District 3 candidates support Gay rights

Tony Estremerà and Susan Hammer, candidates for San Jose City Council District 3, were interviewed by Our Paper on September 7 at their respective downtown headquarters. Both candidates would like to represent the politically liberal, culturally diverse downtown area. If any part of San Jose is a stronghold for the Gay community, it is District 3; and the candidates had positive things to say about Gay issues. See pgs. 2 & 4 for their remarks.

Candidate honors Gay athletes

Tony Estremerà, candidate for San Jose City Council District 3, hosted a reception for Santa Clara County’s homecoming Gay Olympic athletes on Friday evening, September 10 at Don Juan’s Restaurant & Disco in the heart of his downtown district.

The candidate gave a short speech prior to assisting officers of the Bay Area Athletic League (BAAL) in awarding plaques to the fifteen Gay & Lesbian athletes, who were his guests of honor at the event.

“There are three endorsements that I don’t have,” Estremerà told those present, “the San Jose Mercury News, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Peace Officers Association. So that-should tell you something about my candidacy.”

Estremerà inadvertently drew a round of laughter when he urged the athletes to help him keep on the “straight road” after he is elected. Realizing his double entendre, Estremerà joined heartily in the laughter.

Lupe Huble, owner of Don Juan’s, prepared a beautiful buffet for the reception. Music was provided by DJ Vincent Santiago.

Cops thank Gays for assistance

New York police last week thanked members of the city’s Gay community for helping capture three suspects in the “junk food” murder of a nutrition professor at his Florida home.

One of the three young men was overheard talking in a Gay bar about the murder. Police praised what detective Frank Ferreyra called “the tremendous cooperation of New York’s Gay community” in helping track down the suspects, according to a story in the San

San Francisco (IGNA) — It be­ came clear that the crowd chant­ ing "Gay" in the stadium had the upper hand over opening day ads. She had no idea how she was or what event she was in. Even though the U.S. Olympic Committee felt that it was necessary to let Gays use the word, they were unable to prevent the Games from using the word "Olympics," those involved with the Games thought that it would be best to use only the name of the city, the venue, and not the name of the event. This was why the Gay Games was the only event that had the right to use the word "Gay" in any way, shape, or form.

Operating Engineers Endorse Doris McCorquodale

Operating Engineers Local No. 35, which was endorsed by San Francisco's Mission District, met to endorse 12-14 in Washington, D.C.

The Field Associate program is designed to encourage broadmotions that will culminate in a test case before the Supreme Courts. We cannot ask the Lesbians among us to wait any longer for us to recognize the equality of our women's lives.

Little Lesbos

A section of San Francisco is turning over a new leaf. For the first time in 20 years, the Bay Area Lesbian community is celebrating the gay pride month of June. The Bay Area Lesbian community has come a long way since the days of the Stonewall Riots. (The Stonewall Riots were a series of violent protests that took place in New York City in 1969, marking the beginning of the modern gay rights movement.)

The Stonewall Riots were a turning point for the lesbian community, as it was during this time that the first gay pride parades were held. These parades were a way for lesbians to come together and march for their rights, demonstrating their power and solidarity. They were also a way for lesbians to show the world that they were not going to be silent anymore.

Today, the lesbian community is stronger than ever. Lesbians are no longer afraid to speak out and fight for their rights. They have made great strides in the past few decades, and have achieved many of their goals.

But there is still work to be done. Lesbians still face discrimination and prejudice in many areas of their lives. They still have to fight for the right to marriage, the right to adopt children, and the right to equal treatment in the workplace. And they still have to fight for the right to be who they are, without fear of judgment or violence.

We should be proud of the progress that has been made, but we must not forget that there is still work to be done. We must continue to fight for the rights of lesbians, and we must continue to support each other.

As a candidate for the Presidency of the National Organization for Women (NOW), I want to go on record as a staunch supporter of lesbians and gay rights. I believe that the National Organization for Women should take a strong stand against discrimination and prejudice, both in this country and around the world.

We should not be afraid to stand up for what is right. We should not be afraid to speak out and fight for our rights. We should not be afraid to be who we are.

We should be proud of our community, and we should be proud of the progress that has been made. But we must not forget that there is still work to be done. We must continue to fight for the rights of lesbians, and we must continue to support each other.

The logo and banner conceived for Our Paper intentionally reflects the shared characteristics of heterosexuals and homosexuals. In reality, as in our design, a fine line separates our lifestyles. Publicly, we share numerous concerns: World hunger, nuclear disarmament, uncontrollable inflation, spiralling taxes, diminished public services, dwindling natural resources, and the vanishing American parking space.

Privately, we differ, slightly.

Our goal as journalists is to provide an intelligent link between two segments of the richly diverse Santa Clara County community. This end is represented by the identical rectangles located at either side of our logo; the words Our Paper act as a bridge connecting the two perspectives.

Objective, Unbiased Reporting is the mirror which will ultimately reveal our oneness. This challenge is expressed graphically through the incorporation of the Greek letter lambda, internationally recognized as a symbol of oppressed people.

It is through a dedicated pursuit of human rights that Our Paper will, hopefully, become your paper.

McCorquodale calls for Fair Campaign pledge

Dan McCorquodale, Democrat candidate for the 12th Senate District, has called on his Republican and Libertarian opponents to join him in press conferences this week to sign a Fair Campaign Practices Agreement. The model agreement is endorsed by the League of Women Voters of California and the Fair Political Practices Commission. McCorquodale stresses that "unfair campaign practices serve to undermine the integrity of the election process and have damaged the reputation of many candidates and elected officials."

Another Gay Supervisor?

San Francisco (IGNA) Running on a campaign slogan that Gays are in San Francisco are represented on the city's Board of Supervisors, activist Greg Day has launched his campaign for a seat on the Board.

Day is past co-chair of the Lesbian/Gay Freedom Day Parade Committee and has given testimony before Congress on proposed reforms of anti-Gay immigration laws.

Day has been especially interested in the concerns of Lesbians and minorities within the Gay community. He visited San Jose last week for a press conference following the protest "Gay Day at America." At the press conference, comic Robin Tyler, accompanied by Day and Konstantin Berlinski, presented a check to the Chicano-based "Coalition for a Greater America." The Coalition had boycotted Marriott's Great America since 1976 because of alleged racial discrimination. The check represented Tyler's efforts from her performance at the Gay event.
