Big Turnout at San Jose Gay Pride Rally

By Noel M. Harrahah

The San Jose Gay Pride Rally on June 23 was an exceptional gathering of the Santa Clara Valley Gay/Lesbian community, in the opinion of this writer. Upon entering St. James Park, a rainbow of balloons that arched gracefully over the grassy plain of the park caught my eye. The stage, the balloons, and the booths were a testimony to the professionalism that carried the event through a wonderfully entertaining and educational afternoon.

As I arrived, Against All Odds, a local women’s band, was just beginning their set. I found their music to be fresh, upbeat band. My only regret is that their set was not later in the day’s schedule of events so that more people would have been able to enjoy their music.

Following a brief period of amplified dance music, the emcee welcomed us and read a long list of letters of congratulations from local politicians, including San Jose Mayor Tom McEnery. At one point, he indicated the rally had received congratulations from a majority of the San Jose City Council members, a historic milestone. Another milestone was passed as approximately 6,500 people attended, making the 1985 celebration the largest in its ten-year history.

After sampling the many booths, I settled down on the grass in front of the stage to enjoy the rest of the program. It began with a moving speech by John Lorenzini, president of People With AIDS. John reminded us throughout his speech that AIDS patients need our support, both financially and emotionally — our love and our encouragement. He reminded us that this disease is not confined to one segment of the community, but is a crisis touching everyone and with which all individuals — male or female, gay or straight — should be concerned.

Following this presentation was another serious speaker: Robin Tyler. Even though more than half her appearance was her comedy routine, she also conveyed the message that without all our efforts, we will not attain our human rights. She put it succinctly, "There are no masters at the table of revolution."

She also stressed that we need to be unified as gay and lesbian people and that the institution of standards or tests of political correctness constitute nothing more than neo-fascism. Robin Tyler’s performance was the highlight of the day for me. She informed us of her wit and began to outline the course our movement must take in the future. The final two performances of the day generated the most energy and applause. The gay male dance crowd went wild over Julie Brown and Thelma Houston. The entire park seemed to erupt into one massive dance floor as Julie Brown ran onto the stage.

Known for her song, "Homecoming Queen’s Got a Gun," Julie Brown did not disappoint the overflow crowd, who remained on their feet, dancing and applauding throughout her act.

There was no break in the high energy as Thelma Houston’s set followed and was greeted by thunderous applause. Houston’s amazing vocal range and capacity was immediately evident. She roared through her set with the kind of energy one seldom sees on stage. Possibly the most touching moment of the afternoon was the dedication of her famous single, "Don’t Leave Me This Way," to a close friend who recently died of AIDS. She urged everyone to gain as much information as they could about the deadly disease and to devote time and energy toward rededicating it.

Overall, the 1985 Rally was a tremendous success. The choice of speakers and performers seemed appropriate to the crowd, with an apt combination of politically motivating messages and let-your-hair-down entertainment.

San Jose has not only shown that it can put on a marvelous party, but that it is a city of many resources for gay men and lesbian women, not the least of which are those men and women themselves.

Gay Pride Photos — P. 6

San Jose Gay Pride Rally Committee — Jon Snell, Richard Kendall, Becky O’Byran, Doug Winslow — Photo by Ted Sohi

BAYMEC wins change in police practices

San Jose police officers will receive training in gay and lesbian lifestyles due to a vote taken by the city council on June 25. Currently no such training is administered.

The training program was part of a six-point police statement on police behavior presented to the council by BAYMEC, a local lesbian-gay political organization.

BAYMEC had requested the action in response to the killing of Melvin Truss, a 17-year-old alleged transvestite by an undercover police officer, and because of the statement by the deputy police chief who said Truss’ death was “a result of his lifestyle.”

The 17-year-old youth was shot to death five times in the face.

The killing raised questions in the gay community about the treatment and arrests of people who are either homosexual, bisexual, transgender, or allegedly acting or dressed in such a manner which might be construed as such.

BAYMEC sought clarification of existing police practices in addition to the training program.

Police practices toward these citizens need to be examined and the community assured that it isn’t “open season” on individuals with a different lifestyle.

Speaking at the hearing was BAYMEC president Rich Gordon and Wiggsy Sivertsen, vice-president. Approximately fifteen people in favor of the resolution were in the audience, including those representing the Billy De Frank Center.

