MENS CONFERENCE

State College, Pa - A second national Men's Conference is planned for the weekend of July 30 - August 1. The Congerence, to be held on the campus of Pennsylvania State University, will explore the theme of men supporting men. The conference organizers hope that through a large variety of activities, including films, workshops, and support groups, the participants will break through some of the barriers between men.
For further information, men are urged to contact Bob Lewis, Academic Coordinator, S22 Human Development Bld., Pennsyvania State University, University Park, PA 16802.

GOV. SAYS NO!

Lansing, Mich. -- Michigan's Governor William G. Milliken has said that he cannot endorse a gay cicil rights bill because other groups such as women and the handicapped do not have full civil rights. He said that gay civil rights legislation might 'burden" the state's civil rights commission.

"OPEN CLOSET DOORS"

San Francisco's police chidf, Charles Gain, has asked that if there are any gay officers on his police force, that they "come out of the closet" and show that they are good policemen. Chief Gain said "If they come out, it will help everyone. It will be hard for them I know that, but they'll have the full support of the police chief." He also says his department will hire more homo-sexuals.

CHRISTOPHER ST WEST

CHRISTOPHER STREET WEST
HOLLYWOOD, Ca. - A carnival, parade, and circus will be held in July on the 2, 3, 4, & 5th. Have a ball! 'swingers"! For more information call 874-5252 or 275-0507

FOUR BILLS

SPRINGFIELD IL - Thirteen Illinois legislators have introduced four gay rights bills into the Illinois House of Representatives. The bills prohibit discrimination against gay people in the areas of housing, employment, and public accommodations. The gay rights package is expected, however, to remain in the Rules Committee until the bills are reintroduced next January.

HUMAN GROWTH

BERKELEY, Ca. - The Pacific Center, working with the curriculum committee of Lavender U, is in the process of forming a clearinghouse for the cataloguing and dispensing of information on Gay Studies Courses, and ultimately to develop a manual for students and faculty interested in setting up a Gay Studies curriculum at their campus. But first it needs to know what is currently being offered at schools and through gay organizations around the country.

GAY TASK FORCE

GAY TASK FORCE TO THE RESCUE
PORTLAND - For the first time in the state of Maine, an open lesbian mother will fight in court for the custody of her children. In a case that is expected to begin soon, Carol Whitehead of Portland is being challenged for custody of her two children by her ex-husband. She had been originally awarded custody of the children back in 1971 in Georgia after divorcing her husband. Attorneys for both sides have met in Portland, and Ms. Whitehead, her attorney Kim Matthews, and the Maine Gay Task Force have already established a defense fund to pay legal expenses.

COURT RULES GAY SEX

SUPREME COURT RULES GAY SEX IS ILLEGAL
Washington, D. C. - With only one Supreme Court Justice dissenting, the highest court in the land ruled recently that homosexual sex acts can be illegal. Only in those 13 or so states that have repealed their "sodomy statutes" can gay people have sex legally, so long as it is done between consenting adults and in private. Otherwise, gay sex is still theoretically unlawful in the rest of the nation.
The Supreme Court ruling is considered by many as a "step backward" for gays. Had the high court ruled differently, all the antigay sex laws would have been invalidated in this country. Nonetheless gay people will challange these laws state by state by repealing them.

THE FUNNY PAGES

HOMOSEXUALITY IN THE FUNNY PAGES
MIAMI - Many newspapers, including the Miami Herald, refused to run a Doonesbury comic strip because it dealt with homosexuality. A character in the comic strip had "come out" and declared his gayness. While some gays considered this a giant step for the gay community's visability, we are looking forward to the day when Dick Tracy and Dagwood Bumstead announce their engagement. And what about Blondie?

Well, there's Brenda Starr....

HOT FLASH OF AMERICA
A vision of American erotica is the next offering at Hot Flash Of America. The hot flash bicentennial erotic show is a mixed-media group exhibit featuring artists who represent erotica in all its sensuous, whimsical, personal and historical glory.
The Hot Flash Bi-centennial erotic show locates the erotic in the space just to the right of the chaste and to the left of the equally self-conscious pornographic. The Hot Flash Bi-centennial Erotic Show June 15---July 18, 1976. Gallery hours: Tues- Sun. 11 to 6pm.

RISING SON COFFEEHOUSE

The Rising Son Collective is hosting "Coffeehouse Evenings" at 32 Page St., San Francisco, each Wednesday from 7pm till midnight. Begining June 9th. The evenings are designed to provide gay men & women a place to gather casually in a relaxed coffeehouse atmosphere. Soup, coffee, tea, juice, and desserts will be served and there will be brief sets of entertainment and community news. Admission is free. For more information phone 431-2597

MEN OF CASTRO STREET SWEEP DILDEAUX AWARDS
San Francisco. Eleven men and one heterosexual woman, all persons who work in businesses on Castro Street, racked up a total of 12 Golden Dildeaux Awards at the 3rd annual presentation of the camp sex awards held at the Boot Camp bar last Wednesday night May 26. Doug Kipecky, startlingly handsome bartender at the Castro Station bar, emerged as the top vote getter in the race for the awards by winning the Golden Boy Award, the top award for best all around sex during the past year. Doug also won the coveted awards in the categories, Sadist of the Year, Golden Arm Award (FFA), and the Tools & Toys Award.
A total of 467 votes were cast during the preceding seven days with intense campaigning by the nominees. Chuck Benson and Bob Reed, owner of the Castro Cafe, launched a vote-producing spree with flyers, advertisements and imprinted tee shirts to both win for the second consecutive year the awards of Golden Shower Queen (Benson) and Divine Miss M Award (Masochist), respectively. The approving applause and cheering by the close to 300 persons in attendance could be classified as a mandate by all in attendance of the popularity of these two winners.
MC of the Year Randy Johnson introduced gay celebrities and personalities durring the first half of the awards, which saw Jim Ostlund, owner of the Castro Station reap two awards (proudly) Best Performance in Three Ways and (suprisedly), Best Female Performance by a Male Impersonator. Ostlund good naturedly accepted the second award with some reservations and remarked that his "friendly enemies must have had something to do with this business." During the second half of the presentation, Emperor I Marcus presented the awards to the highly aroused crowd.
There appeared to be vociferous and enthusiastic approval by the crowd in attendance when Jay Fraser of the Ball Room announced the winner of the Voyeur of the Year category was won by Herb Caen, popular daily columnist in the San Francisco Chronicle. Caen had previously mentioned his nomination in one of his daily columns, referring to his inclusion as "power to the peephole", and expressing the dilemma that he wasn't sure if he was

