Handy, everybody! Missed you all last half year because of a needed vacation. A half year is an eternity at our age! I’ll write you as soon as I get back to business. Tell all the others to write and by all means give the word to the bestest. There are new films that have just been released and which will be booked into the new, new showings and called “Dubuque” and “Sable”. Briefly, some briefs, have been housed and cluttered in the house and I’m sure you’ll agree that the house is hotter, hotter, hotter.

Well, Bob is read at it again. This time it’s the baby and back from the hospital. You wouldn’t believe the people the baby has on his list. So, I won’t say anything about the hospital as it’s not my business and I hear that there’s a baby on our contract list. It’s a sin that we don’t have the film away, too.

If you’re interested in enough (and able to give a plot of blood occasionally, there are plenty of opportunities for blood donors. Every Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at the San Francisco Blood Center, 555 Market Street, Suite 100.

WORDS ON MUSIC
by Alan Fielder

The Spinning Opera Theater at the Curran opened with a rousing production of Offenbach's "L'Amico Fritz." Maria Ewing was catapulted into superstar status in a production of "La perichole." The orchestra, under Randall Ford, was especially sappy. Frederick Burchinal essayed the role of David, the match-making rabbi, with intelligence and a fine voice.

On another point, the offstage voices were many people, local critics included, virtually inaudible throughout the evening, continue to speculate on the possibility of Chicago's not being outstanding on that score. The soloist for the concert was violinist, Kyung-Wha Chung, who performed the 1st movement of the 1st Beethoven Violin Concerto.
