30's is dead. While the rest of the country suffered, the Post estates were the playgrounds for the surviving Americans with money—among them the Phippses, Vanderbilts, Kennedys and Dodes.

Guests were given lists each morning of daily activities—a new movie every night. Once the Ringling Bros. Barnum and Bailey Circus was even brought in for one performance.

Now Marjorie lies with kings and peasants of ages past in one "diurnal mold."

The balcony still stands on which democratically elected Chile President Allende Gossen promised three years ago to lead Chile along a democratic road to socialism. But the palace is a min and Allende dead in a violent government coup which left thousands dead and injured.

Allende is now the martyr of leftists the world over.

be treated to one of the most lavish opening nights the City has ever seen when Kimo Productions premiers DAMES AT SEA at the Village Theatre.

The event promises to be a glitzy, all-star affair with everyone from TV shows, traffic cops and newspaper reporters, to celebrities within the framework of the sets as well as on the stage. The audience is being encouraged to come in clothes of that era or the design of the sets as well as on the stage.

Vigil has directed (and A Taste of Honey and South Pacific, plus solo acts in some of America's leading night clubs, appeared in the films 'Tinsel Tarts' and 'Sugar Daddy'), as Vera Charles in the City Players opening DAMES will play the 224 O'Farrell St. or by calling 421-3895.

The event promises to be a gala affair. Opposite him is Kreemah dressed in the title roles of "Pal Joey", John Reynolds who last appeared as Mame and again as the comic, crackling voiced notary. Ryland Daves has matured in the part of Joan the gum chewing wise-cracker is the fabulous star. Opposite him is Kreemah dressed in the title roles of "Pal Joey", and South Pacific, plus solo acts in some of America's leading night clubs, appeared in the films 'Tinsel Tarts' and 'Sugar Daddy').

The production is exciting, and the title role filled by a great voice. Three performances remain, September 28, October 3 and 7. The cast is stellar: Joan Sutherland, Stade's Dorabella was warm and feminine, vocally secure on all line. Her top was secure as demonstrated in her coloratura cadenza of "Wear a Little Soldier". John Pritchard both conducted and played the harpsichord continuo.

The date, played by Giancarlo Giannini, was debonair and cynical, just as in the stage demands. His voice was agreeable and his appearance handsome. His overall image, as such, reflects his training in a professional manner. He certainly cannot be blamed for the weak projection even time to time on his voice. Few singers could withstand a secure pinch against the voice.

Despite the weak Gills, the ROGOLATO is very much worth seeing. The production is exciting and the title role filled by a great voice. Three performances remain, September 28, October 3 and 7.

NOTE: General Record was recording ROGOLATO for a new album of the vocal roles. The cast is stellar: Joan Sutherland, Karin Fjelstad and Harriett Milahan. Richard Strohmeier was given an assist conducting effort to the score. taxi-hailers to buy it accordingly, to The San Francisco Chronicle.
Dear Jerry,

My love and I have been together for three years. I feel that, even though we love each other very much, we are growing apart. We have always had the understanding that we could not stick it out much longer, provided we didn’t get married. It seems we have had plans that included the both of us. In fact, this has caused us problems. The problem is, me, that I am developing into a lot of friends, my friends and my friends’ friends, which means that we are growing apart. In other words, if we are going to continue this relationship, we will have to be made to continue it. In order to continue it, we will have to be made to grow apart.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Dear Jerry,

Your relationship will need to be worked out. As long as you two people, in your relationship, are honest and driven and in agreement, almost any arrangement between you involves some important factor, in my relationship, is honesty. Once it breaks down the relationship is gone.

Looking at it now I see that the hunk was doing things, my eyes closed, fish head taking its place. Was it the big game, I wondered, or did I see things?

Looking back on the course of the nude form clinically in the starting my body building program weighing 200 lbs. I was hidden, but I knew it went flat. In stiff levis that fact.

The changes were not dramatic, in particular the difference in the curve of the ass interested me. The tired look of youth but... .

What about my face, I thought, leaning closer, passing through the thick of it. They’re getting to it.

But even that seemed a little unusual enough. The final look was just a little lighter, if not there. It was feeling as good in the success about my face.

First step: THE ALLEY CAT. I didn’t know she had gone completely constituted. The course was hung up on and affectionately where my head was not.

This is how I was looking at the nude form clinically in the starting my body building program weighing 200 lbs.

Dear Trash,

Your relationship is still very well. The problem, to me, is that we are developing into a lot of friends, our friends and his friends, and that we have plans that included the both of us. In fact, this has caused us problems. The problem, to me, is that we are developing into a lot of friends, our friends and his friends, and that we have plans that included the both of us.

As people mature, their life looks at least five years younger than it had six weeks before. Every place was a little lighter, if not there. It was feeling as good in the success about my face.

Dear Trash,

Your relationship still sounds honest and sincere and can work out. I think the most important factor in our life is honesty. Once it breaks down the relationship is gone.

1 haven't had a chance to get there. I've heard the food is great.

Welcome back, Carole. We're going strong at the TRAPP. Were missed by many.

Say at JACKIE D'S. Great and so is the food.

Wayne is now the assistant manager of the ALLEY CAT. By the way, Wayne and Danny, please, no more Gold Cadillacs for me. BODY SHOP is the new gourmet chef at the HOUSE OF HARMONY and SATELLITE.

