CASTRO ANTI-HOMO

Havana - Homosexuality has become "an alarming political and social matter" in Cuba, a leading newspaper of Premier Fidel Castro's Government warned.

In an article titled "Revolution and Vices," El Mundo of Havana said that sexual deviates were blatant in Cuban cities and had infiltrated intellectual and art life.

The article singled out the ballet and suggested it was better to disband some dance troupes than to tolerate them as known centers of immorality.

Homosexuals are conspicuous in some neighborhoods of Havana, particularly the part of 23d Street known as La Ramps (The Ramp), leading from the waterfront to the Havana Libre Hotel, formerly the Havana Hilton. They also congregate in some numbers in parts of Santiago de Cuba.

A homosexual scandal in the Havana Art Academy earlier this year led to a faculty reshuffle. A foreign leftist writer who visited Cuba some time ago was expelled on charges of homosexuality.

At an international theatrical congress in Havana last year a participant from Britain caused an uproar when he unsuccessfully proposed a motion to condemn "persecution" of homosexuals.

El Mundo described homosexuality as a legacy of capitalism. The newspaper quoted Premier Castro as having said that "the countryside does not produce homosexuals" and that sexual deviation was a big-city phenomenon.

The article commented: The virility of our peasantry does not permit that abominable vice. But in some of our cities it is rampant. There, homosexuals unite and form a clan.

BIG CN

Effective with this issue of the Citizens News it becomes a monthly publication, distributed on the 15th of each month. In line with this new frequency of publication, it becomes larger and naturally the cover price is increased.

When the CN first began publication it was a 12-page publication with an intended circulation in the Bay Area of San Francisco. Since that time it has grown and has carried feature stories from all over the world and is read in most of the English-speaking countries of the world.

Plans are now in execution to put the Citizens News on the news stands in most of the United States. In order that the publication have sufficient time on the stands it is necessary to make it monthly. The increase in price (Continued on Page 2) is made necessary because of the increase in postal charges and because there is no longer a 1 ounce package. This issue weighs exactly two ounces and the postage for first class is 10c.

Therefore the subscription price must be increased accordingly. Effective with this issue the yearly subscription rate for the Citizens News will be $4.00 for 12 issues sent first class. Since it is the intention of the CN to be sold on newsstands, it will be necessary for us to secure a second class mailing permit, until that permit is secured we will ship bulk packages of the news to bars and to newstands by third class mail. Therefore subscriptions by second class mailing permit, until that permit is secured will expire on that date but will receive both of the publications until that time.

We hope this new frequency of publication and the addition of the CN and WP will give our readers a better value for their dollar.

NATIONAL POLICE WEEK

A policeman's lot is not a happy one.
Gilbert and Sullivan

National Police Week was observed throughout the nation from May 9 to May 15 when the CN presents in this issue a special Police Page. Here in SF our Chief of Police, our Mayor and our Governor all despaired the public's lack of respect for the Law and for Lawmen.

According to one California legislator, nearly 3 attacks per day are launched against SF police. But one wonders how many of these attacks were provoked by the brave SF hairdresser who was arrested and had his case dismissed but brought a suit for false arrest, for battery and assault against a SF policeman who was on trial incidently for attempted robbery.

But the police blame the courts for all their woes accusing the courts of being too lenient and too zealous in protecting the constitutional rights of citizens. One SF policeman recently resigned from the force giving this reason. But it seems to us that the fault does not lie with the police. The police may ask the courts to enforce laws that are generally admitted to be unenforceable, specifically our Sex Laws. The second source of trouble for the police rises when they fail to respect the constitutional rights of privacy, of assemblage, of free speech, etc.

The most recent case in which our local courts have ruled against the courtesy of the copless swimmers in the tourist night-clubs of San Francisco's North Beach area. The police maintain that the male's underwear and male nancies are A-OK., but the female's overdeveloped mamaries are obscene. And the courts disagreed. So the girls are back at work bouncing like beebees all over the North Beach.

The results have not been so happy in another recent celebrated case in our local courts. You will recall on New Year's Day at the benefit ball for the Council on Religion and the Homosexual, three attorneys were arrested for interfering with the police. At the jury trial, the court instructed the jury to return a verdict of Not Guilty -- which they did.

But the police have not -- repeat not -- relented in their campaign of harassment of homosexuals. As reported in the last issue of the CN, of the 84 arrests in February and March, 27 of them were dismissed at the initial hearing. And during the same period of 29 trials, 11 were dismissed. Surely the police are over-zealous when at least 1/3 of their arrests are dismissed at the initial hearings, and more than 1/3 are dismissed at trial.

What can you do to force the police to desist from harassment? One suggestion to be considered is the course of action taken by the Civil Rights Movement and the Free Speech Movement that has emerged at our universities. These movements have achieved notable success. When the "due processes of Law" have failed to bring the desired result, one resorts to Civil Disobedience.

Respect the Law? Yes, but only when the laws are in keeping with the dignity of man. Respect the Lawmen? Yes, but only when they respect Constitutional rights! And when Due Process fails, we resort to Civil Disobedience, or in this case specifically Sexual Disobedience.

It is a commonplace that the large majority of American people are, by our present laws, sex criminals, freely indulging in pre-marital sex, in extra-marital sex, in homosexual acts and in forbidden types of marital sex. Anyone who has indulged in any of these is a sex criminal! But to repeat, when Due Process fails we have no recourse except sexual disobedience. We cannot of course advocate a campaign of Tea-Room Sit-Ins, nor bacchanalian orgies in the parks. But in San Francisco's Tenderloin, the Hair Fairies, when they are arrested and dragged to the paddy wagons by the police, can "go limp" just like the famous Sit-Ins in the historical City Hall anti-HUAC demonstration or the UC students at the recent Sproul Hall shindig. And the drag queens can have tremendous benefit balls! The leather crowd with the bikes can organize a big state-wide run converging on the capitol in Sacramento! And the great majority of us, drab colorless types can just carry on like Faust! How about it? Shall we start a Sexual Disobedience Movement. It's really no big thing. Everyone does it all the time anyway!

TWO IMPORTANT THINGS

First, as Dr. Martin Luther King has frequently pointed out, those who practice Disobedience for their conscience' sake, must be prepared to pay the price—to go to jail, just like Henry David Thoreau, the grandpappy of Civil Disobedience and like Ghandi, his follower, and latterly Dr. King, Nobel Laureate.

Second, and even more important than going to jail, let's not forget that Sex reform is not exclusively a homosexual movement. The reform of our sex laws will benefit heterosexuals just as much as homosexuals. After all, in England the movement was started by the Church. In the US, the American Law Institute which drew up the Model Penal Code is not-repeat not a homosexual organization. Finally in New York, SIECUS (Sex Information and Education Council of the United States) is not homosexual either. It would be a serious tactical mistake to start a Sexual Disobedience Movement that was exclusively gay. The Straight crowd too must demonstrate. More blankets on the beaches, more wife-swapping parties in the suburbs, bigger bosoms in topless swim suits in the North Beach. OK? Let's have a ball.
ACTS OF GOD
The earthquake in Anchorage destroyed all the gathering spots there but so far this year the casualties that have been so frequent have had no effect.

The only casualty at Seattle was the big mirror at the Pike Street Tavern. It fell during the shake there.

The fire at Clinton, Illinois and at Minneapolis have not hurt a single ladder drinking spot; and the floods there were considerably dampered the haunts along the reaches of the Mississippi River. If they lost practically all favor in the eyes of the younger generation the haunts of days of yore, but at the Pike Street Tavern.

DENVER
All the older types in Denver will visit the big scene of days of yore but otherwise there is no permanent damage.