The Incredible Joffrey Ballet

If you've been reading my column this last season, you know by now that I've gone dance crazy. The American Ballet Theatre flew in on a star roster and hype -publicity and the San Francisco ballet matured and brought new life to itself. But this last week San Francisco ballet audiences were ripped apart with electric, exciting, and highly diciplined dancing created by the JOFFREY BALLET. I saw them perform three nights and can only say that the tidal wave they built during the five days in town finalized itself Sunday night with a closing program that had the audience on its feet for 20 minutes.
Let me assure those of you who have never seen the Joffrey that this New York company is undisputably the best and most daring in America. From the opening night program featuring DEUCE COUP II, expertly and excitingly choreographed by Twyla Tharp, the Joffrey moved along freely and confidently. Tharp is probably one of the most ingenious choreographers who recognizes that every muscle in a dancer's body can be moved whether it be in long, graceful lines or just a twitch of the head, shoulder, or a finger. A tape of songs of the Beach Boys supplied the background for this technique. Tharp also finds alot of humor in movement and conveys it to the audience in a simple turn, walk on, or attitude.
Tharp again used the total movement effect in the more serious AS TIME GOES BY, music by Haydn. Each dancer whether alone or in a group of 30 acts independently from those around him and in continual movement. But Tharp never forgets the ensemble grouping as the one-person technique blends into the group forming a total understanding of theatre, ballet and form.

Marvelous to watch and most of all, feel.
Lisa Bradley and a very masculine Dermot Burke danced Arpino's SECRET PLACES using the popular Elvira Madigan theme. What could have been sticky was smooth and sensual.
I mention "masculine" because the male corp of the Joffrey offers a fine array of very masculine dancers who with the Joffrey style add a whole new meaning to the word, ballet. They are incredible to watch. The female dancers are just as confident as the males and though the three evenings you see that in the Joffrey there is not a dividing line between the roles of the males and fefales. They are equal in their discipline and ability to perform the Joffrey technique. What a Joffrey male does, you know the female can do it also.

Dramatics of story telling through dance were expressed in Kurt Joos' THE GREEN TABLE depicting how wars are made by men in a conference room and the effect it has on people caught between the decisions and policies of opposing sides. Overseeing the activities of the common people was Christain Holder in a menacing portrayal of death.
DRUMS, DREAMS AND BANJOS, choreographed by Associate Director Gerald Arpino uses music by Stephen Foster employing "Oh, Susanna" as its finale. The exquisite scrim drop of hanging branches of Southern trees by Rouben Ter-Arutunian along with the Foster music set the mood for a pre Civil War South. The dance wasn't that interesting, but the dreams finale was terribly theatrical as red, white, and blue streamers fell from the rafters while the ensemble shook their tamtamborines. More pretty to watch than anything else.
On closing night the Joffrey presented one of the best programs of an evening to be seen at the Opera House. Opening with MOVES by Jerome Robbins, the ensemble showed the audience what dance was all about as they moved on stage in and out of relationships without using music. It's a beautiful thing to see the human body moving in silence and using all its muscles to express the inner heart.
DEAUC COUP II was repeated with kudos to Gary Chryst as the Long Tall Texan partnered with Diane Orio; and Beatriz Rodriguez as the Little Deuce Coup.
Using a stunning, light metal set depicting the opening of a silver-mirrored flower, again by Ter-Arutunian, the Arpino baller RELATIVITY OF ICARUS created an incredible dramatic impact. Ann Marie De Angelo, superb as the revolving sun; Russell Sultzback as the imprisoned Icarus; and a dynamic Ted Nelson as the father/lover Daedalus earned a multitude of bravos. By having both men almost totally nude, symbolically chained to each other, and moving in and out of each other by pure balance, the homosexual implications are obvious. But deeper yet is the yearning of Icarus to fly higher than his dominate father/lover to escape from their labyrinth. In this struggle for personal freedom, Icarus strangles Daedalus as the Sun continually revolves around them. Absolutely devastating.
The evening concluded with the Joffrey signature piece, TRINITY with pulsating symphony-rock music by Alan Raph and Lee Holdridge. The roof of the Opera House blew off with that one as the female soloist and Gary Chryst, Dermot Burke and Christian Holder as the Trinity brought the house down with their classic form, boogaloo, funky style, and joy unconfined.
At the curtain call bouquets of flowers were thrown on stage by the ecstatic audience for 10 minutes. And for the first time at a ballet since I started seeing ballet years ago, an encore was given. The group repeated the second movement of TRINITY. The audience didn't stop applauding durring it, the music was louder and joyous, and the dancers smiled and danced freer.
As I gushing? Over-emphasizing a company? Idon't think so but I did learn more about the dance revolution from the Joffrey....a different school than that of the ABT or the SF Ballet; a unique style and technique and one that is more exciting than any of the others. I just don't belive even after three nights that the JOFFREY BALLET does half the things that they do. In a word, phenomenal!

NOTES: Don McLean's Bicentenial production of Kaufman & Hart's comedy GEORGE WASHINGTON SLEPT HERE opens at the SIR center, 83 - 6th St., on Friday, June 18. The all-male production will play for three weekends June 18, 19 & 20; June 25, 26, & 27th; and July 2, 3, & 4th. Tickets are $4.50 and available at all Macy's, Capwell Emporium, The Record House at Post & Polk or simply by calling 543-1852 for reservations. This 40's comedy offers a superb local all-male cast and tons of good laughs. Well worth your while.
Tickets for the new musical THE BAKERS WIFE presented by the SF Cicic Light Opera and starring Topol go on sale at the Curran Theatre, Monday, June 14. From reports of its LA run, the reviews have been very favorable, even though they are still rewriting.
The Lamplighters tickets are on sale for Gilbert & Sullivan's IOLANTHE. I understand that this one is all tongue in cheek and deals with Fairies. My G & S expert recommends it highly for some unintentional gay laughs. Should be sold out fast so get tidkets immediatly. Lamplighter productions are always excellent. Opens at the Presentation Theatre, Turk & Masonic, on July 2nd. Maxine Weldon aow appearing at The City until the 20th of June. Socko soul singing.
Who took Donna McKechnie's place in NYC in A CHORUS LINE? Answer: Barbara Luna. Yes that's right, Mrs. Doug McClure. That's all folks!

Out of the Chorus Line co mes DON CORREIA

Handsome, appealing, athletic, boyish charm, sincere, magnetic, Virgo with Scorpio rising, talented. These are just a few of the adjectives to describe 24 year old Don Correia, the charismic dancer who opens "A Chorus Line" with the flash number "I Can Do That." I was so impressed with him, as have been so many people who have seen the show, that I decided to find out who is Don Correia. Of course, the major topic of discussion was "Chorus Line"

"Chorus Line is really hard to talk about for me. Everyone in it relates to it on a different level as do the people who see it. Each touring company has their different levels also. This company cast has been with the show for the longest time and are on a deeper emotional level, more of a gut level. Emotionally it's draining, but I'm really learning a lot. Just by talking to the people in the show, you can tell how much they are growing too.

