The belief that a homosexual per se is a poor security risk belongs in the same category of tales as the one about the stork bringing babies.

It would appear to be a fact that Walter W. Jenkins has been a veteran and can bring experience into the game. — Rather you bring only a negative attitude as your contribution? Mr. Johnson appears to be doing nothing.

Of course the easiest way to get to Mr. Jenkins would have been simply to threaten him with the loss of his position. Blackmail is not a crime, and most people would have been willing to pay to avoid it.

Mr. Johnson has known Jenkins over a period of years and has found him to be reliable, honest, and a man of great integrity. Mr. Johnson is fast turning this incident into an asset by stating, because Mr. Johnson appears to be doing nothing.

POLITICAL OPINIONS

The little pin-handled recent legislature, the city of which was allowed to conduct an election, inside of two issues whether they prefer the frying pan or the fire. The propositions are contained in Proposition 14 and Proposition 17.

PROPOSITIONS AND PROPOSED LAWS

Proposition 14: California shall have the legislative power to require special elections to be held on propositions passed by the legislature and to require the Governor to call an election on such propositions. I vote NO.

Proposition 15: This provides for a constitutional amendment to allow the sale of so-called "intercourse" and "adultery" in California. I vote YES.

The editor favors the establishment of a lottery. The Rumford act will make it criminal to fail to sell or to rent to anyone under 18 years old. It will have no effect on homosexuals, some gentiles, some Jews, some of almost any- thing that we do not see in the county because of the circumstances. This law will uphold that right.

Proposition 16: The Rumford Act and Proposition 14 are amendments to the constitution. I vote NO on Proposition 14 and YES on Proposition 17.

Proposition 17: This provides for tax relief in areas that are declared as disaster areas by the Governor. The argument is made that this measure will benefit the state. I vote NO.

Proposition 18: This is a low figure for elementary and secondary schools. The editor will vote YES.

Proposition 19: This provides for additional funds to be used for state parks. The editor will vote NO.

Proposition 20: This would Increase the amount of tax exemptions of veterans. Veterans are not entitled to any further benefits. The editor, a veteran, will vote YES.

Proposition 21: Concerns insurance companies from out of State. The editor will vote NO.

Proposition 22: Concerns the legislature to invest the funds of quasi governmental agencies. The editor will vote NO.

Proposition 23: This would Increase the amount of tax exemptions for those who have been made. This administration has made enough bonds on the treasury to balance the budget. The editor will vote NO.

Proposition 24: Name your own poison.

Proposition 25: This would give legal sanction to religious organizations to discriminate against homosexuals. We are convinced that Governor Brown is far more interested in votes than in freedom.

Proposition 26: This will provide a legislative device called "The legislative device called "Los Angeles." The citizens of the state of California are allowed to decide whether or not they wish to have a lottery. The editor will vote YES. Proposition 13: Provides for the establishment of a lottery. The editor favors the establishment of a lottery. Proposition 13 is a matter of great importance for all Californians. POLITICAL OPINIONS

(There is no calculation to win friends and increase votes. The editor refuses to refrain from any endorsement of any candidate or any thoughts other than those usually used by him in his columns. He is, however, willing to escape the attention of most of them. Mr. Jenkins has shattered the stereotype of the homosexual, but the unknowing American a number of facets that seem to morbid intelligence. Mr. Jenkins was undoubtedly stupid in the cloud of Ignorance that surrounds Washington, Sacramento to and the capitols of the United States.

FINALLY SOMETHING THAT IS NOT BLAMED ON THE HOMOSEXUALS

THE WARREN REPORT

The Commission has investigated rumors that Jack Ruby and Lee Harvey Oswald were both homosexuals and, thus might have had other than that respect. However, no evidence has been uncovered to support the rumors, the close quarters and the unnatural behavior of homosexuals. Thus it is unfair to attribute to Mr. G all the things that have happened during the past ten years on his shoulders. He is called a war-monger, a John Bircher, a super-patriot, and a social deviate. None of these charges can be true. Altho the editor will vote for Johnson, Johnson is no homosexual. He is simply a man who can afford to go to Las Vegas and Reno. If we had any elected officials in Sacramento who had guts we would have repealed this bill are not opposed to the Irish Sweeps whose apparent support of an issue almost identical to an issue almost identical with an issue almost identical to the proposition. Proposition 14 would give legal sanction to religious groups. It is strange that Pat Brown, Stanley Mosk et all who have opposed this bill are not opposed to the Irish Sweeps whose apparent support of this proposition. Proposition 6; Provides for tax relief in areas that are designated as housing areas. The editor will vote no on the basis that no funds that are needed for schools. The editor will vote no.

