WORD OF MOUTH

KEEP JANUARY 13, 14 & 15

Open on your calendar. Kalendar will be having its 3rd anniversary party on those days. Each night will be devoted to different themes interesting to Gay San Francisco. Such as, "The Dance," "The Male Body," and our Royalty. We’ll give full details in the next issue.

TAKE ABOUT INSTANT success stories! Dale, Mr. Kalendar, after only having won Mr. Kalendar seven months ago is now Vice President of R. Michael Golovich Corp, and a member of the board of directors and a stock holder. You must have used your $500 first prize money well, Dale.

BY THE TIME YOU read this the Nicholas Theavon Mason Street will be open. If you have ever been in the old Frolic Room you are not going to believe what you’ll see. Total Deco, a three story flashing panel of lights, balconies and theatre lights that are reminiscent of 20th Century Fox In the 30’s. Brave Pat McAdams and Bob Darnon. Another classic step.

A QUICK THOUGHT. Why does Mark Calhoun, manager of the Round Up always order his ads in Kalendar reversed? (That means white print on a black background.) Uncle Freud would have had fun with this one.

A NOTE TO ALL who follow any chance to see a beautiful man. On Dec. 16th at the Boot Camp will be the 2nd Mr. Boot Camp Contest. If you have been attending the Fun Bure Contests on Monday nights at the Boot Camp and were at the Boot Camp last year for the Mr. Boot Camp contest you’ll know what I mean. I am going to be one of the judges that night. After judging and attending most of the events at the Boot Camp and the Mr. Acme Beer Contest and the Jockey Short Dance Contest, I am very well convinced that S.F. has got to have the most beautiful cross sections of men assembled anywhere in the world. Tip your glasses to that, gentlemen.

WATCH FOR A FUN new idea that is coming in the Kalendar. A blast. It will be very Club Rendezvous a go-go.

CAUGHT THOM Paine of the Powell Theatre sitting in the outdoor ticket box the other day. Couldn’t be because of all the action on lower Powell Street, could it, Thom?

HERE COMES THE FUN! Acme Beer, in conjunction with their Mr. Acme Beer Contest is taking a bus load of finalists and contestants and friends and anyone to Sacramento to the Playpen. The bus will leave from the Mistake on Jan. 3rd. $6.00 will take care of the fare. The beer and spaghetti is on Acme Beer, spaghetti and thou. (All of those contestants.)

FROM THE KALENDAR STAFF and myself the best of holiday wishes to you. And thank you all readers, advertisers and supporters for your support over this fast year.

FROM the DRESSING ROOM

By GENE ARCIERI

A scene cut to footage meant to be lost forever. It was cut, not as a change in mood, but for a more cohesive story. A scene that did not fit, or perhaps was too long. It was cut, but not for the better. A moment that should have been saved, but was not.

I imagine a philosopher sitting in the corner of a room, looking at the empty walls and thinking: "Is this all there is? Is this the meaning of life?"

But today, I will not dwell on the past. I will focus on the present. On the people who are here now, doing what they do best.

Let's begin.

The Towers is a new play by the famous author, "The Master of Modern Theatre." It's a story about a family, a family that is falling apart. The family is the Towers family, and they are living in a tower, a tower that is falling apart.

The play opens with the family's youngest child, a young boy named Scotty, who is playing with his toy airplane. The tower is falling apart, and Scotty is determined to save it. But the tower is too big, and Scotty is too young. He needs help.

Enter Dancer Fitzgerald Sample, a famous ballerina who is visiting the Towers family. She is determined to save the tower, and she is determined to help Scotty.

The play was a huge success, and it ran for several weeks. It was a play that people were talking about, a play that was making waves.

But then, something happened. The play was canceled. It was canceled because the tower was too big, and Scotty was too young.

The play was a tragedy, but it was also a success. It was a play that people would remember for a long time to come.

And now, the Towers family is back, and they are ready to perform. They are ready to show the world that they are not afraid of the past, that they are not afraid of the future.

The Towers is a play that people will talk about for a long time to come. It is a play that will make people think. It is a play that will make people laugh. It is a play that will make people cry.

And it is a play that will make people fall in love. It is a play that will make people fall in love with life. It is a play that will make people fall in love with each other.

The Towers is a play that will change the world.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in something.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in a better world.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in love.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in life.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in each other.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in themselves.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in their dreams.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in their future.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in their past.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in their present.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in their world.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in their lives.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in themselves.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in each other.

The Towers is a play that will make people believe in life.

 contrary to the understanding of the Town Hall. We're to have a ball, with the staff, the band, and 'big' things to do second night that will interest everyone instead of a select few. Welcome spring, dear.

A NEW movie, on the whole, ready to be shown in San Francisco—Group 3 of Hollywood. If you're interested in making your trip to an extra in the movie will be shown, and if you're interested in seeing the end of a good movie will be shown on a grey day.

BE SURE to place on your calendar January 5, 1975—our last traditionally party. It is going to be shown FREE of charge. A lot of people you involve and a lot of fun is being put into these things. Find out where you can be to be one of our costs, with a date with a lot of people you know, get your picture in the Halstead's party. You'll enjoy it. You'll enjoy it in the ease for further details.

GET READY for San Francisco's Great Christmas. It is going to be a party that you will still enjoy that night.

Well, it's finally happened. Christmas is a time of giving and receiving, and this year the San Francisco General Hospital's staff and patients have received something very special: a new Christmas tree!

The tree was donated by the Children's Ward of the San Francisco General Hospital as part of their annual "Christmas in the Penthouse" event. The evening was attended byChuck Demmon, President of the Staff of the Children's Ward, and a variety of other guests.

Each member and guest present at the tree lighting was presented with a gift from the hospital's gift shop. The tree itself was decorated with ornaments made by the hospital's patients and staff.

According to Chuck Demmon, this is just the beginning of the hospital's plans for a series of events and activities throughout the holiday season. The hospital hopes to continue to bring joy and comfort to its patients and staff in the months to come.