It was a little bit of a trip at first playing with the New York cast members, because you were playing with a company that's been doing it for a year and a half and set in their ways. You feel like you're the newcomer and a little awkward, but they were really great and made you feel right at home. That helped more than anything, getting the acceptance from the kids. They let you know that you're one of the group. Everyone loves everybody even though I'm competing with them.

At the end of "Chorus Line" the same people are chosen everynight. Two days before it opened Michael Bennett did the run through instead of Zack, and he picked people who normally don't get the job. So you actually feel the disappointment of not getting the job.

He was phenomenal in the way he directed it. It's more like non-directing. He let you go on your little path and then molded you into what you were doing naturally and into the character that he wanted to see. So it was more or less a mutual effort in that he let you have a little freedom.

It's non-acting really. In a way you're out there doing yourself. You were typed as a particular person, because he saw something in you that related to one of the characters, along with your talent. I was recommended to Michael by Charlene Painter, who worked with Michael in New York. He asked her to assist him on the audition in Las Vegas. She couldn't do Vegas and recommended me.

The audition for the show was Chorus Line. We had to do the ballet combination, the jazz combination, the "stand out and tell me where you're from." I got out there and said, "I'm Don Correia; I'm 24 and started dancing when I was about 7," and then told him my life story. Got back in line and someone else came for ward. It was very close to the show. It also gives a little bit to grab from. If you hadn't gone through it before, you know you've at least gone thru it once in your audition by the time you started rehearsals. The auditions were pretty much so like others except for walking forward and telling about yourself. All of a sudden, all of your insecurities came out."

Some critics felt, as did I, that some of the Chorus Line script was melodramatic like just before the "What I Did For Love" number. Don doesn't think so; "In that instance, it's necessary. That's what the show is about.

What are you going to do when you can not dance anymore? Every dancer has thought of that. It's one of those things that stick in the back of your mind. Some dancers get really depressed. Everyone that I know thinks about what they're going to do after dancing. Like the people who have trained all their life. I hurt my knee once and didn't think that I could dance anymore. I couldn't straighten my knee. You cry a lot and wonder what you're going to do for the rest of your life. It's that traumatic....you're talking about the rest of your life.

I think that as long as you're in shape, you go as long as you can, or as long as you want to until some thing else break an you find something else you want to do. I found most dancers retire around 35, 37. They choreograph, go into TV production, director, stage manager. It's up to each individual. I want to dance as long as I can. I love the excitement, the electricity that goes into a show. In Chorus Line the first night that we did it together, you could almost see sparks flying. All the people in the show are so phenomenal. They all have something to give."

Does Chorus Line have bad audiences? "Not really. The matinee audiences are a bit trying. But the audience isn't there, supposedly. It has an emotional effect on the audience whether they like it or not. The audience picks out the character they relate to and follow his plight. As a viewer you're a little bit of every man.

But the people on the line don't relate to the audience. They relate to Zack. Of course, you get the applause and can't help react, but hopefully it does not have that much effect on you. You really want the job. That's your motiv a tion. In fact, that's the first thing that Michael said to use when we started rehearsals. He wanted all of us to write over our dressing room mirrors, "I am at an audition, and I want this job." That's what it's all about. That's the one major force that takes you thru the entire show.

The more I do the show, the more look I get from the cast, like "you did that too well,....I saw that mistake..." It's nice, because you look back at them. It happens every night and that is what keeps it exciting.

I love my number. When I heard the album, that's the number I wanted. When we started working, Michael said he wanted me to cover the entire stage from left to right. Sometimes when you're tired, your thighs start going, and you have to travel like hell. The stage gets bigger and bigger each night you do the show. But I love it. The number sort of hits home with me. It's close to my life story. My sister is the one who started taking lessons. I'm from San Jose, and started with the Civic Light Opera with my sister when I was about 8. It was really a trip. We were Suzy and Donny. We'd sing things like "If You Knew Suzie." Then I got interested in musical theatre. "How to Succeed In Business" was my first show. Now my sister is married and very happy settled down and I'm the dancer. My parents still have my first tap shoes, but I don't think they're bronzed.

In "I Can Do That", it's the 24 yr. old remembering when he was 4. The whole show moves from your youth, on to adolesence, on to Cassy's number (Donna McKechnie) which puts it up to date. I sit off stage at night sometime and watch her do it. She's got that "quality." "The Music and the Mirror" dance is sort of a seduction where she's really into herself. When Donna gets into the middle of that number, she's off somewhere. I guess it's that way for every number. For me, I go back to being four. Then you worried about smiling; the energy supposedly got you through the mistakes, and the lack of style. That's what my number is about...having a good time and hoping that it will eventually pay off.

After the show you can get your mind on other things and get away from the constant competition of the show. I've done a lot physically harder shows, but with "Chorus Line" I'm exhausted everynight. I go home and can't believe how tired I am. The idea of competing with these people every night has some force on you that drains you. Some magic on you. I know that's a corny word, but the first time I did it I came off so high and couldn't talk to anybody.

Yes, there were complaints about the stage of the Curran. The knees would be swollen, constantly sore. It was like standing on cement all day. Your legs really get tired. Now they've expanded the stage by putting a foam padding under it and relaid the stage. It's better and gives more.

You stand on that line for one to two hours. You do the opening number and you're all warmed up, but then stand there for 10-15 minutes while Zack talks, and your legs start tightening up. If I do the opening number full out, I can keep my body warm. But if I don't, I can feel the body tightening up. That's when you start pulling muscles.

After the show I might go across the street (Curtain Call) and have a drink or go home and watch TV. If the show goes well, I usually go out and party. If it didn't, I go home and think about what I did wrong....find someway to figure out why I'm doing it and sit in the bathtub and watch Johnny Carson.

During the day, I play tennis, golf a little. I like physical things which keep me in shape. I used to lift weights. Gymnastics help. I do that every night. With being in LA for a long time (21 weeks at the Schubert), I'm planning on spending more time exercising. In fact, I plan on getting in some teaching.

I'd like to stay in Los Angeles as long as I can. I don't want to go into night clubs again. That's just an endless circle. You do Ann-Margaret's act, then Shirley MacLaine's, maybe Goldie Hawn, then back to Ann-Margaret. When I was working in Las Vegas, it was the same way. Las Vegas to me is like an elephant's graveyard. Dancers who really want to dance can go there and work until they're 40. I know a lot of young dancers who have gone and gotten so enthralled with their paycheck each week and not doing that much work that they'll go there and invest. They have a good life and make a lot of money, but as far as their dancing is concerned, they don't study. You do the same show 3 times a night, for a year or 2 and get very stagnant and bored. That's when the drugs start coming in. You take uppers and downers. You really have to stand back and say "wait a second. My original intention was to dance." "Chorus Line" is different because you get to dance. It changes every night. In Vegas, you get a lot of presentations, and present the show girls. That isn't dancing.