TOO MUCH
We have heard of entrapment and enticement and under-cover men of all kinds but don't you think it was going a little far when the FBI puts a man with each of the vehicles of the KKK to dercover men of all kind - Cream parlor. What has happened and as the years passed, it lost practically all favor in the eyes of the younger generation the haunts of days of yore - has gone. But Denver will visit the big scene of days of yore, but the older types will visit the big scene of days of yore but the haunts of days of yore - has gone. But Denver will visit the big scene of days of yore, but the older types will visit Circa 1890, and that is the name Circa 1890 (In the days of yore) is a favorite of the customers. The ordinary crowd there is the young business executive type and the other better established ones of our city of all ages. On the weekend there is a waiting line to get in.

The Woodward Plane Bar is just usually called the Woodward. It compares in some respects to the Red Hen in Los Angeles and ordinarily caters to the younger (25-25) years. The Club 1011 is quite popular with a broad cross section of types but not a favorite of the customers of either the Circa or the Woodward. Some Independent money-types but go all through the place.

Even in Portland

The Portland scene has begun to look muggy and with rumors flying here and there about the closing of the old time bars in that City. It was beginning to look like as if this year's Rose Festival Parade in June was going to be the worst in years with half the participants making Seattle and San Francisco during the week of the Festival.

All this was due to a cleanup drive by City Fathers on what they described as 'homosexual' hangouts. A great number of the homosexual hangouts in Portland such as the Stirrup Room of the Multnomah Hotel and the Bar at the Benson Hotel, but the Old Tel and Tel. The Harbor and the Tavern were closed for some few days. But the Rose Festival will not be a complete flop this year because it was only a temporary closing for these places and they are now open. Oregonian Law is something of a peculiar nature, for the place are open on a state beer license but no longer serve hard liquor.

(Homosexuals can drink beer but much as the old Indians-they are strictly second-class citizens.)

OKLAHOMA
MONEY MAKING IN OKLAHOMA.
That you can't receive the case by the Supreme Court of the State of Oklahoma is not the fault of the justices. There were no trials there. They have been extremely profitable. Three of the judges of the Supreme Court tried by the Senate of that state for taking bribes. One of the judges has gone out as a collector in the cases and then retired to his fellow justices. But he was a lousy crook, for after he received a $150,000 payment for a tax case he gave one of his fellow justices only $10,000 of the boodle. Who said anything about honor among thieves?
QUESTIONS PLEASE

The CN will attempt to answer questions of readers. Any question on medical or legal matters will be only generally answered. Keep the words down to a minimum.

Q: Is Strait your real name?
A: I was born in Dallas, Texas on March 25, 1920. You can check the birth certificate if you wish. We have no wish to take your word for it.

Q: Tell me the steps I should take to keep from being arrested.
A: The prime reason for most arrests is very simple; you are not tucking in your nobby blue skirts and then if you have any doubt ask yourself 'what do you want to have done in bed?' If you can get witness then it is better. If he refuses then tell him to get lost.

Q: How much of an advantage is it in California to be a registered homosexual?
A: The only advantage I can think of is that you are sure to end up in the女王's row in San Bruno when you are arrested. It is impossible to 'register' as a homosexual in possession on the streets of any device 'with a sharp edge or point that may be used as a weapon'. This presumably means nail files, etc. The whole essence of this law is not to be dismissed so easily. It is something like the anti-Communist oath: those who are real communists do not mind swearing to anything and those who are not object. With switch-blades those who are going to carry them don't give a particular damn what the law is for they know it is unenforceable.

Q: With the change in laws would you prefer Illinois to California? Dw-III.
A: As a matter of purely personal prejudice I will not live in Illinois. But if there was a state of comparable weather to California I would move there.

Q: Is the CN a democratic paper?
A: Hell no! We print what we damn well please. The only time we print anything else is when a reader differs with our policy on a matter. If you mean is the staff democrats, the answer is still 'Hell no!' We are as independent as a hog on ice.

IS IT HOT IN DETROIT TODAY

We continue to hear of a heat wave in Detroit. A close check does not reveal any organized fuss over attacks but we did discover that it is now illegal in Detroit to be in possession on the streets of any device 'with a sharp edge or point that may be used as a weapon'. This presumably means nail files, etc. The whole essence of this law is not to be dismissed so easily. It is something like the anti-Communist oath: those who are real communists do not mind swearing to anything and those who are not object. With switch-blades those who are going to carry them don't give a particular damn what the law is for they know it is unenforceable.

The newspaper stressed that the Castro revolution would fight vice until it was wiped out in Cuba. The article declared that "no homosexual represents a threat of revolution," and "a movement of he-men." El Mundo said that the revolution was a "new moral and social order," and that it would break the "ancient traditions and prejudices of the colonial era." The article declared that "the revolution is a movement of the masses," and that it would "free the people from the yoke of the old order." The article went on to say that the revolution was "a new beginning," and that it would "free the people from the shackles of the past." The article ended with the words "Long live the revolution!"

OUR LADY OF THE HIWAYS

By Gary Tom

Of me introduce myself, I am known as "Our Lady of the Hiways" in the minds of our readers. It may be because of my constant traveling throughout the six-state region.

May I put in a plug for Boston? I've read with interest for some time the cases of the raids, harassment and arrest of homosexuals in other cities.

When I am in Boston I have been accused of being a "loose-cannon" on the streets. In the many years I have been following the Boston bars only one has been closed. It was for dancing violations.

I can't understand why we are so free of troubles with the police. I am thankful that we are free of this kind of harassment.

May I extend an invitation to the readers of the CN to come and see about us in our area when they come to visit. Merely address a letter to Our Lady of the Hiways, 4 Citizens News Box, 792, San Francisco.

Nearby is the Promenade and the benches were doing a thriving business even (or especially) at 3 AM. All this due to the closing of so many places on Manhattan.

Brooklyn Heights certainly is a very wild and lively community.

May I extend an invitation to the readers of the CN to come and see about us in our area when they come to visit. Merely address a letter to Our Lady of the Hiways, 4 Citizens News Box, 792, San Francisco.

KANSAS CITY

One of the bright spots in a city that boasts a slogan, "You can't miss Kansas City," is the attitude of live and let live that has ruled in the instant of entertainment, whether it be in the form of dance, music, theatre, or bars for some time.

With this atmosphere a group of bars has evolved in the worth-while. The shows are moderately priced. The Yum Yum Room, very congenial. It is at another bar that makes a boast of its homophile organizations has withdrawn its activity from that of the current crop of 'gay Muslims' and has taken a forceful step to regain the rightful place for that organization in the big scheme of the large city things are different. The irresponsibility of the tenants of the old building turned to normalcy things happened to the organization. The Homophile Quarterly had become not only phony but completely boring.

The police blotter is in the making for ONE and the old phony pseudo-scientific hogwash of the gay muslims has been flushed down the drain.

However a delay in the publication of the magazine may develop for a week or so. The Citizens News has offered Mr. Slater the use of its pages to impart any message he wants to his readers.
It was Friday, April 23, 1965 when the great liberal mayor who was elected on the basis of his past record of liberality, jumped off the Golden Gate Bridge, figuratively and politically.

There had been rumblings that this great liberal was suicide prone and his actions in the town of San Francisco, often spoke of Religion and the Homosexual dance. January 1st, should have given his backers an insight into his sick, sick mind. In this action he probably lost only from 15,000 to 20,000 votes. And this vote was lost regardless who ran against him.

Then there were other hints of the big control measure. Our great and liberal leader for action, an Irish Catholic and his liberal background does not include any mention of planned parenthood other than old-fashioned way of abstinence.

Then came the TOPLESS.

A priest from Saint Peter and Paul's had stirred up some little stink regarding a situation in North Beach. The good father plus several of his parishioners said that crime was rampant in that entertainment district. He said that rampant prostituting, prostitution and homosexuality was rampant there. He said that the Swim is all right—but places that the Swim is all right—but not the places that the crime rate was extremely low.

