Candidates make strongest push ever for gay votes

By Rosalie Nichols

That was how Sigma Delta Chi, a society of professional journalists, satirized the San Jose Mercury News in its "Second Annual Gridiron Show" earlier this year. (See page 2 of this issue for a review of the show.)

The Mercury injected a little "ridicule" into the Santa Clara County Sheriff's race last weekend in its lead to an article on local Gay political activity.

The story by San Jose Mercury staff writer Jack Sirica, headlined "Candidates make strongest push ever for gay votes," appeared top front of Sunday's paper and led off:

"For his interview with Our Paper, a new biweekly in San Jose aimed at area homosexuals, Phil Crawford wore gym shorts and a T-shirt with "Crawford For Sheriff" lettered on the front.

"A photo showing plenty of thighbared the caption, "He's a big guy with broad shoulders and a manner reminiscent of Dennis Weaver's 'McCloud.'"

In reference to the photo, Watergarden president Sal Accardi was quoted, "We joked about it...so they're using some beekefke." But they made it sound like something the captions.

"I don't have any reaction," Rev. Harris told the Mercury, "Whoever is going to be an elected official will represent all these groups."

AFL-CIO Industrial Unions endorse Gay civil rights

Washington, DC — The Industrial Unions Department (IUD) of the AFL-CIO enacted a Gay rights policy resolution at its annual convention held this month in Detroit, MI.

The resolution, which calls for an end to discrimination on the basis of sexual preference in public accommodations and employment, was introduced by the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) International Secretary-Treasurer William Lucy and was passed by a voice vote.

Lucy indicated that this was his first attempt to include Gay rights in the national civil rights platform of the IUD, the largest of the AFL-CIO's eight organizational departments. Lucy praised his colleagues in supporting Gay rights "as an important step in gaining freedom and building human dignity for all citizens of this nation."

In addition to AFSCME, the IUD is made up of 34 other unions including the Steelworkers, the Auto Workers, the Communications Workers, Service Employees, Teachers, and Amalgamated Clerks.

Mr. Lucy was also instrumental in the passage this summer of a Gay rights resolution at AFSCME's international convention.

The strategy that I developed was around Bob Elder's editorial request of campaigns to stick to the issues and stay away from mud-slinging and last-minute hit pieces," Bryant told Our Paper. "It has been very difficult to comply with those standards, but I thought that was a nice touch to the article. Overall, it was a good article."
Don't tell me it's hopeless,\n"Cameo newswoman must end,\nI'm the Sheriff of the whole county... My job is to protect ALL the citizens, regardless of sex, race, religion, political affiliation or sexual orientation."
In the year 1981 declared that spending public money to guarantee of separation of church and state is in Leviticus 20:13.

THE BISELY BOY

Tales of Queens for Hallowe’en

by Mademoiselle Jenny

The death of an old lady in Paris on May 6, 1863 brought a buzz to the salons of the Amour Mondain. Mademoiselle Jenny Savale-de Lange had long been a figure of interest around the capital, a somewhat dowdy woman who still dressed in the old style, who apparently had been fully into the highest circles of society, and who always received a pension from the government when the royalties were to power. Who was she?

The whispers claimed that she was one of the ill-fated French Royal family, probably the Queen Royal, not actually gull-limited during the Revolution, that she was the daughter of Louis XVI. But the autopsy turned the whispers into sheets. Party’s favorite puzzle for decades was a mystery: Mademoiselle Jenny, the royal pensionnaire, had worn drag for sixty years with no one discovering with her.

And the legend? Storytellers say that Jenny was actually the Lost Dauphin, Louis XVI, whose body was never discovered. They say that the boy was taken away by/recovers to save him from the Revolutionaries and his uncle, of whom coveted the throne. He was disguised in women’s clothing to help in hiding him, and finally grew so accustomed to them that he never took them off: a quiet that prevented his challenging the royal lineage. The truth? Who knows? But why did the French government pay a generous pension to an elderly transvestite?

Another Anastasia?

Finally, in Russia in 1923, a dazed man was found wandering through a remote section of the country. In shock, dirty and starved, the village woman took him to the inn and began to clean and dress him. Conscience awoke when they found she was a young man.

He explained that he was the Czarist, the son of the assassinated monarch and that he had been spirited away from Ekaterinburg by partisans who gave him the religious habit for a disguise. But the villagers had called the secret police, and the young man disappeared, never to be heard of again. Perhaps Anastasia wasn’t the only survivor of that massacre. We’ll probably never know if there is truth to this legend, but, as the Italians say, “se non e vero, e comunque interessante.”

Happy Hallowe’en!

PHIL CRAWFORD FOR SHERIFF

As part-owners of county government, all citizens have the right to expect fair, high quality law enforcement. We simply are not getting our money’s worth out of the current administration of the Sheriff’s Department.