Everyone has a dream of becoming something better than they are. In Vegas, you can't improve yourself unless you get into something else like staging where you actually express your own emotions. If you wonder where did those 8 years go and you're still in Vegas, it's almost too late to go to Los Angeles.

I really like living in Los Angeles. I rehearsed in New York, but didn't like it. I love the places, the clubs, but it's too messed up right now, too dirty. Los Angeles is so mellow, so nice. The people are so much more aware and healthier. The sun shines there, and there are more sports. Everyone in NYC looked like they've never been out in the sun before... so milky white. It really scares you. I came out in NYC after the rehearsals and I was whiter than I've ever been in my entire life. The buildings are so tall that the people don't get any sun down on the streets. Every once in a while, I'd find myself walking and stopping on a street corner where the sun would be beating down. I'd stop for 5 minutes and bask in it. People thought I was crazy.

Besides being a good dancer, you have to look good to the audience. Like in the "Dance 10, Looks 3" number (Tits and Ass), besides being flat as a pancake or too big of an ass, the girl realized she had to do something. I know a lot of people that would do that if they thought it would help. You hope to be well rounded and as pleasing as you can possibly be, and that includes your performance. So you do things that you normally wouldn't do, if you were a secretary. You're selling yourself to the audience. You have to sell yourself to the director too to get the job. Not literally, though."

The casting couch? I won't deal with it. For the straight director, it's more of a status thing. I've never had trouble before with gay directors. They seem to hire you on your ability. But you really have to keep your eyes open

I have some great news for you..... GLORIA GAYNOR is coming to THE CITY, July 22 and 23rd. The Show will be in the SHOWROOM so that means limited tickets...will go on sale June 28th, so I suggest you get them on that day. Tom Sanford owner of THE CITY says there will be only 2 shows a night and the cost will be only $5.00. Mr. Sanford says he plans on having other name acts throughout the summer.

Michel Lee former D.J. at the MIND SHAFT is spinning at J.R.'s EAGLE CREEK on Market St.

Peter Struve is now back, dancing his ass off at "Dance your Ass Off." And AAron Whittle formerly of the CITY along with Chrysler Sheldon formerly of the STUD are playing together at the new HOT ROCKS on Folsom at 11th St.

Last week I went disco hopping with some friends and stopped in "BONES" a new disco on Haight St. It has a very pleasant feel about it. Good sound system and D.J., Ed Potkuf was keeping them dancing all night. If your tired of the same old bars, I highly suggest you check out "BONES" It's sure to be one of the hot spots in town this summer.

One more note...Lee Horning formerly of the EAGLE CREEK is now at the STUD...I should start calling my column "As The Tapes Turn."

A new sound in the Disco's is Candi Staton's new single "Young Hearts run free," Roxanne of the CLUB FRISCO says she can't play it enough and the City is on it twice a night. It's a little slower but a strong beat and her voice is the best thing about the record.

I had a ball at the DUDE BALL last week at California Hall. Thanks again Dick Jay and Dennis Charles. You did it again.

B.A.D.D.A.(Bay Area Disco D.J. Assc.) offices are now open five days a week from 1:30-4:00 to make things easier for the D.J.'s to pick up product.

B.A.D.D.A. also would like to announce that if you need aD.J. for a party in your home or hall give them a call. There are several D.J.'s that have MOBIL DISCO for your needs, that number is 431-6025.

That's It!!!

HOROSCOPE

GEMINI
(May 22- June 21)
It's best now to take a back seat to others. Service performed gives you considerable satisfaction and, perhaps, gratitude. Romance with a co-worker is likely. This is a good time to make agreements which will, no doubt, be long lasting.

CANCER
(June 22- July 23)
There is a tendency now to talk too much about personal troubles or problems. Later, influences are favorable for dealing with kin or close neighbors or friends. Don't spend too much or loan to questionable individuals this month. You do things in a big way.

LEO
(July 24- Aug. 23)
Reject foolish notions or dubious propositions this month. With that out of the way, you can put your mind into a safe practical way of increasing your earning potential. Think seriously about some creative endeavor you're qualifed to handle now.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24- Sept. 23)
You can come up with split-second answers to just about anything now; but once in a while, you could be wrong. A journey or visit may be made for an unusual reason. The people in your sphere deserve more consideration than you've been giving them.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24- Oct. 23)
This is a good month for making money or collecting for charitable endeavors. Help given someone can reflect well on you. A secret romance could blossom now. Popularity or the ability to stand out in a crowd may be a drawback.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24- Nov. 22)
A month for meeting people and doing favors for friends. Be aware of subtle mood shifts at parties. Make use of those talents and abilities that have lain fallow. Long laid plans finally come to fruition.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23- Dec. 21)
Methods that worked in the past may no longer be applicable, so apply new techniques. Pay attention to your career pp prospects. Be vocal in expressing preferences. You have plenty of visualization capacity, but it could be a bit out of focus.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22- Jan. 20)
Ask questions to clear up a dubious proposition this month. Try to avoid trouble over shared assets. Travel, get things published and drum up foreign business today. Have faith in yourself. Keep communications open.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21- Feb. 19)
Someone may try to sell you a bill of goods this month. Be alert above all. Give other people the benefit of the doubt if misunderstandings should arise. The end of the month may bring contrary directions or indecisions.

PISCES
(Feb. 20- March 20)
Emphasis this month lies in the areas of work and service. You desire to do things by hand. Later, emphasis lies with your mate or current business associate. People are generally cooperative and you can see eye to eye with them.

ARIES
(March 21- April 20)
Once you get started, there's no holding you back. Have consideration for those who may not share your enthusiasm or drive. There's an opportunity for gains on the labor front. This month promises a happy solution to your financial problems.

TAURUS
(April 21- Man 21)
You should be planning a trip to somewhere now. However, if traveling isn't your dish, you'll find plenty of things to keep you busy. There is an opportunity to render someone a service, but be wary of strangers and hitch-hikers.

Howdy, everybody and to our visitors--WELCOME TO MECCA!!! I've been becoming more and more aware of the out-of-town license plates around town, and have been meeting our gay brothers and sisters from all over the world. But never fear.....the best is yet to come. Right, Marcus?
If you're into meeting out-of-towners, I suggest you try the "LION PUB" after 4 p.m. daily. Seems as though it's their first stop in town, to pick up those hot T-shirts. But the funny thing is, they stay for obvious other reasons. 'right, Kelly?

