Gays Win Support at Demo Convention

by Larry Bush

Gay Democrats were full approval for their several candidates in last week’s Demo­ crats’ presidential primaries in New York, as well as serious overtures in their next effort in the state’s campaign for Ronald Reagan this fall. The action, while not unexpected, marked a major change for the Demo­ crats, which for the last 15 years, has spoken to a national convention and deflected itself as a member of the Gay Caucus. The selection, Carter，“was very interesting to me, because to the contrary of all the reports of the officers, it came from the base of the party, and the people in it, and the officers, and the president himself.” The approval of a gay right strategy, executive committee, and endorsed, and canvass of national officers for the last time with no response from the opposition, was a major turning point for the Demo­ cratic Party strategy which sought to avoid meddling their concerns with gay issues.

The decisions also mark a significant change in the attitude of the Democratic Party in the context of the new party formation and who they support. Their support for two Republican candidates who opposed discrimination against gays, or blocked open gay participation in the party and its campaigns at that time, as an innocent to the outcome to southern women. This year’s change were due largely to the active involvement of gay in Democratic primary, where they won’t, moderate and all-leaning to be in the new party, forming a new face at the con­ vention. The vast majority of the male Gay Democrats who had never in­ volved in the Caucus, with the support of gay leaders and women, were able to gain suc­ cessful patronage for their own vice presidential nomination, compelling the president to address the convention on issues in its final session. Through­ out the primary, the convention and the Caucus for the first time, as it had been at the 1980 convention, was offered in a plea negotiation, and was accepted by the other gay candidates, who emerged as the least group to be openly endorsed by the Caucus.

New Jersey Lesbian Mother Retains Custody

(Trenton, N.J.) A federal mediator was appointed yesterday to handle the dispute between a New Jersey gay couple and the child's maternal grandmother over custody of the child. The Bible-believing grandmother had sold her house to move to another state in order to be near her daughter, with whom she has been living for the last five years. The gay couple had offered to pay the grandmother's $55,000 mortgage on the house in order to keep her in the state, but she refused.

Santa Barbara City Council Likely to Debate Gay Rights Law

(Santa Barbara, Calif.) An all-persons bill that would ban gay discrimination was introduced this week at the Santa Barbara City Council. The bill was sponsored by councilman Bob Onofre, who said, "We love the sinner, but hate the sin." He argued that the law was essential or gratuitous part of any civil constitution and would impinge upon essential freedoms.

L.A. Gays Sponsor Fair

(Los Angeles, Calif.) Gay activists are planning a world-famous fair to inaugurate the gay rights movement. The event, which is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, August 23-24, will feature a gay pride parade, a gay cosmetics contest, a gay talent show, and a gay picnic. The fair will be held in the Hollywood Bowl, with entertainment and ceremonies beginning at 7:30 p.m. on both days. It is expected to attract over 30,000 spectators.

The definition of "slur" adopted by the City Attorney in this case, contains a constitutional provision that will impinge upon all matters of speech. The policy, adopted by a vote of the city council, states that "any person or group using a "slur" will bring on a slew of legal actions." Munro was arrested in Port Huron, Michigan, on August 23, 1980, and charged with murder.

Outlaw Slurs

In the October issue of Comics, the Anti-Defamation League published a list of "slurs" that should be avoided in public service announcements. The list includes words such as "fag," "queer," and "dyke." The definition of "slur" adopted by the City Attorney in this case, states that "any person or group using a "slur" will bring on a slew of legal actions." Munro was arrested in Port Huron, Michigan, on August 23, 1980, and charged with murder.

Lawyers Seek Information on Job Bias by Pacific Telephone

(San Francisco, Calif.) A group of lawyers is seeking information on job bias by Pacific Telephone. The group, led by attorney Elliot Bien of the American Civil Liberties Union, is investigating allegations of discrimination by the telephone company. The lawyers are interested in hearing from anyone who has experienced discrimination by Pacific Telephone.

FBI Search For Brinks Bandit Widens

by Sam Friedman

The Brink's robbery story is a bloody one. The search for the bandit who robbed $2 million from a Brink's armored car is on, even as the search begins for a second bandit who is suspected of robbing a Phoenix jewelry store.

New leads in the Brink's case were reported to the FBI by a witness who said he was one of the bandit's accomplices.

The witness, who asked not to be named, said he was with the bandit at the time of the robbery and that he had seen the bandit escape with the money.

The FBI is also looking into the possibility that the bandit may have been in contact with other bandits who are suspected of robbing other armored cars in recent weeks.

Legislation Pending On Gay Refugees

The California Senate voted to pass a bill that would give gay refugees the same protection as all other refugees.

The bill, which was introduced by Sen. John G. Warner, a Democrat, would provide legal protection to gay refugees who are fleeing persecution in their home countries.

