Bacci Runs Hard

"I didn't get into this race until Aug. 8. I was attending a political action committee of Concerned Republicans for Individual Rights and some people jumped on me and said, 'Run, you idiot.' There's no other Republican in the race." So I looked around and thought that if I ever got to get into politics this was the time to do it."

The speaker is Robert Bacci, the third openly gay candidate for the community college board. That's right ... the third while the community college board has grabbed all the attention. Bacci has been running the current college board.

"An election campaign is both fascinating and thrilling at the same time. There is great consumption of time, stress and emotional energy, which is sometimes difficult because of the hurtful thing that can undermine one's spirit. But there is a lot of heart in my campaign, and I feel like I am fighting now." said the speaker is Carol Migden, the 34-year-old lesbian who is now running for the San Francisco Community College Board. A New Yorker who has been living in the bay area for a dozen years, Migden is currently executive director for Operation Concern, a non-profit mental health clinic for gay men, lesbians and their families.

"I feel that I'm qualified, competent candidates with a record of achievement that I'm extremely proud of, and I'd like to be serving in a responsible and respectable fashion," said Migden in a recent interview with The Sentinel.

Her race has not been without controversy, Migden said that most of it has been "involuntary" because it makes for interesting copy.

One of the candidates she is running against, Sal Rosselli, is also gay. This has led one local newspaper to describe the contest as a "turf war" between the two gay democratic clubs. "Migden is active in the Harvey Milk Democratic Club, while Roselli is strongly backed by the Alice B. Toklas Club." said the speaker.

"I don't view the race as a turf war at all. No one doubts my sincerity or outstanding qualifications. Some community leaders have expressed problems with Sal, but I have and will continue to draw attention to who I am," said Migden.

Migden also said it is an "insult" to be described as merely a political tool for Superimary Harry Britt.

Vote Unpredictable

What it requires to influence the gay vote is to be saved for another time. The gay population remains consistently even among the gay vote.

Illusion becomes not only the politics, and influencing politicians, a crime. What it requires to influence the gay vote is to be saved for another time.

Example: Supervisor Betty Britt has recently attempted to deliver a bloc of votes to the gay Police Officers Association via a trade off for gay support for police pension reform. EDITORIAL
Sentinel Savages Britt “Deal” by W.B. Beardsmead

Three areas of great concern will decide the homosexual community’s political climate for the year: the race for Congress in the 11th district between incumbent Congressmen Phil Burton and Senator Milton Moline, a tight and possibly important race for the San Francisco Board of Supervisors; and the political climate surrounding the passage of city propositions A, I, and J. In this editorial we discuss the propositions.

There is no one on the board of supervisors who, in our opinion, has a particularly close relationship with the police. Nonetheless, Supervisor Ronola Brown, who has been one of the supervisors’ prime opponents of Proposition A, has announced that she will vote yes on both Propositions I and J. This is a curious position for a community that is not particularly interested in the police but stands to lose a great deal of money if the POA were defeated.

We must examine the arguments each side presents and decide whether the propositions are a good idea.

Propositions I and J are clearly for and against a tax increase. They will cost $91.8 million this fiscal year and $107.3 million next. These are significant amounts of money, but they are necessary to keep the city running.

The arguments against the propositions are weak. They say that it is unfair to tax the rich and that the police are not a public service. These arguments are fallacious.

The arguments in favor of the propositions are convincing. They say that the police provide a valuable service and that the city needs the money to keep the city running.

We believe that the propositions are a good idea. They will help the city to run smoothly and will keep the police from being cut.

We recommend that you vote yes on both Propositions I and J.

Hottest Women's Club in Town

The staff of the hottest women's club in town would like a medium to come in and exorcise their ghastly. Affectionately called Clementina, she is not haughty, but mischievous. She has played with lights, turned on water taps, broken glasses in people's hands caused plates to fall off the wall and blown out candles at Clementina's Baybrick Inn. Kate Elvis and Lauren Hewitt are the owners of the first women's club in San Francisco that offers cocktails and dancing in addition to beer and a restaurant. It has been filled to capacity many times already. The owners plan to install air conditioning in the place to exorcise their ghastly. The owners have a log book in the U.S. for those "situation" when rice flowers just won't do. They suggest the service as a reply to "grievances with horses, erects, witches, or hunchbacks, political adversities, unsatisfied editors, chaukchaukah, depressions, broken dates, drunk drivers, and humming harmonicas."