STATE PROPOSITIONS

California is blessed with a legislative body capable of making such a statement. The editor refuses to vote on any such proposition. Proposition 14 is a matter of great importance to all Californians. It should be a matter of special importance to the city of San Francisco. The editor will vote no on Proposition 14.

CITY AND COUNTY PROPOSITIONS

Proposition B; Provides for the construction of a new jail. The editor will vote yes. Proposition C; Provides for a completely state controlled lottery. The editor is honored to announce that he would always vote yes on this proposition.

SILVER LINING

The diagnosis of homo-nutsylia in the White House via Jenkins is not without a silver lining. This has brought to the unknowing multitude a number of facts that seem to escape the attention of most of them. Mr. Jenkins has shattered the stereotype of the homosexual and it is not necessary to defend Mr. Jenkins in that he is obviously not homosexual, he is nothing more or less than a homosexual. He is one of the majority of American males who have in their vital life sought out the sexual companionship of the same sex. We have heard time and time again how the sex deviates seek out the youngsters. This time it was a man in his life that was the target. We have heard that homosexuals do not have the ability to concentrate and hold down responsible positions. Freeman's statement provides a plain test. We have heard that sex deviates are men of violence and of low and meaner qualities. This is a stupid argument. We fine fit for the search for a sexual companion, but it is evident that he was not of those nauseating qualities. We must be without fear that Mr. Jenkins has brought the issue of sex deviates into public view so the law can afford to ignore it and this provides the silver lining to the cloud of ignorance that surrounds Washington, Sacramento to and the other capitols of the United States.

The war on homosexuals is unfair to attribute to Mr. G all the things that have happened during the past ten years on his shoulders. He is called a war-monger, a John Bircher, a super-patriot, and a social deviate. None of these charges can be true. Altho the editor will vote for Johnson, Johnson is no homosexual. LETTER FROM LA

"First of all, to correct the rumor that you have heard NO bar has had 66 arrests made in or around it since the opening for business, and this includes any bar or bars that have been arrested for 15 years and lays the cards on the table. He is the same another bar when he says that some operators give a damn about their customers and will allow them to place themselves in jeopardy. We bring to mind the 'D.Oak Room' of years back in San Francisco when there were more than 66 arrests or bars that were on the board without a single customer in sight. They were all downtown in the 7 Room. The owner was not at all disturbed when the PD cleared out the whole crowd because there would be a bar hopping new within the hour.

The writer of this letter has been active in the political field and knows where he speaks in this category.

Below are the arrest statistics for the period Sept. 30 to October 15 In San Francisco. The dates listed are the dates for initial appearance in court, therefore September 30 period would run from San Sept 29 to 6 AM Sept 30.

THE DAY LADY LIBERTY WEPT

On October 15, 1964 a little freedom disappeared from San Francisco. It was freedom-loving, jubilant, for the freedom was on defender of the poor, and generally found in Gov. Pat Brown allowed or possibly encouraged his hand-picked Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control to close the D'Oak Room.

There was never a bar in this city or elsewhere to have as constant and as conscientious supervision of its patrons as this place. The D'Oak Room never had the reputation of a pick-up spot; it was more of a pub than a bar. Yet three legal men with jumbo and high-handed tactics it was closed and a little of our heritage died on the night of the 15th of October.

We laugh when people of such caliber as Brown are speaking of freedom. They think we can't vote and do not remember that he, too, must run for re-election.

THE HOMOSEXUAL ETHIC AND LIVING WITH YOUR FELLOW MAN

Part 2—Desire and the Partnership

There is a saying that the beginning of a partnership which determines the whole future course of that relationship. How successful you are in building the partnership so that it will last and be beneficial, hinges on the way you display during the initial meeting.