Phil Crawford:

A Sheriff for all Seasons.

Will our top law enforcement official serve all of us, or just a privileged few?

You can make the choice between the current Sheriff & Phil Crawford:

THE CURRENT SHERIFF’S RECORD:

- Conceded gun permits and phony badges given to convicted violent criminals/Some of whom then give political contributions (as high as $10,000).
- $6 million in documented waste and budget overruns/Deputies paid $42,000.
- Endorsed by New Right groups like FAMPAC & Concerned Citizens — when notified of endorsements, Winter said, “I’m delighted.”
- Innate assaults on Deputies Highest in California/Dangerous felons released “mistakenly”
- Highest ranking women in the Department have resigned, or have had to sue to retain their positions. No women presently in management positions.

Professional Leadership for a change!

PHIL CRAWFORD: A Proven Success

- 10 years street experience - San Jose Police Department/Seniors and All of Us can have
- Master’s Degree, Instructor in Justice Administration/Will Restore, Honest, Professional Management
- As National Institute of Correction Management Consultant, trains Sheriffs nationwide/Will Implement “Inmate Work Plan” to Pay the Costs
- Has provided training and written course material in domestic violence and crisis intervention to agencies across the country.

The choice is yours... The choice is clear: The Sheriff’s answer is more money. PHIL CRAWFORD’S is better management.

Police harassment in London
London (IGNA) Recent police raids on an sex shops have ended the uneasy truce between the police and the Gay community.
It is believed that the police are cracking down on the shops prior to the introduction of a new law that will require all shops selling sexual aids and pornography to be licensed by the local authority. The law provides that anyone with a criminal record will be barred from holding a license. In one of the latest cases, Scott Hurley, the owner of Paradise Cinema in Soho, was actually talking about 8-license applications for the Central Station, while other of­ the Vice Squad were raiding his shop and seizing thousands of pounds' worth of films and videos.

Diana Ross is still "The Boss"

It was Saturday, October 1st. Diana Ross put on quite a show in a room above the Lincoln Theater, transformed into a cabaret, with a staging of a private lounge.

Diana Ross, the Queen of Pop, took the stage at 9:30 PM, greeted by a thunderous applause. She was dressed in a white, long, flowing dress, with a large beret on her head.

She sang songs from her new album, "The Boss," and also some of her old hits, like "Ain't No Mountain High Enough." Her voice was still powerful, her moves still graceful.

The audience was thrilled, cheering and clapping for her throughout the show. She even sang a duet with Lionel Richie, who was in the audience.

At the end of the show, Diana Ross walked off the stage, but the audience kept on singing "We Will Rock You" to her. She then appeared on stage again, waving to the audience, and disappeared.

Diana Ross has always been known for her powerful voice and her ability to connect with her audience. This show was no exception. She proved once again why she is still "The Boss."

It is difficult to critique the award-winning drama without mentioning the absolutely credible capability of all the performers involved to open those up to the play's devastating premise of infamy, insanity, and isolation—particularly, Mimi Klien all gave enlightening performances.

Roger Serbagi, Jo Farwell, and, to produce in San Jose again soon. We can never get enough quality theatre in the South Bay.

The documentary drama by Emily Booraem, in this tightly written and directed play by Hilt and Booraem, is this tightly written expose of the soldiers we, as a nation, have chosen to forget. The performance is front-and-center, exposing the soldiers we, as a society's concept of morality. The second concert of the season (October 15-17) began with the performance of Haydn's Eighth Symphony, given by the San Jose Symphony Orchestra. The Sullivan Series
by Patrick Franklin

One of the facts that has to be admitted is that the safety of the Sullivans' murder crime, had already been disadanced, and a car had been stolen from the murder scene.

That seems to indicate a partner in the crime, someone who got away. Certainly, Sullivan never did try to leave. It would have afforded an appreciable reward for a dead body, or at least a hefty reward for McGinley and Jackson.

The Sullivan Defense Fund, (31 Leonoman Road, Boston, MA 02117), has seen a number of unconvincing outlets which seem to be a conspiracy theory that Mark Lane was killed in the murder of the Sullivan case.

The installation of a new man in charge of the Sullivan case would be beneficial. The Sullivan

A Last Word from the N.Y. Times

During that trial, moreover, the prosecution alleged the jury to get the impression that its principal witness had passed a lie-detector test;
but it has since been established that, in fact,
the witness had failed to answer untruthfully
one of seven questions put to him.

"Thus, the Sullivan case...demonstrates, again and again, the inadequacy of the defenses and the inadequacy of the convictions in the Sullivan case. The Sullivan case...demonstrates, again and again, the inadequacy of the defenses
and the inadequacy of the convictions in the Sullivan case.

On the other hand, the Sullivan case is the only one of the Sullivan cases that has taken place in the United States that has attracted national attention.
