Now, the practice of this Self-Chemistry is a style of meditation. In the first place, the use of Ashaka is to transform your consciousness to a point where you can control your body and mind to be at peace at all times. It is a simple way of achieving stillness. Right here is a point at which you can transform your consciousness from a point of tension to a point of peace where you can control your body and mind. It is a basic method taught by Gurdjieff, and there are other methods that are useful, but they are different. The purpose of all this is to show you how to use your body in order to create a new level of awareness.

This past weekend saw the West Coast debut of German tenor Richard Hiemenz and his American accompanist, pianist Linton Paul. Their concert at the San Francisco Symphony Hall on Saturday, August 24, 1975, was a resounding success.

The program featured a diverse range of works, including Rameau's Pièces de clavecin, Ravel's Miroirs, and Chopin's Nocturne No. 2 in D-flat Major, among others. The audience was treated to a masterful performance by Hiemenz, who captivated with his expressive singing and technical skill. The pianist, Linton Paul, complemented the tenor's voice with expert accompaniment, adding depth and nuance to the musical experience.

The concert was held in the newly renovated Symphony Hall, which provided an ideal acoustical setting for the performance. The audience was energized by the musical talent on display and left the hall with a newfound appreciation for the art form.

COMING EVENTS

The San Francisco Symphony Orchestra under the direction of conductor Cleve holds a special preview program on Thursday, August 22, at 7:30 p.m., at the Cow Palace in San Francisco. The program features a selection of works by Beethoven, including the Third Symphony, Op. 55, and Ravel's Sheherazade. The evening will also include a performance of Don Quixote by Tchaikovsky, with guest pianist Andre Watts.

Following the concert, there will be a special reception at the new Concord Pavilion, 2000 Kruger Pass Road, Concord, Contra Costa County, at 8:30 p.m. The reception will feature a performance by the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Maestro Cleve.

WORD ON MUSIC

By Alfred Bailey

This past weekend saw the West Coast debut of German tenor Richard Hiemenz and his American accompanist, pianist Linton Paul. Their concert at the San Francisco Symphony Hall on Saturday, August 24, 1975, was a resounding success. The high point was a new work for tenor and orchestra by Donald Scott, which Hiemenz performed with great expressiveness and technical skill. The audience was treated to a masterful performance by Hiemenz, who captivated with his expressive singing and technical skill. The pianist, Linton Paul, complemented the tenor's voice with expert accompaniment, adding depth and nuance to the musical experience. The concert was held in the newly renovated Symphony Hall, which provided an ideal acoustical setting for the performance. Q. Any political views? A. They haven't any political view-

A. No, we think of each other as lovers and family, not just as one person, the other.

Q. What are your hobbies? A. Tending our garden, cooking, reading, and watching others in need, one of which is normal in any relationship, and have a happy and filling life together.

Q. Any personal experiences you want to share? A. We have no extraordinary experiences, but we do enjoy each other's company and share a love of literature, art, and music. It's true. They are fortunate in having each other.

Q. How do you compliment each other? A. We tell each other how much we love them, and that they are special to us.

Q. How do you agree on your principles? A. We have similar values and beliefs, and we try to compromise on any differences.

Q. Do you like each other besides being together? A. Yes, we enjoy each other's company and have a strong emotional connection.

Q. Who handles the financial problems? A. Don handles the financial problems, and I pay all the bills. It's not a problem.

Q. What are your intentions for the future? A. We have intentions of buying a home and starting a family. We are both looking forward to the future together.

Q. Do you want to be married? A. Yes, we do. We believe in the sanctity of marriage and the commitment it represents.

Q. What is your intention? A. Our intention is to be together forever, and to love each other until the end of our days. We are committed to each other and to our relationship.

Q. Are you glad you are married? A. Yes, we are. We are grateful for each other and for the love we share. It's a blessing to have you in my life, and I want to spend the rest of my days with you.

Welcome once again to all of the "Sidecar's" friends out there. This is a notice of our upcoming happenings.

"From The Desk Of..." along with our fun events coming up.

There will be the Kumonlawaleiya Run, the Overlay Rip-Off, and First Anniversary. Last but not least, the GDI guests will be doing their Annual "Ruby Red Dress" "Hard-Hatted Man" "Obscene Phone Calls" "Can I Count On" "River Stay Away"

For a small club, they sure do a good job. The SERPENTS held three performances at the Royal Palace. They got a lot of attention for their show. With pride, people will come to see them. They belong to certain clubs to which they contribute their work that they have done on the "Burnt Titty Award" for all the hard work that has gone into this show. A special award going to Frank B.

Next comes "The Overlay Rip-Off." The "Overlay" is holding annual awards for people who have no overlays on. People who have no overlays must bring their overlays for the awards to be presented. For a small club, they have a great job and try to entertain everyone.

The SERPENTS went to know what the GDI guests were doing. On the 30th, they would like all of us to come and watch. They have been invited by the GDI guests to join them at the Silver Dollar in the kitchen. They have invited the GDI guests to come to their show. For a small club, they have a great job.

TRUE OR FALSE

1. False. The blood test for syphilis does not become positive until the disease is active in the body. This test is not useful for detecting early syphilis. Get a blood test every three months.

2. True. If you've got the clap, you'll know it. If you've been exposed to syphilis, get treatment immediately. The symptoms may not appear for a long time.

3. False. Most cases of rectal and oral gonorrhea do not become positive until the disease is active in the body. This test is not useful for detecting early syphilis. Get a blood test every three months.

4. False. Herpes, warts, scabies, and shingles are not caused by the same virus. These diseases are spread through sexual contact. Bacterial diarrheas, shigellosis, and amebic dysentery can be transmitted through sexual contact, contaminated food, or the sharing of baths and towel. The incubation period for syphilis is from 10 to 90 days. Immediate preventive treatment will eliminate the risk of developing symptoms and passing it on.

5. False. Most cases of rectal and oral gonorrhea do not become positive until the disease is active in the body. This test is not useful for detecting early syphilis. Get a blood test every three months.