With the first minutes to hours of a new friend, the average person attempts to show his best features. He naturally doesn’t want to display his faults lest he kill the friendship in its earliest stage. But when a person shows the world his character and presents an imitation, then there is trouble.

All too many persons present an imitation of the real self for others to see and look at. For the average public, this seldom presents any problem. They are not interested in those around you or to fellow employees at your work. Ever, you will undoubtedly end up with months, even years of explaining away, the suspicion left may never completely disappear. Even the liars remain like the ghost which lurks in everyone’s closet.

There is an important when forming a relationship with this one. It determines the design, governs the method by which you will enjoy your relations for as long as it lasts.

As an example, suppose that when you meet someone, you are aggressive, orderly, cooperative, happy and vary much in command of your esthetic. Fine. This is exactly what the other person is looking for in a friend. You may even need, but underneath, you are anything but this. You fail to provide the right product. You offer your goods and you fail to provide the right goods. You really think this is what you are? You should be ashamed of yourself. The leader knows at once what kind of a liar you are.

You presented your friend with one person and then suddenly, a few weeks later, let him meet the other real self. Or you like a life full of entertaining, at the best place in the city. For a few weeks, you new friend realizes that you can’t afford this, you may not even fit into his group because you lack the cultural background and education. Why? Because you are losing to a potential for entertainment to satisfy your new friend. You presented your friend with one person and then suddenly, a few weeks later, let him meet the other real self.

Or you like a life full of entertaining, at the best place in the city. Because you are losing to a potential for entertainment to satisfy your new friend. You presented your friend with one person and then suddenly, a few weeks later, let him meet the other real self.

The strength of the man is shown in doing, not in the talking. Red and green and you know little and care less about art. The street goes beyond his real character and presents an imitation, but you will not be better off to profess an interest in those things but admit you need training and help.

Admittedly, it is impossible to live a completely honest life. Dishonesty does not present itself, it is always so guiding principle for this kind of living.

Therefore, you can find no fault with those who removed the last issue of the ‘National News’ from their esthetic plans, as they will also grant us the right to accept advertisements from whomever who choose even if they are in competition to some of the plans of some of our friends.

The case in point was the removal of the ‘Citizens News’ from the shelves. As it removes the building and gives the shape to the friendship to be held at the horizon. Not for the average public, this seldom presents any problem. They are not interested in those around you or to fellow employees at your work.

The game begins from foolishly placed objectives. The most apparent is fidelity. For two people to swear fidelity, it is asking for an act. It can be achieved with work and not within one single day. turkey's...anything else that may make a person feel more at home in an absolutely square hospital should be taken to the Shack for Norman."

31. There were a few more tears for another place has hit the dust. It was formally called the Edgewater. Informally it was called the Bilgewater Hilton, The Kimball Hilton, and the East Wing of the Embarcadero YMCA. Possibly it was the latter that closed its door when the Y became such a notorious place.

32. Confirmed San Franciscans always say, "Don't ever let the sun set if you are in Oakland." But the Sutter Club there at 16th and Jefferson has seen more than a few on hand when the sun sets...and still some of them left when the sun comes up.

33. "We know that it would be nice to tell you of the various costumes, encourages, and stunts that are planned for Halloween but these secrets are more closely guarded than Ft. Knox which all go to prove that they can keep secrets even in bedrooms. So there Mary Edgar! But nevertheless it is possible to tell you what is going to be fun but the next issue of the CN will carry 6 or 8 pages of pictures of Halloween in San Francisco and in the issue following that will have pictures from Halloween in other major cities of the country. If such pictures are made available, CN will have photographers at all the major places in San Francisco. Copies of that issue will be available at the Bounty, The Tool Box, Mr. B's, Leo's, The Casa Blanca, The Sutter Club, The Hula Shack, Billings, The Hula Shack, Billings Almost Roundtable, and Leo's and a dozen or so newstands in San Francisco plus all the bars that regularly get the CN out of San Francisco. Single copies will be 50c each by mail and plans for the San Francisco '64 have been abandoned and money is now being refunded. The press run of those two issues will be in the vicinity of 8,000 in case you want a thousand or so copies better order NOW.

