Los Angeles has been shaken by a series of mild earthquakes the past week. No damage has been reported.

Permitting is being sought through the courts to allow a precedent-setting nationwide TV broadcast by Joseph Remiro and Russell Little, the alleged killers of Marcus Foster, Oakland School Superintendent. Remiro and Little plan to disclose a plan for obtaining the release of kidnapped Patricia Hearst, who is supposedly being held by the Synonymous Liberation Army, of which Remiro and Little claim to be members.

Paramount Pictures has hopes of making their new movie, "The Great Gatsby" starring Robert Redford and Mia Farro, the largest money-making success. Prior to its opening "Gatsby" has already received bookings totalling three times the cost of the movie.

Governor Reagan has apologized for a statement he made about a meeting of Republican Congressmen. He said that there was nothing wrong with the Heavit food give away program that "an epidemic of botulism wouldn't cure."

George Maharis at the Boot Camp? Was that him? We're not really sure weather he came to roast Mr. Marcus, see the Mr. Kalendar Candidates or enjoy the Boot Camp itself. One thing for sure, Ken Leckman of the Wild Goose will soon be getting fan mail from George.

Sailors 40 of the Australian type all going into the Castro Camera! Harvey Milk and Scott being questioned about this replied most innocently, "Honestly they really only wanted to buy film." Thats what they did, got back on the bus and continued on their way around the City.

Country Boys

(Country Life) Karl is young, blond, and a great deal more musical than you'd think. A good time is in order. He's the kind of kid who listens to the radio, knows the words to every song, and can play it all. He's also a great dancer, and his moves are the talk of the town. His music is so soulful, so heartfelt, it's hard not to get swept up in it.

Body Talk

A question has been brought up at the party since the music started: Are we going to have a kiss or are we going to smoke? Everyone is in agreement that we should do both.

I arrived in Seattle on Friday with Bob Kates and we were met by Bob's parents, who are also in Seattle. They are a wonderful family, and I was so happy to see them. We met up with some friends for a drink, and then headed over to a local bar for some music. It was a great night, and I'm looking forward to more.

Sylvester, the Bay Area's most popular R
disco singer, will be giving his farewell performance at 7:00 on March 17 at the Tenderloin Club. The show is entitled "A Farewell to Sylvester," and will celebrate the many years of music making with Sylvester. Their appeal is universal and their attitude comes across as genuine; they seem to be enjoying their music and their success. Their most recent album, "Whip It," features some of the same elements that made Sylvester so popular. Sylvester is known for his energetic and entertaining performances, which have helped him become one of the most recognized and performed artists in the Bay Area. The show will feature a medley of his classic hits, including "I'm a Survivor," "You're a Winner," and "Let Me Be Your Lover." The show is not to be missed for fans of Sylvester and for anyone who enjoys a good time! Tickets are available at the door for $5.

MUSIC

by John Hodges

There's something special about an artist who can bring the crowd to its feet with every song they perform. That's exactly what Sylvester has managed to do with his music. His infectious energy and charismatic stage presence have made him a fan favorite, and his shows are always filled with excitement and 만들어. His latest performance is no exception. The audience is on their feet from the moment Sylvester steps onto the stage, and the energy is palpable. His voice is powerful and emotive, and he knows how to engage the crowd. His renditions of "San Francisco," "Dancing in the Streets," and "Do the Hit a Buck" are particular highlights of the show. The crowd is on their feet throughout the performance, cheering and singing along to every word. Sylvester's music is a perfect blend of soul and dance, and he delivers it all with a smile and a touch of humor. His latest show is a testament to his talent and his ability to connect with his audience. It's a must-see for anyone who loves music and a good time.
Thank you so much from all the T.F. G.D.I. group who enjoyed themselves so much last Sunday at the Kปลาย in Palo Alto. With a smile on both of your faces, you made a grand party of the whole T.F.G.D.I. group. However, we all know that this was the kind of evening which will never be repeated. I shall continue to see you very often. Miss Liza is working. We hear that Miss Liza has been away for a few days. We understand that she is in the hospital. We hope that she will be well soon.

Dear J.C.,

I have a very close friend who is being driven out of his mind by a so-called lover. This lover cares nothing about my friend except to take him for everything. He calls me to help him when he can't think straight anymore or to come over and talk to me. That's when his lover starts phoning again and again, any time of the day or night. I am becoming involved and don't know what to do. This friend of mine is that only. We have never had anything to do with each other sexually. As I said before, he is only a friend, and I do want to help. But how?

Name Withheld.

Dear Friend,

It is always wonderful to have a friend to have an interest in one's welfare but sometimes it becomes a catch. The only advice I can give you is to listen but don't give any advice. When lovers fight, it is their concern. For if you agree with one you will be disagreeing with the other and when they make up (as many do) they will remember this as an interference. As for the phoning, I would arrange a signal with my friend and not answer the phone or tell the person you don't want to talk to that you were just leaving and are in a rush.

Your friend,

J.C.

This period begins with a strong urge to change. New ideas are alluring and stimulating. Make the most of it. By the 28th you may be presented with an opportunity to try something new. This should be a free for you to really want to do. Strange things are happening now and your sensitive nature will be tested. Flow with it and pay attention to the signs. There is something happening, with some new ideas which need your input. This is an emotional decision and understanding of the future.

Mars (April 5-May 5) On the 28th you may be pressed into action against your will. An opportunity to better yourself is available. In reality they all did a show for us you would really want to be. Overcome your fears with all your might and show the world what you really are. The 23rd is the day for you. You need to force yourself to keep going, your mind being alert but physically, your body needing rest. The 23rd is the day although it gets off to a seemingly right start. Everything seems to be up in the air right now for everybody, perhaps even yourself. Spring cleaning can be fun and just part of the relaxing process. The 24th is a busy and exciting day. You will become very important during this time period. Be ready to give your best. The 26th are excellent days if you let things happen. There is much of you which you have to force yourself to keep going and doing nothing. Let your mind & body do the right thing doing the right act. Keep calm and be an example. Don't think too much, be spontaneous, let things be as they want to be; and let it grow, let it flow. Everything seems to be in the right place doing the right actions not of your own making. Flow with the current and can free yourself to that extent...
