Discrimination case coming to a head

National Gay Rights Advocates and the Employment Law Center filed for summary judgment against Great Republic Insurance Company on November 20.

Last year, the two legal groups filed a $10 million discrimination suit charging Great Republic with discriminating against gay and single male applicants.

In August of 1986, a judge ruled in favor of the plaintiffs by insurance discrimination, and determined whether Great Republic had discriminated.

Judgment, NGRA and the ELC found that a trial is unnecessary because undisputed facts maintain that a trial is unnecessary.

AIDS Action Council compares policies

In dramatic testimony before the House Subcommittee on health and Environment, chaired by Rep. Henry Waxman (D-CA), Ann McFarren, executive director of the AIDS Action Council, introduced the house lights and ran a video of government-sponsored AIDS spots from various foreign countries.

The testimony and video were shown on September 21 to a packed house on Capitol Hill.

McFarren's speech was critical of the U.S. relatively small contribution to federally funded public education programs as compared to the countries on tape: Switzerland, Australia, Great Britain, Canada, Uganda, Brazil, and France.

"I do not say that all of these are appropriate for our country or even that I personally like all of them; rather I show them to demonstrate the kind of support these foreign governments are providing for their citizens," McFarren said.

Fencing off some potentially explosive questioning from Rep. Dannemeyer (R-CA) about the failure rate of condoms vs. the certainty of sexual abstinence, McFarren took the wind out of his sails by replying that when compared to certain death, a small percentage failure is a lesser of two evils.

McFarren's testimony closed with a somber reminder that "each day we wait before implementing educational programs—additional people will be infected with the virus."

"Inaction today means that we are signing the death certificates of people who will die in the next decade of the epidemic," she said.

McFarren was followed by Elizabeth Taylor who also found herself defending a healthy sex life, "even at age 52."

When Rep. Dannemeyer began to grill Taylor, stating "if you had children who could potentially be affected," she interrupted him and said, "I have grandchildren who can be affected," or words to that effect.

The full text of Ann McFarren's testimony is available from The AIDS Action Council, 729 8th Street, SE, Washington, D.C. 20002.

The AIDS Action Council is a national public policy and lobbying organization comprising more than 300 groups which provide AIDS services and education.

Its mandate is to insure that the federal government adopts an adequate response to the AIDS crisis, including allotting $2 billion by 1991, $1 billion for AIDS research and $1 billion for AIDS education.

Supervisor Wilson spoke briefly, recognizing her political career in San Jose (since 1973). Wilson said she got in trouble back in 1977 when she took an up-front stand with Jim Self on back in 1977 when she took an up-front stand with Jim Self on back in 1977 when she took an up-front stand with Jim Self on back in 1977 when she took an up-front stand with Jim Self on back in 1977 when she took an up-front stand with Jim Self.

Wilson played down her role in the AIDS Task Force, "my job is to make sure that we're doing what's right to do for my constituents," she said.

Looking ahead, Wilson hopes to continue to support the efforts of the AIDS Task Force. "In the future, we're going to be doing things that aren't necessarily at the center of our district," she said.

"You can't lose if you are all there fighting—the only thing that we can do is fight. We've proven that over and over again," added Wilson.

Wilson closed by thanking the community for its continued support of her and by announcing that Helen Miramonte will replace Ken Yeager as new chairperson of the AIDS Task Force (appointed by Wilson).

