Gay Pride Day in Santa Rita

By Ted Sahi

Livermore—Hello Mr and Ms Gay America.

Over 1000 people were arrested in the latest blockade against Livermore Laboratory. Anti-nuclear foes have been blocking entrances to the plant which designs nuclear weapons.

An estimated 50% of the women were lesbians and 25% of the men were gay.

One woman described how gay men and lesbians held their own Gay Freedom Day Parade inside Prison.

Everyone either participated or watched (including the guards).

Women made floats out of toilet paper, plastic bowls, paper plates and anything they could find.

Two dragons made an appearance. They were made of sheets, cardboard and eating utensils.

After the parade, the women sang songs, others told personal stories.

N.O.W. elects new leaders

By Susan DeNaal

Delegates from all over California gathered in Oakland over the weekend of July 15-17 to attend the National Organization for Women (N.O.W.) 12th annual California state conference.

Co-hosted by the East Bay and Contra Costa chapters, the conference was attended by over 400 members, guests and an unusually large press contingent.

Controversy, scandal, and a heated race for state coordinator added tension and drama to the 1983 conference.

Hilarious Farce at Chevalrey Rep

Jay Osmer's first role as Baxter Worley concludes this summer at the Chevalrey Repertory, and for those who haven't seen the play before, it's a must-see. The show is directed by Charles MacManus, director of the previous production at the Main Stage Repertory. Osmer's performance of the title role not only captures the essence of the character, but also brings a sense of humor and timing that is truly refreshing. The play is a classic of the farce genre, and Osmer's ability to bring it to life is a testament to his talent as an actor.

not is certainly open to question, and it is not clear that the kind of moderating effect that he is seeking can be obtained through the kind of modified solution that he is suggesting.

As a result, you're being pushed into swallowing all sorts of things that you might not have thought about, or the drug you are being induced to buy for your money is not what it says it is on the label, and you find that most of the money you have given for your drugs is wasted. If you can achieve the same results by drinking two cups of coffee (which is0 a proven way to increase energy) and spending a few dollars on generic cold remedies, you may feel that the government's remedy is far too expensive.