But Capt. Narca, in charge of Northers, said that there was not a crime wave in North Beach and that for the number of people who congregated the rate was extremely low.

But Capt. and the Examiner were not to be denied their pound of flesh, and they pressed our great and liberal leader for action.

On Friday April 23, 1965, at an alum banquet at the University of San Francisco said, "As of nine o'clock to night, certain invasions are taking place along the waterfront to inform those places that the Swim is all right—but only with a top.

And then our great and liberal leader made the joke of the big control measure. Our great and liberal leader refuted the claims of the San Francisco Police Department minus Buckman and Polanski. They could not get in on the raids because they were in the jail charged with conspiracy to commit robbery."

And so the forces of moral decency (in case you didn't know this is the San Francisco Police Department minus Buckman and Polanski), charged into those establishments along Broadway, there to arrest a handful of girls and the owners of the establishments for displaying their marvelous glandular structure. (The girls, not the owners.)

To all writing of these raids it has been a tremendous temptation to refer to those girls by their four-letter name, but everyone has been stuck with bosoms.

And then a later raid took care of those places not so favored with the first raids.

And then there was the noon-time nude arrest.

The owners and the girls had been taken away to Cahill's Castle, our new legal loophole, where by arrangement you can have Nick the Greek (of our 'Nighthawks') bring you up a filet of Mignon for each and every meal if you wish.

Immediately after the raids the Republicans of San Francisco shouted praise for our great and liberal leader for in this action he had just done himself at the polls next year. It is conceded that if the Republicans' run Golyday chance.

The customers at the places where the innocent little girls had been displaying their silicon-enhanced structures shouted, "We want girls," but there were no girls, with or without tops available.

One woman, dripping in mainspring took to it herself, until she was restrained by her escort. Another woman bright to pick it up, "Don't care San Francisco police like girls?"

Businessmen of San Francisco held their breath because on the coast close to San Francisco police such a thing could make a difference in the annual take. The general public thought and openly said, "Shelley is through."

One member of the young Republicans started a recall movement against our great leader for action on the birth of all ground; that our liberal leader partakes sometimes too freely of that noble-joy-scotch. The TRIALS

Prior to the opening of the trials our great and noble, liberal mayor had the Assistant Deputy Chief of Police appear before the legislature-committee investigating an alleged necessity for covering the bosoms of the entertainers. There the representatives of the great and noble leader refuted the claims of his station captain and said the crime rate was as he had said elsewhere.

It was headlined (In that leader of morality was headlined) that our liberal leader partakes sometimes too freely of that noble-joy-scotch. Our liberal leader refuted the claims of his station captain and said the crime rate was as he had said elsewhere.

And then our great and noble leader refuted the claims of his station captain and said the crime rate was as he had said elsewhere.

The trials provided copy for the daily papers and one of the most entertaining of all the cases the court has seen in many months. It was tried with no witnesses. The defense called no witnesses. "The test is not what a couple of people feel. No police officer can substitute his personal feelings of what is right and wrong. Such a test must include the young and the old, the religious and the irreligious, the educated and the uneducated."

Judge Friedman went on to say, "This is a free country. I think we have a right to pick and choose what we want to read and to see. No one's pulling anyone's arms to drag them into those places in North Beach."

Judge Lazarus was hearing the other case and was bound somewhat by his impending elevation to Superior Court to side with the 'establishment' still directed the jury to bring back a verdict of "Not Guilty."

Alibi also has been cleared of wrongdoing by a jury, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control has announced an intention to further harass the owners of these establishments by accusing them of "operating in a manner contrary to the public welfare and morals." Mel Betti (GF-Jack Ruby fame), counsel for the "Off Broadway" said, "Hallinan (defense for the Condor) and I will move into court with so many writs it will look like snow falling over there," and the ABC appears to be going ahead so we may see a battle worth while.

WHERE WAS BROWN?

"Patsy" Brown our great and liberal governor seems to have disappeared and has continued 'hands off' except for a remark in San Francisco, and then he put his foot in it saying, "I guess I'm a prude." We are fast to agree and the San Francisco Chronicle did so editorially.

YOU'RE NOT MY TYPE!

(From the HOMOSEXUAL HANDBOOK by Guy Strait)

Perhaps the greatest misunderstanding that the general public has about homosexuals is their sexual habits.

Ask any cop in the land and he will tell you if two homosexuals meet it is the beginning of a sex orgy.

Ask any blue-nose and he will tell you that two homosexuals in private means a Sodom and Gomorrah. Nothing could be further from the truth - as a matter of fact one of the biggest problems facing the homosexual is the meeting and mating with someone who will make a suitable sex partner.

There are two expressions that may cover the situation:

"Everyone to his own taste, as the man said when he kissed the cow." (Continued on Page 14) bed with the others. They just aren't their type.

A type then is a person who appeals either to your sense of gender; your sense of sexuality and above all public who knows the personality of what you are looking for in a sexual mate.

Some homosexuals prefer the younger, slimmer and effect if not affirmance;

Some prefer older, more mature, possibly middle aged men;

Some prefer the personification of the rough and tumble lumberjack and the lumberjack oftimes wants a 'tough, swashbucklyairy.

What accounts for this taste in sex partners? For this we must refer you to the head-shrinkers but you must understand that they are probably the most confused of all in this matter. I do believe they may be able to tell an individual what dictates his own preference on a very general basis.

MATTACHINE PICKETS WHITE HOUSE

The Washington Mattachine has picketed the White House.

This organization in protest to the inequality of treatment received by homosexuals from the U.S. government has mounted a picket line and on April 17 there were ten men and three women from that organization carrying picket signs on Pennsylvania Avenue.

While the demonstration was precipitated by the announcement of a speech by Governor George C. Wallace of Alabama, it is the opinion of the organization that the New Deal never had it so rough.

CUBA'S GOVERNMENT PERSECUTES HOMOSEXUALS

U.S. and Cuban emissaries in the last two days have been unable to reach agreement on the presence of homosexuals in labor camps in Cuba.

The signs that were carried by the pickets read:

FIFTEEN MILLION U.S. HOMOSEXUALS PROTEST FEDERAL TREATMENT

CUBA'S GOVERNMENT PERSECUTES HOMOSEXUALS! U.S. GOVERNMENT BEAT THEM TO IT.

We want: Federal Employment for homosexuals. Security clearances. A place to work.

GOVERNOR WALLACE'S TREATMENT

We demand the firing of Governor George C. Wallace.

WE WANT: FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT FOR HOMOSEXUALS

LABOR CAMPS - NO!

Demonstrations are so huge at the White House in these troubled times, it becomes necessary to ration space in front of the House.

In answer to the Mattachine's call, the police of Washington assigned the Mattachine Society a big area of sidewalk centrally located in front of the WH. Police behavior and protection were fully satisfactory; letters of commendation were sent to the Mattachine House and to the Metropolitan Washington Police.

The onlookers were interested and only a few hostile remarks were made in the course of the demonstration. A great number of pictures were taken of the signs and of the demonstrators.

One paper was on hand and carried the big story because of the large element involved the big Washington papers were not alerted.

NY MATTACHINE PICKETS

And then in New York, a demonstration was carried out on the United Nations property, on the 18th of April. Altho the demonstrations were independent of each other, a very close liaison has been under way for some time and the planning was much the same as had been previously discussed for protests of this sort. No ill effects were felt from either demonstrations and new attacks are planned on the very harsh and unwarranted treatment of the homosexual by the federal government.

NEW ORLEANS CLEANUP RAGES

They're going to clean up New Orleans even if it means burning it down...

Jim Garrison, the man to stop the rip-off, has let down a little after the big Mardi Gras doings as an admission of a little relaxing after all the tourists have departed and just before the deluge begins at the first of June. Not so this year because the big cleanup campaign starts in the air and he is busy riding a white horse with a lance-spear every-where and fairy who gets anywhere on the streets.