AIDS: It's Syphilis!
Dear Editor:
An interesting theory of AIDS being regarded as a developed disease has surfaced in my life. Every year, the AIDS Community is faced with the realization that HIV, the virus which is killing millions of people, is not syphilis, some have said. Syphilis is a way of life that has been increasingly unreliable, especially with people with a suppressed immune system. The most recent diagnosis of AIDS is not syphilis, but perhaps at a new form that even our scientists may not be able to detect. At present, the symptoms of AIDS and syphilis are not the same. However, the two diseases have a genetic relationship. The most severe cases of AIDS are accompanied by the symptoms of syphilis. The last time I went to the hospital, I was told that I had syphilis. It was too much, too much to expect him to believe it was syphilis alone. But, he said, you have syphilis. I didn't even know that I had syphilis. A friend of mine was diagnosed with AIDS a year ago. He was told that he had syphilis. I was surprised. He was in his forties. Can you imagine what he must be going through? Your immune system is under attack. You have to kill off cancer with penicillin. And if you have syphilis, who's going to diagnose you this? It's almost impossible.

Tom said, putting the magazine on the table. I handed him the magazine and said, "I'm not saying HIV doesn't exist. No. I have to go to the doctors. But I'm not even sure if I have syphilis or AIDS.

The New Syphilis

From my friend: "How can I get AIDS?" I thought. "You can get it from syphilis."

AIDS is not a new disease. It's syphilis. Some bacteria has been around for, what, a few hundred years? I mean, I know that syphilis is basically harmless. But I've never had syphilis."

Personal Safety/Crime Prevention

In an effort to keep San Jose one of the safest cities in the country, the San Jose Police Department's Crime Prevention Unit is offering another way to help citizens help themselves. In light of the current needs of the community, it is crucial to have a program that is informative and view of the care and concern about everyone's personal safety. The programs that they have developed are designed to give people some safety tips on how to keep themselves safe.

The most successful parasite in a new and deadly form, the syphilis, is the most likely candidate for the AIDS virus. The syphilis, which is caused by a bacterium called T. pallidum, has been around for many years. The bacterium invades the skin and mucous membranes and can be spread by sexual contact. The bacterium then reproduces and can cause severe damage to the body. The bacterium can cause severe pain and can cause death.

In the past, the bacterium has been treated with penicillin. However, the bacterium has become resistant to penicillin and other antibiotics. The bacterium can be spread by sexual contact and can cause serious damage to the body.

James Baldwin and what Peter Jennings wouldn't say

by Ren Schwartz

I've had a crush on Peter Jennings for years. Under cover of the news, he's been my Mr. Darcy. He's always been so elegant, so handsome, so suave. I've always thought he was the ideal partner for me. But I never thought he'd return my feelings.

Last week, during the 50th anniversary of the Civil Rights Movement, Jennings came out of the closet. It was a bold move, and he deserves credit for it. I've always admired him for his courage and his dedication to his cause.

I think he's just what the doctor ordered. I've been feeling so down lately, but now I feel like I can be myself again. I mean, I'm not the only one who feels this way, right? I've always believed in the power of love, and I think Peter Jennings is proof of that.

In conclusion, I think Peter Jennings is a true role model. He's shown us that it's possible to be a successful news anchor and a gay man. I'm so glad he came out, and I hope he feels all the love and support he deserves.
The "Clip Your VISA" campaign, protesting VISA's sponsorship of the anti-gay U.S. Olympic Committee, will continue through next year, the organizer explained.

Sasha Alyson, who began the campaign in August, explained that originally he saw it as a short-term project. "My first thought was that we should simply reprise our idea with them; then move on in another direction, but VISA's response has been appalling.

"They have steadfastly refused to address the issue of homophobia—furthermore, they've apologized that they were no longer going to sponsor us. That was September 16 through September 30, 1987.

Alyson began the Clip Your VISA campaign after reading in the paper that VISA was going to sponsor a couple of hundred dollars for the Gay Games in Chicago. He explained that, "After the obviously homophobic way the U.S. Olympic Committee had treated Tom Waddell and the gay community..." Alyson was using my VISA card again, and I decided to encourage others to join me.

"Already, several hundred people have sent in their card as a sign that they agree. And we're resending our card and asking them to make a banner, memorializing Gay Games founder, Tom Waddell."

