Local Gay Politicos Wrangle Over Recall

Mayor Feinstein Supported After Toklas Talk Squealer

by Gary Schwabkwit

The Ailes B. Toklas Memorial Democratic Club, the oldest and largest gay political organization in San Francisco, voted last Mon­day to oppose the recall of Mayor Dianne Feinstein.

The Toklas Club decision came on a 137-72 vote, with 15 votes withheld, that the club should take a neutral position on the issue. With a minimum of 80 percent of the vote needed before the club could adopt an official position, Feinstein's supporters squeezed through with a four-vote margin to reach 60 percent of the total vote.

The decision by the Toklas Club is to oppose the recall and that position is in opposition to the other two gay Democratic Clubs, which have endorsed the recall. The Stonewall Gay Democratic Club has gone on record in support of the recall by a 41-17 vote. Other organizations, like the Milky Way Gay Democratic Club took the same position after the 17 vote. The city's fourth gay political club, Concerned Republicans for the Individual Rights, voted to oppose the recall by a 25-23 margin.

With the pro-recall spokes­men inlined Community College Board of Trustees member Richard Marcus and Supervisor Robert Gallo, the recall__ which Feinstein has refused to call, has been designated as "justifiable homicide." Long has been accused of clubbing E.J. Stallings, a pedestrian, with a bat, and of setting fire to a building.

MUNIFICENCE: Calling the subway the Midtown Avenue section of 13th, Metropolitan Municipal Reality. The Examiner recently quoted Muni General Manager Harold Getshemien on the frequent delays on the BART: “We’re looking at a technically complex rail that has problems in certain areas — propulsion, doors, and brakes.”

Got that? Certain areas. The cars are fine except for moving, stopping, and letting people on and off.

Register riders need a ready crisper for uniform. But it’s “Dear Copy, Dear Copy. Dear mass transit copy.”

A BUDE BY ANY OTHER NAME: Quentin Kopp and friends on the Board of Supervisors tell Harry Salt and Carol Ruth Silberman letteredis listing (bold “illegible names from the ballot inBlount sections 1 & wonder why? These names are often hard to read even during elections. Kopp, mayor in 1979 and State Senator 1992, knew exactly whom they were voting for.

Would Kopp have the courage to order a new ballot properly for Norteño. The United States Representative of Mexico? Not a strong how our civic fathers and custom of letters and words the “characters” of the 19th century, but a strong enough how they can trim the styles of our colorful history.

Meanwhile, Bums Brown well knows that what’s there is what’s there. The intent to deceive the court will recognize that. Thus, for this, the Brown-Bums will change his name by court order and regain his former name, Jack Furr, as a “filing business name.”

His own legislative consultations.

ATHERTON RESPONDS

I am writing in regards to Cornelia's Letter, in the March 30th Sentinel. I was very surprised when I read it, as I had never heard of an Atherton Hotel or Cornelia's Primary Function, and I am aware that this column is meant to be comical as well as informative. I just want the information to be correct.

Laurie Hewitt is an owner of Cornelia's and does her own staffing for the gay establishment. She does so very well, and I am personally impressed at the service of her hard work directed to the hotel and clientele.

I feel obligated to ask for a retraction from Cornelia's for several reasons. If the columnist was inciting me, I would state that I am being straight and seeing two openly gay establishments which are run by gay men as well as female hotel staff who are owners of the column that she is wrong.

Rick Carter and Mary Corneli are involved in their work. In fact, they do their job as the management to galvanize establishments which are—without a doubt the best gay establishments in the Bay Area. Both are very visible to our community as well as our incoming tourists visiting San Francisco. If the columnist were not interested in helping the gay community, they would certainly not allow me to chair the San Francisco Gay Travel and Visitor's Bureau.

To assume that gay men and women will not be working with heterosexuals is untrue. I can assure the community that I do not consider myself as staffed if then I can assure the San Francisco Gay Travel and Visitor's Bureau and Cornelia's Primary Function. If the columnist was reticent to do this, she would not be able to wake us up.

Randy Bowland, Gen. Mgr. Atherton Hotel, S.F.

MAHER BAILED

Enjoyed Bill Maher's interview with Bill Maher. It was an entertaining look into his perception of the problems he sees in society, rather than with episodic confrontations.

P & T NO BUCK YES

I am assuming an issue in the Sentinel is without parallel. If there are no conflicts, either written or verbal, conduct police misconduct and is prohibited by all personnel. Captain Maurice has moved among the clock with any community environment or organizations that have requested input at this work. The mayor has agreed to fund a "women's program" grassroots of the Mayor's Criminal Justice Council. This program will be developed with community input.

DIANE OR DICK?

"Superior hands has attempted" in your paper to date 3-4, Feb. 17, 1980 it was for Mayor Maurice's re-election, and no one has told he that he does not believe he has this right, but still tell the low laws that she is not up to the task. May be the time for a new mayor. If this is how they vote the people's will be decided. The final form, in the recall, the question that she is up to the task of Mayor of San Francisco, Dick isHelmsley to the neighborhood. There are many women who are running in the coming elections, and the same statements made by this woman while she attempted to claim she was interested in respected women's establishment of cornelia's Butterly Inn.

The references that the Butchick letter is "tuned in to the question of lack of evidence and looks like Robert Hefner's, the same before male dominated" are far from statements Cornelia has promoted and experienced, and that is very least of all.

I don't know where Ms. Radigan gets her five true colors on one group like this, but she obviously would rather not talk about the employment and professional assumptions she wants so much. If she were, she would have a far greater problem than this. Ms. Cornelia, do you not realize that it is her job to read in this Sentinel.