The bill would also provide financial assistance to gay refugees who are coming to the United States.

Raw Census Data Shows Big Jump in S.F. Gays

One of the first maps based on 1980 census data shows San Francisco's gay population grew 27 percent from 1970 to 1980.

The map, which was created by the U.S. Census Bureau, shows that the gay population in San Francisco increased from 15,000 to 20,000.

The map also shows that the gay population in other cities, including New York, Chicago, and Los Angeles, also increased.

The map, which is available from the U.S. Census Bureau, is available online at www.census.gov.

Inside the Gay Caucus

By Carol Baskin

Just when you thought the political scene couldn't get any stranger, it did. The California Democratic convention was held last weekend in Los Angeles and the gay caucus made an appearance.

The caucus chose Melvin Boozer, a member of the Los Angeles Gay Caucus, as its nominee for the office of vice president. Boozer is a member of the National Gay Task Force and has been very active in the gay rights movement.

The caucus also discussed issues such as hate crimes, discrimination, and equal rights. They stressed the importance of unity and the need for more involvement from the gay community.

Lesbian Wins Battle For Deputy Sheriff Post

Doris Ross, the jubilant 43-year-old Chicana, was selected by San Francisco County Sheriff Richard Rainey to be one of the first women deputies in the county's history.

"I was very pleased with the selection," said Ross, who was appointed to the position of Sergeant Deputy Sheriff.

Ross, who has been a police officer in the city for 10 years, said she was "humbled" by the appointment and "honored" to be chosen.

Ross said she was "excited" about the opportunity to serve in a new capacity and "look forward to serving the community."

The event, to be held in San Francisco in May, will feature a wide range of sports and activities, including swimming, weightlifting, fencing, boxing, and wrestling. The Gay Olympics is designed to provide a fun and safe environment for gay and lesbian athletes to compete and socialize.

While the Gay Olympics will be open to both gay and non-gay participants, the organizers are primarily targeting gay athletes who may be feeling marginalized or excluded from traditional sports. The event is also aimed at promoting social and economic equality for the LGBTQ+ community.

FAIREST OF THE FAIRS: Last Sunday's Seventh Annual Castro Street Fair did not complete as I write this. But the organizers of the event had already started to scurry around looking for a new venue. Last Sunday's fair, run by the San Francisco LGBTQ Community Cultural District, was a celebration of the community and its history. The fair was attended by thousands of people who came to enjoy the festivities and support the cause. The event featured live music, food, and entertainment, all held in the spirit of community and inclusion. The organizers are already planning for next year's fair, and they hope to make it even better than this year's.

MIDDLE AGE CRAZEN.
Directed by Alan Zweig.
At the Connexion.

MIDDLE AGE CRAZEN, directed by Alan Zweig, is the best kind of documentary—a light-hearted look at the fears and fantasies of people approaching middle age. It's a candid, humorous, and surprisingly touching film about people's reactions to aging, done with a refreshing lack of self-consciousness and a willingness to poke fun at itself. The film follows several characters as they attempt to cope with the challenges of aging, including a man who is trying to keep his job as he approaches retirement, a woman who is struggling to maintain her looks, and a group of friends who are trying to stay active and healthy. The film is filled with witty observations and poignant moments, and it is a testament to the power of laughter and the human spirit to overcome adversity. The film is recommended for those who are interested in exploring the complexities of aging in a fun and engaging way, as well as for anyone who is looking for a good laugh.

Man Against Nature in the Old West

THE ALDYN COLLECTION OF WESTERN ART

EXHIBITION AT G.G.T.

In Bruce Beaton

Are among the artists of the Old West, who have been greatly influenced by the art of the late Charles Russell, Charles M. Russell is the name that comes to mind. Russell's work is known for its detail and lively use of color, which has been shown in the exhibit, and his style is often compared to Remington's. Russell's paintings are the best known and most famous of the Old West, and he is considered to be the greatest western artist of the 20th century. Russell's art is celebrated for its vivid use of color and realistic depictions of the American West. His paintings are full of life and energy, and they capture the spirit of the Old West in a way that is truly unique.

The Val Strough Company understands that you make a statement of your own personal style in every action that you take. Your style is your own. When you choose a new car or truck, you express who you are. And when you're ready to make that choice, we want to serve you.

The Val Strough Company. Seven showrooms and eight makes, from luxury to economy.

Chevrolet, Honda, Jaguar, Mazda, MG, Triumph, Subaru and Volkswagen.

Experience Val Strough's difference. The outstanding design of our showrooms. Like nothing you expect. And our salespeople. No high pressure pitch. Because we respect your freedom to think and act for yourself. It's your power. It's your style. And at Val Strough we have a vehicle for it.

Visit one of The Val Strough Company showrooms and ask for your complimentary full-color poster of The Power of Style.
