MICHELLE'S PICNIC

The Memorial Day Weekend in San Francisco will be brought to a fitting conclusion with Michelle's Picnic on June 2d with proceeds going to the League for Civil Education.

Persons under 21 will not be allowed to go on the picnic for some alcoholic beverages—will be available and Michelle does not want to spend his day checking IDs. Food, beverage and transportation will be available to the participants pool will not be available. Cars will return to San Francisco at all hours making it possible for those who want to work on that day to be back in time.

Proceeds from the picnic will be paid to the L.C.E. and tickets will be available at the desk of the Edgewater Hotel, from Guy Strait and from Dave Michaels.

Tickets including food and drink are to cost $3.00 each. In the past there has been 100 to 150 persons at each picnic and this time the turnout is expected to exceed 200. In order to get some kind of idea as to how many are to be at the picnic and the proper amounts of food and drink purchased those who expect to go are requested to buy their tickets early. Refunds will be made to any who buy a ticket and are unable to go.

The L.C.E. Picnics, have in the past, been noted for the good times had by all and the beverages that flowed so freely. Don't forget to drink up and enjoy the day.

CHANGING MORALITY

Every day we hear of the really important people of our country who are remaining vitally interested in the changing morals of living and in the change in attitudes towards morality. This lag between law and the law is so fantastic that it is highly considerable for a man to be sentenced to life imprisonment for an offense, that in the eyes of the general public is completely acceptable.

The sole reason that this is possible is the failure of the masses to step forward and tell their politicians "What shall we do?". All taxpayers feel that they must do what ever is necessary to be elected. If the ignorant, the bigoted and the "hussy-biddies" are more vocal than the person who wants changes made or who is refusing to be bound by the moral code of the 19th century is silent then the bigots will always be in control of the legislature.

We have polled thousands of Americans of all income classes. It is amazing to find that less than 5% of them regard most forms of sexual deviation or crime. Yet very few of those most interested will allow their views to become known with little discussion, much less any action that might lead to greater freedom in the sexual sphere.

There are at least a dozen organizations in the United States that are interested in improving the lot of the sexual variant for Instance. Yet the combined total membership of these organizations is less than two thousand. Imagine less than 1/10,000 of the persons vitally concerned about this have the courage of their convictions. These organizations exist with no reserve, with no real capital outlay and primarily volunteer help. They assist thousands each year who have run afoul of the laws that they seek to change. Yet the people they help rarely will have anything to do with the organizations after they have hurdled the trouble.

In the field of publications there has been, in the past two years, a far greater emphasis on sexual freedom than ever before. Highly respectable publications such as Harper's, The Ladies Home Journal, etc., have carried articles condemning the present mode of living. These, plus dozens of other publications not so highly respectable have attempted to set fire to the conscience of the American to bring about a change in the laws.

Raised as we were with the inbred, idea that 'sex is dirty', even those of us who practice sex relations are (Continued on Page 2 Col. 1).

MEMORIAL DAY Picnic

suppression of pornography. But there's no reason to believe that every single individual ever has engaged in such activities. And I'd say that most of them are very hostile and disturbed individuals, but not necessarily sexual disturbed.

Maurice Gorodias, Editor-Publisher of Olympia Press in Paris who pioneered in the publication of works by Henry Miller and other controversial writers and was the first to publish Nabokov's "Lolita," said, during the same Playboy Panel: "Nobody has ever offered a coherent explanation of censorship, and yet one is supposed to submit it as if it were a part of a God-given rule of conduct. Why? Censorship is obviously inspired by individuals feeling of modesty, of decency, but these feelings are rooted in what I would call a sexual inferiority complex: a fear of sexual inadequacy, of failure; or the realization of a physical discrepancy, or a lack of experience. People suffering from such a complex want to bring everyone down to their own level. This complex was held away over us for generations. It has taken the social form of censorship: moral and mental censorship. In short, describing sex is a crime in the eyes of those who are ashamed of their own sex, and who wish to burden others with their sense of sin."

Another member of the panel, Ralph Ginsburg, Editor-Publisher of the quarterly Eros and author of the book "An Unhurried View of Erotica," commented that Arnold Gingrich, publisher of Esquire, believes that we are entering a new area of puritanism and favors this direction. "Actually," said Ginsburg, "there is no question but that puritanism is fading. Gingrich has stated that the world is about to embark on a great new voyage of morality, but which he apparently means puritanism. He feels that freedom in literature and the arts is going to produce a counteraction, that people are going to get fed up with hypocrisy regarding sex and love. It is out in favor of a sort of mid-Victorian hypocrisy - though he doesn't say it in those words, of course. But if Gingrich thinks that the public is becoming bored by sex, or upset about its prevalence, I think he is projecting onto the public something which may be the result of his own increasing age."