Now he has taken after those places, who by mere tradition were playing the part, by attempting to lure customers in their digits. This has been going on ever since LaFitte first settled down in the French Quarter. But with our boy Garrison it must stop. So will bank de posits but then vice will be gone.

Another new deal is to furnish a cop with less-than-21 identification and have him make it clear that he is a minor-then, for instance, have him act as a cabbie where he can make his living.

Natural ly the charge is heavier for telling a minor where it is for someone who is of legal age.

Then New Orleans has a specially trained corps of queer-impersonators.

The last little cute story is that Frick was to send that special corps of fruitcakes into a gay bar as college students investigating homosexuality.

The homosexual community has for the past several years opened up to students and investigators from the universities of the country. When they opened up to those phony fru Ites they were arrested for a mix of offenses normally, obscenity of the speech, vagrancy and with a law and licentious person selling an alcoholic beverage outlet.

Also arrested was one for 'interfering with an officer.' This interference is the common form of interfering with the people who were being interviewed by the phony-fruits that it was necessary to arrest them. We are sure that this will be duly recorded in M. H. Introducing fruitcakes into the schools, with their knowledge of offenses, is interference and assault with officers.

Two of the other offenses need explanation to persons accustomed to American Constitutional law.

It is there where the Negro has long

Tell Tale Tattoos

(From the New York Daily News)

Yesterday a lighted cop from Suffolk County delivered a paper on tattoos to a policemen's convention here and the Health Department sent an inspector to question him on what he knows. The city health board has been very much interested in the basis that the electric needles, whose coils make them hard to sterilize, have triggered epidemics of serum hepatitis and leprosy.

(Editors Note: We have checked with our local Syphils A Go Go, down at 33 Hunt Street and they tell us it seems to be exceedingly unlikely if not impossible on the syphilis angle.)

"The young cop... came up with a definite link between tattooing and sexual behavior, especially homosexual behavior and sex offenses. The more masculine the tattoo, the found, the less masculine the bearer, and he adds that he's running into real hostility from tattooed cops.

The psychiatrist and the cop agree that the vast majority of prisoners with the words "True Love" tattooed on their knuckles are active homosexuals. The more so the words 'I Hate Cops,' "Born to Lose," and "Born to Edgar Hoover's statistics are favoring tattoos more than ever these days, but is favoring tattoos more than ever these days, but . . ."

been the underdog it has been necessary to assuage a body of law to keep them under the thumb. Vagrancy laws are passed by persons in our government who want to be able to trash anyone in jail on a whim and are enforced by half-assed officers who are not familiar with their jobs. Or, worse still, want to enforce their own moral or economic code on every person in the country.

These laws are carried over from the days when 'niggers, queers, indians, and dogs' were expected to stay in their place. A new organization is being formed in New Orleans to combat this attitude on the part of the public servants in that area. The ON will transmit the name of anyone interested in such organization in that area to the proper persons.

CRAFT FOR THE GGRC-FRONTIER FIESTA

Down in Southern California where Hollywood created the grand way of doing things, the GGRC and the Frontier Fiesta have combined to offer a unique mid-summer treat to the populace. On June 26, the King Neptune will leave for an ocean cruise lasting from 9 AM til 1 AM.

There will be dancing and drinking and shipboard acquaintances. The price of the cruise is $8.50 per person and reservations must be made by June 5th with checks or money orders addressed to Ray Harrison, 8830 Harrat, Los Angeles, California. The reservations must include the names of the passengers.

+++ The Plush Doggie in SF is one of those places we expect to see in any city of the country - you know them as hot dog palaces. Here the meat market has an extremely close proximity in fact it is there in front. Now the Plush has suffered mightly from the gay trade. They have suffered so badly they are still in business, otherwise they would have had to close their doors many months ago. For some of these months they employed a private eye who was at his height of glory in shaking down a nelly queen or a drunk sailor.

FROM THE SICK, SICK, SICK, SICK, SICK DEPARTMENT OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

It is indicative of the way some of these people will rationalize acts of their own, or of others, in the attempt to rid the country of Communists. To these people the ends justify the means and no lie is too far-fetched or too vicious if they but accomplish their goal: The complete subjugation of the American people to their idea of Christ.

Some of the allegations of this particular sheet look as if they had been taken from the textbooks of Buchenwald. About the only thing worse than a Communist is a Homosexual to these people.

Some readers may ask, Well how could a German soldier who was hard fighting U.S. Troops have died fighting Communism. For those who have not taken the time to look behind the screen of Jewish Censorship we will briefly explain this statement. Our Government was during the 1940's controlled almost completely by the Jew-Communist Conspiracy as it is today. By this control the U.S. Ship of State was conveniently maneuvered into W.W. II by (1) Giving Japan an ultimatum which made it impossible for her to save face by any other means than to attack. (2) Setting up the Pearl Harbor Naval Base with most of the capital ships of our Pacific Fleet in order to make it a tempting target for the Japanese Navy.

And so with the German Army only 11 miles from Moscow on December 6, 1941, and the Sataonic Jew's Tool for world control practically smashed, he pulls an evil master stroke and is able to throw the growing military power of the U.S. against his main obstacle for Global Rule, Nazi Germany. Most of us know the rest of the story. Although she fought gallantly for almost five years, little Germany was no match for the overwhelming production of the U.S. plus being bled white by the tremendous loss of men to the countless Asiatic Hordes that make up the Red Army.

The U.S. saved World Communism from certain destruction by Nazi Germany, and now we face the same Red Monster. Only it is one hundred times larger and more powerful. Let us see if we can do as good a job in trying to stop these Red Hordes controlled by the Jews of the World. As our Christian Brothers that we were deceived into fighting. The millions of sons of the mothers who received their lives trying to save the Christian World from being wiped off the face of the earth by The Red Beast of Jew-Communism. The Christian medal with the simple inscription Der Deutschen Mutter. (The German Mother) was given to millions of German mothers whose sons were killed fighting the Communist Conspiracy.

Yes you can be sure that this beautiful medal with its royal blue * Christian Cross with a background of white and gold represents one of the millions of brave German soldiers who their lives trying to save the Christian World from being wiped off the face of the earth by The Red Beast of Jew-Communism. SOCIETY FOR INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS:
FULL SPEED AHEAD FOR HOMOS RIGHTS

On May 17th this writer visited an open meeting of the Society for Individual Rights (SIR). This meeting was open to the general public and was an eye opener to a great number of people—including yours truly.

SIR was founded about 15 months ago with a mere handful of dedicated people who were dissatisfied with the organizational structure of all other groups in the field of homophile reform study.

On May 17th they had about 250 persons there to hear the reports of coming events and a frank discussion of current homosexual problems by Marie Angell.

Miss Angell was one of the very few counselors in the business who really know what human sexuality actually is, and is capable of translating that vast knowledge into advice and comfort for her patients.

Undoubtedly one of the most impressive things about SIR is their confidence in their ability to do something constructive about the second-class citizenship awarded to the homosexual by an uninformed political and social structure.

I was able to glance at a semi-confidential report issued by SIR to its membership. I have seen a number of this type report wherein there is a plea for more money, more participation, more of almost everything and was fully prepared to see the same thing. But this one was entirely different. The accomplishments of SIR are down-not boastful but as a matter of fact; The needs of SIR were outlined—not as a plea but more as a matter of fact; and I would appreciate knowing what some of these needs are.

The shortcomings of SIR were not soft-peddled in the report but were mentioned forcefully and factually. If nothing else had been informative then this report was.

However the type of people who were in attendance at the SIR meet were more than impressive. All too often the type attracted to this sort of meeting are of the older, more intense group. But at this meeting there were people from all walks of life and from every segment of the homophile community and the average age was probably less than what would be found in a bar.

