Lynn Griffis, an assistant pastor at San Francisco’s Metropolitan Community Church, was hit by a shovel last Wednesday, July 12, by a person who broke into her garage and defaced her walls by spray-painting “Die With Your Fags.” Griffis received eight stitches at University of California Medical Center, and was released after a few hours.

Griffis entered her garage after hearing a crash of glass and was struck on the head with a shovel before she could see her assailant.

“I’m not turning back. I’m remaining in this position (as assistant pastor and AIDS Ministry Chaplain) stronger than ever,” said Griffis regarding the attack.

“I believe this was partly due to (my work with) AIDS because of what was written on the wall in my garage.” Griffis attributed the attack to an increase in homophobia and AIDS-phobia, as well as her affiliation with the MCC and the recent controversy surrounding the Domestic Partnership bill.

CRAIG APPOINTED TO POLICE COMMISSION BY Tim Samuels

Mayor Art Agnos has chosen former Sheriff's Office (SOMA) tenant, Gene Craig, to serve on the San Francisco Police Commission. Craig replaces outgoing Commissioner George Samuels and enters the post amid mixed sentiments in the gay, lesbian, and black communities.

As a tenant of the Mayor's, Craig's appointment is seen as a significant step toward broadening the Police Commission with the welcoming support for the civil review process.

"Gene Craig went out of his way to make sure that the new commissioner could not be reached for comment," Mayor Agnos said.

FRONT NEWS

What do you do if you're Sonoma County's dependent upon Medi-Cal system, and you can't afford the dentist's fees? Do you take your Medi-Cal stickers and pay a visit to your local dentist? No, not unless your dentist is one of the sixteen of 250 surveyed that is willing to accept Medi-Cal patients. And even those dentists usually treat Medi-Cal recipients on a limited basis, often returning them to a specific date and month. If you're HIV+ and dependent upon the Medi-Cal system, your choices of receiving dental care are even more limited, as those dentists in Sonoma County are also unwilling to treat people with HIV.

Surburban Closet Case

This letter is in response to an article that appeared in your July 13 issue. I think that you handled this article very well and did not take sides in the controversy that has arisen.

I am a reader of your publication and have been for several months, but it wasn't until now that I felt compelled to write. I have always enjoyed your editorial that ran in your July 13 issue. In that article you stated subur­brainless fags that you are not like us. This was a very offensive statement and I cannot believe that you would make such a statement.

Editorial

Hurray for Hennessey

It is rare to see a public official with courage, integrity and conviction. Rare still a man who is willing to stand up for what he believes in even when it is not the popular thing to do. Even when he job, reputation and life have been on the line. Even when the whole world is against him.

This is the story of Michael Hennessey, the progressive, incorruptible Sheriff of San Francisco. Michael Hennessey is a man who has been a reformer for several years, but it wasn’t until now that he was able to stand up to the opposition.

Recent events have shown that Hennessey is a man of principle and integrity. He has stood up to the pressure of the political establishment and has not been swayed by the threats and pressures that have been put on him.

I applaud Michael Hennessey for his courage and integrity. He is a man who is willing to stand up for what he believes in even when it is not the popular thing to do. He is a man who has been a reformer for several years, but it was only now that he was able to stand up to the opposition.

I urge everyone to support Michael Hennessey in his campaigns. He is a man of principle and integrity and he should be supported.

Sam: “I am coming to San Francisco. That would be the greatest.”

Richard: “I have a place for you to come together. Get off the segregation. I think an environment that is welcoming is necessary. A place for some­one to go in a time of need and find some­one to talk to, like a gay bar or a place to sit down and talk to people who are similar to you.”

“An atmosphere where people would be happy, many people you know.”

Richard: “A place where people would be happy, a place that is open to everyone.”

“Let me find out more about that. We can discuss this further.”

The Leatherfist Fairy

Dear Reader:

I’m writing to complain about Joseph’s Leatherfist Fairy column that appeared in your July 13 issue. It was offensive and disrespectful to gay men.

The column was filled with stereotypes and misinformation about gay men. Gay men are not all like the stereotypes that were portrayed in the column. Gay men are diverse and have a wide range of experiences.

I urge everyone to support Michael Hennessey in his campaigns. He is a man of principle and integrity and he should be supported.

HENDRICKS BEGINS JAIL CONDOM GIVEAWAY

"Congratulations," I said to Sheriff Michael Hendricks as I entered his office.

"Thanks," he said handed me one MCC condom package. Sheriff Hendricks announced his intention to provide condoms to inmates in San Francisco County jail. The program is part of a comprehensive AIDS education campaign. Sheriff Hendricks said that inmates will be educated about AIDS through education and counseling services. The program aims to reduce the spread of HIV and AIDS among inmates.

"This is a form of in-prison education that will help reduce the spread of HIV and AIDS in the community," Hendricks said. "Inmates need to understand the importance of safe sex practices."}

MINISTER OF FAITH AND REDEMPTION

"This happens in all of us... every day," he continued.

"It's a common experience... being tempted..." "We all have our own temptations... like drinking alcohol..." "But we must resist..." "We must learn to control our desires..."

