Close Race Prediction
Fertilization Fight For Rights
Santa Clara Co.

One year, a few votes and 2,800,000 signatures later, the rights of the state's homosexuals will be on the ballot. Gay and lesbian leaders are urging all their supporters to vote. "Close race prediction," said Supervisor Harry Britt, who is co-chairman of the Gay and Lesbian Democratic Club, "we're talking less than a 50/50 chance of success."

Police Raid Hawaiian Bathrooms

Sheriffs: The number of gay men caught in the raids has not been released. The board voted to consider the issue at another meeting. The National Gay and Lesbian Task Force has already expressed its opposition to the raids.

Duluth Gays Bring Suit Against Harassment

Winnipeg: A gay couple says it was attacked by a group of gangsters in a public place. The group has filed suit against the city.

Archbishop Criticizes Active Gays

Chicago: "Our church is not alone in supporting the active gay community," said the Archbishop of Chicago. "We believe in the love and dignity of all people, regardless of their sexual orientation."

College Trustees Evade Gay Issue

Grossmont College: The board of trustees has decided to avoid the gay rights issue. A student who requested a discussion of the issue was told that it would not be addressed at this time.

NAGP Extinguishes Fire Manual Homophobia

Hollywood: Following a complaint from the National Gay Task Force, the manual has been revised to remove references to fire departments as "anti-gay." The manual is used in the Fire Arson Investigative Course of the National Fire Academy.

Gays May Sponsor Cuban Refugees

Visa: Gay men are being sponsored by gay women. The appraoch is a way to help Cubans who are not partnered.

Eight Days of Hope

San Francisco: "The event is a celebration of the gay and lesbian community," said the organizer. "The aim is to bring people together and to celebrate our diversity.

A Fight for Rights

Santa Clara Co.: "We want to fight for our rights," said a gay leader. "We believe in the dignity and worth of all people, regardless of their sexual orientation."

Informational Panelled by Gay Rights Leaders

San Francisco: "The meeting is an opportunity to learn more about gay rights," said a gay leader. "We believe in the love and dignity of all people, regardless of their sexual orientation."

When you think of the ACLU, you probably think of the famous case in which the ACLU successfully fought to uphold the rights of bakers, most notably the Second Amendment's right to bear arms. However, the ACLU is much more than a civil rights organization. It is a group of attorneys who use the law to protect the civil liberties of all Americans.

The ACLU's history is one of fighting for the rights of individuals. The organization was founded in 1920, and its first case involved a challenge to a anti-masturbation law in Louisiana. Since then, the ACLU has been involved in countless cases, ranging from the rights of women to the rights of the disabled.

The ACLU is also involved in many other important issues. For example, the organization has been involved in fighting the military's "don't ask, don't tell" policy, which banned gay and lesbian service members from serving in the armed forces. The ACLU has been involved in many other cases, ranging from the rights of the disabled to the rights of the elderly.

The ACLU is an important organization, and it is one that all Americans should support. The organization is dedicated to protecting the civil liberties of all Americans, and it has been involved in many important cases. The ACLU is a group of attorneys who use the law to protect the rights of all Americans, and it is an organization that all Americans should support.

The Rights of Bar & Restaurant Employees Not Another Closet Door!

Part 2 of a 3-part series

by Larry A. Bider

In the first part of this series dealing with the rights of bar and restaurant employees, we discussed the history of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). In this part, we will discuss the current state of affairs as the status of gay rights in the workplace.

When Warren Preston, a civilian employee of the Department of Defense, was fired for engaging in sexual activities in his workplace, the ACLU filed a lawsuit on his behalf. The lawsuit was successful, and Preston was reinstated.

The ACLU is involved in many other cases, ranging from the rights of women to the rights of the disabled. The organization is dedicated to protecting the civil liberties of all Americans, and it has been involved in many important cases. The ACLU is an important organization, and it is one that all Americans should support.

The ACLU is a group of attorneys who use the law to protect the rights of all Americans, and it is an organization that all Americans should support.

Cruising

Cruising, as defined by the San Francisco Police Department, is "the practice of a person engaging in sexual conduct with another person in a public place with the intention of soliciting or engaging in sexual conduct with another person in a public place.

The practice of cruising is not illegal, but it is often seen as a public nuisance. The San Francisco Police Department has been accused of scapegoating the gay community by targeting gay and lesbian individuals as targets of their red-light district raids.

The ACLU is involved in many other cases, ranging from the rights of women to the rights of the disabled. The organization is dedicated to protecting the civil liberties of all Americans, and it has been involved in many important cases. Exploring San Francisco's Political Potpourri

by John Turturro and Sam Darrow

"The New Moderate" are the words that come to mind whenever I think of San Francisco. The city's political climate is often characterized by a balance of progressive and conservative forces. In this issue, we delve into the psyche of the city's political scene, exploring the factors that drive the moderate political leanings.

We discuss the role of historic leaders like Harvey Milk, who laid the foundation for today's moderate political climate. Milk's influence is still apparent, especially in the Gay Men's Rights movement, where moderate policies are championed by figures like Marcia, who represents a bridge between progressive and moderate viewpoints.

A belief that political figures are different from the people they represent is a key element in understanding the moderate political climate. The 10 commandments of the Harvey Milk Democratic Club (HMDCC) are a prime example. These commandments, which were written in the '60s, are still relevant today and serve as a guide for political figures to stay true to their roots.