Facts

1. CONSENTING ADULTS - After FIVE attempts to amend Chap. 71, Sec. 286 of the California Penal Code. (Adult Consensual Sex Acts), it was not until the Brown bill (AB 585 was COAUTHORED and introduced in the State Senate by SENATOR MILTON MARKS and the late George Moscone, that it was able to carry in the Assembly on March 3, and in the Senate on April 21, 1975, becoming law the following January 1st.

2. HOMOPHOBIA - Did you know that the incumbent congressman has NEVER walked or ridden in a Gay Freedom Day Parade in San Francisco until 1982, when he realized that his true animosity for the Gay Community was showing? It was not until then and after counsel from his local politicians, that he appointed a gay person from among the local activists to be known as his legislative aide. Not by free choice but because of local political pressure.

3. HARVEY MILK - As amazing as it is that the Harvey Milk Club endorsed the incumbent, it is also strange for that political club to so have named itself, when every one in the city knew that an untenable situation existed between the late Harvey Milk and the incumbent. Harvey was always at wit's end to understand why the incumbent congressman opposed and even ridiculed his political efforts. The incumbent congressman violently opposed the late Harvey Milk. He fought and campaigned against the Milk initiative favoring District Elections in the city.

4. GAY RIGHTS - The people of Washington, D.C. passed a gay Equal Rights Bill, which was vetoed by a preponderance of the Congress. The same congress of which the incumbent was a "recognized leader." The homophobic congressman never raised his voice in support of that bill, which would have been a "run up the ladder" for the Gay Community in Washington, and a signal to the entire country. Should you see the incumbent congressman, you might ask him why he did not use his "so called congressional leadership and clout" to quash the MC DONALD AMENDMENT - another bill which has made the lives of the Washington Gay Community considerably less attractive to our lives are in San Francisco.

5. IN A NUT SHELL - MILTON MARKS has been a true, staunch and supportive friend of our total community since 1967, when he appeared before a SIR (Society for Individual Rights) and promised to support our social as well as our political aims. HE HAS KEPT HIS PROMISE! He has attended every Tavern Guild Empress Coronation, Beaux Arts Ball, Circus-Circus, Polk, Haight and Castro Street Fairs since their inception. ISN'T IT STRANGE HOW THE INCUMBENT CONGRESSMAN IS JUST NOW DISCOVERING THE GAY COMMUNITY????

6. MILTON MARKS was a dedicated and staunch supporter of all of HARVEY MILK'S political efforts and sponsored each of his candidacies for elective office. Senator Marks was selected to give the eulogy at the Memorial Service for the slain Supervisor at the San Francisco Opera House. Not only a true friend of Harvey's but a friend of the entire Community, be they Democrats, Republicans, Libertarians, Peace & Freedom and Declines to State. Male or Female. Gay or otherwise.

AND A CAST OF THOUSANDS MORE . . .

Fashion reflects the times, and in this era of light conversation, fashion has become more conservative. Of course, there’s been a fringe like fashion since the 60s, but the whole, safari-styled, black, white, and orange looks have grown out of style.

If you like the way fashion has been going, then you’re going to enjoy this new trend because it’s not going to change this season. The fashion word for fall 1982 is casual, that means something simple, and it is more of a day-to-day style. Most of what you’ll see is a neutral color scheme, a touch of blue, a touch of orange, a touch of gray, a touch of green. These colors will be appearing in most of the new clothing lines.

The fall trend will be to wear pastel colors, and this trend will continue into the winter season. You’ll see fall clothing with pastels like pink, blue, and green. You’ll also see pastel colors in accessories like scarves, belts, and handbags.

One of the biggest fashion trends this season is the return of the tuxedo. The tuxedo will be seen in a variety of styles, from full length to short. You’ll see it in a variety of materials, from wool to silk. The tuxedo will be worn with a shirt, a tie, and a bow tie. You’ll see it in a variety of colors, from black to white.

