Discrimination against lesbians and gays in New York State was an issue of high profile under Governor Cuomo. Cuomo announced an executive order banning discrimination based on sexual orientation/preference, which applies to both hiring and the delivery of services by all New York State agencies. Unlike a similar order issued by Mayor Koch in New York City, the governor's order issued by Major Koch in New York would not extend the order to corporate organizations who wished to include sexual orientation/preference in the area of licensing and bonding. He also issued an order making it illegal to discriminate against gay organizations who wished to incorporate.

On Nov. 18, Governor Cuomo set up a high-level task force to enforce the order. Unlike a similar order issued by Mayor Koch in New York City, the governor's order issued by Major Koch in New York would not extend the order to corporate organizations who wished to include sexual orientation/preference in the area of licensing and bonding. He also issued an order making it illegal to discriminate against gay organizations who wished to incorporate.

For the fifth year in a row, thousands of demonstrators joined together to march down Market Street in remembrance of the assassination of San Francisco Mayor George Moscone and gay Supervisor Harvey Milk on November 27, 1978.

A note to readers: In my capacity of Curator of the National Gay Archives and author of this column, I spend up to $10 a day sampling used or 2nd-hand newspapers in search of gay and lesbian related articles, but it seldom pays to buy more than a few big city dailies.

Covering AIDS

AIDS reporting still varies widely, though few papers show same bias. It was 11/14/84 Times story ignoring by other papers we saw, the possible link with AIDS described from Belgian patients. This year 34 of the 100 diagnosed in France were traced to Africans or women (no male patients). This week the San Francisco Chronicle ran a slightly condensed update we saw in the LA Times.

Former Vice President Walter Mondale, now seeking the Democratic nomination for President, has declined to participate in this year’s San Jose gay rights campaign. His reply: "I strongly support the gay community. It is vital that we move toward policies of non-discrimination."

If that didn't sound like much, bear in mind that Mondale made a similar statement in 1980, when last he ran for the Senate in California.

Musical One-Night Stand

By Kathy Topas

At the CPA Wire Service.

In a rare performance together, Magi Christina, Chris Williamson, and Hare Krishna sing a jazzy version of "Hare Krishna Mantra," a song associated with the Hare Krishna movement. The trio performed at the Beacon Theatre on November 5th.

Teresa's joyous vocal Rao coupled with magical piano and a powerful mandolin provided a program of spiritual compositions, including R&B, gospel, classical, and more. The audience was particularly taken with Teresa's work on the CPA Wire Service, which aired on SiriusXM's "The Steve Allen Show." The radio program features a variety of musical genres, allowing Teresa to showcase her versatility and talent.

After a fun day at the old watering hole, Teresa and Hare Krishna met at a local restaurant for dinner. Teresa ordered a glass of dry sherry just to tantalize her taste buds.

David Sanborn's first instrumental album, "To Be or Not To Be," comes with male vocalists and instrumental players as well.

Holly Near's newest album, "Holly Near's Journeys," contains an eclectic mix of musical styles. The album features a diverse range of artists, including Joan Baez, Linda Ronstadt, and others. The collection, reflecting ten years of musical energy in each other, leaves audiences mesmerized.

Holly Near's music is filled with messages that come out of her own life experience, including her "biking month." Holly Near's songs are simple yet deeply meaningful, reaching listeners everywhere.

The thought of listening to a Holly Near album from beginning to end is almost too much to bear. The thought of being in the middle of the album, just bears to be tuned in. The thought of hearing "Kyire Service" is almost overwhelming. The thought of being in the middle of the album, just bears to be tuned in. The thought of hearing "Unexpected" is almost overwhelming.

The National Gay Task Force has responded sharply to two recent statements by Democratic Presidential contender John Glenn, in which he said he did not favor extension of federal civil rights protections to gay men and lesbians, and described homosexuality as "per-sonal behavior."

"As a prominent member of the Democratic Party, Senator Glenn has a responsibility to support the civil rights of all citizens," said GLTF President Virginia M. Apuzzo. "He has been a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee which funds the Equal Rights Commission, and therefore shared the responsibility for the RFPCA which he has now rejected."

The RFPCA, signed into law by President Carter, forbids discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation in employment, housing, educational, and public accommodations. The RFPCA was defeated in the Senate by 54-46, the same vote that defeated a civil rights bill the previous year. Glenn was one of only 23 senators to vote against the RFPCA.

"I am deeply disappointed in Senator Glenn's action, an action contrary to the values of the American people," said GLTF President Virginia M. Apuzzo. "I am also deeply disturbed that he has chosen to continue to make the personal behavior of his constituents a political issue.

"The RFPCA was a historic step forward in equal rights legislation. We should not allow Senator Glenn and the Klux Klan of South Carolina to turn the clock backward."

A bitter strike enters its third week as this article goes to press. Greyhound bus drivers are striking from Boston to San Francisco. In San Jose, San Diego, and Los Angeles, local 1223 of the Amalgamated transport union will not accept the unilateral cuts that Greyhound is trying to ram down their throats.

"The union has bent over backwards for Greyhound, we've offered the company anything it asked for, and the company rejected our contract one year, the company refused."

"The company instead offered a 9% cut in wages, no raise in health and welfare benefits and no overtime for the drivers."

This is a blatant attempt by Greyhound to line its pockets and pass the back of the union," said Jerry Weider, director of the Gay Rights National Lobby.

"It's important that lesbian and gay men grow up with a sense of belonging," Paul Weller, deputy director of the Greater Bay News section of Lambda, said in a statement that was not "promote homosexuality as a religion," Glenn's statement that he would support it if it came up for a vote, the Blade reported. And even Reuben Askos, who has had no previous contact with gay people in the past, has been unable to evaluate his views.

"It is impossible to reconcile the fact that you take pride in your record on civil rights issues with your apparent disregard for the rights of 24 million Americans."

"Discrimination based on sexual orientation is an everyday reality in America that must be addressed."

An article by Dave Walter in The Washington Blade noted that among other Democratic presidential candidates, Walter Mondale, Sen. Ernest Hollings (D-S.C.), Jesse Jackson, and George McGovern have gone on record supporting civil rights.

Sen. Gary Hart (D-Colo.) has not endorsed the gay civil rights bill and has over 70 Congressional co-sponsors.

The AFL-CIO recently joined a growing list of endorsers of the gay civil rights bill. McCurry, Glenn's campaign press secretary, told the Blade that there's a "very broad difference" between guaranteeing religious freedom on a federal basis and guaranteeing civil rights for gay people.

He pointed out that religion was addressed in the Constitution by the First Amendment, civil rights was not a national concern. "It could be added equally well to women's rights and right to school choice," McCurry acknowledged that Glenn's stand on the bill "does not have the strongest support, but stated, "We also feel America has had less than adequate experience promoting single-issue politics."

In each case the drivers went home, the company closed down and when an agreement was reached, the men resumed working.

Because of Greyhound hiring non-union drivers, when the police opened the gates for the buses in service, pickets were allowed to parley but not enter the depot. The driver was to enter the depot and one by one, leaving and entering the depot. A young veteran of driving, who along with three others crossed their own picket line to drive against their brothers.

For the most part, the violence in San Jose has been minimal. Four men arrested - two received minor injuries and security guard vehicle knocked them to the ground against anger, despair, and fear.

"I may be compelled to rely more heavily on my friends for emotional support if I feel myself slipping into a paralyzing depression."

"We must all work together to defeat this effort to turn the clock back on the civil rights of gay Americans."

"The serious side produced a feature story for the Bay Area Reporter, with photos out to wide a readership as possible."
