The gay delegation stressed that, while it is true that the situation is better for gay men and women today than it once was, the battle is far from over. "The struggle is not yet won," said one representative. The group also stressed the need for continued education and advocacy to further improve the lives of the LGBTQ community.

DEADLINE MONDAY

NEW YORK - Men and women across the country are now making plans to attend an international gay conference that will take place in the spring of 1977.

INFLTRATING UNIVERSITIES

BYRON, Tex. - The National Gay Task Force is planning to infiltrate universities and other institutions to gain a foothold in the struggle for gay rights. The group is planning to send representatives to universities across the country to gain access to the administration and faculty.

LESBIAN SOURCEBOOK

NEW YORK - The Gay Media Task Force is planning to publish a sourcebook for lesbians, "How to Infiltrate Your University," later this year.

PRISON RAPE

ALEXANDRIA, Va. - A federal jury convicted a 21-year-old inmate of raping another inmate at a federal prison in Maryland. The inmate, who had been in prison for more than a year, was attacked by another inmate in the cafeteria.

BACKGROUND

The Gay Task Force, Los Angeles, Ca, (213) 464-1376,

Gay representatives at the meeting included co-executive directors of the National Gay Task Force, Jean O'Leary and Dr. Bruce Voeller, with programming executives designed under the Convention's goals: to encourage the growing commitment of gay groups to serve their communities.

Further information and application materials may be obtained by writing to Convention Coordinator, Belt Midland 1006, NYC 10013.

BELLA FOR CABINETPERSON

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Rep. Bella Abzug, who lost her congressional seat in New York last year, may be considered for the top federal post for gay and women's issues. The mayor is backing Bella" said a close aide of Beame.

Deadline for regional gay and lesbian groups is March 24 and 25.

The conference will this year be a one-day Lesbian Law Sourcebook available for $1.25 from the Gay Community News.
With something as traditional as Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol," it is hard to break from a "set" presentation and diversify the flow of the programmed presentations. A NEW CHRISTMAS CAROL

A NEW CHRISTMAS CAROL (which premiered December 7 at the Geary, the American Conservatory Theater's production of Charles Dickens' classic! "A Christmas Carol," premiering December 7 at the Geary, was directed by Laila Mishkina and designed by Robert Blackman, Scrooge's mind and set by Robert Morgan, dance music by An-Der Seiff, and good portrayals of Dickens' characters who understand Christmas joy completely.

The new adaptation, however, gets as by a bit lengthy in places. But even though Dickens' adaptation of "A Christmas Carol" is a bit too slow in the long run, Scrooge and his friends concentrate on the unlocked minds of Scrooge, the psychological side of Scrooge, the emergence in the end as a lover of Christmas and people is joyous. Definitely worth your while for the Holiday season.

Past, Future and Present...and the spirit of Christmas becomes unlocked as we visit Christmas Past, Future and Present. With the aid of a brilliant performance by Robert Blackman, Scrooge's mind emerges in the end as a lover of Christmas and people is joyous. Definitely worth your while for the Holiday season.

The cast is huge for an ACT production, actually frightend you with it, Daniel Davis and Mairian Walters as Mr. and Mrs. Feves, and good portrayals of Dickens' characters who understand Christmas joy completely.

Most of her material came from her first Columbia L.P., "First Night," a good collection of soft rock, a good collection of soft rock, a good collection of soft rock. Hearing "Come Softly to Me" (the Fleetwoods' hit) done so delicately and a little depressing at times, his emergence in the end as a lover of Christmas and people is joyous. Definitely worth your while for the Holiday season. Please write for more information.

WEBSITE LETTERS TO CASTER!

Prime Minister Carlson has said that he opposes all forms of discrimination to end the basis of sexual orientation. He has also pledged that all persons, regardless of sexual orientation, should be treated equally. In this statement, President Ford has said that he will support no actions which discriminate against any group, including homosexuals, on the basis of their orientations.

It is clear that this position is consistent with the principles of equality and non-discrimination enshrined in the United States Constitution.

4) Use the good offices of the President to ensure that all citizens on the same basis as all other citizens. Naturalization Service to cease treating immigrants.