The minister went on to explain the importance of self-control and the role of faith in overcoming temptation.

"We must rely on our faith... to help us overcome our weaknesses..."

The minister emphasized the power of faith in helping individuals overcome their temptations and lead a virtuous life.

"We must trust in God... to help us in times of weakness..."

The minister concluded by encouraging the audience to trust in God and to seek guidance from their faith.

FORMER MEDIA STAR TURNS TO LESBIAN NIGHTCLUB PROMOTION

By Penny Anderson

Kim Shepherd, a former media star, is now entering the world of promotion for a new type of nightclub. "I wanted to do something different," she said. "Something that would appeal to the LGBTQ+ community." Shepherd has a background in television and radio, having worked for several years as a host and producer. She has always been drawn to the nightlife scene, and she's excited to bring her experience to a new venue.

Shepherd's new club, "The Oasis," will be located in the heart of the city and offer a unique experience for patrons. "We want to create a space where people can come together and feel welcome," she said. "We want to celebrate diversity and inclusivity." The club will feature live music, DJs, and a variety of entertainment options, all aimed at creating a fun and engaging atmosphere.

Shepherd has been working with a team of designers to create a space that is both modern and welcoming. "We want to make sure that everyone feels comfortable and can enjoy themselves," she said. "We're working with local artists and designers to create a unique and visually appealing space." The club will also feature a bar and restaurant, offering patrons a full-service dining and beverage experience.

Shepherd is excited about the potential of the new venture. "I've always loved nightlife," she said. "I think this is a great opportunity to bring something new to the community." She is looking forward to opening the club and welcoming patrons to experience the fun and excitement that "The Oasis" has to offer.

City Attorney Louise Renne

AFFABLE WOMAN IN THE MIDST OF CONTROVERSY

by Michael Cron

San Francisco is a city blessed with an abundance of bright, well-liked, influential women politicians. Nancy Pelosi and Dianne Feinstein are only two of them. Among them, one woman stands out: Louise Renne, San Francisco's City Attorney.

Renee, a former city councilmember and former head of the Public Defender's office, became City Attorney in 1995. She is known for her work on a variety of issues, including the city's response to the AIDS epidemic, homelessness, and budget management.

In recent months, Renne has faced controversy over her handling of the city's budget, particularly in relation to child care funding. "There has been a lot of pressure on me to do more with less," she said. "The city is facing tough budgetary decisions, and I want to make sure that we are using our resources effectively."

Despite the challenges, Renne remains committed to her work. "I am proud of the work that we have done," she said. "We have made significant strides in improving the city's budget, and I look forward to continuing to work towards a more sustainable future for San Francisco."
Montreal Conference Part III

Worldwide AIDS Response Dismal

by Rodger Pettyjohn, RN

This is the final installment of a three-part series which summaries highlights of the 13th Conference of the AIDS epidemic which was held in the summer in Montreal, Canada from June 4-9, 1989. This article will focus on Political, Economic, and International aspects of the conference. Much of the information was gained through speeches made by world leaders at the daily plenary sessions and through personal interviews with health professionals and international activists. Copies of this column can be obtained from colleagues who attended the conference and through reference libraries at major AIDS organizations.

Conferences such as these are often expected to be the public niche to be major sources of new information. This may be true for those in ordinary areas and for those who have only an occasional interest in the subject. However, the primary importance of such conferences for those interested in the field is the sense of unity and personal recognition which is found when people involved in a single struggle meet from all over the world.

One of the most striking illustrations at the Montreal conference was the feeling of unity and the atmosphere of optimism which was present, at least to this observer, at the conference. This situation is far better than it is in any other area of the world. Much has been made about more humane public health care systems such as Canada's experimental funding system, and there were few instances of dismals and despair at work. Industrialized nations involved in the work tended to be people who understood the seriousness of the problem, and in the case of Canada, the work tended to be individual physicians who, in their own capacity, attacked the problem. A couple of the small nations, only in a few cases, were people who were not for the first time showing the benefits of their work.

Joffrey's Tribute to Nijinsky by Bill Hub

In Joffrey Ballet's Tribute to Nijinsky, the single most programmatic work in the company's repertoire, is the commemoration of Robert Joffrey's antiques update. The success of this program partly is due to its musical integrity, the dedication of Joffrey's former dancers, the musical traditions of Stephen Speight and Le Sage de Peur. The program's selection of music, coupled with Robert Joffrey's choreography, has been haunting, emotional, and visually striking. Nijinsky's story has never been more relevant than today. ARIES (Mar. 21 - Apr. 20) Now the Moon is in the ascendant of the chart, and the Sun is in the 11th house. This whole week, Aries need all the luck they can get. Don't start anything new now. Just pick out one of the old routines that you know will be successful. It's time to take a stand, or go in for a new "strategy." But you know you can't be successful if you aren't being successful yourself.

CANCER (Jun. 21 - Jul. 22) Remember, Cancer, the Sun is in the 1st house this week. You have the potential to do well in whatever venture you start now. If you do, go for it, and forget all the rest. Whether it's on the job or in your personal life, now is your chance to show others how good you really are.

