WORD OF MOUTH

MA BILL CORY owns the "Phone Booth" on South Van Ness (no connection with the big Ma Bell). Linda formally of the New Bell Saloon is the hostess there.

MOTHERFAT FAIRE is hosting a special party for all her children at the quaint Fall Mall remnant on Haight St. between 3 and 6pm on Mother Day. Her slogan for that day is F.F.F.F.A.

GRAHAMS CHINESE THEATRE in San Francisco? Yes—The first to put his hand prints in cement will be Charles. Tinker. To happen Sun May 3rd at the Phoenix.

WHILE QUESTIONING the owners of the newly transformed Odyssey(former Country Club), about their choice for a name, their reply centered around the idea that the name has eight different meanings. Look it up and take your pick.

AFTER 2 the Last Call Sandwich Shop is open. Remember, 1311, the court yard at Big Town? Its open now after 2am.

ONE OF THE most charming things about the new Sutro Bath House is that it has a complete pictorial history of the original Sutro Bath hanging on all the walls. A dance and a great place get you well down there.

LEVY BALL. I would like to thank all the people who contributed to and participated in the Levi Ball. It was a smashing success due to people like Randy Johnson, Jack Cattle, (official balloon blower), Mark Cahoon, flask, Bob Raza, Percy Pen, Bob Wabler, Pearl, Link Way. The sponsors, and candidates, the Truck Stop waiters, and the GDI Club and the people who attended. I have never seen so many beautiful women in one place in my life.

Thank you all again. ONE QUICK NOTE: one hour before the ball was supposed to start the building caught on fire. But due to our efficient staff the fire was put out and their work all was saved. Thank you Kish Bolc, Max, Sally and the GDI Club.

Last Friday I stopped in to find live Rock N Roll music. Yes every Sunday at 9:00. Last Sunday THE STUD rocked to the music of "FLYERS" a driving rock group from S.F. TEACHER T. LONG carried the ball along with bass player DAVE NEWLOVE. Next Sunday the STUD hosts a group called "MARRATHY".

manager SKY JONES says the band is known to have special good ears from time to time. A few weeks ago "NAOME" of HAN HICKS BAND did a few numbers. On the 9th BILLY ROBERTS and GAITIS will host the STUD. also possibly, "RAICY PETER" and "PEARL" in the near future say SKY. Next Sunday stop in at THE STUD Oh yeah! No cover.

DAVID BOWIE'S new album, DIAMOND DOGS, due in mid-May, has problems. Rare Rolling Stone Artist GUY PELLAERT, of upcoming fame for "ROCK DRAGS", did the cover. which shows DAVID'S head on the torso of a male dog who clearly has no interest in the cover. Not amused, not to mention turned on, R.C. A. has made a "business decision"—to put a sticker on the shrink wrap over the offensive organs.

RUFFY SAINT MARIE'S first MCA album "BUFFY" is in trouble. Retailers most of them in the Mid-West (including Sears, the country's single largest record retailer) have refused, to stock the album because horror, one of BUFFY'S breasts is exposed on the cover. BUFFY said the photo is a good-natural pro-test against glooms, as well as support for any woman's right to take off her own shirt.

PAUL MCCARTNEY and JOHN LENNON were turned away at the door at CAPTAIN BEFFERTS recent WHEREY "A GO GO" opening. Although the Club was jammed with spectators who wanted to see the good CAPTAIN'S first public appearance in two years. There's always room for rock superstardom; but in this case, the doorman just didn't recognize the former "BEATLES" says "ZOO WORLD".

The new "ROLLING STONES" concert film, shot during 372 American concert tour, opens on Easter Sunday in New York. "LADIES AND GENTLEMEN THE ROLLING STONES" was edited to give the viewer the impression of sitting in front row seats and the producers say the movie is an attempt to create a concert on film, rather than another documentary such as "WOODSTOCK". The film will be released sometime in June to the rest of the U.S. That's all folks! Boogie Down!

The San Francisco Chronicle reported this week that it had learned from informed sources that a "Fanatic Sect" was responsible for the random murders which have plagued various parts of California since 1969.

At a meeting held in Oakland last October 16, investigators concluded that a total of 24 mass and attempted murders in California from 1969 to 1974 were "Muslim-connected."

Police authorities were quick to assure that while it is true that a disdint group of Muslims were involved in the "Facts", the majority of Muslims were unaware of the activities and had no knowledge of the slayings.

A Federal judge in San Francisco has ruled that an employer has the right to wiretap employees conversations which concern a company owned switchboard.

S. District Judge Robert H. Schonberg took the apparently unprecedented position when he dismissed wiretapping charges against John Christman, 45, who was in charge of security at J. M. Stockton and O'Farrell street stores.

The judge felt that the owner of a switchboard system has the right to protect its proper use by listening in on conversations.

The parents of Patricia Hearst, who was kidnapped in 1974 by the Symbionese Liberation Army, has posted a $50,000 reward for her safe return or information leading to that return.

The family said that it had not offered a reward earlier because they felt it, 5, 4, 5, 4, 5.

It has now become evident to them that the S. L. A. is aware of the price.

At the American Psychiatric Association's recent meeting in Detroit this week, the hottest exhibit was one showing films of a nude couple making love. The exhibit was sponsored by a therapeutic tool often needed by professionals in their work.

CBS reported that Ralph Newman, who appraised the President's gift of pre-presidential papers, wrote Mr. Nixon's tax lawyer, Frank DeMarco, that the President still "has a considerable amount of material, including tapes, in the archives that would qualify as gifts."

DELTOIDS

There are three distinct sections of the deltoide (shoulder muscles) that work together and separately. The anterior or front section, the posterior (rear portion), and the lateral or side area. While all three sections generally work together, there are some lifts or movements that tend to activate one or two sections more vigorously in these exercises.

For example, while performing a front raise, that is raising a barbell or dumbbell from the thighs up to shoulder level in front, this movement causes the anterior and lateral sections to work stronger, although the posterior area also comes into play in the process of lowering the weight.

However, in a bent-over lateral raise from the thighs to the sides, the posterior section is strongly involved while the anterior and lateral sections are also involved but not to the extent of the true anterior or lateral sections.

In fact, all lifting movements involve the anterior portion more vigorously than the other two sections, even though all three are involved in the right overhead pressing to work on the lateral sections. Although the anterior and posterior sections are involved to lesser degrees.

This should, though training experience, be able to determine which exercise involves certain sections more and which tends to employ them. On the other hand, deltoids respond better to a variety of exercises rather than one or two movements. Probably the best exercise of all for the deltoids is the lateral dumbbell raise.

Tripping At The Theater

With Bobbi Redford

First of all, if you missed the Levi Ball at the Village this weekend, you missed an unprecedented celebration of some of the most talented people and said last night's festivities were a success. There were enough people, just enough of everything, to keep everybody happy all night. Rednítly, yes, but I can't see a reason for not going at a steady pace by keeping the lead that was present. Nothing is going to be a success for all involved. Congratulations to the trio, Esther Shannon and her daughter, who had really worked hard to make sure the event was a success.