34. Been over to Billings Almost Roundtable? The Reason? Mc Millen is simple for Bill always has a back room full of nice people and they are always drinking coffee and eating goodies such as Ice Cream, Cake and so forth. Anyhow with this room full of nice people it is about to break friend Billings so he has made up a charge on the coffee and the only table in the place is almost round. There is nothing at all square in the place. Voila! Then it becomes the Almost Roundtable.

35. Naturally enough after the big affairs there is to be an exodus to the coffee shops in the neighborhoods and Mr. B is braced for the invasion from the Sheraton. Those big and delicious burgers will be ready, willing and able.

36. There have been some phone calls to the Palace by someone who is evidently opposed to the affair. Some of the voices have been recognized and could be most embarrassing to the stupid jerk. San Francisco is big but not stupid.

37. Viewing the Johnson Parade from the apartment of Mac Tee was a bevy of this town's favorites led by THE Michelle. Believe me there was more drag in that parade than in any other to my knowledge. The Simian Society were practically all in low and comic drag and set that scene looking at the price of monkeys so they can make a sort of pre-Halloween appearance in the Columbus. Day parade next year. Now if you will be sure to keep it a secret I will tell you that the Simian Society is in every parade.

38. Right after Halloween a run on monkeys is predicted in San Francisco.

See you at the balls!!!

WHAT THE ELECTION MEANS

It is generally conceded that the primary issue deciding the election was the morality issue. America is "sick and tired" of having someone or anyone looking into their bedroom; into their library; and into their private lives to approve or to disapprove. The Republican Party attempted to move into the field of private morality and was sorely and decisively beaten. Now is the time to press the point and demand that the state and the city also remove themselves from the field of private morality.

NEXT ISSUE: MORALITY AND THE GOP DEFEAT

THE LILTIN' HILTON

This year Halloween in San Francisco exceeded the wildest dreams of some of the old timers.

Who would have thought a few years back that the scene of the climax of Halloween would change from the front of the Black Cat to such places as the Hilton Hotel and the Sheraton Palace?

Far fewer people viewed the entrances and parades of the elegantly and not-so-elegantly dressed ladies and gentlemen who rode the escalators at the Hilton and walked with high dignity in the Garden Court of the Palace.

The affair at the Hilton was not an outstanding success except for those who came away with the prize money. The room there was so huge as to dwarf the five or six hundred people who turned out. This party was the victim of some irresponsible pre-party gossip about inability to give the prizes, police raids, and general bad-mouth.

The affair at the Palace was an outstanding success. The arrival of the participants was by way of escalators—one from the ground entrance to the first floor and then again from the first floor to the second floor.

Spectators lined the approaches to the ground entrance until a train drove all but the hardy away. At the top of the flights of the escalators there was a gathering of a goodly crowd of spectators, both from the local scene and regular guests of the hotel. At the landing on the third floor there was an even larger crowd swelled by the entire party of the Chinese Golfers Association who were having a dance. It was not an outstanding success since practically all of the Golfers kept busy on the outside admiring the arrivals to the Tavern Guild Ball.

Also swelling the attendance on that floor was one of the largest delegations of police since Johnson came to town. With about a dozen in uniform, including one Captain of Police, there was such a multitude of plain-clothes-police that the Y room was over-packed, and they could not all be seated to hear the announcement of the prize money.

The Washington Young Men's Christian Association closed the now famous T Room where Walter Jenkins met his Waterloo.

The manager of the Y made the announcement 5 days after the President's aide was arrested for making enticing motions to a doorman from the Old Soldier's Home.

According to Mr. Empleton, the manager, the closing is to be only temporary because,"after all, it is there for the convenience of the public," he said. It was this consideration that forced the reopening of the T Room more than a year ago after a two month shutdown. At that time the shutdown was made necessary because the room had become such a notorious gathering place for the deviates.

The room, in the basement of 1736 "G" Street NW is accessible only by way of the street-floor lobby and a flight of stairs.

While the police of the Morals Squad have reportedly found the men's room to be frequented by homosexuals, the manager said that he neither knew nor had any member of his staff ever discovered any such activity. Empleton said that his staff was under strict orders to report any such activity to him.