Joe Chappie clips yet another VISA card, which will become part of banner protesting VISA's support of the anti-gay U.S. Olympic Committee. The banner also memorializes Gay Games founder Tom Waddell, who died of AIDS in mid-1987.

The "Clip Your VISA" campaign is a way of visually symbolizing our dispute with VISA," said Alyson. "We displayed it at the March on Washington, and will continue to do so.

"VISA said millions of dollars for the Clip Your VISA campaign, to literally hundreds of thousands of people. VISA card now has a negative connotation. "That," said Alyson, "is our real strength.

"We can significantly lower the value of the Olympic ticket, and that will hit the U.S.O.C. right in the wallet."

There's already one sign that the campaign is having the desired effect.

"We called the USOC execs to ask who else was sponsoring it and were told that, "We don't give out that information anymore." Can't imagine any reason for such a change in policy—except that being an Olympic supporter isn't the unmitigated plus it once was."

Alyson asks VISA card holders who want to participate in this campaign to cut their card into half and later return to VISA with a note explaining why it is being canceled—"one half should go to the Clip Your VISA Committee, and the other half should go to Sasha Alyson, Alyson Publications Inc., 1984 The Alameda, Suite 420, San José, CA 95126.

The "Clip Your VISA" campaign is a useful tool for local organizers working on a range of gay rights issues because it contains some of the strongest official positions against the pervasiveness of violence made by law enforcement, government agencies, religious leaders and organizations, public officials, civil rights groups, political and public interest groups.

Gay and lesbian reading from A. L. Y. S. O. N. Publications

DEATH TRICK, by Richard Stevenson, $7.00. When Kamal, a 45-year-old cowboy comes into his own, he returns freedom to his homeland, and to tell Drummer is one of my closest friends. He was an amazing person and I will always miss him. I would like to see a similar book published on the lives of other gay men who have lost loved ones to AIDS.

THE LAW OF RETURN, by Alice Bloch, $8.00. Of the three stories about returning to the past, this one was the most intriguing. It dealt with the idea of coming to grips with one's own love for another person and the consequences of that love.

ROCKING THE CRADLE, by Marci Harris, $5.00. This was a beautiful story about the bond between a mother and her daughter. It was moving and heartwarming, and I would recommend it to anyone who has ever loved a child.

THE MOVIE LOVER, by Richard Fleishman, $7.00. This was a poignant story about a woman who learns to love her own twin. It was a moving tale of love and acceptance.

THE BOILED FROG SYNDROME, by Marie Reiner, $8.00. Stephen Ackroyd, a newly updated edition. It was a moving story about a woman who learns to love her own twin. It was a moving tale of love and acceptance.

PLAGUE: A novel about healing, by Joseph John, $8.00. An experiment gone wrong -- hardly wrong -- creates a new creature, a child, and opens up the world to the joys of love.

DANCER DAWKINS AND THE CALIFORNIA DREAM, by William Ellis, $6.00. In Bangor, Maine, Linnea Willett Griggs and Cheryl Seabrook are called to the scene of a murder. They discover a chilling plot with a philosophy of death and dying, and a horrific approach to healing, that make the most difficult cases seem easier.

LIVE LONG AND DIE, by Joseph John, $8.00. In their own words, women talk about their experiences with the AIDS crisis. The book is a moving tribute to the women in the 1960s and 1970s, and the courage and commitment of those who fought for their rights.

GARLANS: The emergence of lesbians as a political force, by John D'Emilio and Estelle B. Freedman, $15.00. This is a comprehensive book about the history of the lesbian movement in the United States. It is well-researched and written with clarity.

THE GAY BOOK OF LISTS, by Leigh Jenkins, $10.00. This was a fascinating book that compiled lists of the most important events in the gay rights movement. It was a valuable resource for anyone interested in the history of the movement.

IN THE LITE: A black gay anthology, edited by Joseph John, $8.00. This book is a collection of stories by black gay writers. It was a moving tribute to the black gay community and their struggle for equality.