“We in the Gay/Lesbian community need to know we are safe in the community,” said Wiggsy Sivertsen, vice president of BAYMEC.

Carm Grande, president of the San Jose Police Officer’s Association, spoke against the police training. “It will tie the hands of the police chief,” he said. “If there isn’t a need for it, then the training might create problems.”

“I feel all the others are on mark and should be adhered to,” said Grande. “I am against the training program, which could be interpreted as an admission that the police officers could have some kind of bias against the Gay/Lesbian community, which I think is inappropriate and incorrect.”

“I hope,” said Grande, “that when the proposal is finally implemented, that concern will be reflected in whatever kind of policy is developed as a result of past proposals.”

Vice-mayor Susan Hammer made the motion for approval saying it was “unfortunate we got to where we are now. All continued on Page 2
Gay Defends Guilty of Fraud in Wall Street Journal "Insider Trading" Case

by Morgan Pines

New York - A United States District Court judge has handed down a guilty verdict against a former Wall Street Journal columnist, B. A. Liles, who was accused of insider trading.

Liles is alleged to have tipped off friends and associates about his knowledge of upcoming stock price movements. E. Hunter Williams, a former employee of the Journal, received about $25,000 to pay off a debt. Liles is said to have used this money to buy a house for Williams.

The Journal was not a party to the suit and did not have any knowledge of the defendant's activities.

The defense argued that there was no fraud because the Journal had no reason to believe that Williams was involved in insider trading.

The case was called "BAYMEC," and it was decided by the jury. The jury was given the benefit of any reasonable doubt and found the defendant not guilty.

The judge is expected to enter a judgment of acquittal.

Continued on Page 9

POLICE PROBE CAREER CRIMES against BAYMEC respondents

Crime does not discriminate, so the police must resolve any concerns that arise from any crimes committed. The police must ensure that all crimes are investigated thoroughly and that all evidence is collected.

The police will not discriminate against any individual because of his or her race, religion, sex, or any other characteristic.

The police will ensure that all information is safeguarded and that no crime is investigated in a discriminatory manner.

The police will ensure that all information is used appropriately and that no crime is investigated in an improper manner.
Insurance

By Ruth Thomas

Being gay often presents unique situations when it comes to dealing with established businesses that have not incorporated our lifestyle into their rules and regulations. One coping technique is to uncover these formulas and make them work for you.

It is pleasant to have this opportunity to pass on to my lesbian sisters and gay brothers a little of the workings of the insurance industry. Primarily, my goal will be to provide consumer-oriented information that will enable you to make wise insurance choices.

In way of introduction, I came out ten years ago and joined the life insurance field a few years later. I have been a claims representative in the insurance industry for about six years. During this period, I was induced to spread my wings and, at the same time, offer a vital service to our community by means of my work. It is a pleasure to be able to offer my knowledge to our community. Please feel free to call with questions at any time.

The following is a new law that each driver must be made aware of: As of July 1, 1985, California drivers, who are stopped for traffic violations, must present proof of insurance to the citing officer. A driver who is unable to comply will be issued a citation and required to furnish proof in court. Failure to establish insurance may result in fines ranging from $100 to $240. Anyone providing false evidence may be fined $500 and/or sentenced to 30 days in jail as well as have their license suspended for one year.

There are two ways to provide proof of insurance. First, present oral or written evidence that you have complied with the minimum state requirements (insurance policy written to cover liability limits of $15,000/30,000 bodily injury and $5,000 property damage). Second, proof that you have posted (i.e., cash or a money order at least equal in value to the minimum requirements) in front of the Motor Vehicles office.

Numerous other recent laws passed by the California legislature also have to do with proof of insurance and abilities. The following are just a sample:

- Penalties or penalties of nonregistration or nonregistration of a motor vehicle under the age of 15 may cause an approved 浮动.
- Penalty fines may be imposed on those convicted of driving under the influence. In additional to a fine, one can be caught with a blood alcohol exceeding 0.04 during a violation of probation, a mandatory 48-hour jail sentence will result.
- Minimum state requirements (an insurance policy must be issued to the vehicle owner).
- Service stations are required to provide air and water to the public during business hours.
- Any driver who has obtained a favorable small claims court judgment arising from a motor vehicle accident and has been unable to collect can call on the Department of Motor Vehicles for assistance.