5) Issue an executive order forbidding discrimination against any group, including homosexuals, on the basis of their orientations.

6) Give top legislative priority to passing the Employment Act of 1978, which would guarantee gay workers the same rights as all other citizens.

7) Fulfill the pledge to bring those who are still alive in two-thirds of the states, including the military; revoking such persons to full veterans rights and accommodations as all other citizens.

The job of the gay community is to support these efforts and to ensure that they are successful.

Hello again dancin' freaks and Happy Holidays. If there is enough to, Christmas is here and New Years is staring us in the face. If you received any record albums for Christmas that you already have or know for a fact that you don't like, you can return them, provided the plastic cover has not been removed. If you do return it keep in mind your favorites for the past year. Some of my recommendations for the year are:

Stevie Wonder - Songs In The Key of Life.
Peter Framton - Framton Comes Alive.
Boz Scaggs - Silk Degrees
Eagles - Their Greatest Hits.
Electric Light Orchestra - Ole'
George Benson - Breezin'
Emotions - Flowers.
Any Donna Summer L.P.
Trammps - Where the Happy People Go.
Beatles - Rock & Roll Music.
Vicki Sue Robinson - Never Gonna Let You Go.
Bee Gees - Children of the World.

Two new albums also receive current honors and recommendations. They are:

Thelma Houston's new L.P., "Any Way You Like It", which is highlighted by the single "Don't Leave Me This Way", which is already bulging starward on the Billboard Hot 103. It is also #1 on the Disco Charts across the nation, according to "Billboard". Words fall short of describing Thelma's energetic drive in the song, but it seems to be recognized by all whom experience it. Her energy is a long awaited treat for many a DJ. She most likely will be around for a long tune.

George McCrae's new album "Diamond Touch", has come as quite a pleasant shock to many, as he is now being produced by George Diamond. The usual "KC & The Sunshine Band" sound is gone, leaving George with a glowing vibrating new sound. Three cuts from the L.P., "Love in Motion", "Given Back the Feeling", and "I'm Gonna Stay with My Love Tonight" highlight the L.P. and are all located together at side "A" of the record.

Shortly into the New Year the Trammps will release their new L.P. - "Disco Fever", It sounds to be very hot.

Kool & The Gang's new release is "Open Sesame". It is very strong using a heavy driving Bass line as a hook in the eight minute disco version. The horn section is reminiscent of the Klymaxes (Ya Gotta Keep On Bumpin' - 75'). Open Sesame might be one song to have an ear open for.

As for what already is, following is Michael Lee's compilation of the top 30 tunes in the disco's this week.

1. Saturday Night/On Your Face/Big - Earth Wind & Fire
2. Freedom To Express Yourself - Genesis
3. Don't Leave Me This Way/Anyway You Like It - Thelma Houston
4. Love Makes You Blind - Glitter Band
5. I'm Your Boogie Man/Keep It Comin'/Love - KC & The Sunshine Band
6. You Keep Me Hangin' On - David Ruffin
7. Call Me/Keep It Between Us - Whirlwind
8. I've Learned From My Errors/I Don't Know What's On Your Mind - Spiders Webb
9. I've Learned From My Errors/I Don't Know What's On Your Mind - Spiders Webb
10. Saturday Night/On Your Face/Big - Earth Wind & Fire
11. Freedom To Express Yourself - Genesis
12. Don't Leave Me This Way/Anyway You Like It - Thelma Houston
13. Love Makes You Blind - Glitter Band
14. I'm Your Boogie Man/Keep It Comin'/Love - KC & The Sunshine Band
15. You Keep Me Hangin' On - David Ruffin
16. Call Me/Keep It Between Us - Whirlwind
17. I've Learned From My Errors/I Don't Know What's On Your Mind - Spiders Webb
18. Saturday Night/On Your Face/Big - Earth Wind & Fire
19. Freedom To Express Yourself - Genesis
20. Don't Leave Me This Way/Anyway You Like It - Thelma Houston

And that about raps things up. Just please remember the "God-O" in your dreams.

See you there ....... Pete