NEW DRUNK LAWS

The California Supreme Court in a recent ruling has found the Los Angeles Municipal Code regarding drunkenness unconstitutional in that it legislated in a field that could not properly be controlled by a municipal government. Therefore all municipal codes dealing with the common drunk were also considered to be unconstitutional.

In San Francisco a Municipal Code #152 reads as follows: "It shall be unlawful for any person to be drunk or intoxicated on any public highway or in any public place or in any place open to public view, or to be in any private premises or in any private house in a drunken or intoxicated condition to the annoyance of any other person.

This second of the code accounted for an average of 100 arrests a day in San Francisco. In theory, a person arrested under this section of the code could get a sobriety test if he so desired. As a matter of practice it was impossible to get such a test and the only sobriety test that we have had had to be taken at a private hospital after being bailed out. Even then the hospitals were reluctant to give these tests.

Under this Municipal Code, since drunkenness was not defined, it was possible for an officer to make an arrest on a whim of fancy, and this is done regularly.

Prelacing this section of the Municipal Code is a part of the Disorderly Conduct Law that makes an arrest for being intoxicated more a matter of commission of an act rather than a state of being.

Section 647 F of the California Penal Code states: "647, Disorderly Conduct Defined: Misdemeanor.—Every person who commits any of the following acts shall be guilty of disorderly conduct, a misdemeanor:"

F. Who is found in any public place under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, or the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug, interferes with or obstructs or prevents the free use of any street, sidewalk or other public way.

WHAT IT MEANS

It would appear therefore, that an officer making an arrest should be prepared to prove in court that the person arrested had:
1. Performed some act which to his proved that the person demonstrated his inability to care for himself or self;
2. Performed some act which to the officer demonstrated the inability of the person to care for the safety of others or;
3. Was actively interfering with the free use of the sidewalk or other public places, or;
4. Was committing these acts because he was either under the influence of a drug or intoxicating liquor or both.

IN THEORY ONLY

We are not so innocent as to believe that the police departments of San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, etc. are going to be too disrupted by this new ruling. However, it will make the person who objects to being harassed on a much more favorable footing when he comes before a judge, for he can then ask:
"What act did I perform that made that officer believe that I was incapable of caring for my safety or the safety of others? Formerly the officer went into a bar and said, "You, You and you, are drunk and under arrest."

LOS ANGELES STILL ARRESTING

One member of the Los Angeles Police force said, "You're just as drunk and liable for arrest now as ever, we just pin a different number on you."

However another officer on that same force said, "I am going to have to be a little more careful because people are getting a little touchy and I am afraid of a false arrest suit."

The League for Civil Education now have several legal scrutining three separate cases of harrassment arrests under the old Sec. 152 of the Municipal Code. At this time it is undecided as to how this change of law will affect these cases.

Hearings were held in Sacramento on the 24th of May in relation to proposed changes in Section 647 of the State's Penal Code.

Testifying at this hearing were such Los Angeles Police Chief William Parker; Manley Bowler, Chief Deputy District Attorney of Los Angeles County; David H. Heyler, Publisher of the Hollywood Citizen-News; Claire F. Graham, Executive Secretary of the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce; and Carol Collins, staff reporter from the Citizen-News.

The proposed changes would alter sections of the code that would make prostitution applicable to both sexes and would alter the meaning of a public place.

The bill was sponsored by Assemblyman Charles J. Conrad of Sherman Oaks who cooperated with Mr. Hayler in the muck-raking affair earlier in the year.

Chief of Police Parker, appearing as a witness asking approval of the bill, said it was directed against predatory social variants "who are swarming all over the place."

After much discussion the Chairman told Parker, "You haven't given me a single answer. You have engaged in mudslinging and vitriol."

Then Parker, in his best freedom-loving style replied, bringing the weight of Los Angeles into the picture. "I came up as a representative of the City of Los Angeles about this bill, I did not do this for Bill Parker, Chief Parker's assumption that he represented the City of Los Angeles was not accepted either by the Chairman nor by the persons in the audience who do not consider Parker as representing anything except his own personal interests.

The Chairman took exception and stated, "One more remark like that and I'll ask the sergeant at arms to remove you from this room."

The Chairman then told Parker that although he claimed that he did not want to push social variants around "you certainly want to push the committee members around."

To Manly Bowler, Chief Deputy District Attorney of Los Angeles County went the award for the most stupid remark of the day which reflected with complete discredit upon the integrity of the office he holds when he said regarding the Long Beach decision of personal privacy in a toilet - "Thus this mean that a man has two castles; his home and a public toilet booth."

