GOVERNOR: SETS PRECEDENT AGAIN

SCOTT: THE 10% SOUTION

LOU RUDOLPH ILLUSTRATIVE JOURNALIST

Reports from Sacramento

By SENATOR MILTON MARKS

It seems like the real battle in Proposition 13 is about to begin.
They have been talking it up in Sacramento for weeks, but the battle took its real turn on the floor of the legislature when the state senators voted 34 to 0 on Monday to pass the measure. Proposition 13, as it stands now, would affect 80 percent of the state's property taxes.

The vote was the first in a series of battles to come in Sacramento. The measure, which is expected to pass the assembly, is likely to be challenged in court.

Proposition 13, which was passed by the state citizens in November, would cap property taxes at 5 percent of the assessed value of the property. The cap would be adjusted for inflation, but not for improvements to the property.

The measure was supported by a majority of California voters, but it has been controversial since it was first proposed in the 1970s.

Opponents of Proposition 13 argue that it would lead to a significant decrease in funding for public schools and other state services.

Supporters say that the measure would reduce property taxes and give homeowners more control over their property.

Proposition 13 has been defended as a way for states to reduce property taxes and increase the state's economy.

But Proposition 13 has also been criticized for its impact on property values and the cost of housing.

The measure has been seen as both a test of California's commitment to property rights and a challenge to the state's ability to provide adequate funding for public services.

In September, the state court denied a request by groups opposing Proposition 13 to stop the measure from going into effect.

But the battle is far from over. Proposition 13 is expected to be challenged in court and could be disqualified by a lawsuit.

Senator Milton Marks was one of the first to express concern about the measure and its potential impact on property values.

"I think Proposition 13 is a terrible idea," Marks said.
"It will have a negative impact on property values and the state's economy."

“An Evening With Our Friends” at 330 Grove St., November 5, 1979

Produced by: Sandra Coons, Stage Mgr. Gary Welsh

Sharon McNight delivered a hilarious performance at 330 Grove St., on November 5, 1979, as the MC of “An Evening With Our Friends,” a Pride Foundation benefit. McNight is a giant talent and she demonstrated her powerful voice time and again during the two-hour, no-intermission extravaganza. McNight, who cultivated a sophisticated image when she exploded on stage with a 12-minute “Wicked Witch of the West” presentation that had been slowly building throughout the evening. Her rendition of “Think I’m Kidding?” was a playful takeoff and her portrayal of “The Wizard of Oz” was simply incredible. McNight’s audience was on its feet once she began her performance and they were not disappointed with her talent. McNight’s voice was clear and powerful, and her performance was captivating. The audience was mesmerized by her talent and her humor. McNight’s performance was a huge hit and it was clear that she was the star of the evening.

The set was simple, but “humanly” designed by John Serrian and Guy Bishop. Mov’s applause goes to McNight for being the great talent she is, to Shannon Steele who did a fantastic job of directing, and to Bubba who did an excellent job of lighting.

DAVID SCOTT THE KING MAKER BALANCE OF POWER

For some reason it seems to be a surprise to the straight reality that David Scott, an open homosexual, won more than 10% of the vote in his bid to become San Francisco’s Mayor. The election of November 6, 1979 has taught the city an important lesson: that many gay people voted for both Feinstein and Kopp.

Chronicle’s story suggests that the outcome was not entirely predictable. Kevin Wartshorpe points out that in 1978 Dianne Feinstein, the Mayor, was re-elected, Howard Waller has it that her followers are the only City Scott among the gay candidates has that looks like something that makes a difference. He has attained stature in his that their votes bring to bear if Scott wins.

Scott may have his options open. He will discuss his position with both candidates and he will withdraw his backing between now and the December 3rd election. His strong showing and the fact that he is the only openly gay man in the field for the best for the City and the gay community.

A few weeks before the Scott campaign began, the Chronicle ran an editorial about the way the gay community should be treated. The Chronicle stated that the gay community should be given serious consideration. They also stated that they were not sure if Scott could win.

Chronicle’s story is that Scott spent his money and time to prove a point to the city. They believe that the gay community is too important to not be given serious consideration.

Politicians and political observers across the country will be watching the Santa Clara County Referendum as a test of strength between the New Right and the Gay Liberation Movement. Additionally, they will be watching to see if recent Gay victories in Seattle and California are a indication of the trend in other parts of the country.

A successful referendum effort on the part of the anti-Gays will encourage similar efforts elsewhere, in particular the Los Angeles ordinance might become vulnerable.

Next comes soup, my own recipe, and a marvelous Greek Salad, from the Junior League of Tampa's Gasparilla Cookbook.

Soup That Is Unique

In a large sauce pan, melt 4 tablespoons of butter with 1 tablespoon of Chervil, 1 tablespoon of salt and 1/2 teaspoon of pepper. Add 1 cup of chopped pimentos with their liquid, 1/2 cup of chopped green pepper, and 2 cups of chopped leeks, white part only. Saute until leeks are limp and translucent, about 6 minutes. Add 2/3 pound of sorrel (Cal-Mar usually has it) stems finely chopped with 2 cups of cream whipped. Place in any freezer container. Reheat and ladle into heated bowls.