The program of SIR is most ambitious and diverse. I listened to announcements of hiking trips (all day, over-night and for a few hours), I heard of discussion groups that had attracted a high degree of professional interest; I heard of a poker group (It met on Fri-

RITES HONOR IRISH HERO

Bagpiping wailing, the Shannon Rover Band marches into St. Patrick Brown Catholic Church, 718 W. Adams, for a memorial mass for Sir Roger Casement, a hero of Ireland's Easter Rebellion of 1916. Recently Britain's Prime Minister Harold Wilson approved the reburial of Sir Roger's body in St. Patrick Roman Catholic Church, 718 W.

THE BURNING QUESTION: MUST WE CONTINUE THE CONSTANT SEX,SEX,SEX?

(The CN solicits comments and answers to the BURNING QUESTION submitted here. From time to time the CN will publish such a profound question and then in the following issue will publish readers comments. Keep it short but do not spare words to ask advice and comment on your BURNING QUESTION.)

Reading your April issue brought to mind a question that has never, that is, I have never thought about it. For other people plans and strategies have been written up in any such situations, but what about the places, parties, etc., with couples. That is to say, lovers? I would be more interested in knowing, since you arrived at these conclusions of the possibilities of two individuals sharing years together.

Time is not important. The experience being singularly unique. I quote, "We belong to each other, solely." Is this, to your knowledge, possible? Must we always make a conquest? Is it possible for two people to belong to each other? Many San Francisco situations are togetherness but have a mutual understanding or make it a threesome. Wha. I have few love-tales. I have been told that this is the ONLY way a relationship such as we are involved in is possible of working. Is this true? I will recall that statement IT IS LIKE HAVING A LITTLE DOG—PEOPLE PLAY WITH IT BUT WHEN THEY LEAVE IT IT COMES BACK TO YOU. Having an experience only for the sake of a conquest and still being able to share a lifetime with one individual over and above this conquest is apparently the only way WE can enjoy happiness. Is this true?

I find this an ugly way of living life. From the Bible I quote, "Sacrifice and you shall receive." Being only 25 but not missing anything in my past experiences I find this difficult to accept. Is this the only way? Are we all easy masts? The first time to all/every experience where sex rears its ugly head? Doesn't one feel proud to be able to say, "Thank you, but No Thanks." Or better yet, not allowing one to arrive at or in a precarious situation.

Must we always submit? This question has been quite a big thing with me for some time and I would appreciate knowing again from your vast knowledge of various situations, if I am wrong in my thinking or if there is/are people who only belong to each other.

For the sake of being part of the gay picnic parties, involve yourselves with this kind of life, when you apparently have what all these people are looking for, or think for the moment they are looking for. When they get it they still think the grass is greener on the other side of the fence, and please see what they first thought was the one and only. Then, once again, we must make this conquest our paramount goal in life. Involving, placing, arranging ourselves in those situations where sex can once again rear its ugly head leaving us with nothing but a "easy makes?" Must we submit to all/every experience when sex rears its ugly head? Must lovers go to bars, gay picnic parties, involve themselves with this kind of life? Doesn't one feel proud to be able to say, "Thank you, but No Thanks." Or better yet, not allowing one to arrive at or in a precarious situation.

Must we always submit? This question has been quite a big thing with me for some time and I would appreciate knowing again from your vast knowledge of various situations, if I am wrong in my thinking or if there is/are people who only belong to each other.

Are there situations where couples must avoid to stay as one or which will make a relationship dangerous? R. San Francisco

I am not qualified to answer these questions, I can merely give you the benefit of my experience,' but first a question; How long would your mother and father have remained married had it not been for the economic disaster of divorce or the taboo of the church? Another question; Why has sex an 'ugly' head? Special, for myself alone I do not want to give up, in order to hold him, I must divorce myself from society, even the gay society. I know of many couples who have loved and lived together without any banky-panky on the side. But regardless what the head-brinkers would say to you, your individuality is intact and no matter what there is absolutely no sense in attempting to mold any relationship on the taboos of the conformist. I recently attended a Golden Anniversary of a relationship that started between two 14 year olds years ago, who have worked out any problem that arose by intelligent, open discussion, but this is an absolute necessity-frankness, not bitchery nor jealousy, nor bigotry, nor conformism. day or Saturday because "poker players like to play all night". They have a bowling league that requires ten lanes at one of the local alleys; They have a Carnival Party scheduled for the very near future; They have a 'cheater group making all the top entertainment events in the cultural field; and they have a political discussion group. If someone had asked me at 166 whether it was possible I may have told them that it would be possible in maybe twenty years but to talk of it now would be foolish. Yet I saw and heard people who were active in all of these groups.

One of the most impressive reports was from the Political Action Committee when the chairwoman of the committee explained that last year they had sent a form letter to each candidate and asked questions. "This year," she said, "we will ask them to address a full meeting and if they refuse we will interpret this,"

Usually at meetings of this sort a feeling of depression is present and it was the first one that I have ever attended where the chairman did not make excuses for the poor attendance. As a matter of fact the president, when a group of people came in and were standing at the door, had to interrupt the speaker and ask that everyone occupy any vacant chair. A group of Baptist ministers dropped in for a few moments and it was apparent that their eyes had been opened. The meeting, by the way, was in the Fellowship Hall of the Glide Methodist Church. This mere fact may seem to be astounding to persons not aware of the growing relationship of the homosexual movement to the Church.

The "Upswing," that is the quiet confidence that something can and is going to be done, is one of the main characteristics of SIR. You cannot help but be impressed when you hear of concrete and definite plans for a Community Center, Voter Registration Drive, and Social Services.

With a laugh at double entendre (on purpose or otherwise) SIR is not-too-quietly going about the reformation of the political and social structure that has been the crime of our century.

There is no foolishness at 33 Hunt but certainly there is not typical clap-clinic atmosphere.

We were not surprised therefore when referring to 33 Hunt as the 'Clap Clinic' we were corrected by one of the associates there, "That terminology is old-fashioned - Just call us Syphilis A Go Go.'"

And so the Citizens News salutes an organization of exceptional merit - one devoted to the control of VD without any moralistic or paternalistic judgments. Our own SYPHILIS A GO GO - and the men and women at 33 Hunt Street.

++One of the brightest (the brightest?) starts in our San Francisco galaxy has apparently come upon evil days. With a recent increase in action for a minor sex offense he was unable to make the $50 bond. He is not going to be (to be broke), but he is taking it hard. We remember the many, many spectacular scenes this one has given us. Girls as far away as Berlin and Zurich are talking about it in hushed tones. The slopes of Twin Peaks and Polk Gulch can hardly be convinced that it is true. Most of them hope it is not.

++And the signs "Gay Rule," "Gay will overcome," and "Steve Loves Dennis" still continue to grow in San Francisco. The PD is having running and scraping fits.

++They asked our Eric at the Jumpin' Frog to come down to the recent dance in Los Angeles as a judge and then, and then, there was a talent scout (for real) there and what about know-Eric is is appear in a movie to be made summer-time-wise with big names and all. In the meantime it is coffee and hamburgers over at 2111 Polk. A recent addition to the staff (phallic connection not intended) at that place - One Kish of Black Cat Fame. Kish seems to be at home without his usual garb, but that old gift of gab is still there.

++The Galley is now open at Bligh's Bounty for light snacks.

++To those of you who have the new BaeDeeker '66 you had best add one name right now - Under the Monterey Peninsula add an old time favorite - The Gilded Cage at 202 Scott. The Cage has been holding forth there for some years with a consistently good atmosphere and entertainment after hours on the beaches there.