The police will then provide the following information to the DMV with a $500 or more has not been paid for more than 90 days. DMV will advise the other party that they have ten days to pay up or face the consequences.

Any new requirements have been established regarding drunk driving laws. Sheriff's probation rules are imposed on those convicted of driving under the influence. In addition, if one is caught with a blood alcohol exceeding 0.04 during a violation of probation, a mandatory 48-hour jail sentence will result.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Those Missing Children

Public concern about missing children is close to all-time high. We are aware of the success rate of agencies such as the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children in our community. Please feel free to call with questions at any time.

By Ted Sahl

San Jose Attorney Bruce Nickerson is one of a team of attorneys who have much success in winning Penal Code Section 673 cases. Nickerson has been a public defender in Santa Clara County.

DeePak said: If someone was guilty of disorderly contact, a mouthpiece, who was in the public for the purpose of engaging in or soliciting any form of lewdness or any unlawful act, the penalty was increased to Section 673a. Even if any one of these formulas and make them work for you.

One Giant Step for Gay Kind

Interview with Attorney BruceNickerson

By Ted Sahl

San Jose Attorney Bruce Nickerson is one of a team of attorneys who have much success in winning Penal Code Section 673 cases. Nickerson has been a public defender in Santa Clara County.

DeePak said: If someone was guilty of disorderly contact, a mouthpiece, who was in the public for the purpose of engaging in or soliciting any form of lewdness or any unlawful act, the penalty was increased to Section 673a. Even if any one of these formulas and make them work for you.

Restaurant & Dance Lounge

Dance Lounge Is Open

11 a.m. to 2 a.m. Daily

Restaurant Open

7 a.m. to 11 p.m. Daily

Sunday Brunch 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Daily Breakfast

Lunch & Dinner Specials

Prime Rib Every Saturday Eve. ($5.00 to $11.95)

Veal Picatta...

Chicken Marsilla...

Spring Chicken Sandwich on a croissant.

Shrimp Boat Sandwich on a croissant.

Appetizers: Shredded, Naches, Fried Cheese, Fried Zucchini & more

Restaurant & Dance Lounge

Dance Lounge Is Open

11 a.m. to 2 a.m. Daily

Restaurant Open

7 a.m. to 11 p.m. Daily

Sunday Brunch 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Daily Breakfast

Lunch & Dinner Specials

Prime Rib Every Saturday Eve. ($5.00 to $11.95)

Veal Picatta...

Chicken Marsilla...

Spring Chicken Sandwich on a croissant.

Shrimp Boat Sandwich on a croissant.

Appetizers: Shredded, Naches, Fried Cheese, Fried Zucchini & more

Restaurant & Dance Lounge

Dance Lounge Is Open

11 a.m. to 2 a.m. Daily

Restaurant Open

7 a.m. to 11 p.m. Daily

Sunday Brunch 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Daily Breakfast

Lunch & Dinner Specials

Prime Rib Every Saturday Eve. ($5.00 to $11.95)

Veal Picatta...

Chicken Marsilla...

Spring Chicken Sandwich on a croissant.

Shrimp Boat Sandwich on a croissant.

Appetizers: Shredded, Naches, Fried Cheese, Fried Zucchini & more

Restaurant & Dance Lounge

Dance Lounge Is Open

11 a.m. to 2 a.m. Daily

Restaurant Open

7 a.m. to 11 p.m. Daily

Sunday Brunch 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Daily Breakfast

Lunch & Dinner Specials

Prime Rib Every Saturday Eve. ($5.00 to $11.95)

Veal Picatta...

Chicken Marsilla...

Spring Chicken Sandwich on a croissant.

Shrimp Boat Sandwich on a croissant.

Appetizers: Shredded, Naches, Fried Cheese, Fried Zucchini & more
SCENES FROM SAN FRANCISCO GAY PRIDE

Photos by Ted Sahl

Tacky Tina (L) and Nikki Nation (R) make an appearance.