A Very Different Fish Dish

The first course will be PERUVIAN SEVICHE, a dish I was introduced to in Peru. It is a mix of raw fish and onion, ginger, and lime juice, with a hint of sweetness. This refreshing drink makes your guests happy and hungry without turning them into stone images as the gin and vodka mixtures tend to do.

Well, it looks like we go to the poles again. Dec. 11th. Now is the time to make sure over the people running for office and be sure you know who you are voting for. Everyone wants our vote but who has earned it? The new gay hotel has opened in our town. The Gough Hotel which is located at 417 Gough St. just helped the Opus House. The bar is Victorian and has been converted into a restaurant with a wet bar, sitting and "Dндекс house", which is a staircase just off the lobby. Their menu start at $19.00 which is not bad nowadays. I went there to look. Another very nice hotel is the central area of downtown. It has all new and has a lounge on each floor and they serve a continental breakfast. The rates start about $17.50 per night and they are just off of Market. The Empress Hotel will certainly constitute an improvement in the central area. The price is $2.00.

The movie is the one where you miss it. Send in the Clowns is a big Xmas party Dec. 1st at Season's Hall. They will need everything, for film, toys, toys to sortout. Let's give them our support.

There are many homosexuals that are trying to inform the gay community at large so that there is a campaign in Santa Clara County. Additionally, we hope to develop support from San Francisco and the San Francisco Gay community. The goal is to make sure that there is a campaign ahead.

S.F. If you need some temp help you could go to the Community Center at 330 Grove St. This is done by Tamie and friends and I'm sure they could use some help from the gay community. San Francisco is missing the gay citizens that have been stricken, robbed or whatever. The firstfunction will be a Spaghetti dinner at the 227 Club on Sunday Nov. 25th from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. The theme is "Black Beauty" and the price is $2.00.

A Taste of Leather will host an exhibit of paintings, drawings & constructions done by Tommy. The exhibit will run this Xenex. Tamie Guild will host Nov. 21st meet to discuss leather. The Empress Race will soon be under way as well as the Mr. & Miss Gay S.F. contest. True friends by Steven Rosenthal. Fins has left town with lots of change hands sometime in Dec. Santa Clara County Gay Needs San Francisco Support

I am writing you concerning the following situations in Santa Clara County.

We expect a long tough election campaign ahead. I hope that you can help us in the months to come. We at the present time are trying to inform the San Francisco Gay community about the election. Additionally, we hope to develop support from San Francisco homosexuals for both funds and volunteers.

Once again I ask for your, and the Vanes support in the difficult campaign ahead.

Love

Is love between two men possible? The obvious answer is yes. This answer I believe, would go unchallenged by society in general. Love is the strong or ardent and impassioned affection between two gay men or priest/parishioner. or kinship (father/son or brother/brother) but a number of homosexuals don't wish to approach the situation in a bands of law, they would have separated each other up to their time of death. Yet I am also sure that without the bonds of love, they would have appeared at one of the many times that united their meeting. A homosexual couple would have simply gone their separate ways as individuals.

The compulsion of children, common property and joint ownership, all tend to bind the lasting relationships for homosexuals. All of these features are typically missing with us.

To many of us gays have not risen above society's contempt and results found among many gays, but rather a true love and respect for yourself. Without this, you cannot love another and this love is the foundation of any lasting relation. Such an affair being possible.

The question is: Is love between two men possible? Society has managed to inflict such an overwhelming burden of guilt on the homosexual, that frequently he often has been driven deeper into the shadows of illusion, that frequently he has been forced to gain happiness for himself out of the lies that he must tell.

Too many of us gays have not risen above society's contempt and results found among many gays, but rather a true love and respect for yourself. Without this, you cannot love another and this love is the foundation of any lasting relation. Such an affair being possible.

Still, let us consider this question: Is love between two men possible? The obvious answer is yes. This answer I believe would go unchallenged by society in general. Love is the strong or ardent and impassioned affection between two gay men or priest/parishioner. or kinship (father/son or brother/brother).

...moral! / arrest patrons of bars for possible violations of Sec. 647(a)," Coleman told THE Paramount Flag Co. there has been a flood of orders for Iranian flags, all from people who want to BURN them!

Because of the ramifications of an arrest, such as sex registration and professional isolation, we think that such a policy might promote both the spirit and the letter of the law," Coleman concluded. Coleman hopes that the follow-up meeting would develop plans for training sessions for the A.B.C. investigations and attorneys, and establish plans for making any gay citizen to be hearings released to the public so that the aims and goals of the new law would be fully implemented.

THEATRE REVIEW

THEATRE BIUNOCEROS

HAUNTED HOST, presented by Theatre Biunoceros in August, is Robert Patrick's first play. It was an event that was voted "The Best of the Fringe," and was recently performed at the San Francisco Film Festival. Between the lines of this new play, we can see some of the influences of the famous gay theatre company. The work is a series of characters and situations that are brought together to create a sense of community and belonging.

The characters in the play are people who are on the fringe of society, who are struggling with their own identities. The play is about the struggle to find a place in the world, and to find a way to express oneself.

The play is a powerful and moving exploration of the human condition, and is a testament to the power of theatre to bring people together. It is a play that is not to be missed.