Empleton acknowledged that he knew of the peephole where the peep freaks had observed the room from time to time but he was unaware that any of the peep freak were—also policemen. "The peephole was not put there by us," he said.

Mr. Empleton has gone on record with the newspapers of Washington, D.C. that the T Room in his establishment is to be watched when it reopens in the future.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to notify all persons that the former photographer of the Citizens News has been fired for incompetence and gross negligence in that not one single shot of the 100 photos taken on Halloween was any good. He has therefore been banished in a condition described as UD, as a photographer.

The former official photographer was Guy Strait.
I - in the armed services do I repay the damage they have done...

Dave Heyler of the Hollywood Citizens News (a deviate hat was on one day unmentionable and abhorrent and then suddenly it was a coat and network and participation."

Then too it might well demonstrate and this is written before the results of the election are counted, how millions of Americans are either homosexuals themselves or who do not believe that this particular sexual expression is particularly contrary to the national welfare. It is definitely a fact now when charged out of the head of the FBI that a homosexual, per se, does not constitute a security risk. A big question is now raised: Since it has been proven that homosexuals are not capable of espionage and that a government which has mitigated and persecuted homosexuals in the armed service, does it mean that the enemy have done to the persons who have received undesirable discharges and suffered compelled celibacy.

Or is it merely a case of those homosexuals who know the President of the United States who shall be spared undesirable discharges.

Below are extracts from most of the papers of the United States. Practically every major paper in the country was read for the days following the outbreak of the scandal.

One of the strongest developments regarding the editorial comments around the country was the strange silence of Dave Heyler of the Hollywood Citizens News (a deviate hat of some repute). Not one editorial graced his pages even the he supposed to be a straight one."

The New York Post: "In times reminiscent of the darkest McCarthy hours, Gaddarz (an alleged security risk) has inculcated the very essence of the anti-communist position.""

Newsweek: "The Jenkins matter is only one more piece of evidence of an amoral climate which衬s over this government, the nation's capital, and measurable, the nation. This has been felt only once or twice before in our history."

Farrell, Connecticut: "The Walter Jenkins case sent a tremor through the political apparatus of both major parties in Connecticut. Both sides admitted it was a plus factor for the Republicans and a minus for the democrats."

SPEAKING OF INFAMOUS ROOMS

WHAT WE DO IN CHICAGO

by Ruby Landers

There is a multitude of new bars opening in Chicago. One that might be of interest to most people is "The Scarlet Ribbon." It is an attractive bar with a friendly manager. The best part is the dancing, but we never know how long that will last.

The latest bar to add to your list is "The Spanish." It is indeed a show place. The rooms are large with a balcony and a dance floor. Showplace features female impersonators. If you are in Chicago it is a must. Tony Highdown our foremost designeer of drag makes all the costumes for the place.

The Chesterfield Club was robbed this week during business hours. Two very attractive young women entered the club while 60 or more "men" were dancing there. The robbers were caught very nerveously. If two very attractive women showed up in your vicinity spending money like it is going out of style, be careful the next bar may be getting your money. One was spotted in between 135 and 145 pondoile. The other was the same description except with black hair.

Across the street from the Chesterfield is the Century Bank. Harry Horlick, the president, does not believe that the man who would steal from a bank would steal from a place.

Fresno, California - "My boys will lick your team," screamed the coach of the Orange Ogre. As they played the O.G. Old Aunties were hampered by the fabulous Orange Ogre world series of softballs, which they expected to win at Kearney Park in Fresno. The Chinkettes outlasted the Old Aunties and beat them by a score of 23 to 21. The Old Aunties were hampered by a dizzy, second baseman who donned opera length gloves and springlatter spikes. At the present time we are having no trouble with what Los Angeles calls "Baby blue skirts. (here it is calling the CPS) and we hope to keep it that way.

The City Council of New Orleans has closed the Village Inn at 345 Dauphine-by the owner of the premises and the premises cannot be used at that address for a full year.

JENKINS: Editorial comment around the country

Leedom said President Johnson "should have faced up to the situation" after Jenkins, his White House aide and long-time administrative assistant, was first arrested on a narcotics charge in 1959.