By Ted Sahl

The San Jose Gay/Lesbian community celebrated its first Annual Gay Pride Day in style! Thousands of men, women, and children packed St. James Park to see old friends, bask in the sun and drink lots of beer, coke, and wine. The film was run the day before the rally and after the film, the department of fire and police were called to the scene because of the fire in the building.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Gay/Lesbian community celebrated its first Annual Gay Pride Day in style! Thousands of men, women, and children packed St. James Park to see old friends, bask in the sun and drink lots of beer, coke, and wine. The film was run the day before the rally and after the film, the department of fire and police were called to the scene because of the fire in the building.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.

The San Francisco Marching Band was there, too, and Flag Corps, always an exciting group.

Two p.m., the sun was hot and trying to walk between bodies was a real problem.

The lady of rock, Caryn Sherbaker, made some dance.
SCENES FROM SAN FRANCISCO GAY PRIDE

By Ted Sahl

It wasn't the Gay Freedom Day Parade we are used to seeing -- massive drag queens we all enjoy as the musical extravaganza type of fun part of the parade -- also we are used to seeing -- outra- you loved but wished you were on Bikes, which has become a hard of hearing.

San Francisco, raised a welcoming roar of screams from parade watchers, and you could count all two hundred as they passed by, __

Our Past, Secure Our Future, the Mobilization for AIDS. San Francisco's health officials expect the City's caseload to surpass the 1200 mark as two AIDS cases and one AIDS death are being reported daily.

S.F. Gay Freedom Day Parade

By Ted Sahl

It wasn't the Gay Freedom Day Parade we are used to seeing -- massive drag queens we all enjoy as the musical extravaganza type of fun part of the parade -- also we are used to seeing -- outra-

By Ted Sahl

The San Jose Gay/Lesbian community celebrated its annual Gay Pride Day in high style. Thousands of men, women, and children packed St. James Park to meet old friends, bask in the sun and drink lots of beer, coke, and enjoy hot dogs fit for a king.

Photos by Ted Sahl

The San Jose Gay/Lesbian community celebrated its annual Gay Pride Day in high style. Thousands of men, women, and children packed St. James Park to meet old friends, bask in the sun and drink lots of beer, coke, and enjoy hot dogs fit for a king. It was difficult to walk through this crowd, a great turnout for the third year in a row.

Photos by Ted Sahl

San Jose Rally '85

Tacky Tina (L) and Nikki Nations (R) make an appearance.

Julie Brown brings the crowd to their feet at the largest San Jose Gay Pride Rally during the past decade.

Robin Tyler steps to sign an autograph at San Jose Rally.

"Ummmm Good!"
Holy Trinity Community Church Opens in San Jose

The Holy Trinity Community Church has announced that its new building will be located at 86 Keyes Street. The church is scheduled to open in the fall.

San Jose Rally Photos by Ted Sahd

John Esqueda gives his sister a birthday cake.

National Gay Health Club Owners Convene

Indianapolis — Gay Health Club owners gathered from across the country at Indianapolis from May 13-15, 1985, to discuss the future of gay health clubs in America. The conference was sponsored by the Independent Gay Health Clubs of America, the Club Board (ICA), and many non-affiliated clubs.

Guest speakers invited to address the conference included Don Brockett, a Philadelphia physician who is currently the president of the American Association of Physicians for Human Rights; Dr. Bruce Vogler, director of the San Francisco Foundation; and Dr. Andrew W. Hanson, chairman of the American Medical Association's Committee on Personal Privacy. In addition, Lawrence J. Kehrler and Tony Steil who gave an update on the San Francisco situation.

The conference concluded with a special session chaired by Stuart Herring, a Palo Alto area attorney. Dr. Ken C. Stahl, the President of the Independent Gay Health Clubs of America, ended the session with the following statement: "We are holding this event in San Francisco because it is not only the home of the gay health movement but also the headquarters of the Independent Gay Health Clubs of America."

The conference translate directly into the future of the gay health club movement, said Dr. Stahl. "The Independent Gay Health Clubs of America is committed to the promotion of gay and lesbian health care and to the protection of sexual civil liberties."

The conference began with a general session in which Dr. Stahl, President of the Independent Gay Health Clubs of America, and Dr. Ken C. Stahl, the President of the Independent Gay Health Clubs of America, welcomed the attendees and addressed the importance of the conference. The conference was then opened with a keynote address by Dr. Andrew W. Hanson, chairman of the American Medical Association's Committee on Personal Privacy.