The COWBOY/COWGIRL campaign is almost at a close and by tomorrow night you will have selected you Red-White and Blue Cowboy and Cowgirl. Just remember that you must vote at the SIR center from 2p.m. to 10 p.m. Id's will be checked at the door for residents of the five bay area counties. Tomorrow night at 8 p.m. will be the Cowboy/Cowgirl Dance with a live western band. The entertainment will be expertly provided by Empress I Jose and talented Dale Evans. I think you will find yourself a good time and the admission is only $3.50 at the door (or 3 bucks in advance). Bar proceeds go to SIR and the door proceeds are ear-marked for the Council of Emperors fund. All the 10¢ tickets that the candidates are selling will go to the People's Fund.

I honestly believe that the day of the "do-nothing title holders" is gone. My committee and I already have plans to continue to promote and collect money through fund-raisers for the "People's Fund". I therefore encourage you to vote "Mark Calhoun" for Cowboy 1976. You have my word...I won't let you down.

The purpose of the fund shall be to aid individuals who have experienced a catastrophe personally whether it be illness, accident, loss of property, etc which has cuased this individual to incur expenses beyond those which they could be expected to pay and are necessary for continuation of normal living conditions. It shall not be for any political purpose of any nature whatsoever.
The fund will be administered by a Board Board of nine individuals whose sole purpose will be to determine the eligibility of recipients and the size of the award to be made. The Board shall be made up of:

The reigning Emperor
The reigning Empress
Representative of Council of Emperors
Treasurer of Council of Emperors
Representative of Pride Foundation
Representative of Tavern Guild
Representative of SIR
Two persons from the gay community at large selected by the above from interested parties

The funds raised or donated will remain in the control of the Council of Emperors through its Treasurer who shall keep a separate bank account for the Fund and make periodic public accounting to the Community. No funds allocated for the Peoples Fund may ever revert to direct renumeration of the Council, but must be expended for the direct benefit of the Community.

The Fund may make grants to public service groups if sufficient funds are available or if any taxation regulations make it prudent to do so, but the major thrust is toward the individual.

The peoples fund may raise funds on its own, accept donations from others or accept grants from any legal source of revenue except that any binding commitments executed must have the approval of the Council of Emperors.

It would be desirable to have this Fund Tax Deductible, but this consideration would be second to actually establishing the Fund.

All gifts would be considered permanent, but a recipient may repay if he or she is able to do so at a later date.

Final rules concerning eligibility will be determined by the above named board. Persons wishing to comment on this proposal of offer suggestions for eligibility requirements should seud their comments in writing to:

There are so many people to thank that have helped on my committee...Doyle Barfield of THE PRINTING PRESS has been just flawless with the printing of flyers--lots of them. Bobby Calhoun has been like a right hand...taking care of posters and flyers, running errands, and generally promoting the People's Fund. Jim Osthmd and Rick Fosnight for their help at the "CHOO-CHOO STATION." Sweetlips for a flowing and flawless party and contributions. The Boot Camp for their help with the Body Auction, and "MECCA MODEL OF THE YEAR" last Wednesday night. Bob Reed for his contributions, encouragement and involvement with the entire campaign. Thom Paine who's been a barn stormer from the beginning. Flame and Court for their endless support. Tony DiSetta and Bob Ross, Monte Reddick, Boo and Roy, LaKish, Bessie Fish and Jackie Stone, Dixon, Kimo, the Fabulous Michelle, Tenderloin Tessie and so on. To all who have helped in one way or another....Thank You!!

Around Town--My Back Yard

Did you know that Bob Ross (of B.A.R. fame) has been named the new executive editor of VECTOR magazine--the voice of S.I.R.? Congratulations, Robert.

And that wonderful Mavis of the N'Touch will not be skating this year, but rather walking on stilts in the Gay Freedom Parade? Now that's high! (And so is her insurance) Tacky-Tacky Ruth has returned to the other end of Polkstrasse, working at the Cloud 7. Says Ruth, "I've Gotten to the point now that I don't know how to answer the phone".....

For you southern travelers, my spies tell me that the "brake check station" just 2 miles this side of Gorham, CA is fabulous with truckers, etc.

Empress Flame's Coronation Ball theme will be "Land of the Pharoahs- Courts of Egypt". Imagine the pageantry and color involved. It's set for Feb. 5th, 1977.

The "Closet Ball" is scheduled for August 21st at the Kabuki Theatre. Applications are now available and already there are some 30 entered and more are anticipated. The Ball will be done similar to the "Miss America Pageant", and I'm sure that you won't want to miss this outrageous and funny event. Proceeds are for the "People's Fund". The winner this year

DENO'S SIDECAR

HI FELLOWS----Well J. J. rest easy the "sidecar is no longer empty, it's up and ready to cruze around the city again. Before we get in to what's happening with our clubs in the next few weeks the "sidecar wants to give its special thanks to J. J. Van Dyke the Pres. of the Serpents, for the way he rode the empty sidecar all over to make sure that no one would miss any of the fun happenings that have been going on. If he does half as well on th the Serpents, Petaluma Cocks joint run there will be no stopping him. Thanks J.J. and much love to you from the side car.

The side car hopes that Stella from the BC will be back with us very soon. Cliff from the Knights of Malta 49er chapter, hope that you too will be back with us soon.

Well by now everyone should be catching their second wind after having made it to the cheaters Discover America run. More on this first run of the season from the side cars rider of the year Bill T. and Chuck they were there so you will be able to enjoy it from the comfort of your favorite easy chair.

Saturday the 5th found the sidecar in front of the S. I. R. center for "The Fabulous 50's Dance," thrown by our emperor Mike Caringi as a benefit for S. I. R.

The participation was not that good, but the ones that did come had a good time. Empress Flame arrived early and stayed almost through the entire evening. The Grand Duchess Charlie and Grand Duke Lennie were also there. But the sidecar was very pleased to see GDI, San Franciscans, and Knights of Malta 49er chapter there.

The high light of the evening was the crowning of the queen of the prom which was won by "Gypsy," who looked absolutely great in her 50's hair-doo and gown. Super decorations and dry ice trips done by John J. and members of the Emperors Cabinet and Court.

The sidecar hopes that next time there will be more participation from the community at these benefits.

Sunday the Warlocks held their Bloody Screw run (puzzle run), which sent bikes and cars all over the city for a fun time.

That same afternoon the NEW BELL SALOON held a "thank you party" for "The Knights of Malta Reno Chapter" Empress 8 Maxine along with John and Roger did a fantastic buffet for the occasion.

The Knights of Malta 49er chapter were there to greet their brother chapter along with the San Franciscans. Emperor Mike C., stopped in on his way to Sacramento. Empress Flame stayed until it was time for her to take off also. From there everone headed to the Golden Rivet for more partying and dancing to Roudy & The Rivits and to meet "Cowboy Cal" and "Randy Johnson" who are running for the Mr. Cowboy, Cowgirl this year. Cal is sponsored by the Rivet and Randy is running with him. They are also the sidecars choice for this year.