Nothing is more expendable among homosexuals than a man over 40 and the obese ones. But this is certainly no different than his 'normal' brothers because as a sex-partner men or women over 40 and overweight are not highly prized specimens even with people of their own age. Or more especially with people their own age.

One of the biggest jokes that has come about in SF is the number of times one of the hefty (we're being nice to the Sergeant) ones claims he is propositioned in one night. The truth of the matter is probably the opposite and he is mitted because no one has ever asked him. Not that he would do such a thing of course.

The general public cannot seem to understand at this time that the more effeminate the homosexual the less his chances of making out are. Then there is more than one homosexual who, in an attempt to attract partners has gone all the way with makeup, mascara and wild hair arrangements. The more he tries the less success he has. I recall one very attractive young man who for some few months was a highly prized partner but then he tried harder and harder and with less and less success. It was a hard lesson for him to learn and now his reputation is such that he is left out in the cold every night. Without question the most commonly desirable partner is the boy-next-door type. Masculine types must also fit into this category. With the exception of those who prefer the ultra-feminine and the super-masculine the great mass homosexuals want just an ordinary partner. Naturally good looks are important and one of the paradoxes of the generation is the impetus that overt homosexuality has given to body building and body care. And so a well-developed, but certainly not an overly developed body are to be cultivated if you expect to attract people who are your type.

Personal cleanliness is very important. It is of course important under any circumstances but here a bath is as important as almost anything else. Homosexuals are easily spotted by the police as opposed to the ordinary workman who may be in the same area, because they are more often than not clean.

Extremes in clothing will repel far more than they will attract. And these extremes can be either toward the masculine or the feminine. About the only thing that can be attracted by these extremes are of the same character as the extreme.

The United States Court of Appeals has invalidated a New York State Law giving the Board of Regents of that state the authority to censor movies. This action leaves it up to all the movie houses as to whether or not they will show a certain movie and run the risk of legal interference.

State Courts, Municipal Courts and legislatures find it difficult to abide by the ruling of the Supreme Court and in many cases are totally ignoring the law. In the case of a news dealer in Richmond, Virginia who was convicted in a lower court the Richmond News Leader editorialized:

"Something is wrong with our system of justice when a defendant, as in this case, must go through such an ordeal as a consequence of the errors of judges. It occurs to us that simple fairness should throw (Continued on Page 2)

LIFE BIGOTRY

Last year when the representatives of LIFE magazine were photographing for their spread on homosexuality the CN would have no part of the survey they were making. When their article appeared we published our Queerlitzer Prize Winning answer. It was entitled, "Heterosexuality in America" pointing out that LIFE had actually said nothing but had, in effect presented a case for the status quo. Associate Editor Harry d'Turk pointed out by chapter and verse how LIFE had led the homosexual to believe they were at least somewhat sympathetic. With the reputation that LIFE has for its highly conservative views and the personal reputation of (Saint in her opinion) Claire Booth Luce, it was difficult to understand how the homophile community had allowed itself to be hoodwinked. Even so, the Citizens News stood alone in its opinion of the LIFE article.

In the June 11, 1965 issue of LIFE, the true colors of that publication were revealed and we quote in part:

"There is one more cogent argument for retaining the laws against homosexuality. Its practice can and does break up families; and the protection of the family is a legitimate area for legislation. Repeal would imply an indifference that society cannot afford. Until it finds a better way of discouraging the practice, a statute at least expresses society's approval."

Now when such an illiterate publication as - the Citizens News attempts to broach a reply to an organ- (Continued on Page 2 Column 1)

the burden ultimately back upon the State. We are wondering if legislation concerning these individuals, including that whenever convictions are reversed on appeal, the wronged defendants shall recover their costs from the State fund for criminal charges. Such a situation will bring some balance to judicial scales that now are heavily weighted against the defendant who truly has the law on his side but cannot afford the crushing expense of repeated appeals.

R.I.P.
THE JUMPIN' FROG

One of the truly fun spots of San Francisco has closed its doors. It was given a death blow by our Big Brother in Sacramento some months ago and then when the lease came up for renewal they had the sense to renew it just to serve coffee. We recall with a lot of the folks in California we have the classic Case of Hollywood Citizens News, a right wing publication, boosting its circulation mightily by attacking homosexuals. Ask your newsstand dealer, "Did the LIFE Issue on homosexuality sell through the roof, or any movement to curtail religion so that It knows of a number, yea, hundreds of cases where we have yet to see any law regulating religion, religion was the cause of breaking up homes but the union and is only Illegal In such places as The San Francisco often think of California as the land of sin, lust, and social deviance but, In SF it is usually so cold that a pool is really one of the rare things.)

Back to the Cats... Michelle gave out the door prizes donated by Jacques Casual Man, The 524, The Town Squirt, The Golden Cask and The Rendezvous. Such People as Kitty Kramer, Bill Plath, Saara Cerveau, Navig and the complete social galaxy were there. All the Cats all went some type swim suit ostensibly to identify them as the hosts. Rumors persist that this is a rare thing. If the homosexual insistence on becoming a vehicle for the boosting of their sales rise. In California we have the Homophile Community should learn a lesson from the Battle of LIFE and refrain from cooperating with publications which have historically striven for scandal, expose, and hysteria to make the sales of attacking publications then they destroy any bad light that is shed on the situation.

Again. The CN commenting on LIFE is as a belch in a cyclone, but at least we got it off our stomach.
POLICE BRUTALITY ON INCREASE IN SF

The incidence of wanton beatings of citizens of San Francisco by their Police department appears to be growing a decided upswing.

In the past month there has been at least four incidents where the PD has made a specific point of beating, without cause, one or more citizens.

In one case an officer of the Park Station picked up four teenagers, took all of them to the station and without booking them for any violation used them for punching bags. This was one of the more flagrant cases wherein each one of them was taken outside the station door, the lights turned off and from six to eight officers took turns with their bars.

In yet another case, a couple of law students were subjected to burlatility of the same sort.

In yet another case the victim of his protectors was a negro.

And the list seems growing each day.

Marshall Krause, Attorney for the American Civil Liberties Union, has sent a letter to the Editor of the Examiner complaining of the sad state of the brutality of the Police Department. This to the Examiner because they had made such an issue of the pushy police department in a topless joint getting a few knocks when in reality it was the people who were arrested who had to go to the hospital.

Nevertheless the Editor of the Examiner gave the letter to Dick Hyer, one of their top reporters. The Editor of the CN made an appointment to meet Hyer on Market Street and let him interview the persons who had been beaten. The CN was there but Mr. Hyer failed to show. He has not contacted the CN although there has been a number of calls to his office.

It would appear then that it meets with the approval of the Examiner for homosexuals to get beaten.

WHAT TO DO?

If an officer threatens violence to you, you must not resist. This is difficult advice to give to Americans for they are not accustomed to accepting any violence from a civilian to abuse them. In this case then, it is easy to see why it must be that way:

1) Resistance on your part can lead to a charge of resisting arrest and any violence on your part can lead to a felony charge of assaulting an officer.
2) The cop is getting jollier than he beats.
3) Fighting back will only serve to make his climax more possible.

After you are taken to the station put in a cell to a ball bondsman (we can serve the ACU, S.I.T.R., or the Council on Religion and the Homosexual. If you are not taken to the station then turn off and drop the attorney. Any delay in this sort of case has the effect of erasing all the visible evidence of such actions. If all these places are closed down then go to a doctor or a hospital for an examination and have them make a record of it.

Many people are afraid to pursue a case against an officer. This is hollow false thinking. If there is any chance of reprisal against the officer the ACUL will act rapidly to prevent it. This would include any activity the PD might engage in as a reprisal against their victim.

Another factor enters in this: Most officers sincerely enjoy brutality and know those among their ranks who belong to the sadistic cult and want to provide more violence to the public. They are helpless to do so without complaints from the public. The most important advantage of being an officer is that you can prove to yourself that you are a bigger man than Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln, if they say "Yes," then he always wonders why. Such a big opportunity!

