(San Francisco) After months of angry division, the corporate board of the Gay Foundation that serves the San Francisco area has nominated a reconvened structure for a unified parade planning body that was rejected by some of the current parade members: The Lesbian and Gay Parade Committee, formerly known as the Lesbian and Gay Parade Committee.

The proposal must be ratified by both the current members of the corporate board and some members who have representation in theamas before it can take effect. Details of the new proposal are as follows:

- The new board is composed of the current members of both the corporate board and the Lesbian and Gay Parade Committee.
- The second proposal is to be submitted to the General Membership of the Lesbian and Gay Parade Committee, formerly known as the Lesbian and Gay Parade Committee, and in particular encouraging the participation of all the elements of the lesbian and gay community. The proposal is being considered by the hands of the corporate board and the Lesbian and Gay Parade Committee.
- The new board is composed of both the corporate board and the Lesbian and Gay Parade Committee.

PEOPLE

The well-liked Mr. Moore lost his job at the end of last week. He said he'll be back to work tomorrow morning.

Staff advisor to President Carter, Dan Alberti, who handled the case in the final interview with the Governor and Senator Robert Kennedy, was one of the three to vote for the question of whether the Jaguar's owner, Ron Ernst, had secured permits and begun commercialization of the Castro area, and the question was the special importance of the Jaguar issue itself.

Praise the Lord And Pass the Valium

Edward Constantine

What a delight we are about to have when the new Albee play, "Praise the Lord And Pass the Valium," opens at the Morosco Theatre on February 17. Starring Al Pacino in his first major role, this work is a deeply moving and thought-provoking exploration of personal identity, spirituality, and the search for meaning in a world that often seems to lack purpose. The play revolves around a man named Eddie, who is undergoing a crisis of faith and is trying to find a way to fulfill his destiny. As he embarks on a spiritual journey, Eddie encounters a variety of characters who offer him guidance and support. The play is a powerful reminder of the importance of faith and spirituality in our lives, and it is certain to inspire and challenge audiences of all ages.

The article also briefly mentions other movies and events, including "Altered States," "The Devils," "Dr. Strangelove," and "The Village of the Damned," but the main focus is on the Albee play and its significance.

At the Marine’s Memorial Theater.
Directed by Richard Seyd.

In the first act, Pisoni performs the well-known classic "Murphy's Law," which involves a series of disasters, including a door slamming scene, a falling object, and a trapeze artist flying through the air. Despite the chaos, Pisoni maintains his composure and delivers a memorable performance.

In the second act, Hoyle returns, this time as a "typical" American tourist. His skit proves the Pickles' skill as First-rate writers as well as actors.

Throughout the performance, the audience is treated to a range of scenes, including a slapstick comedy routine and a mime and situation comedy. The performers use exaggerated gestures and facial expressions to convey their characters' emotions, and the audience is laughing and guffawing as they watch the various antics.

In conclusion, "The Pickle Family Circus" is a hilarious and entertaining production that is sure to please audiences of all ages. It is a testament to the writers' skill and the performers' ability to deliver a memorable performance. The show is a must-see for anyone who enjoys a good laugh and a good time.