Don't forget to get your applications in for the S. F. G. D. I. "2069 A Space Idiotcy" run June 11, 12, & 13th, if the show of the run is going to be anything like the dress rehearsal that was done Sunday at the Rivet no rocket will ever be able to bring them down they will be so high.

What does one say about a club that has the first run of the year, and goes all out. Well, the Cheaters just did that.
The food was all cooked out side, spare ribs for lunch and prime rib all one can eat for dinner. Just out of this world, an open bar all weekend, so if one didn't get to eat or drink, well all I can say try again next year.

There were many non-bike events and bike events, with lots of winners and lots of trophies. Most of the winners were Warlocks and Constantines. There were one or two non-club winners but I was having so much fun I forgot to write down names.

Bill T. and Chuck E. of the Federal Hotel gave a champagne party and got most everyone loaded before dinner. The Constantines did a trip, Grayhound Discovers Ameriacna. They served Grayhounds, the Warlocks came to the party as American Indians and at last the Cheaters got all dressed up as American Pilgrims. There was also a blessing of a new bike it was for one of the new members of the Constantines. Bill of the Warlocks did a good job at that. However there was a President of a club that felt the bike blessing was done wrong. However he must understand that there are many ways to bless a bike.

It was a fun weekend eating and drinking and having lots of fun high in the Sierra mountains. The run site was new and was located in the right setting, with the clubs banners and decorations all up and flying in the breeze. It all looked like a "Discovery of America."

DARLINGS!

Can you imagine Bob Reed of the infamouse French-burgers hand-cuffing your one and only respectable "LA" for half an hour at the Choo-Choo station in public like some wild animal in heat and then to make things right Mr. Reed buys "LA" a mad flower from Bella's World, so touching, (loved it, and forget that funny pie you have in mind, I hate loosing my eye-lashed via cover girl) Yonkers Prod-uction Company, Inc, are having an all male cast of "George Washington Slept Here In Room 202" to be seen in June on the 18, 19, 20, 25, 26, & 27. And in July on the 2, 3, 64th. Friday and Saturdays at 8:30 pm and Sundays at 7:30 pm. Tickets are available at Macy's, record house and at the door for $4.50. A Bi-centential comedy. Don't miss this beauty of a show. Speaking of shows don't miss the Bob Sanders musical extravaganza of the 30's, with an all male cast of great beauty, talent, men, a few ladies of much greatly Gloria Swanson beauty of such an era of lost figures. Notice the posters through-out the community. This is a must on your list darhh-----lings. . . .the grand open-ing of Gordon's was a smash with the elite 400 and a surprise of Dallas back in S. F. and a much needed bartender as he is. Stay this time you hunk of hunks. Vera Charles is learning so much since the mouse has moved beneath Vera and " LA", the groins, moans, sigh sighs, and the language is enough to send Vera back to the nunnery. Love this, a well known Tequila drinker was hand-cuffed to his/her old buck (boyfriend of past) kidnapped against his wishes biked to a motel in Gilroy , not Salinas, because the stud couldn't wait for the lustful pains between his loins, there they tore into each others flesh, isn't that cute. Then there's a rather nicely put together stud who takes wllks at 7:30 am along certain beaches without his Ava... The gold-en dildeaux awards was a tremendous smash, more than bye bye what, with Emperor Marcus I and Mr. Circus-Circus (so many titles Georgie Porgie) as MC's and the wonderful masculine Choo-Choo Station running away with at least eight awards which they did and know what your final goal is. Just keep it clean. You try to get a good reputation, because it means so much.

In LA there's not that many auditions for television anymore. After you've done a couple of TVshows or worked with a choreographehr, they just call people and say "Do you want to work?" If you get a bad reputation, forget it.

Don Corriea, a young man with a pass-ion to continue dancing and improve himself every day of his life. His goal has been set. Easy to get along with; unsure of the success that might lay ahead of him and genuinely unaware of it. If, in his words, "everyone has a dream of becoming something better than they are," Don Correia is having that dream realized every day.

deserve. Both Jim and Rick and thier staff are in a class of thier own. S. F. will just have to get used to two "Rita's", let alone the rita's they drink by force.... why didn't Tony Disette spend so much time away from his "LA" in the back room wondering in the dark?.. Masculinity complet-ely deteriates my thinking. You read of the queen of the S. F. city jail, well the Empress of Pamona along with Rose I, II, III, ect. ect. with Schwatzi brought to the new Bell the one and only hub cap that was stolen with her own hands (drunk) but as you turn the hub cap over it suddenly last winter becomes a bar tray with ashtray... all done by crazy glue. Has anyone noticed the personal card which is involved with the arc-hway that states, "Rose I, II, III, Empress of Portland, then, Rose Queen of Queens of California I, and then some more, Rose I, empress of Empresses, U. S. A. , my darhhh---lings, the titles practically weight the cards down, you need a strong hand to lift to your darken natural Max Factor lids. Our own Grand Duchess Charlie of S. F. has a lovely second hand stuff emporium located at 487 third street. Dick Wheeler is back after a slight interruption and Grand Duchess Charlie has him sound like Gable & Garson bit. Naturally none of you remember like Gladys Bump's... Have you been to the Perer Pan on 30 Mason Street, with Cliff, Jimmy, Chuck and Eddie during the cocktail hour, by all means drop in and get it together. I know some people don't drink, but if you need it desperately in the am truck down to the White Elephant (elephant walk darhhh.. lings) and get your refreshment via Sylvia (Danny to the straight) from 6am to 10am she has to go to bed in the middle of the morning in order to get up in the middle of the night to serve funny Ha Ha drinks.... live on Sylvia. It's always a scream to watch Mr. Danny Marsh at the Fickle Fox in his all togetherness (minus dresses with mother mousey) thier brunches are quite heaven and the service is great.

A will known Castroite was near Mission Street going towards town for unknown duties when she/he thought there should be an escape of natural gasses but to her suprise a flood of unwanted liquids exploded and back to the shower for a recapping the opened gap.. The suprise party that Bob Wiggins threw at the Golden Rivet was not a campaign party to get to see who is or may be on your side for some of those funny games, but for lady or Princess Leah for the durprise baby kitten for a just cause, happy Mama Leah.. Let it be known that Mr. Jack Goodall is now engaged in the household of the Grand Duchess Charlie, a fine person of great qualities..seems a certain person was seen in the vacinity of Kennedy Field by Marilyn in a rather unnatural position (knees) after several wanted breathers (blows), the juices were deposited within Marilyn and not a word was said but we lat3r discovered that that person was not wearing any thing connected with "R. E. D."..... Don't forget to vote for Mr. Mark Calhoun for cowboy of 76 who not only is a fine man in his own rights. but a hard worker of the community for several years, has a marvelous head, to say nothing of his hidden talents via Levi"s , but all in all just plain beautiful, vote for Mark Calhous.