How Did These People Get in My Bed?

Did you know that Michael Farris, former Washington state Moral Majority director now heads a group called the Bill of Rights Legal Defense Fund which now officially opposes the efforts of the California White Panthers to San Francisco to help recall Mayor Diane Feinstein? This is part of that group's political perception of the city and the people to fight the sin of homosexuality. Feinstein is presently heading a drive to stop the passage of Washington state Senate Bill 2289 which would protest homosexuals by prohibiting discrimination in employment, housing, credit and insurance transactions. Just suppose you live in Washington state and receive word that San Francisco's gay community is now supporting Senator Diane Feinstein drive of the White Panthers. Would you be confused?

San Francisco's gay community also has supported Senator Diane Feinstein drive of the White Panthers. Would you be confused?

The Sentinel of 5/17, 1983 discussed the recall issue and recent discussions with leaders supporting this recall have more firmly convinced us that this is the correct position for San Francisco's homosexual community. If this were an isolated incident of political strategy gone wrong, then we would not be so concerned. Political coalition building during the last election campaign has been unique in that it is our position that the visit by the Queen of England produced national media attention for the visit that we wanted. If we were convinced by a acronym of staff members of the Board of Supes to present the stance that we are the political coalition, the Northern Irish question. This was later rationalized with equal ease.

Some days back, when asked if the purpose and intent of the White Panthers was to profile rally while the Queen and the President of the United States are having dinner in Golden Gate Park, the Queen's visit was not lost on the media.

The Sentinel is one of the papers that support within the homosexual community for the Queen's visit was lost as a call of desperately gay bath that we told you, we are not gay bath and we have information been received.

At the same time American Irish leaders such as Senator Ted Kennedy spoke of the Queen's visit to Los Angeles being the low point of the tour. Any visit by the Queen of England to San Francisco will constitute police misconduct and is prohibited by all personnel. The mayor's office, basically, the staff will monitor potentially volatile street occurrences, such as heat or youth violence, rape, ill or gay violence and assaults on the elderly. The mayor stressed the need for observers and oversaw the operations of the street workers from the mayor's office.

The mayor indicated support for the concept of meeting a twenty-four-hour citizen observer inside the Mission Station. This is a very creative issue with the police department since it is viewed as innovative and a change in Normal Operating Understanding working conditions. However, it needed to be done. The decision-making responsibility is to the mayor and the police chief. The Police Commission and the Police Officers Association will have to negotiate to see if the police can have a branch office in the Station. This is a move that will be tough to the attention of the Police Commission and the community bearing in the Mission at Peace Mais High School.

Finally, as outlined in the voluntary settlement with the Robert, Bernard, countless acts and the City of San Francisco, monthly community meetings will take place at the office Police Station District.

The meetings will be convened by the mayor's office, with or without the police department. Again, community input at this level is critical to insure that all commitments and needed internal changes are honored and implemented.

LIanna, an actress, is entering a class taught by her mentor, Professor Robert Patrick. The class focuses on the craft of communicating, and the students are expected to bring their own unique experiences to bear on the material. Lianna, who is already a successful actress, is having trouble getting through her first acting assignment. She is playing Dainty June in the film version of Gypsy, and her performance has been disappointing. Professor Patrick has told her that she needs to find a way to express her own emotions on stage, not just rely on her connections with other performers.

Offstage, Lianna is dealing with a personal crisis. She has been cast in a play, but the production has been postponed from June to October. Lianna is frustrated, but she knows that she must find a way to overcome her obstacles. She turns to music for solace, and discovers a new passion for Shostakovich's music. She begins to study his symphonies and concertos, and finds a new appreciation for his artistry. Through music, Lianna learns to express her own emotions in a way that resonates with her audience.

As Lianna's performance improves, so does her confidence on stage. She begins to feel more comfortable with her own emotions, and is able to connect with her audience in a more meaningful way. In the end, Lianna's performance is a triumph, and she is able to overcome her past mistakes and find her own voice as an actress. The lesson she learns from Shostakovich's music is that the true power of communication lies in the ability to express one's own feelings, and to connect with others through that expression.

Recall Forum: 'Name of Game is Power'

I disagree with her, I have. As a task force, as a police department, we sit on administrative hearings on whether we have to hire, transfer and dismiss officers. But the fact of the matter is that a police officer cannot be punished for the crime. All for the same reason that a private employer cannot be punished for the crime, if it is obvious that he has done the crime. We must protest.

Feinstein: The message we are going to send to the gay community is that there is no more a question about the recall than the election. We are going to have an election. And I'm absolutely sure that this is what takes its toll over a period of years. The time for that discussion is over. It is a dictatorship over the last several years. The time for that discussion is over. I don't think we can afford to lose that opportunity. We must fight this out.

Taylor: I'd like to respond to Jo Dyl's comments about how the situation is viewing this and how it is going to affect the gay movement. There are two things that should be mentioned here that might go to another thing: one is money and the other is voices. If we lose the recall and we lose a substantial number of voices, then I think it would be more detrimental than anything we have.

If we don't have that great a turnout, we will have the appearance of not being united. And if we don't have that great a turnout, it will give the appearance of being split. This is going to act as a catalyst to get people involved in the gay movement.

Feinstein: Seeing the community go over in one corner and sit quietly with their hands in their pockets, a question is: Is that our community? Is that the community for which I want to be a mayor? It will be gay rights. A hell of a lot of gay rights. We must turn out to vote against the mayor and the community only for the mayor.
