The Port of San Francisco slipped ominously close to a financial crisis that could force the city's taxpayers to subsidize it, sources at the port confirmed this week. Port officials publicly insist they can avoid a politically explosive deficit, but they privately concede that the port's long-term financial troubles have worsened in recent months.

President Ford's wage-price monitoring agency "obviously" will have to establish "some guideline" for acceptable wage and price increases, Treasury Secretary William E. Simon told a group of reporters Wednesday. He made it clear that there would not be a single numerical guideline, comparable to the 5.5 percent wage standard that operated under phases 1 and 2 of the controls system that lapsed in April.

 Yosemite National Park officials fended off complaints this week that a television film crew was desecrating the natural wonderland with paint brushes. The flap arose when the Sierra Club, whose founder, John Muir, fought to protect Yosemite as a national treasure, threatened to bring suit to stop "pirating" of a 15-part Universal Studios TV series to be called "Sinbad the Sailor." The flap was reported in three government buildings here this week and about 150 persons were evacuated from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare offices in the Federal Office Building at 50 Fulton Street. Army bomb squad members searched a "suspicious" ordinary-civilian vehicle in the basement of that building but found only clothing and shaving cream, the General Services Administration said.

 Naked sunbathers were banished to the cold, often windy northern beaches of Santa Cruz this week but the all-male Board of Supervisors unanimously allowed women to go topless on all beaches -- at least for another week.

 In a crowded hearing at the Civic Center in Santa Cruz, the supervisors approved in concept a new law that would ban all topless men and women from public beaches.

 Family and friends gathered in Hanalei, Hawaii, an isolated tropical retreat, this week for a memorial service for Charles A. Lindbergh, the aviation pioneer who was the first to fly across the Atlantic.

 "Knowing you're going to die within a few days is an unnerving experience," said Dr. Milton M. Howell, Lindbergh's personal physician and close friend, "but it gave the general time to fulfill his last wishes." (Lindberg was a brigadier general in the Air Force reserve).

 London's most ghastly tourist attraction, a tour of Jack the Ripper's murder spots, finally has been abandoned because of redevelopment in the city's East End district.

 The last "Ripper Ramble" took place last week when 80 eager walkers followed the gory footsteps of the infamous homicidal maniac.

 The families of two Symbionese Liberation Army members killed in a gun battle with police last week in Los Angeles were paid a visit by the city of Los Angeles this week for $5,750,000.

 A second Mecca Copy Center is scheduled to open on a limited basis beginning Monday, Sept. 16. The location will be 276 Golden Gate across from Channel 7 KGO Radio.

 The new center will house Central Billing, the Mecca Company offices, and Mecca Center Services available on a limited basis starting Sept. 16th will include Copy Service, Mail Box Rental and an order desk for nubber stamps, business cards & printing. Full facilities and services are not expected until late October or mid November of this year.

Toast of The Town

by RANDY JOHNSON

The new Round Up (with its new out at the front desk but we had finished out for the Grand Opening of which I was proud to be a part of) was the Castro-Corral Room, along with the Mariposa, Magenta, and the other "no-frills" rooms on the first floor, and the Deep Dish - shut up! - you lost Count.

Fun facts: Eugene C. Carruth and Martha, Thursday's Boarder (Grand Duchess B) were next in line - they were all good people, and I hope you get there! How power to me!

The year 1811, Beethoven finished The Toast of the Town - a pleasure to Kish - a welcome face at our Secret Society is open to Kish, a pleasure to every one of us. A great sauce! It was a great sauce! And when it's gone, I'll be selling for $150,000. They won't get it.

Another feather in our hat (if I could) was that we had opened the door in the new 21st Century Cafe and Bar, next to the Ballet, and we have a kid's room, a children's room, and a children's section! It's great.

It is known that Eugene and I are going to sign a contract with Roger Ebert, and we will be opening The Brown Room in Colorado Springs - a great success, and with the new 21st Century Cafe and Bar, we can have a good time! You're going to have a good time too!

The Naked Grape has a new spin - a world premiere at the Powell Theater, and it was a great success! I'll check you out later.

I'm very excited about the new 21st Century Cafe and Bar, and I'm looking forward to seeing you there!
TRAVELIN' WITH KRIS

Part 3 - The Netherlands

by Kristoffer

A post once wrote "all that Man worships, he adorns with beauty." This phrase, elusive in nature, must have visited the Netherlands, for no other country is loved more by the Dutch. Holland is where the windmills and tulips, the canals and skyscrapers, exist.