Our own Empress de San Francisco #11, "F. L. A. M. E. " is full backing the one and only favulous "Tenderloin Tessie" for cowgirl and what a packer that one is and also for Miss Cowgirl is my one and only Mary Castle alais Mr. Circus-Circus, motormouth himself, Gorgie Porgie and how many names but a man and now lady of sorts. Randy Johnson, long live the Randy Johnson of my life... if you want parties, a committee room, a ger togerher of friends, by all means get in touch with Jack or Roger of the Golden Rivet and you have a deal such as the 527 via Lenny Mollet, both fine places of merit and terrific just like Mr. Terrific of Portland with that Tequila Avila... What do you kids think now of the Silver Sage and their Prairie Dogs (silver sluts) that is quite a terrific team, The Silver Sage, don't forget you may acquire the Silver Sage colonge at the town Squire, the men's shop on Polk Street.

The other night this gentleman (stud) invited himself to escort (drag) me home via his foreign automobile. (you couldn't open one of the doors), so being the 32 year old virgin that I am (you do believe this) I let him , as we entered my apartment he began to disrobe my olive body smothed with ointments I tried desperatly to unfold myself from his hugh hairy arms, my clothing ripped and discarded out the window, the tugging and ripping of the cells (raped) mu fingernails tearing his muscular back (ripping him to pieces) My thinking, my body, my loins, the heated passion, (all gone to hell) again I find myself feeling like farewell to arms. I've been abused to the inch of virginity (OH DADDY) my rooms a wreck, he's gone and all I have are the memories of being wrecklessly discarded like a cat on a hot tin roof. Another quiet, simple, demure evening for a respectable Princess.

We now have a Rita at the Choo-Choo Station, we also have a Rita at the Buzzby's and we also have a Rita at the New Ball Saloon, Now ....will the real Rita please stand up? darhh.. ling. Emperor I Gregg De Long Beach or the wild gooseese (775-8880) for all the cowboy freaks, if you all are into horses (studs) western attire (???) drinking and partying, please by all means call 441-1742, as a new club is forming for all feature studs.. A belated Happy Birthday to Sir James Smith of Kalendar on his ?????year. Don't forget the 7th annual Roller Skating Derby & Jog Along affair on the 4th of July, at the original Jacksons at 2237 Powell. This will prove a complete scream. Don't forget the "Gay USA 76 , a bicentennial presentation to be held at the California Hall on June 27th after the Gay Freedom Day Parade. Some of the proceeds will be used to find a permanent home for Atlantis House. There will also be a fair in Golden Gate Park at the same time presented by the Gay Freedom Day Committee this will be a madning glamourous affair for all involved. Do attend for the causes we wish to accomplish. Well darhh.. lings, silver sage fans, team, prairie dogs, (the silver sluts) take care of your health your men, and your heated loins. Some man attacked me the other night and now I'me carrying his 11 lb. baby within me. What do I do Abbey?, will my readers help me by writing to me at the Kalendar, I really need to know what to do with my 11 lb. baby due soon. Thank you darh.....lings.

Proceeds from this event will go to help establish Atlantis House in a permanent place, in addition to other charities which will be operating booths at the carnival.

There will also be a free fair at Golden Gate Park after the parade. There is no conflict between GAY USA 76 and the fair being held by the Gay Freedom Day Committee. There will be people enough for both events, and time enough for anyone who wishes to attend both events. Since GAY USA 76 will last until 10:00 pm. The fair in the park will feature fresh air, love under the trees, wine and beer. GAY USA 76 will provide the hard liquor alternative with games and movies.

Well that about rounds it up for this run, Thanks again J. J. The sidecar is looking forward to cruising around it's old haunts again. Remember I would rather see you down here than up there.
Good luck to "Jeep the baby member of the K of M Reno chapter.

PEACE----Deno

Following the GDI's , run up comes the S.F. Serpents, Petaluma Cocks run friends of the side car said there are lots of surprises in store for this one.

GAY USA 76---This willl be a fantastic gay carnival which will take place right after the parade, June 27th.
There will be food booths, game booths, movies, a liquor bar, live band for dancing, et cetera.

will walk away with $250.00 in cash and his sponsor will receive $100.00. I understand that a certain bike club president has entered the competition, and that should give you some idea of what's to come that evening. Don't forget this one.

GORDON'S RESTAURANT (formerly the New Jackson's on Jones) opening was excellent as is their food. Don't pass this restaurant for excellence in service and cuisine. Have you oggled over the new uniforms being worn by the *PS waiters? It's summer you know, and their reminding us of just that very day. Their "hot" and oh! so cool at the same time.

Grand Duchess Charley has his own shop now, appropriately called "SECOND HAND STUFF", and you can find him and his bargains at 487 Third St. at Bryant. The $25.00 OC "Circus-Circus buttons are out. Their beautiful and for an excellent cause. So buy one and wear it proudly.

Princess La Kish and Baby La Kish will be hosting a voting party at the CASTRO STATION from 2 p.m. until the cows come home. CASTRO STATION is our voting headquarters for the Castro Village. Kimo Cochran and Harry Gardner will be hosting a voting party at the 'N TOUCH that same day, and they're the Polk Street voting headquarters. If any of you need transportation call 626-9081 and we'll provide it with return trips. The TURF CLUB is our campaign headquarters and a party will be going on all day long....from 2 p.m. Your hosts and hostess will include Frau Schneider, Flame, Gary Hubold, Tracy, Tony Disette, Ginger, Tony Gonzales, Michelle and Rick Hammond Special bar prices are provided with thanks to Bob And Alice Conroy. JOIN IN AND JOIN US!!!!!!!!!

That's about it this issue. I'll see you all at the COWBOY/COWGIRL Dance. Don't forget to vote and thanks for reading "MECCA". Next issue just might end up stirring a little, as I've learned a lot from this campaign and you should probably know about it. Take care of your health, stay high, and for God's sake make those tourists welcome.....

Thank You for believing in the "PEOPLE'S FUND" and in me ——
Thanks to all who have helped. I need your vote this Saturday, June 12 at the S.I.R. Center between 2:00 and 10:00 p.m.
Love You!

On June 23rd, there will be a benefit for the Golden Gate Gay Liberation House, "Babes in Arms", at the Show-Case Theater on Mason St. Following the Show ther will be a Cast Party at the Windjammer, with a Buffet and complimentary Champagne.

The tickets are $8.00, with a no host-bar at 7:30 and showtime at 8:30 p.m. This is a really fantastic show, and I know everyone will enjoy it.
Many important things were discussed at the Court meeting on Tuesday eve; and for those who did attend we will follow through with the events that were planned.
The San Fernando Coronation will be on July 18th, and a package plan, for $85.00, including airfare, Hotel room an ticket for the coronation has been arranged. Please contact me if you wish to attend.
I attended the Coronation in Sacramento last weekend, and wish to congratulate Cary and Spanky, the Empress and Emperor.
Remember to vote on Saturday, and support The Peoples Fund a very worthwhile project for each and every person in the Gay community.