We know that none of our readers are prone to get VD, for most of them do not engage in sexual relations of any kind - but you may have a friend and you would be doing him a favor to suggest that he go by the nearest Public Health Clinic for a check up. You don't need money, just some blood so the lab can see what kind of germ you are carrying around.

When it concerns VD you are never too far from a clinic that will be happy to treat you for the pleasure of possibly controlling this disease. Just look in your phone book under U.S. Public Health. Ask them where your friend can go. Go there with the utmost confidence that they are far more interested in controlling disease than in your personal affairs.

The PARADE

Last Sunday two San Francisco parades were treated to a rare and unusual variety of sidewalk costumes, creating, and beliefs upheld by Joseph Davis in bold letters of the day.

This parade was the original idea of the organizers of the so-called Free Speech Walk. They were determined to get over the nation, with particular emphasis on the West Coast. Before the parade could get under way a group of San Francisco police held a press conference to announce that the parade would not be permitted to move. However, the police of the San Francisco Sgt. DEAR SENATOR

I read in your last leave a letter signed "Selma" and am somewhat confused.

I don’t blame him for expressing his opinion, because I am talking about the same thing. I have noticed that many people have spoken against the ADAMS or the DULBERGS, but rather that the police feel constitute the criminal element.

I have never been one of those who made a play for anyone who is not interested. When someone indicates an interest in the visual arts, it is never easy to explain to him what I am trying to do. I have never been one of those who made an appeal to those who are sex-simulators. He might not have objected, but he might not have objected.

I hope that the police feel constitute the criminal element.

Some of us are interested in the visual arts, but not everyone is interested in the visual arts.

Thank you,

that is so highly objectionable, but rather the fact that the hustler because of his inner frustration will take every opportunity to vent this frustration on his victim or customer. This is very much the same as when the honorable police officer - when a person violating the law the normal police officer makes an arrest. We can not be more in agreement with this officer. However the frustrated ones pretend to make harassment arrests, for they will not admit even to themselves the real source of their frustration cannot be more in agreement with this to their arrests. Perhaps irritation will cure some of these evils but honest discussion is far more likely to bring understanding and we thank both these outspoken writers for their contribution.

In town on the way back from vacationing in Washington and Oregon was Frank Stevenson from San Diego. He enjoyed the visit and took some home pictures of the affair which will be on hand at the GCCC movies on the 4th of July.

Speaking of that cultural event - that in the GCCC Movies - My Harrington has told me that "What Happened" is the best picture that they have ever made and after its showing here will be premiered in Southern California at a town outside the jurisdiction of Playful Parker. Also a surprise for the Southland will be the importation of a live show from San Francisco, one that has not previously been in that city. May fly down for the event myself.

Over at NO Market the name of the place is changed again - this time to "The Away". And leaving the scene in the near future is Buddy Harris who is going into summer stock in Salinas or nearby. The back room of the Away has been changed to resemble a psychological test.

There was a big fashion show at Cadell Place the other weekend. Again presented in cooperation with Town Squire. They tell me that Cadell is about the regain its place in the sun in the North Beach Area. We would be there if the offices were still located in that area. Michelle secures the affair.

At The Black Cat there is much preparation in progress for the opening of the Shakespearean Festival. It is going to be quite a show according to the Nightingale.

Around the town

The Plush Doggie taking all honors for the most in town. This place is located on the busiest corner in our city and is the busiest corner without exception on the entire west coast for eclipsing the Hollywood and Vine area. Look for trouble in that area. Dropping in at Doggie's last week when we stopped for a drink and a little talk and did not leave the place until the wee hours. Such a nice group.

We are quoting former when we say that Los Angeles is about to get a place to replace the Club - promises to have a place that will be the best in the west. Or East for that matter. Back In town is Jim Corbett, late of the Resort and The Arcade in New York. Made the scene all the way east with particular attention to Houston, Texas where he tells me he had the time of his life. Now sporting cowboy boots, 7½ gallon hat - odd side - and rodeo jacket.

Over at the House Trap there was a big group down from Portland the other day. They tell that the Tel and Tel is back in operation.

Going south along Highway 1, we hear that the Four Seasons Lodge has replaced the Kinbuck-Bilton and that Harris at Ace's has the Welcome Mat out for all the people making that very pleasant stopover on the Monterey Peninsula. Other fine spots in that area are the Gilded Gage, of new management and the Playboys. Not to forget that fine dining spot at Callaloo.

We were forced to turn down an invitation to Richard Hiler's Big Swim Party in Phoenix, Arizona - his invitations to this affair should be saved as masterpieces. I suspect that some physique photographer could make a career out of this. This was about a half dozen invites that we have had this year for parties in Phoenix and we are - to accept one and surprise them all.