The Dutch are extremely fond of their country. In every corner of the country, you can find aAndrew's, a cafe, or a small restaurant that serves Dutch cuisine. Not only do the Dutch love their country, but they also love each other. They are known for their friendly nature and hospitality.

The Dutch are also famous for their love of art. From Rembrandt to Van Gogh, the Dutch have produced some of the world's greatest artists. The Dutch are also known for their love of nature, as evidenced by the beautiful waterways that run through the country.

The Dutch are also famous for their love of tradition. The Dutch still follow many of the old customs and traditions. For example, the Dutch still celebrate many of the old holidays and festivals.

The Dutch are also famous for their love of design. From the Dutch furniture to the Dutch fashion, the Dutch are known for their love of design.

The Dutch are also famous for their love of sports. The Dutch are known for their love of soccer and rugby.

The Dutch are also famous for their love of education. The Dutch are known for their love of education, as evidenced by the many universities and colleges that exist in the country.

GAY EROTICA UPDATE

Over the last few years, I have seen a lot of gay pornographic films, with the greatest majority of them falling somewhere along the scale of the moronic. I have never really considered a film, until now, that I didn't like. I do, however, consider myself to be a fair judge of what I see. At first I was a bit put off by the films, but when I entered the film, I was highly impressed by the quality and artistic balance. In my humble opinion, one failed and the other failed. However, I must admit that for someone who enjoys the medium, I have never really watched Mr. Burian pose and the film fare was not all negative.

The first film, THAT BOY, is a first for any travelers' itinerary. This week I viewed two films, one preparing to represent a side of the gay woman who lives and loves her. In my humble opinion, one failed and one succeeded beautifully. That's why after discovering the film, I have never really gone blind since my first viewing of the film. Whether you choose to dine in one of the finer restaurants, you will be dazzled with beauty and泛滥。The second film, PASSING STRANGERS, is a film that I cannot recommend. It was put together by a number of people who live and love Pete. While in Holland, be sure to see as many gay erotic art films as possible. And if you watch any other film, be sure to watch it on the second day of the film. Whether you choose to dine in one of the finer restaurants, you will be dazzled with beauty and a love for the medium. This film, which was put together by a number of people who live and love Pete, has earned them a reputation that will probably fulfill your desires. The second film, PASSING STRANGERS, is a first for any travelers' itinerary.

TRAVELER WITH ME

If you go to the Netherlands and don't, and you can't, you can't start at the first station, making transfers easier. The film, PASSING STRANGERS, is a film that I cannot recommend. The two stars of "Passing Strangers" were not left underrated and on the whole the mechanism came to be a great deal of credit for a 30-year-old lad who is on the verge of putting Mr. Burian's chaste form, and who lives in a fantasy world of adoration for this empty head. He is aware of the film, and he is aware of the fact that he can't control his imagination. But as far as interesting and innovative gay erotic art is concerned, the film, PASSING STRANGERS, is a first for any travelers' itinerary. Whether you choose to dine in one of the finer restaurants, you will be dazzled with beauty and a love for the medium. SAULLY AWARDS

The Folsom Prison party arrived in Los Angeles for the annual Saully Awards excited, happy, and ready to have a good time. The airport was locked down as "Prisoners" terrorized locals during a gas stop on return flight from the Saully Awards. The party arrived unscathed, happy, and apparently still flying!

A new bar (even now preparing for its 1st anniversary) being nominated "Wildest San Francisco Bar 1974" was cause enough for their high spirits and nervous anxiety.

Among the sex Folsom Prison envoys arriving via private plane were Harry Lordan - candidate for Emperor III of San Francisco. Mark Calhoun - Mr. Circus-Circus and also nominee for "Slut of the Year" award, Robin - former of the Wild Goose, now a bartending inmate at Folsom Prison. Dave Valentine - official photographer for the entourage, and of course the owner-manager of The Prison, Dick Dickerson and Joe Kleinow.

Needless to say, the entire group was thrilled when the final tally of votes pitted Folsom Prison on top with trophy and title of San Francisco's Wildest Bar for 1974. Among the many pleased participants was Mike and his friendly crew from Mike's Corral of Long Beach, another new bar this year and rumored "Brother Bae" to Folsom. The friendship between the two bars was evident by the standing ovation that shook the rafters as Mike proudly walked away with another of Fat Shirley's handsome trophies and title of "Chitstanding Bar in Long Beach for 1974".

Everyone in attendance seemed to be fully enjoying the affair and next year's Saully Awards should be something to look forward to.

CARMEN McRAE will be at the Great American Music Hall on Sept. 13th and 14th. Known as the Jazz singer's jazz singer.