Houston Newsome, who won the FFA Award and Sadist of the Year in the 74 awards, presented special gifts to Doug Kopecky, a glitter and lace golden glove, and a box of band aids for both categories which drew humorous and approving applause.

A well received surprise of the evening occurred when nominations for the Leap Frog Award were read by Mark Calhoun, a previous winner himself. The Leap Frog Award is for the person or persons having the most sex in the previous year.

Mrs. Jackie Stone, a cosmetic saleslady at the Star Pharmacy on Castro St. was understandably surprised to learn that she had tied with Dick Cook, bar tender at the boot Camp, for this award. Mrs. Stone was in attendance with her husband, but promised that in view of her winning, she was thinking of making more dates with her many, gay friends in the community. Both winers received a prolonged applause for winning.
The awards were well received and the winners enthusiastically applauded, thus another awards ceremony was concluded, a clean, fun and camp bar presentation that is expected to become now, a tradition in the gay community of San Francisco.
The other winners of awards were: Punchbound Award - Jay Fraser of the Ball Room. Tea Room Commando - Darrell Bays - Castro Cafe. Best Male Performance by a Female Impersonator - Rick Fosnight - Castro Station. Size Queen Award - "J.R." - Toad Hall. Golden Gloves Award - David Speaks-Leather Forever. Golden Tongue Award - Boots Bennett. Dick of Death Award - Stan - Castro Station. Best Performance in an Orgy - Lou De Leon. Paper Wedding Dress Award -Normal Norman - Rainbow Cattle Co. Cob Web Award - Randy Kahn.
A special award, not voted upon, but to be included in voting henceforth was the Our Lady of the Glory Holes Award. This award was given to Pat Simpson, bartender at the Stud bar, for his constant and perpetual attendance and support of San Francisco's newest after hours offering, The Glory Hole....

GOLDEN GATE GAY LIBERATION HOUSE
On a cold November day in 1973 a group of people got together and, started an organization called Golden Gate Gay Liberation House. Because of this we have grown over the years, We are now called the Survival House, We offer a 24 hour Hotline, Counsling, Medical help, a place for the homeless to find shelter. We feel that we care for our brothers and sisters no matter who they are.
On June 23, 76 we at the Survival House will be having an open house, so that the community may see where we are coming from and where, we are going. The house will be open from noon until 8pm, love to have all who want to come. And if you have any blankets, sheets, money, clothing or any other donations please bring them with you!
On the 26th of June the Survival House will hold a Bisextennial Costume Ball at the California Hall 625 Polk St. Tickets $3.00 in advance, and $3.50 at the door.
Again we welcome you to our Open House June 23rd 1976 758 Haight St. come one come all.

GAY FREEDOM DAY PARADE
The parade will start at 12 noon at Pine and Polk Streets, on Sunday, June 27th, 1976. ALL are encouraged to participate and there will be several places in the parade where people off the streets can join in. There will be a huge fair and picnic afterwards at Marx Meadows in Golden Gate Park starting approximately 3pm. There will be extra "N Judah" streetcars at Duboce and Sanchez where the parade ends to transport people to the fair grounds. As part of this annual celebration, Sweet Chariot will be performing. An equal number of women and men speakers are on the program.
The parade will be a reflection of many diverse lifestyles within the gay community, the parade is a political statement because of its orgin--born in the spirit of Stonewall--as well as it is a celebration of gay pride during Gay Pride Week. The Stonewall Coltion shall lead the parade.

SPORTS BY MARK BROWN

As we approach the half-way point in the C. S. L. season the division races are shaping up to the point were the top three teams in each division will be fighting it out to the bitter end. With the Ambush knocking off the Silver Sage the division race tightened up and could get tighter this weekend with the Sage having a bye. The Toad Hall and the Pendulum are both very good teams and are closing in.
This Sunday the Sutter Mill and Ambush clash at noon, Balboa Field #1. These two undefeated teams could very well deside the division B champion in this game. Both teams are excellantly managed and the winner should go undefeated the balance of the season. The Hut was almost upset by Noah's Ark, but managed to pull the game out in the last inning in a wild game in Sacremento. Most assuredly this division will have the wild card team ll the playoffs.
The division C race like the other two is still far from over. Although the Mint is presently leading, their four victories have been over the only four teams yet to win a game. By the seasons end the Hombre should surface as the division champion with the Round-Up hanging right in there.
A tip off the hat to Jay Platt, manager and Al Hanken, owner of the Round-Up for the very nice gesture in giving all C. S. L. players and cheerleaders passes to drink at there bar at reduced prices. We thank you.
Congratulations to Mike of the Hawaiian Hut on becoming the sports columnist of Good News/ Sacremento. The name of the column is "Sports Scenes by Mike." Good luck Mike. I would also like to congratulate Les Balmain of the Mint on the fine job he is doing with his new sports column in Data Boy.
Fifteen of the top bowlers in the Monday nite community league and the Wednesday nite tavern guild league will be tricking to San Diego over j tricking to San Diego over July 4th to enter the state tournament. Also sometime during that weekend they will be bowling against the best bowlers San Diego has in there gay league with a special function to follow. There will be three teams, The Pendulum Swingers, Baj Ballers, and the Nip and Tucks. They will all be staying at Dave's, anyone wishing further information contact Chuck Marrow 648-9035. Sounds like a balling good time!
To the people of sports,
The best, Mark.

One form of expression should not necessarily eliminate another or one form of expression should not violate or offend basic human rights. That is why as a result of our last open meeting of May 23rd, some men and women got together to set up suggested guide l lines for floats and individual particpants in attempting to raise consciouness so that there will NOT be a display of oppressive attitudes within our own community therefore we, the gay and proud, will come out from everywhere on June 27th to make a strong stand united for freedom.

First, I would like to say thank you to everyone who attended the three auctions that I gave for Mel Olson. The total after the auctions was $566.75. All money left over will be put in a community chest for our community. A special thanks to all the bar owners Bob and Andy of the 641, Mary of the Crystal, and Alfonso and his staff of the Sundown. The Sundown let me auction their employees off. Stadium Liquors at 8th and Keyes donated some beautiful decanters. George--thanks for the donations. You are always there when I have needed things. If you need anything for parties or stocking a bar go to Stadium Liquors.

Congratulations to Cary and Spanky of Sacramento the Empress and Emperor III.

Grand opening for the Sundown will be June 15. Enchanted Faces will perform. $2.00 cover charge.

The new bar on Stockton seems quite busy. The Man Hole, drop by and say hell-o to Bob and John.

The Sundown will have a disco booth finished for your pleasure when this column reaches you on Friday. Disc Jockey will be Donny formerly of San Francisco.