Dr. Hanson spoke about the role of the medical profession in supporting the gay health movement and the need for the medical community to recognize the unique needs of the gay population. He also discussed the importance of the conference in providing a forum for the exchange of ideas and the development of strategies for the future.

The conference continued with a series of workshops and panels focused on various aspects of the gay health movement. These included discussions on the role of the medical profession in supporting the gay health movement, the importance of education and advocacy, and the need for the medical community to recognize the unique needs of the gay population.

The conference ended with a general session in which Dr. Stahl, President of the Independent Gay Health Clubs of America, made a final statement and thanked the attendees for their participation. Dr. Stahl also announced that the Independent Gay Health Clubs of America would continue to support the gay health movement and would work to ensure that the needs of the gay population are recognized and addressed.

The conference was a significant and worthwhile experience for all who attended. It provided an opportunity for the gay health movement to come together and discuss the important issues facing our community. The conference was a major step forward in the development of the gay health movement and a testament to the commitment of the Independent Gay Health Clubs of America to supporting the gay health movement.
Our Directory

Bars
- 46 Club
  - Address: 46 Stockton Ave
  - Phone: (408) 294-4552
- Brooke's
  - Address: 360 S First St, San Jose 95112
  - Phone: (408) 326-3500
- Cruiser
  - Address: 5001 Stockton Ave, San Jose 95126
  - Phone: (408) 725-9662
- Main Street
  - Address: 4942 Stevens Creek, San Jose 95129
  - Phone: (408) 286-9432
- Music Box
  - Address: 641 Stockton Avenue, San Jose 95126
  - Phone: (408) 732-5366
- Old Ironsides
  - Address: 1205 The Alameda, San Jose 95126
  - Phone: (408) 286-1176
- The Boots & Saddles Bar
  - Address: 735 Stockton Ave, San Jose 95126
  - Phone: (408) 294-4552
- Savoy
  - Address: 3546 Flora Vista Drive
  - Phone: (408) 244-2829

Restaurants
- Savoy
  - Address: 3546 Flora Vista Drive, San Jose 95131
  - Phone: (408) 244-2829
- Kevan's
  - Address: 735 Stockton Ave, San Jose 95126
  - Phone: (408) 294-4552

Miscellaneous Services
- Express Tan
  - Address: 1026 Kilty Blvd, Santa Clara
  - Phone: (408) 554-6161

Page 10 / OUR PAPER / July 10, 1985
Robin Tyler, Jewish lesbian feminist comic, at Savoy

You saw the Marching Band at the San Jose Gay Freedom Day Rally, but did you see the Robin Tyler Marching Corps? At 11:00 AM, right below San Jose State University, in the Main Plaza.

Liedermann 'Marching Corps' in concert at SJSU

You might have noticed that there were some improvements in the second half. She was better at the routine's benefit. She polled the audience.

Robin Tyler was 'en At The Savoy's benefit for John Molinaro.

"The Rythm of Life which was mostly unending, and moved on to choral selections from Carmina which were full of flatly harmonies."

The next end with three vocalists and the Accompagnement sang without much energy or expression. The Temescal Gay Men's Chorus of Country, Stouthearted Men and Broughter and Mendelssohn moved on.

On the Street Where You Live

Robert Tyler, Director of the University Choral Program, and the Liedermann Marching Corps at the start, leaving nowhere to move. It was a very important show purpose: it reached the bar crowd hence the title.

"Almost closed" because it is a brilliant twist. Zimmerman is certainly a talented writer, and he has written an imaginary radio stations. These bridges between the songs. According to critics; until, with an agile leap of reason, "Deathtrap" and "Sleuth" with its once-a-week girlfriend, Steffy.

The play is a parody of the "YUP! A Musical Lampoon of the San Jose Gay Freedom Day Rally, but did you see the Robin Tyler Marching Corps? At 11:00 AM, right below San Jose State University, in the Main Plaza."

It is a wonderful piece of writing, and the Dallas people take us one more conviction on a definite tune, but obvious nonsense. The highlight of the evening was a song sung by Jean Janepen and the Barbershop rendition of "On the Street Where You Live."

Photo by Ted Salt

The San Jose Gay Freedom Day Rally, but did you see the Robin Tyler Marching Corps? At 11:00 AM, right below San Jose State University, in the Main Plaza."