The most important advantage of being an officer is that you can prove to yourself that you are a bigger man than Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln, if they say "Yes," then he always wonders why. Such a big opportunity!

In Los Angeles some of the officers have picked up little goodies (something like $1,000 each) by finding a fruit-picker in action and settling our of court.

IF YOU DON'T LIKE YOUR LOCAL POLICE CHIEF AS AN EMPLOYER THEN WHY NOT CONSIDER THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION - IT'S KICKY.

The beautiful people of Denver, or... A summer—in the provinces. Denver is really something. I believe there are about 3 bars of one of these in the Tic Tac that is moving. Across the street is the Front Door, where Gary, the owner, is present a series of Sunday afternoon extravaganzas with hair, dresses and all the works. Naturally I have heard from the competition because I didn’t want to upset those who have worked so hard. I have never seen so many ugly drags in one town in my entire life. One who might deservedly mention is Mr. Leo who entertains everyone with his version of the Charleston.

HOMOSEXUAL ETHIC

EDITORS NOTE: The following was presented to the membership of the Society for Individual Rights (S.I.R.) on the 21st of June 1965 in San Francisco. The topic is of vital importance and deserves considerable and spirited discussion.

Love of any sort between opposite or alike sexes which satisfies basic needs and contributes to personal satisfaction, realization and growth, is desirable. Sex of any sort, between alike or opposite sexes with other objects of the individual's choice is desirable and good excepting in cases where harm, public outrage or force are concomitants. Permanence in relationships is preferable to mere dalliance because it is altogether certain that many people are incapable of, or should not, engage in such permanent liaisons. For them other avenues of expression are indicated without penalty or imposition of orthodoxy.

It is strongly felt that in particular, homosexual relationships of long duration are possible and highly desirable and moral. Love between men, cherishing, fulfilling and accepting may entail for those so inclined all the rich and rewarding provisions for self-realisation and commitment to another that other more conventional sorts of relationships lay claim to. The individual's. Some may prefer sexual promiscuity to life-long fidelity to a beloved. Still others may abstain or sublimate their sexual drives. Any question about the morality or social propriety of such choices is raised between the individual and his society only when his behavior threatens another. The only other question of intimacy and concern is the maturity, justice and necessity of the relationship itself, and that is one the individual both asks and answers. No sense does this Society (Society for Individual Rights) advocate that homosexuality become the way of sexual expression for most members of society. Indeed, it is not likely that this will ever be the case. But for those inclined to this means of sexual expression for whatever reasons, and as the result of what ever causes, it is far better to suggest the positive good rather than the all-too-common bad which may stem from such propensities.

And in no sense is homosexuality to be considered unmanly or emasculating. Indeed, it can be and historically was distinctly the contrary. But in a society which labels the homosexual 'pastry,' 'fruit,' 'faggot,' and other less hopeful terms; where every pressure and expectation centres the defective and the unmasculine in him, it is a wonder that homosexuals are virile at all. So the first obligation of the homosexual becomes one of changing his own image from that of self-deprecation to one of self appreciation and acceptance. (Continued on Page 8)
IS HE REALLY EXCLUDED?

Thanks to his exclusion from the restrictions (1) in his society, the homosexual should be, but unfortunately all too often is not, uniquely free to discover and expose the phony, finky hypocrisies affecting the so-called "American Dream," and its present state of reality.

Unwelcome in the church; unwanted in the government; undesired in the home; despised by the police; sneered at by the public; and patronized by the latter day evangelists in the medical profession, he is none the less fully capable of remaining undetected in much that we profess. Indeed, since they have pop art stereotypes, and so unlike the dead, often hears his own funeral orations. Like a shadow man, he knows almost to the day that the pretentious or illuminate the awe-inspiring badness of that which we profess. Indeed, since they have taken away the family jewels, let us now wear the crown jewels.

Therefore he should quite naturally be the pace-setter in all that reflects style, taste, excellence, and culture, particularly where it reflects itself in humor. Who else can so knowingly debunk the pretentious or illuminate the awe-inspiring badness in much that we profess. Indeed, since they have taken away the family jewels, let us now wear the crown jewels.

OLD LAWS REMAIN IN EFFECT

Although the House of Lords of Great Britain has said that sex acts between consenting adults in private should not be a matter of public concern, the House of Commons has turned thumbs down. This was not taken as a total defeat for the workers for sexual freedom in England for the laws are enforced in accordance with the feeling of the people. It was a victory that such a conservative group as the Lords should approve the measure.

In New York the Catholic Church prevailed and the measure there was defeated, but again this is not a total defeat.

WHAT ABOUT THE TWO ONE'S?

+++A reader has sent us a copy each of the two ONE Magazines and asked for a critical review of both of them. Frankly the only difference I can see is that one ONE has a big red cock (rooster) on the cover, the other ONE has a bitchy letter about the former editor to a person asking him to assume the editorship. Such phrases as, "We have observed for years with growing dismay a once idealistic and trustworthy magazine deteriorating. Starting with rudeness and petty quarrelsomeness, his conduct became intolerable," is hardly to be called "... full and honest treatment of vital topics that call for full and honest handling," as the new editor professes. Then each one of the ONE have the standard non-fiction essay and a standard fiction story. Then both of them have a "TANGENTS" page; the new one has an article on the weaker (?) sex and the old ONE has a paper on suicide. Then both of them have yet another fiction piece, and other non-fiction, their standard book review and letters to the editors. Strangely enough neither of the editors printed any nasty letters they have received about the split that took place. Frankly we wish them both success but wish one of the ONE magazines would change their names. It is our considered opinion at this time that neither of them will succeed.

Gov't Homos A LETTER

Washington--

The U.S. Court of Appeals handed down a decision on June 16 in a case concerning homosexuality and government employment. The Court ruled 2 to 1 that a Virginia man could not be disqualified from government employment based only on "vague" and unspecified charges of "homosexual conduct."

Chief Judge David L. Bazelon went even further by touching on the constitutional question of the application of the law. "Because the specific homosexual conduct is related to 'occupational competence or fitness,' and whether the specific conduct should disqualify a man from holding a particular governmental job.

The case was filed by the American Civil Liberties Union as a test to the Civil Service Commission's view that "homosexual conduct" is an automatic disqualification from any governmental employment. The ACLU claimed the commission's criterion invaded the First Amendment rights of freedom of thought.

The case involved an application for a mechanical jobs in the Department of Agriculture. The commission told him only that "the record disclosed convincing evidence that you have engaged in homosexual conduct which is considered contrary to generally recognized and accepted standards of morality."

The U.S. District Court had upheld the commission ruling.

THE HOMOSEXUAL'S RELATION TO HIS CHURCH: WHAT SHOULD IT BE?
(From the HOMOSEXUAL HANDBOOK TO BE PUBLISHED IN SEPTEMBER by Guy Strait, Editor of The Citizen News.)

There appears to be no earthly reason for a homosexual to have any relations with a church. Possibly there is a spiritual reason.

One factor involved in the relationship is unquestionably the image that the Church has of the last remaining tie to his family. To mention homosexuality to most clergymen is an invitation to receive a discourse founded on ignorance and nurtured by a continuing diet of blindness.

But first let me make it clear, very clear, that when I speak of ministers I am excluding those few men of the cloth who have placed their reputation and their secular position on the line to do something about a situation far more exploitative than any of the racial or economic questions. A number of them are involved in the Council on Religion and the Homosexual and other organizations being formed in this country. We must add to this list other men who have an understanding of life, love and of Christ. Chiefly among these is Rev. Woods of New Jersey who wrote "Christ and the Homosexual."