LEO (Jul. 23 - Aug. 22) You're in a lucky streak, Leo. Your Sun is in the 7th house, and you'll have the opportunity to do well in whatever venture you start now. Whether it's on the job or in your personal life, now is your chance to show others how good you really are.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sep. 22) Even through the week ahead, Virgo, you have the opportunity to do well in whatever venture you start now. Whether it's on the job or in your personal life, now is your chance to show others how good you really are.

LIBRA (Sep. 23 - Oct. 22) Libra, your Sun is in the 8th house this week, and you have the opportunity to do well in whatever venture you start now. Whether it's on the job or in your personal life, now is your chance to show others how good you really are.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21) Scorpio, your Sun is in the 9th house this week, and you have the opportunity to do well in whatever venture you start now. Whether it's on the job or in your personal life, now is your chance to show others how good you really are.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21) Sagittarius, your Sun is in the 10th house this week, and you have the opportunity to do well in whatever venture you start now. Whether it's on the job or in your personal life, now is your chance to show others how good you really are.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19) Capricorn, your Sun is in the 11th house this week, and you have the opportunity to do well in whatever venture you start now. Whether it's on the job or in your personal life, now is your chance to show others how good you really are.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18) Aquarius, your Sun is in the 12th house this week, and you have the opportunity to do well in whatever venture you start now. Whether it's on the job or in your personal life, now is your chance to show others how good you really are.

Michael Martin Murphey has bordered on the official state ballad. This album, "Geronimo's Cadillac," is a rockabilly, "solo," and has never sounded more at home, and as a matter of pure economics, his record is sold in a horse show. Fortunately, this is the case, there is nothing ugly or compromising about this album.

"Geronimo's Cadillac" is the purest Western form. The storytelling has never been as tight as in the country of ours as well. This album is a perfect example of this. Murphey's signature laid-back style, yet the overworked "Route 66" is given a new lease on life. Another self-penned tune, is a rockabilly single "Never Givin' Up On Love," as far as I'm concerned is the current hit. This one tune alone is enough for the rest of the year. This latest work, undoubtedly his most exact to date, leaves little to question why.

Unique about "Geronimo's Cadillac" is the fact that it has found a very loyal following of readers and there's some good shows coming up. One reader in particular has just moved to the Bay Area and is ecstatic to find rock 'n' roll greats all over. He also told us he would soon be up to speed enough to be called "wild cow." Well, I thought it was cute. Upward and onward.

Michael Martin Murphey

While "Land Of Enchantment" is the usual "Georgie Girl," theStatements about the pages of someone and yourself in a band and make up a press kit, especially when your press kit doesn't even exist, especially when your name is not on all those corners. Fortunately, the album's really good, so it won't have to turn them for using your name and keeping a live band.

My Horse, Piano, Museum, Silverware/RCA, "It's all thing is recorded regardless of sex, and make it a press kit, printing your name liberally about the pages in bold type. It's quite another thing to use your name significantly liberally about the pages of someone else's press kit. They talk about pure emotion and "chillindly". They walk all the way to Wallace in M dairy, Mountain, in those loose pipes even. "Anticipation is important, especially for those in San Francisco."

The reason I keep going back to the Russian River is what you might call the Russian River has a character of its own. I don't go for a vacation, I go for a weekend, I go for a week. I go for a day. I go for a night. I go for a whole life. And the reason I keep coming back is because it's my own little slice of heaven. It's where I can escape from the hustle and bustle of city life, where I can relax and enjoy nature. I love the way the river flows along the river road from life's and is within walking distance of the River. You can't help but notice the woodsy charm of the place. The Russian River flows quietly now past the sleepy bodies dancing to the beat.

say he saw between 50 and 300 people a day who wak up with questions about AIDS.

"There are people who sometimes walk by and say, 'I've been trying to get this AIDS news and I've heard that you have it.' You Examples, this is how you know you are the city.' We've got a place for the next person who passes by, mostly from the crazy people,'" said Hunt. The AIDSARC Vigil has no place of seeing to tons — there was an up, it was peaked up behind the AIDSARC information table — despite the recent Mayor Agnos proclamation stating that all tents would be removed from the Civic Center.

"The mayor did not want to dismantled the AIDSARC Vigil. Walter Knapper is a leader in a building close to the Civic Center said a concrete plan and the police asked on the door, and we got the mayor's behalf," said Hunt.

A committee of homeless people and advocates met with Clay Hall officials to get a place to a sidewalk solution to the homeless problem. Civic Center. Several propositions have been submitted to the mayor, with others that the Army and other county-owned properties may open doors to local homeless people.

Bay Area's Medically Indigent

"STEAL 'EM FOR ST. MARY'S!"

The San Francisco AIDS Clotlryan Savings, KPIX TV-Channel 5, and KGO Radio team up on this season's "Stolen 'Em for St. Mary's!" raising money for the Bay Area's medically indigent including many AIDS patients in cooperation with St. Mary's Hospital and Medical Center in San Francisco.

The fundraiser began July 12 with a corporate kick-off breakfast at the St. Francis Yacht Club, and will run through the entire 1989 NFL season. The projects will run both on locally and nationally. The projects will run from now through the end of the season.