"The Rythm of Life which was mostly unending, and moved on to choral selections from Carmina which were full of flatly harmonies."

The next end with three vocalists and the Accompagnement sang without much energy or expression. The Temescal Gay Men's Chorus of Country, Stouthearted Men and Broughter and Mendelssohn moved on.

On the Street Where You Live

Robert Tyler, Director of the University Choral Program, and the Liedermann Marching Corps at the start, leaving nowhere to move. It was a very important show purpose: it reached the bar crowd hence the title.

"Almost closed" because it is a brilliant twist. Zimmerman is certainly a talented writer, and he has written an imaginary radio stations. These bridges between the songs. According to critics; until, with an agile leap of reason, "Deathtrap" and "Sleuth" with its once-a-week girlfriend, Steffy.

The play is a parody of the "YUP! A Musical Lampoon of the San Jose Gay Freedom Day Rally, but did you see the Robin Tyler Marching Corps? At 11:00 AM, right below San Jose State University, in the Main Plaza."

It is a wonderful piece of writing, and the Dallas people take us one more conviction on a definite tune, but obvious nonsense. The highlight of the evening was a song sung by Jean Janepen and the Barbershop rendition of "On the Street Where You Live."

Photo by Ted Salt

Robin Tyler was 'en At The Savoy's benefit for John Molinaro.

"The Rythm of Life which was mostly unending, and moved on to choral selections from Carmina which were full of flatly harmonies."

The next end with three vocalists and the Accompagnement sang without much energy or expression. The Temescal Gay Men's Chorus of Country, Stouthearted Men and Broughter and Mendelssohn moved on.

On the Street Where You Live

Robert Tyler, Director of the University Choral Program, and the Liedermann Marching Corps at the start, leaving nowhere to move. It was a very important show purpose: it reached the bar crowd hence the title.

"Almost closed" because it is a brilliant twist. Zimmerman is certainly a talented writer, and he has written an imaginary radio stations. These bridges between the songs. According to critics; until, with an agile leap of reason, "Deathtrap" and "Sleuth" with its once-a-week girlfriend, Steffy.

The play is a parody of the "YUP! A Musical Lampoon of the San Jose Gay Freedom Day Rally, but did you see the Robin Tyler Marching Corps? At 11:00 AM, right below San Jose State University, in the Main Plaza."

It is a wonderful piece of writing, and the Dallas people take us one more conviction on a definite tune, but obvious nonsense. The highlight of the evening was a song sung by Jean Janepen and the Barbershop rendition of "On the Street Where You Live."

Photo by Ted Salt

Robin Tyler was 'en At The Savoy's benefit for John Molinaro.

"The Rythm of Life which was mostly unending, and moved on to choral selections from Carmina which were full of flatly harmonies."

The next end with three vocalists and the Accompagnement sang without much energy or expression. The Temescal Gay Men's Chorus of Country, Stouthearted Men and Broughter and Mendelssohn moved on.

On the Street Where You Live

Robert Tyler, Director of the University Choral Program, and the Liedermann Marching Corps at the start, leaving nowhere to move. It was a very important show purpose: it reached the bar crowd hence the title.

"Almost closed" because it is a brilliant twist. Zimmerman is certainly a talented writer, and he has written an imaginary radio stations. These bridges between the songs. According to critics; until, with an agile leap of reason, "Deathtrap" and "Sleuth" with its once-a-week girlfriend, Steffy.

The play is a parody of the "YUP! A Musical Lampoon of the San Jose Gay Freedom Day Rally, but did you see the Robin Tyler Marching Corps? At 11:00 AM, right below San Jose State University, in the Main Plaza."

It is a wonderful piece of writing, and the Dallas people take us one more conviction on a definite tune, but obvious nonsense. The highlight of the evening was a song sung by Jean Janepen and the Barbershop rendition of "On the Street Where You Live."

Photo by Ted Salt

Robin Tyler was 'en At The Savoy's benefit for John Molinaro.
John Molinar, AIDS victim

Help sought for AIDS...patients

By Ted Sahl

The Savoy hotel hosted a benefit honoring the memory of John Molinar, who died of AIDS. Molinar's family and friends were joined by many others — including gay and lesbian organizations and local AIDS activists — to commemorate him. Molinar, who was a friend and colleague of the author, was remembered as a warm and caring person who always put others first.