The tuxedo will be a popular choice for formal events like weddings and proms. You’ll also see it in casual settings like nightclubs and parties. Three years ago I traveled to Rome, but still the city has not left me. The atmosphere is so different from New York that I was not sure where I was at first. As I walked through the streets of Rome, I couldn't help but feel that this city was somehow connected to my own soul. There was a sense of history and culture that I had never experienced before. It was as if I had stepped back in time and entered a different world.

We walked through the ancient streets, admiring the beauty of the architecture and the art that adorned the walls. The narrow alleys were bustling with people going about their daily lives, while the grand palaces towered above them. Everywhere we turned, we were greeted with a warm smile and a friendly hello.

As we continued our walk, we passed by a small shop selling handcrafted jewelry. The owner showed us some of his latest creations, which were made with great care and attention to detail. He explained to us that each piece was unique and had its own story to tell. We were fascinated by the craftsmanship and the artistry that went into each piece.

Our journey took us to the脚donut Museum, where we learned about the history of the famous dessert. We watched as skilled bakers prepared the dough and added the delicious fillings. The aroma of freshly baked pastries filled the air, making our mouths water.

We ended our day by enjoying a delicious pasta dinner at a local restaurant. The food was delicious, and the atmosphere was warm and inviting. As we sat there, sipping on our wine and chatting with the other diners, we couldn't help but feel that we had found a new home away from home.

I know that I will never forget this trip to Rome. It will always hold a special place in my heart, and I look forward to returning one day to explore more of this incredible city.

My Favorite Year bears an uncanny and infinitely reassuring resemblance to 1954, the halcyon days of television, when Broadway queens were still in vogue. Berylynn Creene vied every bit as hard, and a boy from Brooklyn who changed his name from Steinberg to Stone could rival today's art-deco walk of the RCA building as getter on a top comedy show without being singly vulgar or2nd — of which Berylynn Stone made much, anyway.

It is Beryl's own story, told with the aid of a slightly schematic standing comic named Mel Brooks (as a bit Casar

Dining Out

Galleon Friendly and Brassy

THE GALLEON
718 14th St., 431-2523
Chef John Robertson

by W.C. Beardsdell

Just west of Church and Market on 16th Street is the friendly, brassy bar/dinner house called the Galleon. The decor has many of the accommodations of an old sailing ship, large steaming wall, lanterns above the bar, low, wooden beamed ceilings that add to the intimacy of the place.

Dividing the rooms is a wooden partition with the dining area to the right. The dining area has red wall-to-wall carpeting; the walls are attractive wood paneling with many tasteful prints and photographs in beautiful, striking frames, individually lit.

When we inquired about this effective display, we were informed that the artworks were for sale; put up by Gary Freyman, Cleaning and Design 1221 Noe Street, 621-7199.

We were at complete ease as we were seated, already noting a string of plates with Bill Wallace 40th anniversary of a fun dinner. Bill is an old friend that John and I have been working with in the past, some with white linen, white dishes, fan-finished cupboard in wine glasses, and a vase of rose-colored chrysanthemums.

The wine list was limited and inappetizing. House wines are Paul Masson at $4.95 a carafe. Low price on the list was Zinfandel by Louis Martini at $8.95. There was also a chardonnay by Erold at $11.75.

We ordered Peter's Chardonnay at $8.75, because we just tasted Peter's very good Zinfandel. This chardonnay was just dry, a little fruit, very little nose and a distinct, bitter after-taste. Incidently, the wine was served in an attractive Mexican wine-cooler made of red pottery clay, which kept the bottle of wine cool throughout the dinner without any ice or water.

Dinner started with a familiar complaint: the French sourdough bread was served in a radar oven, which makes the crust soft and the interior tough. This was served with whipped butter. Not a plus.

But from then on we were pleased. Both soup and salad were served with dinner at The Galleon. The soup was golden onion. It was a good, clear stock soup, bright yellow in color, with the onions chopped and the interior texture tough. This was served with whipped butter. Not a plus.

After dinner coffee was a fair cold American style. Desserts were out of fine restaurants. We remember the ice cream and the quality could vary from night to night. We have many fine, very good to excellent, restaurants.

For the price of $9.95, the Galleon is another pleasant place to dine. Indeed, the Galleon is another pleasant place to dine.