We also look at the role of women in politics. The 1970s saw a rise in women's activism, and today, women continue to play a significant role in the moderate political climate. Figures like Margrits, who represents the New Moderate faction, are at the forefront of this movement.

The moderate political climate is characterized by a balance of forces, with the New Moderate faction playing a key role. This faction seeks to address the needs of the people while maintaining a moderate political stance. The moderate political climate is a reflection of the city's diverse population and the need for a balanced approach to politics.

This issue of the Sentinel explores the moderate political climate in San Francisco, providing insights into the factors that drive this political leaning and the role of political figures in shaping it.

Politics

This week we report on the upcoming primary elections in San Francisco. The city is facing several key issues, including healthcare, education, and economic development. We cover the positions of the major candidates, including the incumbent, Mayor Lee, who is facing a strong challenge from Supervisor Ahern.

We also look at the role of women in politics. The women's movement in the 1970s laid the foundation for today's moderate political climate. We discuss the role of figures like Margrits, who represents the New Moderate faction, and the impact of women's activism on the political climate.

Federal Court Strikes at Homophobia in Army

By Larry Bush

A Federal District court in Wisconsin ruled last week that the U.S. Army's attempt to control a soldier's sexual preferences and desires is unconstitutional. The ruling, the first major case involving Army policy, holds that sexual orientation is protected by the Constitution and cannot be used as a basis for discharge or other penalties.

The ruling came in a case brought by Ben Shalom, a lesbian who has served as an openly gay military interviewee to a local military newspaper as an openly gay military instructor. Under the policy of all four service branches, the possibility of an "other than honorable" discharge.

In a decision that could have broad implications for the military's attitude toward gay military personnel, the court ruled that the Army's policy of limiting discharges to those found guilty of homosexual conduct is unconstitutional. The court held that Ben Shalom's constitutional rights had been violated under the first, second, and fifth amendments.

The court stated that the Army's policy is beyond the reach of the U.S. military's strength. The court held that the policy is a violation of constitutional guarantees of privacy and protection for gays by a federal court.

The Wisconsin case puts that argument to rest, with the later category carrying military argument, but that the military assertions themselves lacked factual substance, a claim long made by gay leaders.

Two weeks ago, for example, the military Chief has been "too responsive to the military's need to act on the U.S. military's strength. Much of the current public debate centers on the U.S. military's stance on gay political successes than the Army's action in the case.

In that political climate, the push should a political decision be forthcoming? The Ben Shalom verdict, which appeared shortly afterwards, "The court is satisfied from the record," the ruling reads, "that her gender or the color of her skin."

MARGARET JENKINS DANCE COMPANY

MARGARET JENKINS DANCED MAY 14, 1981

Choreography by Michael Smuin, L Walton and Willa Kim's costumes and lighting design by Max Brown and David Sohm and Ruud, who alternate as Prospero and Ariel directing the storm sequence. The other principal dancers in the production are: An English friend remarks, "I enjoyed it and it certainly reminded me of American musicals like 'Cinderella' and 'Phantom of the Opera House.'"

The Opera House."

"This is the touted full-length work of Margaret Jenkins's company for which the troupe has been hard pressed for invention. Perhaps this is because the company is in the midst of its third season, and the dancers are weary of feeling that there is no room for innovation in their vocabulary of movement. In the same act with Juno and Nepenthe, Prospero and Ariel directing the storm sequence, the cast is male and female, from ambition which can shipwreck a man, to the transformative inner and outer, no process requiring that the choreography smacks of an administrative machine greasing the runways for the launching of artistic productions. I suppose that is inevitable for companies like the Jenkins' that are expected to turn out full-length works and that have an established audience for which they must always provide. This is the company's response."

NEW 3-WAY SPEAKER SYSTEM (Model 985)

With Sound Quality So Fantastic You Won't Believe Your Ears!

Giant size cabinets give rich resonant sound to fill even the largest room.

$149 each ($298 for the pair).

Although these speaker systems are rather large for the average room, their beautiful walnut grain color blends well with any decor.

These speaker systems are one of Marantz's newest models. (So new that most stores don't even have this new series in stock.) Do not confuse these high quality Marantz speakers with the lower priced Marantz speakers, such as the 15M, 12M, 2M, etc. This new model (the 985) is an incredible speaker system.

So Powerful They Can Be Used With The Majority Of Receivers On The Market

5 YEAR SERVICE POLICY INCLUDED FREE

This is Marantz's NEWEST ONE!!! (Model SR2000)

At a price so low, It will shock you, and drive other Stereo Dealers Insane!!!

76 WATTS RMS!!

This powerful AM-FM Receiver has an ample 38 RMS watts Per Channel (times 2 ch.) into 4 ohms minimum continuous power output from 20 Hz to 20,000 Hz with less than 0.1% Total Harmonic Distortion.

Go to Any Stereo Store in the City, and ask if they will sell you this same receiver, (Brand New), for less than the Manufacturer's list price of $325.00

But now you can buy this great Marantz Receiver, (Brand New in factory sealed carton), for only...

when you buy one pair of the speaker systems shown above, at the price advertised above. Your cost for the Speaker systems above is $149.00 each, for a total of $298 for the pair, plus $1 for the Marantz Receiver. Thus, your complete cost for the complete 3 piece group is only...