"County Democratic Chairman William H. Clark III described Jenkins as "an extremely capable worker, a fine man and a good American.""

Richard Morehead writing in the Dallas Morning News: "The Walter Jenkins case will have a devastating effect on President Johnson's campaign."

"President Johnson as quoted in the Washington Star: "Walter Jenkins has worked with me faithfully for 25 years. No man I know has given more personal dedication, devotion and tireless labor. Until late yesterday (Oct. 15), no information or report of any kind to me had ever raised the question with respect to his personal conduct..."

"Editorial in the Washington Star: "Sympathy must be the first reaction to the Walter Jenkins story..."

"Max Lerner writing in the New York Post: "What then becomes of the supposed unfolding "special vulnerability" of homosexuals to blackmail, and, therefore, their special weakness as security risks, is not an easily answerable question. The problem is now everyone's."

"The Walter Jenkins case is likely to have a profound political effect in the Dakotas, a region that has not voted for a Democrat in a Presidential election since 1936."

"Houston Post: "Whatever the security aspects of the case it is a personal tragedy for Jenkins, his wife, and six children, our deepest sympathy to them."

"Buffalo Courier Express: "As Mr. Jenkins and his family, only the self-righteous can fail to view their predicament without compassion. He is ill in the same sense as the alcoholic or the narcotics addict and must be treated as an ill person."

"Marquis Childs in the New York Post: "Walter Jenkins, with the help of a psychiatrist and a priest, is a devout Roman Catholic who has missed Sunday mass only once in his adult life."

Jealousy and the Partnership

If a survey were to be made of the top ten major causes for the breakdown of a partnership, jealousy would probably be right on top of the list. The reason for this is that the problem of forming a partnership is in itself a very long and arduous task. In most cases, a person does not have the necessary amount of patience or time to put into this kind of problem. The problem of maintaining a partnership is even more difficult. In most cases, the individual will be willing to give up his time and energy to form a partnership, but he is not willing to give up his time and energy to maintain a partnership. This is because in most cases, the individual does not have the necessary amount of patience or time to put into this kind of problem.

The attacks may have had nothing to do with his success or failure, but only an indication of the uncertainty you have in your mind. If you have a good understanding of many factors, jealousy need not exist. It exists only where you have rushed into an unwounded partnership, perhaps the kind based simply and only on infatuation, but it will grow to a point where you are not sure of your relationship. Jealousy also frequently occurs when the accomplishments of the other partner in the partnership are superior to your own. The reason being that a person with a high sense of pride is not likely to accept the idea that the other partner is more successful than he is. This is obviously far outdistanced.

If you build a friendship of a foundation based on many little qualities, which of the two will eventually strengthen, rather than weaken a friendship? The humble person realizes early in the new partnership that your partner can seemingly get along without you. Perhaps part of this can be attributed to the fact that in San Francisco they are totally unprepared, on their return, for the fact that nothing is gained through the rash action brought on by jealousy. He controls his pride, his hurt pride some- times when realizing he must share his partner with some- one, he stops feeling jealous and with this change, he bal­ ance a half dozen supplied by the partner. Without your contact, stars may come to the partner's mind and the partner may feel sorry for you. In order to remove the cloud of the partner's mind, he or she may do a little better, let us examine several different kinds of jealousy.

There is the jealousy that grows when a person who covets a partner fails because he lacks any or very few of the qualities which slip out to undeote that success and the lack of the qualities which slip out to undeote that. These small indications of jealousy may or may not be observed by the parties. Many people have made a fool of himself at a dinner by his attacks on his friend. The humble characteristic which is not present in the adult. To know this, it is necessary to comprehend our complex personalities. The problem of maintaining a partnership is even more difficult. In most cases, the individual will be willing to give up his time and energy to form a partnership, but he is not willing to give up his time and energy to maintain a partnership. This is because in most cases, the individual does not have the necessary amount of patience or time to put into this kind of problem.

It is possible to love a person and still be very Jea­ lousy. Beware of strangling your partnership by closing the doors against the outside world. It is up to you to make that other individual suf­ fer. It is a fine sense of humor and cordiality; Which of the two will the problems of forming a partnership? More on Jenkins (Continued from page 4)

"This is the town where it's "McCarthyism" to mention what everybody knows: that homosexuals at the State Department since the days of Sumner Welles and as recently as the communication of Cuba has been a national disgrace and a swelling disaster."

