Feinstein Attends Alice Meeting

San Francisco: "Addressing the Gay Community"

Feinstein appeared for the second time in recent days before a gathering of the gay community as she campaigned for the U.S. Senate. The appearance was on Tuesday at an event called "Addressing the Gay Community," sponsored by the American Civil Liberties Union and the Human Rights Campaign.

Feinstein, who is running against the Republican challenger Chuck Barron, said that she has "spent a lot of time with the gay community" and that she has "carefully considered the issues that are important to you.

"I was in France when the AIDS epidemic began," Feinstein said. "I've had the privilege of meeting many of you and I know that you have done so much to help solve the problems that we face.

"I'm humbled by the challenges that you face," she added. "I've been a member of the Senate for 20 years and I know that there are people who are working hard to solve the problems that you face.

"I'm committed to finding solutions to the problems that you face," she concluded. "I'm committed to finding solutions to the problems that you face."

FABULOUS NIGHT CLUB ERA!

There's a wonderful, harum-scarum atmosphere of elegance. I bring special friends to the editor.

I love PAULI'S.

Dooley's own (as Carol Burnett's husband) is considered a San Francisco acting hero. He's a perfect example of a man who didn't let his weight hold him back from doing any role. He's still a great comic actor, even if he's putting on a few pounds.

Small wonder that Dooley's own (as Carol Burnett's husband) is considered a San Francisco acting hero. He's a perfect example of a man who didn't let his weight hold him back from doing any role. He's still a great comic actor, even if he's putting on a few pounds.

Peter Popeye about a wealthy, unmarried man who wants a child but not marriage. "Fie on your young lady if you can't do without marriage and a family!"

There is no perfect couple.

Truly, said Dooley, "a Perfect Couple"

But let's get back to Tomlin: there's nothing much has changed about a wealthy, unmarried man who wants a child but not marriage. "Fie on your young lady if you can't do without marriage and a family!"

The Roches: "Nurds" is a little gem. The three sisters, great, near-accapella versions, put together for free-rambling over vast, uncharted terrains and tailored his approach to the band's sound.

This poreless paraffin platter, then, is a splendid example of exactly what the band was striving for. The sound of the album from start to finish is cohesive and unified, with some smart$ from the heart.

A Perfect Couple

Edna Ferber's novel, "The Perfect Husband," is a classic love story. It's about a couple who have been married for years and are still in love with each other. The novel is about the ups and downs of marriage and how to keep a marriage strong.

One of the main themes of the novel is the importance of communication. The husband and wife have to talk to each other about their feelings and concerns in order to have a healthy relationship. Another theme is the importance of compromise. The husband and wife have to be willing to give in to each other's needs and desires in order to have a successful marriage.

The novel is also about the importance of fidelity. The husband and wife have to be faithful to each other in order to maintain a healthy relationship. The novel is a great example of how to have a successful marriage.

Happy Holidays from the Sentinel
Dear Fellow Guys,

Merry Christmas! For most of us this is true; there is, however, a small minority group for which this season is a painful and lonely time, the "forgotten elderly." THE CAVE is holding a "Christmas Over 60 Week" from Monday, Dec. 15 thru Friday, Dec. 19.

On Tuesday, Dec. 16 we will be having an auction to raise money for gifts, as well as having a Gift Donation Box. Some of our Guest Auctioneers include such people as Supervisors Harry Britt and Carol Ruth Silver, Sheriff Mike Hennessey, and many others.

Monday, Dec. 15 will be Bartenders' Nite with beer. All tips go to the Laguna Honda Hospital.

Now the touchy part: We are in great need of gifts, items to be auctioned off, and volunteers to help. We will all be older someday so let's not forget the people who have contributed so much to us.

Come and win one of our Door Prizes, like the 19" color TV.

Thank you.
