MAILER MAULS PERVERTS

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. — Norman Mailer, who has already taken on the Mafia, has now turned his attentions on gay people. Mailer told a story, illustrated in his film production of the same name, which he directed, that was included in this year's Academy Award ceremonies. "The first time you go there, it's a gong show," Mailer said. "It's a little too much of a show." He said that the film was a commentary on the treatment of gay people in society.

New York City, N.Y. — Jean O'Leary, Co-executive Director of the National Gay Task Force, has been named by President Carter as a member of the Commission on the Observance of International Women's Year Commission. "It is a great honor to serve on this board," O'Leary said. "I am proud to be one of the few women who have been chosen to represent our community in this role." O'Leary has been a prominent figure in the gay rights movement for many years and is known for her advocacy and leadership in the fight for equality.

LIVINGSTON NAMED TO COMMISSION

Robert Livingston, a former member of the House of Representatives, has been named to a board responsible for the implementation of the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, which was passed by Congress last year. Livingston, who was also a member of the House Judiciary Committee, said that he was proud to be a part of this important legislation. "The Family and Medical Leave Act is a necessary piece of legislation that will help working parents meet the needs of their families," Livingston said. "I am glad to be part of this important work." Livingston is known for his dedication to the issues of family and medical leave and has been a vocal advocate for the rights of working parents.

KINSEY COUNTS GAYS

New York City, N.Y., — The Kinsey Institute has released its latest report on the number of gay men and women in the United States. According to the report, there are 4.6 million gay men and 6.8 million gay women in the country, which is an increase from previous estimates. The Kinsey Institute, which is based at Indiana University, provides documentation and analysis on a variety of topics, including sexual orientation and behavior. "We are committed to providing accurate and reliable information on sexual orientation and behavior," said Dr. Kinsey. "Our research is designed to help us better understand the experiences of gay men and women and how they are affected by society."

NEVER MEET A STRANGER

The show "Never Meet a Stranger" was featured in this week's "Showtime" column. The show, which airs on Fox, follows a group of undercover detectives as they penetrate the underworld of the city. "The show is a great example of the power of television to entertain and inform," said Dickmann. "I encourage everyone to check it out and see how it stacks up against other shows on the air." "Never Meet a Stranger" has been a popular show this season and is known for its action-packed plots and well-drawn characters.

In school is an image that epitomizes French charm and will provide an introduction._

Regarding Thomas Pynchon reveals a story with a plot that is unlike any other. The novel is about a woman named Jean, who is a member of a secret society. The plot unfolds as Jean is being hunted by a mysterious entity known as the "Black Dog." Jean's journey takes her through various locations, including a church and a hospital.

As Jean begins to piece together the mystery of the Black Dog, she discovers that it is not just a physical entity, but rather a symbol of fear and the unknown. The Black Dog represents the unknown aspects of human nature and the fear that comes with it. Jean's journey is filled with twists and turns, as she tries to uncover the truth behind the Black Dog and its connection to her family.

Despite the numerous obstacles she faces, Jean perseveres and eventually learns the true meaning of the Black Dog. In the end, she realizes that the Black Dog is a symbol of the unknown and that it is up to each individual to face their fears and unlock their own potential.

Throughout the novel, Pynchon explores themes of identity, fear, and the unknown. The story is a thought-provoking read that will keep readers on the edge of their seats.
I am tired of people taking it for granted that others can do it better than I do. I have come across a serious complaint and that is... That is, I have had to phone various persons to explain why I am available and willing to do whatever I can if I can or can't do it. Don't assume that I can or can't do something without asking me if I can or can't do it. I'll always try the

The Community Softball League again opened its season in style by drawing a record crowd of 3,000 fans to the grandstand and over 5,000 in attendance, the biggest crowd ever to witness a game at Wally's A.M. The match was between the San Francisco Police Department and the San Francisco Police Department. The teams played on a beautiful day in front of a record crowd of 3,000 fans.

The event was highlighted by one of the most exciting softball games ever played in the Bay Area. The San Francisco Police Department beat the San Francisco Police Department 12-3 in a thrilling game of softball.

The game was a testament to the skill and teamwork of the teams involved. The San Francisco Police Department, led by Captain John Smith, played a strong game and proved to be a worthy opponent for the San Francisco Police Department.

The game was held at Wally's A.M., a popular softball field in the city. The field was packed with fans cheering on their favorite teams.

The game was a huge success and set a new record for the Community Softball League. The league has been around for over 10 years and has grown in popularity each year.

The game was also a fundraiser for the San Francisco Police Department, with all proceeds going to the department's youth enrichment program.

Overall, it was a great day for softball in the Bay Area. The game was充满激情 and excitement, and the atmosphere was electric.

The night's big winner was MTM's The Mary Tyler Moore Show. "Roots", written award show rule broken. Another unspoken rule violated was the ritual with each award announcement. As the recipient came on stage, the show's theme song started playing. After each announcement, the ceremony would pause as the theme continued.

The reception to The Mary Tyler Moore Show was naturely so but got right down to business. First, they didn't mention any local or national appeal. Second, they didn't mention any local or national appeal. Third, they didn't mention any local or national appeal.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR,

Dear Editor,

A great deal of material has gone across the wires of late about Anita Bryant, her views on homosexuality and her job problems. We believe it is absolutely necessary not only to support and defend her against the attacks of the Anita Bryant Committee, but also to ensure that her job problems are resolved fairly and justly.

We think it is necessary to include the fact that she represents the “religious” position in opposing gay civil-rights legislation. We think it is essential to emphasize that her views are contrary to those of the American Psychiatric Association, which has not only removed homosexuality from its list of mental disorders but has issued a strong statement in support of gay rights for women.

It's not easy working all day (or all night long) cleaning house, doing your laundry and all that housekeeping stuff, and then deciding to "entertain" at home. Say, for example, you've gotten yourself up to ask "Mr Right" over to your place for dinner. You want something tasty (other than that) and yet something that's easy to prepare, a dish that will leave you more time to be with the dish in the living room than by yourself in the kitchen. Here's a recipe for you! Easy! Delicious! Sure to impress him. It's called CHICKEN BREASTS IN SOUR CREAM!

Ingredients
- 4 chicken breasts
- 1 can (3oz) mushrooms (drained)
- 1 can mushroom soup (undiluted)
- 1 cup sour cream
- Paprika

Preheat your oven to 350 °F. Thank you.

Now, wash those chicken tits off. Just fill a pan with cold water, dip each of the breasts in it, hold above the pan so that the water isn't wasted, and lay on a towel to dry. (You can use this water on your plants. I've been pouring it on my Boston ferns and two of them have laid eggs!)

In a shallow, buttered baking dish, arrange the chicken so that the pieces do not overlap. Cover with the mushrooms, then completely blend the mushroom soup and sour cream. Coat each piece with the mixture, making sure that each piece is completely covered. Sprinkle with paprika and bake uncovered for 1 1/2 to 2 hours. The chicken will be covered with a golden brown sauce when done. Serve with rice and a smart green salad. Yum! Yum! Yum! Yum!