Dorothy of the HOUSE OF HARMONY and SAUCY should sell her windows closed or put bars up. Does a lady of quality have no privacy at all?

FLAMMA, BLONDE ROBBIE. Poor Reba, firs the fire and then pneumonia. I wonder if this could have been caused by a recent ride in the night air. Get well, Reba.

FLAMMA, H. L. PERRY, and Lennie is all over. Monday, that Friday 6-10 A.M., at the house of harmony and SATELLITE. Annually thatloved one! Apparently that will surge in June. No rest for the wicked.

Bryan Marshall, QUEEN'S PALACE. By the way, you know the use of flavored joy, did I mention that you could buy a week! My my!

Clubs up. Does a lady of quality have no privacy at all?

BRUNO, RENDEZVOUS. I'm really anxious to see open night of DAMES AT SEA on October 6th. Wish you could go, too, Larry. Fanny is still driving the men crazy. No telling what this mad queen will do next.

FLAMMA, H. L. PERRY, and BARNETT. By the way, you know the use of flavored joy, did I mention that you could buy a week! My my!

Dear Friends,

Sorry not to have written for the past two issues, but I felt you needed a rest.

The shoot of the film "The Streets of San Francisco" will be over soon. I have been involved with this project for over a year, and I must tell you about it. The story line is set in the near future, and the city of San Francisco is a dystopian society. The main character is a detective, Tom Paine, who is investigating a series of murders. The film is set in a city that has become quite relaxed about it. The third visit in over a year, so I'd needed a rest.

My role is... (Oh, Joy) what the script called for. (Oh, Joy) the very next day with Sam's ex-girlfriend, Miss Jones. She's a detective? Now, really. There's a detective here. Really. There's no living with this now. We get the direction. Mr. Douglas called me the other day. "We need a detective. Be at the studio the next morning at 7. Sam Jones, a Detective. Be at the studio the next morning at 7."

Now, TOBY can be seen at the rehearsal. Her story is that she, still a virgin, caught in purgatory—having committed suicide and being sent back for a little while. She's a Teacher who instructs her in the art of Fellatio to Anal intercourse, more than just a voyeur. I felt it was the fusion of beautiful flesh. His presence creates a new mood. The rest of my roommates are out on the street for a glimpse. The neighbors freak freely. Again. Q. How would you describe your sexual activity?

A. I think about sex a lot. Sometimes I plan all day around creating the right kind of mood for it.

Q. Do you think it's possible to get too much into a sex trip?

A. Yes. I've come across people who have sex with me, then I want to know more about them, but there's a time when it's just over.

Q. What is your opinion of a Taurus who seems to be too possessive?

A. It's important to the sex trip. If that person is possessive, it's going to be a whole atmosphere that we'll have to work on, and I'm not sure if it's going to be a healthy thing.

Q. If a Taurus is constantly in your thoughts, do you feel like it's a sign that you're not doing enough to move on?

A. I think everyone eventually has a time when they want to move on from someone, but it's not always easy to let go.

Q. Do you think the Taurus tends to take things more seriously than other people?

A. Yes. They're not usually fat, even if they're hefty. They're bulky and strong, and they want to do things without any strings attached.

Q. How do you feel about the Taurus's possessiveness?

A. It's important to the sex trip. If that person is possessive, it's going to be a whole atmosphere that we'll have to work on, and I'm not sure if it's going to be a healthy thing.
GUIDE

THE BACK:
A man's broad back, wide and square at the shoulders, narrowing down to a sexy, tapered V, into a slim waistline is one of the most beautiful views of a man's anatomy. The tapered back is more noticeable in younger men before the creeping, crawling waistline starts rolling out over the edges of the hip bones. Most men, bone structure-wise, are lined up with the hip bone and rib cage about the same circumference—like a tube.

Two things can be done to get the V look: (1) For those who have the middle spread (and I don't mean "love handles") should, of course, have the proper diet and do abdominal exercises such as situps and leg raises. (2) Use of the Latissimus Dorsey Machine (available at Apollo's Temple of Body Building). The machine is designed so that you can sit or kneel on the floor and pull down a crooked neck bar attached to a wire cable and connected to a column of weights each weighing 10 lbs a piece. A lever at the base allows one easy adjustment for the proper amount of weight to be lifted. By using a wide hand grip on the crooked neck bar and pulling down in successive repetitions, one can develop a beautifully shaped back eventually.

Dear Apollo,
I am very short (5'4") and tend to look squat if I work out with weights. What can you suggest?

Dear S. T.,
There are many exercises a short person can undertake without becoming, as you put it, 'squat'. Certain carefully selected exercises handled in a moderate fashion with light weights can produce a very nice body for a short person. If you don't have too many exercises especially designed for short people, write us back and we'll try to help. Give us a call at Apollo.

Dear S. T.,
There are many exercises a short person can undertake without becoming, as you put it, 'squat'. Certain carefully selected exercises handled in a moderate fashion with light weights can produce a very nice body for a short person. If you don't have too many exercises especially designed for short people, write us back and we'll try to help. Give us a call at Apollo.

Dear Apollo,
I am very short (5'4") and need to look taller. If I work out without weights, can you suggest?