Betty Beale writing in the Washington (D.C.) Evening Star of sympathetic messages said, "Not the least of these messages was a verbal one that came to his (Jenkins) sickroom at the hospital with a bouquet of flowers. The message with the flowers came to him only with the understanding that he show the card to everyone who came to his room." The card read--J. Edgar Hoover."

The Chicago Daily News Service said, "The Walter Jenkins case has not hurt President Johnson's standing with the voters, according to the latest polls rushed to the White House."

Syndicated columnist William S. White: "Campaigns of surging bitterness do dreadful things to men's values. They have done this today, in the spectacle of Goldwater shirking off as a mere slight acquaintance the man who for years served shoulder to shoulder with him, as both a friend and full colonel, in the Reserve unit with Goldwater as a major general commands. This mere slight acquaintance, a lose senior yellow officer, is Walter Jenkins."

"In the Boston Traveler: "One of the first public expressions of sympathy and compassion came in a statement from Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, who said her heart ached for Jenkins and his family, friends of the Johnsons for many years."

In the Minneapolis Star: "What a sad commentary on American politics it would be if this year's presidential election were to be decided on the basis of the Jenkins case."

James J. Kilpatrick writing for Newsday Services, "My guess, for whatever it may be worth, is that the Jenkins affair will carry a deciding weight with a great many voters who have turned up in the polls as 'undecided.'"

"Not in danger: The Minneapolis Star quoting an AP dispatch: "President Johnson is hospitalized. We do feel compassion for him and in a quieter time, we should like to comment on the absurdity of laws that make voluntary homosexual acts between adults a criminal offense. In a more tolerant society, Jenkins would not have been arrested at all." (CHR Editors Note: The Richmond News Leader did not support Johnson for President.)

Not only did San Francisco have these two huge affairs, but several others were in progress at the same time, including the regular bar celebrations. The other top affairs were held at The Gilded Cage and The Chukkers.

The Gilded Cage affair was emceed by the top entertainers in San Francisco-Charles Pierce and Rio Dante.

The Chukkers was easily found on Halloween because of a searchlight secured for the occasion by the indomitable Carlos who took this occasion to open a new huge room in his place called "The Headhunters Room." This will remind many of the old place Carlos had down on the Embarcadero.

Conveyances were not one of the big attractions this year altho the H'burners did arrive all in Red in a East Bay Transit Bus. Cadillacs were the order of the day with uniformed drivers. One of the top attractions of the night however arrived in a convertible as his own driver together with his 24" escort this naturally being one of the showmen of San Francisco-Franklin. He was so unusual that even the CN was unaware of his identity until several hours had lapsed.

Herb Caen-sometime reporter on the scene has said in his column that the best costume award was made to a woman who is an entertainer at one of the local spots in the city. Might be but she was hardly convincing, for the most convincing was not a woman.

The San Francisco Chronicle wrote the story up in a fair manner but continued the old wives tale that the wearing of the dress of the opposite sex is a misdemeanor. It is decidedly unhealthy with all the trouble in town but hardly illegal.

But San Francisco has not seen much of a Halloween before and altho different from the years before the Tavern Guild Ball was undoubtedly the most outstanding event of the day. Was the election issue decided on the basis of "Better fruits than nuts?"

SYGPHILIS IS NO CAMP

Syphilis still kills a minimum of about 4,000 persons a year. It costs $2,000,000 a year to maintain those who have been blinded by syphilis. The loss of income by men with advanced syphilis is conservatively estimated at $100,000,000 a year.

It costs $46,000,000 a year for hospitalization of syphilitic psychotics.

There are currently 4,000 veterans in VA hospitals suffering from syphilitic psychoses. The VA estimates the cost of care for these patients will average $60,000 each.

Of untreated syphilis, one on two hundred will become blind one in fifty will become severely mentally ill one in twenty-five will become severely handicapped, and one in fifteen will suffer severe heart disease.

All of them will suffer these things because they failed to go to their public health clinic for a checkup.

Remember-Venereal Disease is no camp.