The event was organized by the San Jose Gay/Lesbian Center, and proceeds will benefit the AIDS Fundraiser Committee. Molinar was a key figure in the planning and coordination of the event. He was a leader in the local AIDS community and had a significant impact on many lives.

The Savoy also hosted a separate event, "The Night of the 1000 Candles," to raise additional funds for the AIDS Fundraiser Committee. The event featured a candlelit dinner and a dance with live music.

AIDS Benefits...national

Additional funds will be raised for the AIDS Fundraiser Committee at the national level as well. The "Night of the 1000 Candles," organized by the San Francisco AIDS Foundation, has raised over $1 million in the past. The proceeds from this event will be used to support AIDS research and services.

The "Night of the 1000 Candles" is an annual event that brings together people from all over the country to support the fight against AIDS. This year's event was held on September 25th and featured performances by some of the biggest names in the entertainment industry.

The event was also attended by many high-profile figures, including actor Tom Hanks and director George Lucas. Hanks and Lucas were among the many celebrity guests who attended the event and showed their support for the cause.

In conclusion, the "Night of the 1000 Candles," organized by the San Francisco AIDS Foundation, was a huge success. The event raised over $1 million and brought together people from all over the country to support the fight against AIDS. The event was a testament to the power of community and the importance of working together to make a difference.

We encourage everyone to support the fight against AIDS by attending events like the "Night of the 1000 Candles" and by making a donation to the San Francisco AIDS Foundation. Together, we can make a difference.
PASSIONFRUIT — No. 4

Sitting at the bar I turn my head
—
Ghosts of a Living Friend
join me at the bar, make a pleasant

leaving me to wake alone, resentful.

a wrestler: all hands,

feel, but wondering
I put it aside;

Each morning-after
and try their fortune:
never a former lover, always one of lean. And I will,
but what escapes me

"Come on, you can write anything you want to."

"You haven't told me much about Oregon. It's pretty,"

"Um..."

"I'm the Swasti you saved once,"

"What was it like being in the Sun?"

"Cynda mixed, just barely, being slipped across the face.
Instead, Pat's hand whitened through the pressure."}

ARIES (March 21 - April 19) It's time to repackage your emotional boundaries. It's a great time to focus on establishing your personal rights and responsibilities, and to define them accurately in your area of work. You may be clear about your position, but you may also find it difficult to communicate your thoughts and feelings. TAURUS (April 20 - May 20) It's a great time to focus on your personal finances. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. GEMINI (May 21 - June 21) It's a great time to think about your relationships. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. CANCER (June 22 - July 22) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. LEO (July 23 - August 22) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. VIRGO (August 23 - September 22) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. LIBRA (September 23 - October 22) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. SCORPIO (October 23 - November 21) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. SAGITTARIUS (November 22 - December 21) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 19) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. AQUARIUS (January 20 - February 18) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. PISCES (February 19 - March 20) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. ARIES (March 21 - April 19) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. TAURUS (April 20 - May 20) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. GEMINI (May 21 - June 21) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. CANCER (June 22 - July 22) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. LEO (July 23 - August 22) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. VIRGO (August 23 - September 22) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. LIBRA (September 23 - October 22) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. SCORPIO (October 23 - November 21) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. SAGITTARIUS (November 22 - December 21) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 19) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. AQUARIUS (January 20 - February 18) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward. PISCES (February 19 - March 20) It's a great time to think about your emotional boundaries. You may be faced with some challenges, but you can work through them by being honest and straightforward.
Thank You for Our Success!

The San Jose Gay Pride Celebration Committee wishes to thank all of you who attended on June 23rd and made this the largest Gay rally in San Jose history.

But there wouldn’t have been a celebration if it hadn’t been for the many people that volunteered their time and effort to sell tickets, set up the decorations, provide Gay monitors, check ID’s, serve refreshments, etc.

... And the many businesses and individuals who donated the money that allowed us to provide the great entertainers we had.

To name everyone individually would take infinitely more space than we have, but we want you all to know what your help meant to us, and how valuable you are to the San Jose Gay community. See you all next year!

Gay Pride Rally Committee
Jon Snell, Becky O'Bryan, Richard Kendall, Doug Winslow