World Heavyweight Champion George Foreman, retained his title by achieving a technical knock-out in Caracas, Venezuela over challenger Ken Norton. The TKO came in the second round of the 15 round contest after Foreman had floored Norton three times.

Mrs. Randolph Hearst, mother of kidnapped Patricia Hearst, said in a telephone interview from New York that she is beginning to lose hope that Patricia will be returned safely. She said that it has been such a long time and she feels very discouraged.

A West Berlin court recently acquitted a 51-year old carpenter of strangling his wife on the grounds that he was temporarily insane. It seems that his wife, who suffered insomnia, stayed up during the night solving crossword puzzles, and often woke her husband to ask his advice. The strangling occurred after the wife had awakened her husband 4 times in one night.

The San Francisco Chronicle recently reported that top planners at Standard Oil of California drew up a confidential document in Dec., 1968, advising that the San Francisco based company and other industry giants limit their oil production in the Middle East. The study revealed that the officials were alarmed at that time over the prospects of too much oil being produced in the world, rather than a scarcity.

GAY CULTURE moves ahead. Review the exhibit of photographers at the deYoung Museum. One photographer has been picked out of many to represent gay art. If you are into art & photography see this display. NOTE: Make sure to BRING DICK - remember him - junk jewelry and all - pure insanity - Check him out at the Rear End. It's worth it.

THE WINDJAMMER not only has a new style of decor but a new style of entertainment. Gary Schneider. The much followed Gary, will start there this week, after he gets that huge organ of his moved in.

RUMOR has it that Mark Calhoun of the Truck Stop and an unidentified friend will appear at the Golden Awards as the couple of the year. Just rumor of course.

DID you enjoy the pictures of “Mr. Jockey Shorts” on the cover. See him in person at the End Up's Jockey show Dance content April 7.

ANOTHER RUMOR. Robert Nicholas Walker, who appeared in Kalendar 2 issues ago, will appear at the Levi Ball. Just another rumor of course.

NERVOUS TENSION. To prevent it, it is commonly known, one must express oneself. Release the emotions. Now, if that's true Kish of Watergate West should be a very calm person. He does express himself, Blue cheese dressing anyone?

ROYAL DRESS maker busy at work! The Empress has directed that a Levis gown be made for her attendance at the Levi Ball. Can ya' beat it - madness.

CHP is this month's cover personality, a 5'7" Gemini, recently from Honolulu. He's 24, 150 lbs, an instructor at the Apollo's Temple of Body Building, and Boot Camp's 1974 MR SHORTS title holder. His interests? Everything from show music to classic, weight training, advertising illustration, and tap dancing. "I'm hyper-active, always running around doing things!!" A self-proclaimed Mickey Mouse freak and certified nut, he hopes to remain in the Bay Area for years to come. Wonderful!!

Lucille Ball is in town for a few days, Lucille Ball, who has been building and expanding her career to become the new Warner Bros. star, now becomes Vera Charles, a gin-dunking stage star, in "Marne." And Beatrice Arthur, known to Tuesday night TV audiences as the abrasive Maude, now becomes Vera Charles, a gin-dunking stage star, in "Marne." Here she is writing a letter to Maude, the first smart gypsy who taught him to drive a car.

Man on the Move

An interview with Thom Paine by David L. Rinker

"You're not going to get away from me," Larry told him. "You're not going to hide, because you're honest and I really like you."

"I do," Thom replied. "If you don't want me, I won't be here.

Thom appreciates Larry's concern and consciously checks himself to a slower pace. He has been managing two san francisco theaters in controversy, (See last issue of B. A. R.,)

Two years ago he was interviewed by the owners of the LAUREL Theatre and they asked him why he thought he could manage it.

"I was seeking to run a restaurant before I knew you, and I don't think I'd be able to, I have 4 theaters."

"You're telling me you're having problems with your present employers? I'm telling you I'm the person you need."

There was an impressive list of accomplishments on his resume, too, including ten years of different administrative jobs—all with impeccable references.

Thom was quoted as saying; "Who are they to say what people can do?"

Thom was quoted as saying, "What are they to say what people can do?"

The LAUREL was a showcase on one of the most interesting streets of san francisco. Thom was soon a controversial figure.

The LAUREL became a clean, comfortable place in which to watch films of an erotic nature. There was a free coffee in the lobby, a clean bathroom with walls exuding apple pie and virtue while mimicking Bette Davis or any of a number of other stars he grew up watching.

"I love you because you're honest and I really like you."

But he's a busy man and there's electricity around him even when he's going at half his usual speed.

Thom appreciatively at Larry's concern and conciously checks himself to a slower pace.

"You're telling me you're having problems with your present employers? I'm telling you I'm the person you need."

He was hired.

"I was looking to turn it over to a gay theater and was doing record business."

The POWELL was a showcase on one of the most historic streets of san francisco. There were two raunchy-type one might have about the manager of a pornographic theatre. He's open, kind and honest, equaling apple pie and virtue while mimicking Bette Davis or any of a number of other stars he grew up watching.

The LAUREL prospered and Thom was given another chance to manage a theater. This time it was the Historic Powell at the beginning of the cable car line.

When Animal lovers opened he was again involved in a gay theatre and was doing record business.

Dear Andre,

"San Bruno Hilton", just a hop, skip and a jump from the ever-changing city... and we are here in a patriotic gesture, have a chance to visit the San Francisco Hilton in peace. We are interested in learning about the hotel to which we are headed.

We are interested in learning about the hotel to which we are headed.

The walls are a tired, worn, yet beautiful fabric, and the atmosphere is warm and inviting. The hotel is a perfect place for a weekend getaway or a short vacation.

There is a sense of history and tradition at the San Bruno Hilton, with elegant and classic decor. The guestrooms are spacious and beautifully appointed, offering a comfortable and luxurious stay.

The hotel offers a range of amenities and services, including a full-service spa, a fitness center, and a variety of dining options. There is also a rooftop pool and a lounge area where guests can relax and unwind.

We are excited to explore the Hotel San Bruno Hilton and all it has to offer, and we look forward to spending a memorable stay here. If you have any questions or require further information, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

The Gay Liberation Follies is a show based on the idea of presenting a group of people in drag, with a focus on the liberation of gay rights. The show is a satirical take on traditional gender roles and societal expectations, highlighting the importance of self-expression and freedom of choice. It features performances by various drag artists, including La Kish, as they explore themes of identity, love, and acceptance.

We'll have to do our thing again tonight —- no doubt. We'll start with the usual —- fat fairy in chiffon, a dumpy manly cowboy gear, love it —- this time, there will also be a dance contest. We'll have to do our thing again and again and again.

Adline looking in the east window, where there were no crowds, saw there in Peter's eyes for him break down the walls of his resistance.

Credited as having the most self-assured of us all, Peter was not "good" or "bad" or "pretty" or "ugly." He was simply Peter, and that was enough for him.

The wind had died a little and a coolness crept into it.