And to those other thousands of clergymen who, when Sodom and Gomorrah are mentioned, immediately start a condemnation of homosexuality altho they know that the sin of those cities was heterosexual and not homosexual at all.

Then what should the relationship of the homosexual be to his Church? First he must decide if he believes in the existence of a Supreme Being. And if he (Continued on page 13)

NOTE FROM FLORIDA: GOOD NEWS

+++Dick Inman of our local Athenium Society put forth a monumental effort during the last session of our legislature with the result that criminal sexual psychopath bills and others of similar ilk were tabled. On the more positive side a committee was formed with the blessing of Governor Burns to study the adoption of the model penal code for the state. Finally the Johns Committee has been done away with, largely because they went too far with their Purple Passion booklet. This little hunk of official pornography is now a collector's item.

The answer was 6 to 1 on a NO. But we have a suspicion the jury was somewhat stacked.

+++Since the issue of Cruise News and World Report wherein we advised against continued activity at Lands End there has been such an increase in activity that the cops who were there for checking out the patrons of that area are now spending a great amount of their valuable time in directing traffic.

+++For many months the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco (a staid old establishment) has had a sign on Montgomery Street proclaiming, "Guadaluja Boys For Dancing" and we are now happy to see it removed. We had cold chills lest someone mistake it for one of those places you know the kind—where those homosexuals congregate. However, it is always the tourists who are amazed to find that "Edwards Bottom of Nob Hill" is not one of those establishments, just because of a big sign outside proclaiming the place is "For Men Only."

+++Big brother tried doing it another way last week when Dr. Sox thru his representative Reid proclaimed that three of our places were to shut down because of health hazards. Only two of the three would admit they do a business with undesirables but then Lisa has a way of evading the thing. anyhow none of the three were closed. In fact not one of the dozen accused by Reid were closed a minute but the public reaction was a bad scene. Carlo at the Chukker tells the CN that if every place in town had to comply to the regulations and the inspection that the people of San Francisco would be forced to go to Oakland to get a meal.

+++Then we dropped down the hill somewhat to the new show by Charles and Rio and the Gilded Cage. If you haven't you must. Whoever did the lighting was a bad scene.

+++And then there is Kitty Kramer down at the Maj on the weekends. Should be a blast. Kitty was host ex officio at the Jumpin' Frog for so many years we don't even want to remember, either for her sake or for ours.
A GAY TIME AFLOAT

About 550 persons were aboard for the festivities and such a time they had from deck to deck and from the poop to the head.

The cruise was even one that the old timers will remember in their fondest dreams.

The GGRC has announced that their movies will be shown at Jacques on Saturday, July 24th and the showings will be at 3, 7, and 11 PM.

ACLU PREPARES TO DEFEND RIGHTS OF DEVIATES

The American Civil Liberties Union has fored a committee to "On civil liberties and unusual sex or gender behavior," and issued a preliminary report to the board of directors on May 18, 1965.

This committee is headed by Dr. Vern Bullough (Pierce College). Dr. Bullough issued a copy of the preliminary report to those present at One, Inc. (Slader Group) at the Sunday June 6, lecture and discussed the work of the committee. The committee is meeting again until next fall, however Dr. Bullough needs basic human rights violations to work with. Persons who can report such violations are encouraged to contact Dr. Bullough, The ACLU, or ONE (Slater Group). The report can be obtained from any of these groups.

The ACLU has in the past defended individual homosexuals, but the former leadership took the stand that homosexuals per se had no basic rights and blocked any progressive action on their behalf. Now, under new leadership the ACLU is starting to act in the behalf of the rights of the homosexuals. Areas of concern outlined in the preliminary report included (1) Police practices, (2) Felony registration, (3) Right of association, (4) Employment, (5) Licensing, (6) Arbitrary discrimination against homosexuals in such businesses as insurance companies and banks, (7) Clothing.

ANNUAL MIGRATION UNDERWAY

+++The summer migration is underway. The small towns along the eastern seaboard are emptying a mass of young and not-so-young ones into Miami, New York and Chicago. And the more experienced ones are heading for such green pastures as Los Angeles, San Francisco and New Orleans.

The roads along the west coast are lined with hitch-hikers who may be heading north or south from Seattle or Los Angeles. The picture this year is further complicated by the lack of work for transients and the big slump in Stock Market trading that has made some of the sugar daddies look a little harder at the dollar before they part with it.

Reports from such cities along the Fruit Belt (edible) of California contain some strange facts about how many of the local scene from Los Angeles and San Francisco are there picking peaches, strawberries and cherries.

The apple country of Washington and Oregon can then expect some exodus when their season gets underway. It is a strange sight to see braceros replaced by the hustlers from Market Street and Selma Blvd.

In San Francisco and Chicago there are additional reports that a few of the confirmed and hardened hustlers have even decided to settle down with a wife. Most of them find that the best wife for them is the type that never has to see an obstetrician.

It is not remarkable in this instance to find that they have finally admitted the truth to themselves. Some here in San Francisco have even admitted that this was their preference all the time.

IF HE USES 4 LETTER WORDS HE'S QUEER

The Rolla Daily News of Rolla, Missouri headlines the story of one D.C. Bergman an employee of the University of Missouri who allegedly was a member of the group who participated in the Filthy Speech Movement at the University of California.

Now in Columbia he is charged with the act of sodomy. This Birch Publication would have the whole world believe that if you cuss, then you're bound to be queer.

Welcome to the ranks yet another 120,000,000.
COPS NOT TRYING TO STOP CRIME.

"I was a Communist for the FBI" now has a sequel announced by Pravda: "I was an FBI man for the Communist Party."

You see, there's intelligence and Counter-Intelligence. Counter-Intelligence, that's a fancy name for stupidity. All the stupid spies are assigned to Counter-Intelligence, that is, the CIA--there're the ones responsible for the infamous Bay Of Pigs.

In S.F., we have "I was a Fruit for the Frisco Police" (But how about I was a cop for the Mattachine?)

The Chief of the San Francisco Police issued a report on recent local crime statistics saying, We've really been getting clobbered in burglaries." (Up 36% from last year.) One of the reasons for the alarming rise in the rate of burglaries could be the fact that our police don't make any real effort to catch the criminals; they are too busy flying after the fairies. When you've been burglarized, you call the police, and what do they do? They file a report. Detective work? None! It's gotten so hopeless some people don't even report burglaries. It's a good bet that most of the burglars operating so freely in the city have a criminal record. But they just laugh at the police: they know the police won't make any real effort to catch them.

Maybe our police chief fears he'll catch some more burglar-cops--as in a recent notorious case.

And how about the 'financiers' who make these burglaries pay off? The Fences! There must be thousands of 'hot' TV sets. Who's handling them? Sure, it takes time for the police to run down stolen goods. But if they spent less time trying to enforce our unenforceable and unconstitutional sex laws, spent less time 'spooking' the topless bars, and my favorite handouts (looking for payoffs?) they'd have more time to apprehend burglars.

And then the shocking rise in burglaries would be quickly stopped and even reversed.

ELUSIVE BANK ROBBER AGAIN

+++The news of the day involves a youngster who carried out $187,000 from the bank in Oakland. Since he committed this foul deed by wearing a wig from time to time the PD of SF, LA and Oakland have haunted any wearing of the drag as if it was a holy duty. Two drag queens could get together and then you could be sure that 16 cops would cover the affair.

One of the 'off-the-record reasons for the heavy blue coverage of the CRH New Year's affair and the Halloween thing by the Tavern Guild was that they were looking for the loot.

But it would seem that our hero is just one step ahead of the law. We are not aware of the sexual proclivities of the young man but if he is a member of the 'furtive fraternity' they have never heard that they too oftentimes squire the fairer sex. Anyhow down in SoCal our hero has been taking out the girls and admiring the scenery at Muscle Beach and has now departed for parts unknown by the FBI.
