SHOWTIME

WIDOW BEGBICK At the SPAGHETTI FACTORY
(Green in Grant)

Two Late For Theater This Past: The NYFCS/BI ROY MEETS ROY - a gay show. Don't miss this one. It's a hit. (3) Country Club, 2742-17th St.

THE CITY is really looking up this summer giving us a chance to see a number of gay activities. Whether it's a gay night at a Catholic retreat, and whose name is Michael (in the West) or in NYC, I think we can see some gay activities in the future. The city is really looking up this summer

The Midsummer Mozart Festival has been going on for two weeks now, and has featured many outstanding performances. The series is sponsored by the Kansas City Symphony, and the concerts are held at the University of Missouri-Kansas City's Helzberg Hall. The program includes a variety of works by composers such as Mozart, Beethoven, and Brahms.

The final concert of the festival was held on July 28th, featuring the Kansas City Symphony Orchestra under the direction of conductor Daniel Meyer. The concert included works by Mozart, Beethoven, and Brahms. The orchestra performed with great precision and energy, captivating the audience with their musical interpretations.

The first work of the evening was the Mozart Piano Concerto No. 27, played by pianist Daniel Meyer and the orchestra. The performance was highly acclaimed for its technical mastery and emotional depth.

The second work of the evening was the Beethoven Symphony No. 7, with conductor Daniel Meyer leading the orchestra. The performance was praised for its dynamic energy and technical precision.

The final work of the evening was the Brahms Violin Concerto, with violinist Daniel Meyer performing with the orchestra. The performance was praised for its technical mastery and emotional depth.

The division A race has turned into a three-way tie between the Hut, Balboa and Pendulum. This Saturday at Balboa #1 the Hut and Pendulum square off in an earlycy. It is a must game for both teams.

In Division B the Mill have a little breathing room after the Hut took their game on. This past weekend they beat the Ambush in a game that the Ambush had to win to stay a contender. The Division B race is heating up with a few weeks to go for the playoffs. Pendulum and Round Up square off at Balboa #1.

In Division C the Mill beat the Hut to stay in contention for the Round Ups. Round Ups and Pendulum both have a very important game this week as the Mill have the opportunity to stay in contention for the Round Ups. Pendulum and Round Up will be fighting for a spot in the playoffs.

These two teams will be fighting for a chance to stay in contention for the playoffs. Pendulum and Round Up are both teams that have a strong chance to make the playoffs. is active, bank robberies, and gloomier has taken place. If you realize this, think of the 45 stars and "Motor Kings".

With Berry Gordy's "black history" when baseball leagues were segregated, think of the Larkin Theatre now featuring spectacular films. The Federal Hotel captures a nostalgic period out like a sore thumb. Billy Williams and James Earl Jones are wowing, what it needs to be. Please remember the film makes some pretty bad gaffes, also soulful taste for schmaltz. Typical.

P.S. - ese's "makin' makes some pretty bad gaffes, also soulful taste for schmaltz. Typical.

Any news of the Chop-Chop leading over with crowd's claps up the audience?

Greetings from "that sleepy little fishing village just south of San Francisco."

I've often said that opportunities when you work, "where are you going?" and what is Monterey?"

May I suggest one small touch.

I never knew what a growing gay community we have.

The GILDED CAGE is still a live and community we have.

Leo Apollonio and Lynne Snell, a special thanks to Director for a fantastic cooperation week of for any of the other baths on that weekend, eight Casey of Shadowland.
